AT LAST!

A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system, mainly defined [illegible] weary minds, lagging memory and shivering of so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous prostration, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and loss energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and dangerous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I received to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

CARBON-IFEROUS PERIOD

Of the Town's Industrial Development.

Special Meeting of the Town Council—To Prepare a By-law for Popular Vote—The By-law to be Voted on Jan. 6th—To Grant a Bonus of $3500.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held last night to consider a by-law granting certain encouragement to the company [illegible] in establishing a factory for the manufacture of carbons for electric lights.

There were present, His Worship Mayor Stevenson, in the chair, Messrs. Cahill, Davidson, Wilson, Kelly, Hall (E. H. D.) Hall, (Adam,) Watson, Smith, Langford and Kendry.

After routine

Communication [illegible] from F. G. Hayward, applying for position of caretaker of [illegible]

From [illegible] Kent asking of injury sustained [illegible] removal of the planking from [illegible] of the C.P.R. track, on Bonaccord [illegible] through which his sleigh was broken and [illegible] damages to the extent of $18.00. Mr. Kent was heard in support of his claim, which was referred to the Town Solicitor with instructions to take such steps as the circumstances demanded.

SLAUGHTER HOUSE QUESTION.

From Thomas Howden, asking to be permitted to retain his slaughter house in the present position for two months, at the end of which time he would remove it.

Messrs. Dawson and Kelly spoke in favour of granting his request.

The Board of Health were, by resolution, requested to suspend action in reference to this slaughter house for two months.

CONTROLLING THE CAB DRIVERS.

A by-law was introduced to regulate the [illegible] of cab drivers and the passengers arriving on trains. The object of the by-law is to prevent the [illegible] touting [illegible] and generally to control the cabmen by [illegible] Licenses Committee.

THE PETERBORO HARDWOOD COMPANY.

A by-law was introduced to aid by way of bonus the Peterboro Manufacturing Company, which proposed to manufacture carbons for electric lamps. The council went into a committee of the whole on the second reading of the by-law, which duly passed its second reading, granting by way of bonus the sum of $6,000, conditional on the company [illegible] ten months during each year, for nine years; the company to repay $600 for each year in which the [illegible] made in the employment of 50 men; and in case of default in this respect for two years in succession, the total amount of security shall become payable. In case of the loss of the premises by fire or other cause, this provision not to apply to the company for the term of one year. The company to furnish satisfactory security for the due performance of its portion of the contract, and in case of insolvency, the full amount of security to become at once due. The vote of the qualified electors to be taken on the sixth day of January, 1890, (the same date of the municipal elections,) at the same polling places with additional deputy returning officers as follows:—

No. 1 Ward.—John Corkery.
No. 2 Ward.—Alex Graham.
No. 3 Ward.—James Mahood.
No. 4 Ward.—Frank Mason.

The amount of the debentures on which the $6,000 is to be borrowed, is 20 years, and the amount to be raised annually to cover interest and sinking fund is $350.

RAILWAY EXTENSION.

Mr. Carnie said the company, on the strength of the prospects of the by-law being passed, proposed going on actively with their preparations, and the council should use their efforts to secure the passage of the by-law.

Mr. John Braden said, on the strength of what was done to-night, the company were going on with preparations for getting ready for work. Some of the machinery was ordered, and other preparations being made.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall pointed out that Peterborough should be alive in the matter of railway extension. Lindsay and Trenton were cutting in with railway extensions on both sides of us. If these places could get bonuses, surely Peterborough could have as much influence and as good claims.

Mr. Cahill approved of Mr. Hall's remarks and urged that the most active efforts be put forth. A deputation should be sent to each of the two [illegible]

Mr. Hall (E. H. D.) [illegible] Mr. Cahill,—That a committee composed of Messrs. Cahill, Davidson, Hall (A.), Rutherford and Kendry be a committee to consider the subject of railway communication with the north.—Carried.

[illegible] Dominion Parliament, upon demand [illegible] have given [illegible] to withdraw [illegible] entirely [illegible] interior; hence the great and growing demand for Ayer's Pills. Physicians everywhere recommend them for costiveness, indigestion and liver complaints.

[illegible] One hundred years ago the [illegible] of Canadian art and literature a score of years ago, would not have been dreamed that the last issue of the Christmas Globe as an entirely Canadian product, would have been possible. Artistic illustrations, taking rank alongside the best efforts of continental poetry, work, and literature in its style it to be described as classic, are the features of this superb publication. It surpasses all the Globe's previous efforts, and is a credit both to that enterprising newspaper and the great Dominion in which it occupies their foremost journalistic place. A single description of the Christmas Globe would do the Canada upon—nothing but a visit of it can give any idea of its surpassing beauty and excellence. Call at the Peterborough Bookstore where it is on sale, and inspect it.

If you once try Carter's Little Liver Pills for sick headache, biliousness or constipation, you will never be without them. They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take. Don't forget this. dw

THE END IN VIEW.

The Cronin Trial Will Probably be Ken Week.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Mr. Forrest resumed his argument to the jury at the opening of the Cronin trial to-day. To show how easily one might be mistaken he cited the evidence of Patrick Loesch. Loesch was positive that the stains in the Carlson cottage were blood stains, yet the court corrected him by saying that it had the appearance of blood, for the actual question could not be decided without microscopic examination. Loesch was also positive that the stains on the cotton batting found in the basement were not blood stains, yet the reporter who put that cotton batting there testified that they were blood stains which he [illegible] put upon it by squeezing the [illegible] piece of liver. Mr. Forrest said [illegible] cotton batting was put in the cottage [illegible] purpose of furnishing the basis for a newspaper sensation, and the [illegible] the police and the paint stains [illegible] began. In fact, he said [illegible] covered on May 12, the police [illegible] found to be quite fresh. [illegible] ded to the expert [illegible] per of putting faith [illegible]

Mr. Forrest [illegible] exhaustive analysis [illegible] Morgan Mertes, Mrs. H[illegible] answer for the prosecution [illegible] manufactured. The [illegible] was that the Cronin [illegible] Chemical had been drilling [illegible] to give them money, and that all [illegible] since the [illegible] had been manufactured [illegible] spots in the cell of the [illegible] they were developed during the trial. [illegible] reviewed Kunze's [illegible] subsequent [illegible] murder and argued that they were only explained on the theory of innocence. He then took up the alibi, witnesses for O'Sullivan, Burke and Coughlin and asserted it was sufficiently strong to maintain the presumption of innocence in their favor. Mr. Forrest again went over the matter of the knives found in Coughlin's pocket and declared Conklin had committed perjury in swearing they belonged to Dr. Cronin.

The court then adjourned till to-morrow.

It is understood Mr. Forrest will complete his address to-morrow and the probabilities are that the court will then adjourn until Friday, as Thursday is election day. Mr. Mills will also make the closing address for the prosecution, has been quite ill and it is by no means altogether certain that he will be able to [illegible] his argument Friday, in that case a further adjournment may be necessary. Should he be able to proceed it is hoped the trial may be concluded this week.

Baby one Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched sufferer—no rest by day, no peace by night—doctors and all remedies failed—Tried Cuticura—Effect marvellous—Saved his life

Cured by Cuticura.

Our eldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who treated it for some time; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the child's person, from the middle of the back down to the knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and scaly sore. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally we were advised to try the Cuticura Remedies. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as clear and healthy as any child's. It has been [illegible] and the Cuticura Remedies saved a [illegible] and healthy child, and [illegible] repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs.

My boy, until nine years [illegible] troubled all his life with a very bad [illegible] which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry [illegible] on them. Last year he was worse than ever, [illegible] with scabs from the top of the head to the feet, and continually [illegible] matter. [illegible] he had been treated by two physicians, as a last resort, determined to try the Cuticura Remedies, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Under them [illegible] to discolor, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The Cuticura Remedies are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

GOLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH.

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, sudden moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head [illegible] to Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly [illegible] into Consumption and [illegible] to premature Death. If you are suffering from [illegible] the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as foul breath, [illegible] the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, [illegible] from the nostrils, [illegible] of smell, or taste becoming dull, headache, [illegible] general feeling of debility, [illegible] wheezing or cracking sound in your chest, [illegible] a feeling of dizziness, particularly [illegible] been stooping, a feeling of tiredness and inability to exertion, a feeling of nausea in [illegible] morning when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat. Mr. A. Your [illegible] is the best in the market and you can use this as testimony.

Allen H. Pahs, Turbot, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

Emilie Pelletier, Granville, says:—I can scarcely find words to tell you how highly I prize NASAL BALM. Its effects in my case have been wonderful.

Harriette Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for Catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has returned its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths from consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Throat, Allen's Lung Balsam is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced Cough Cure. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a sample bottle to [illegible]

A Happy Hymeneal Event in Smith—List of the Bride's Presents.

As unusually pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. Solomon Northey, Smith, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 4th, the occasion being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Grace, to Mr. Joseph Secore, of Bridgenorth. About fifty guests were present, all of whom were happy smiles, and merry laughter echoed through the house. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. Houck, of Bridgenorth. The bride and bridesmaids, Miss Laura Northey, sister of the bride, and Miss E. Combes, were handsomely attired. Mr. M. Secore and Mr. Jas. Northey accompanied the groom. The presents to the bride were costly and numerous. Following are some of the gifts, which proclaim the high esteem in which the bride is held by her friends and acquaintances:

A China tea set, by the bride's brothers and sisters. A lady's hunting case gold watch and chain by the groom. An elegant piano writing desk, by Mrs Robert Moore, Lakefield. A covered cheese dish by Mr and Mrs Felix Brownscombe, Peterborough. A gentleman's gold watch chain and pencil, by the bride. A ladies companion and silver butter knife, by Mr J Wadsworth, Manitoba. A pretty hand painted banner, by Master Willie Stubbs, Peterborough. A silver pickle cruet, by Miss E Combes, teacher. A parlor suite and carpet also a bedroom suite by the bride's father. A handsome parlor hanging lamp, by Mr and Mrs N Taylor, Bridgenorth. A pair of glass table bowls, by Master P Fliss-bowles, Smithdale. Mrs Thos Moore, Lakefield, A China breakfast cruet, by Mr and Mrs G Allen, Smith. A pair of vases, by Mrs W Robb, Peterborough. A silver pickle cruet by Mr M Secore brother of the groom. A toilet set, by Mrs E stubbs, Lakefield. A China egg-dish with cover, by Mr and Mrs R McWhinnie, Peterborough. A dozen of table napkins, by Miss K McIlmoyl, teacher. A silver dinner cruet, by Mr and Mrs Jas Stubbs, Peterborough. A Japanese vase, by Mrs Frais, Peterborough. A china cake stand, by Bertie and Edith Allen. A nicely framed oil painting on glass, by Miss Alma Brownscombe, Peterborough. Three Japanese vases, by Miss May Pethick, Smith. A gentlemen's plush drawing toilet case, by Mrs Robert Moore, Lakefield. A ladies companion, by Miss R Morrison, Bridgenorth. A hand painted cushion, by Willie Stubbs, Peterborough. A Japanese vase, by Mrs J Kemp, Auburn. A pair of fancy vinegar bottles for table, by Mrs Grace Allen. A handsome hand made photo case, carved by Mr M Secore with pen knife—a beautiful piece of workmanship; also a dinner bell. A [illegible] cruet by William Pethick. A table lamp with globe, by Mrs J Stewart, Lakefield. A very fine cruet, by the bride's [illegible].

A Good Landlord.

There are landlords and landlords in the old country, that is, the good and the bad. Doubtless the proverb, "like master like men," applies to landlords and is strongly exemplified in the following extract from the Essex (England) Telegraph. The landlord referred to by Mr Thomas H. Ambrose, formerly of Port Hope, and son-in-law of Mr. Claxton, town:—"The annual rent audit of the tenant farmers on the estate of Mr. Thomas H. Ambrose was held at the Swan Inn, Stanway, on Tuesday last, Oct. 29th, at which the tenants, with one or two exceptions, put in an appearance. A capital dinner was afterwards provided, to which ample justice was done. After the removal of the cloth, dessert was placed upon the table, which elicited great praise from all present for the manner in which everything had been served. The evening was spent in harmonious enjoyment, the health of the Squire being enthusiastically drunk. Mr. Lingwood, the agent, responding on the Squire's behalf, thanked the company for the manner in which they had drunk the toast, and said he was proud to see the kindly feeling existing between landlord and tenant in this case, feeling certain that no one could want a better landlord, and no landlord could want better tenants. He hoped things would prosper, and they would continue their kindly relations together for many years to come. A most enjoyable evening was spent, and the two hours extension obtained having expired, the company separated, each expressing the wish that recurrence would come oftener. The cottage tenants were called together the week previously, and enjoyed themselves in a similar manner."

WINTER NEWS.—Bobby Burnside one of his little pupils says:—"When chill November's surly blast made fields and forests bare." The past November has fulfilled and sustained the celebrated saying of old Scotia's noble poet, that is, in the stripping of foliage, but leaving a good covering of pure, drifting snow. The whole temperature of the month has been low, the highest being only 50° on the evening of the 21st, while the coldest was as follows:—On the morning of the 15th, dropping to only 6° above zero, and on the morning of the 30th again dropping to only 5°, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 35°, being low for November. Rain fell on 11 days to the depth of three inches, and 18-100 of an inch, the heaviest fall being on the 19th, when in 23 hours it fell 1 inch and 2-100; and altogether on the 18th and following days the downfall was 2 inches and 44-100 of an inch, being above the average for November. Snow fell on 6 days to the depth of 16 inches, the fiercest storm being on the 27th, falling 9 inches: but undoubtedly the last week of the month was the severest for frost, cold, snow and drifting we ever remember of experiencing in November. We had auroral light on the evenings of the 17th, for on the 18th and 20th, with distant thunder on the morning of the 19th. Following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month respectively, namely, south, 1 day; southwest, 7 days; west, 2 days; northwest 9 days; southeast, 7 days, and east 4 days.

SCROFULA

Humors, Erysipelas, Canker, and Catarrh, Can be cured by purifying the blood with

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Linden, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Mille Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

Mrs. Shirley was in Jail.

A Sunday or two ago a certain lady worker visited the jail to talk on spiritual matters with the prisoners. With unconscious irony he began by singing the hymn "It is Good to be Here," and began his remarks by saying he was "glad to see so many present." These well meant remarks were, of course, ill timed and non apropos. He would have spoken exactly to the point if he had said that hawley bros', kept the finest stock of teas and coffees in the district and at the lowest prices. Don't forget this fact when you want a tip-top cup of tea or coffee. d

A Former Resident Dies.

Mr. R. W. Muncaster this morning received the intelligence of the death in Belleville of his father, Mr. Chas. J. Muncaster. The deceased gentleman came from London, England, to Peterborough in 1862. While here he was engaged in business some three or four years, removing in 1874 to Belleville, where he has since resided. Mr. R. W. Muncaster went to Belleville at 1.30 to-day, to attend the funeral which takes place to-morrow.

Temperance News.

It has just been announced that the annual meeting of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance will be held at Toronto, commencing Wednesday, December 18th.

Among the many important questions to come up for discussion at this meeting there are two to which we call special attention. 1. The securing of immediate prohibitory legislation, as far as the same is within the competence of the Local Legislature. 2. Electoral action for the securing of legislature in favour of prohibition. The present plan of the Alliance is the organization of voters for the purpose of securing prohibitionist representatives in the Dominion Parliament and in our Local Legislature.

The Second on the List.

A large and well-pleased audience attended the second number of the George street church Sunday school course of entertainments Tuesday evening. The proceedings were of an informal character, no chairman being appointed. Mr. Dingle, organist, played an opening selection, after which the programme was composed of recitations by Miss Jessie Alexander and vocal solos by Miss Anna Howden. Both ladies are artistes of more than provincial reputation, and suffice it to say that they fully realized all expectations. The entertainment was a first-class one and thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience. Mr. Dingle played Miss Howden's accompaniments. The Sunday school carries by proving a most delightful series of literary and musical treats.

Mayor Gaslow Closed.

The friends of ex-Mayor Poplow, of Port Hope, now a resident of Peterborough, took advantage of the occasion of his acting as chairman of a meeting in the Methodist church of that town Monday evening to present him with a testimonial. In his report the Guide says:—"Mr. Hopkins then announced that Mayor Poplow, the former assistant superintendent of the Sunday School, had been invited to preside at this meeting, and he was happy to say, had consented and was present. Mr. Poplow then stepped on the platform, followed by Mr. Ben Dickson, who, in a neat, appropriate and informal address, presented the Mayor on behalf of the Sunday School, with a valuable gold-headed cane, beautifully engraved as follows:—"Presented to E. Poplow, Esq., by the Port Hope Methodist Sunday School, Dec. 9th, 1889." It was a complete surprise to Mr. Poplow, for he deserved the congregation that until Mr. Dickson came on to the platform, he was not aware of anything of the kind being contemplated, and was therefore so overcome by his feeling that he was unable to make any suitable reply, but said that this was the happiest event of his life. Not only would he value this beautiful gift as an expression of the good-will of the friends he was leaving behind him in Port Hope, but it would be valued by his family as well, and when he had ceased leaning on it, those following him would place an equally high value on it."

Never Borrows Trouble.

KIDD never troubles trouble till trouble troubles him. Why? Simply because his $3.80 coat was bought at 67c. on the dollar and is worth $1.50 more than the $3.80 coat we read so much about. Come and see KIDD at 372 George street. dw

The Funeral Yesterday.

Addresses Dwelling Upon the Character of the Late Rev. J. W. H. Beatt.

The following supplementary details will, no doubt, be interesting to our readers:—

There was a celebration of the Holy Communion at half past eight in the morning, at which the number of communicants was only surpassed by the number present last Easter. The service was peculiarly solemn. In the centre of the chancel, just the body of the late rector, and it was with feelings of intense awe that the people filed past it on their way to and from the altar. The celebrant was Rev. C. B. Kenrick, and he was assisted by Rev. J. C. Davidson. Two hymns were sung, "Let Saints on Earth in Concert Sing," and "Thine Where Work is Done," and "O God, Our Help in Ages Past." Rev. C. B. Kenrick sang at the altar. The Epistle was I Thess. iv, 13 to 18, and the Gospel St. John vi, 37 to 40. At the offertory the following sentence was said:—"The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die; and their departure is taken for misery, and their going from us to be utter destruction; but they are in peace."

In consonance with the spirit of these words the usual custom of draping the church with black was dropped, and, instead, the chancel was decorated with hangings of a beautiful subdued purple. The casket was covered with a purple and white pall obtained from Toronto for this purpose. The exquisite white roses within it were also sent from the same place.

The funeral service itself was at three. The crowd in the church was very great, blocking up the aisles and leaving scarcely room for the procession to pass in and out. At three o'clock the solemn strains of the organ were heard, and to its plaintive tones the long procession of choristers and clergy, the little boys coming first, and the Bishop of Toronto bringing up the rear, filed in and took their places in the chancel. It was a most impressive sight. The mass of white robed figures completely filling the chancel, in the centre of which was the silent form of the late Rector, the pall-bearers, selected from the neighbouring clergy, also wearing the vestments of their office, and the immense congregation crowding the nave, made up a scene not soon to be forgotten. The first of the two psalms appointed for the burial office was said by Rev. J. C. Davidson, the choir and congregation repeating the alternate verses and all joining in the solemn strains of the "Glory be to the Father" at the close. Rev. C. B. Kenrick presided at the organ, and the very large choir sang most impressively. The following hymns were also given:—"Ye Servants of the Lord," and "For Thy Dear Saints O Lord," the latter, as was stated in the pulpit on Sunday, being selected by the deceased himself. The greater part of the service at the grave was said by a clergyman also selected by the late Mr. Beat, viz. Ezral Dunn Allen, of Millbrook. At the conclusion of the service in the church the choir, clergy and Bishop marched down the nave, singing "Lord, now lettest Thou Thy Servant depart in Peace," followed, after a little delay, unfortunate, no doubt, but difficult to avoid on such occasions, by the pall bearers carrying the casket. The white robed figures stood grouped at the door while the coffin passed out and was placed in the hearse, and then, still wearing their robes, they entered the carriages waiting for them. Arrived at the Little Lake Cemetery, the procession again formed and escorted the mortal remains of the late pastor to the grave where, as before stated, the service was read by Mr. Allen, the Bishop committing the body to the earth and giving the benediction. Immediately before the last words of blessing, the beautiful and touching hymn, "Jerusalem, my happy home," was sung, and then, the sad ceremony finished, the assemblage dispersed and returned to town.

Total rail, (reducing flour to bushels),—72,483,969 bushels—per cent 60.73.

—Total by New York State Canals—45 689,900 bushels—per cent 38.29.

Number flour, barrels, by rail, 5 455,009; number of flour, barrels, by canals, 400; Lake rates per bushel from Chicago to Buffalo for 1887, from 2.3 cents to 4.5 cents. Canal rates per bushel from Buffalo to New York 3.8 cents to 5.5 cents. The earliest opening of the navigable season of the Erie Canal since 1824, was April 11th, 1862. The latest days the canal closed, December 20th. The greatest number of navigable days, 269 in 1828. The average may be called eight months. The Erie Canal was closed twice by ice since 1824, viz. on 20th November, 1875, and 21st November, 1880.

If I were to make comparisons between the Trent Valley Canal and the Erie Canal or criticise the evidence given before the Canal Commission in Peterborough during the last few days, I would raise a storm about my head such as few persons would be able to stand. And this is the evidence, and considered at that, which the Government will have to consider to enable it to decide upon the expenditure of millions of money in the undertaking.

Yours truly,
W. CRUXTON.

Led By The Nose.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I read with interest an extended report in yesterday evening's Review of a meeting recently held in Lakefield, under the auspices of the "Equal Rights Association," at which the Rev. E. F. Torrance, M.A. and Mr. John Carnegie of town were the principal speakers.

I have often heard our Roman Catholic fellow citizens accused of being "led by the nose" by their priests, and I am curious to know whether Mr. Carnegie—"the dyed in the wool tory" (to use his own words) is being "led by the nose" by our Presbyterian ministers or whether he is leading them by the "nose" himself.

I am, yours truly,
CHRISTIAN.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The evangelistic services conducted by Mr. Burson continue to attract many to the hall. His Bible readings are rich treats for all who attend in the afternoon, while the Gospel talks are very helpful and impressive, and are making a deep impression on our young men. Mr. Burson will continue all this week, afternoons at 3.30, evenings 8 o'clock. No one should miss these helpful services. They are great treats from the Lord.

The Ladies' Auxiliary met yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance, and much business was transacted which will be for the benefit of our young men. Arrangements are being made for the "At Home" on New Year's day; further particulars later.

Rev. Prof. Clark will deliver his famous lecture on "Savanarola," which he gave last week in Toronto. It caused a decided sensation among the large audience present, in the Opera House, Thursday evening, 30th Dec.

News Nuggets.

—Henry Stock had not the $2 to pay his fine for drunkenness and went up to gaol for a term of ten days or until the money was paid.

—The friends of Mr. J. P. Dunn, are requested to meet at Dr. Brennan's office tonight at 8 o'clock to complete arrangements for his "send off."

—In the police court this forenoon Mr. Geo. Hutchinson, was fined $2 for obstructing the street by allowing a barrel of oil to sit on the sidewalk for several hours, contrary to the law.

Personal.

Mr. J. P. Dunn has deferred his departure for Chatham for a day or so.

Mrs. G. H. Allen is spending the holidays at her home in Trenton.

The New Westminster, B. C. Truth of Dec 6th says:—R. H. Henderson, of Peterborough, Ont., put in yesterday looking at everything worth looking at in New Westminster. He was delighted with much that he saw, particularly with the many substantial residences. Mr. Henderson is on a first trip to the coast, and will take in Vancouver, Victoria, Nanaimo, and will probably return home by way of Puget Sound, and one of the southern transcontinental routes.

Why Weak People Understand?

It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

Bazaar and Entertainment.

A sale of useful and fancy articles, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Charlotte street Methodist church, will be held in the new lock works building, Simcoe street, on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 12th and 13th. The sale opens at 10 o'clock each day. Dinner and tea will be served during both days and evenings. Admission, 10 cents. Admission, including dinner or tea, 25 cents. The Y. M. C. A. Band will be present, and a choice musical programme will also be presented. dtd

Do its Manufacturers Publish all the Ingredients Used?

IS IT FREE FROM AMMONIA?

As is well known, ammonia is unhealthful in food, and dries up the bread material.

Protection to consumers of food compounds lies in their ability to choose those made from healthful substances. Unless manufacturers publish just what their baking powder is made of, do not use their goods, but buy instead

VOL. IX. NO. 137 PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1889. PRICE TWO CENTS.

A SAD, SAD SUMMER DAY.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE TAKES FAREWELL OF JEFFERSON DAVIS

An Imposing Military Funeral—The Whole South Sends Flowers—Tells From the Bells and Salutes Booming from the Minute Gun.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 11.—A beautiful southern summer day dawned over the obsequies of the Southern Chieftain. The city was crowded with thousands of people. The military parade was a marked one. A dozen companies from Georgia, Texas, Mississippi and Alabama and the Louisiana State National Guards and volunteer militia of New Orleans participated.

The floral decorations were added to the morning. They came from every state and city in the south and were superb in their design and finish. The town was draped from one end to the other with most elaborate decorations of black.

As soon as the doors of the City Hall were opened a stream of visitors began to pour through the death chamber to take a farewell view of the remains of the famous Confederate leader. The remains were then conveyed to the front portico of the City Hall building, where the simple but impressive rites of the Episcopal Church were performed.

The following were the honorary pall-bearers: Governor Nicholls, Louisiana; Governor Lowry, Mississippi; Governor Buckner, Kentucky; Governor Gordon, Georgia; Governor Richardson, South Carolina; Governor Fowle, North Carolina; Governor Fleming, Florida; Governor Eagle, Arkansas.

Immediately surrounding the coffin were the clergy and the armed sentries, they being the only persons admitted to a place on the portico during the service. The relatives of the deceased were assigned to seats in the mayor's parlor, from the windows of which they were enabled to witness the ceremonies. The obsequies were conducted by Bishop Galleher assisted by five officiating clergymen, including a Catholic priest. There were fully twenty surpliced ministers besides the attendance of numerous clergymen of different denominations from the various Southern States. The choir sang the anthem "Through the Valley of the Shadow of Death." Bishop Galleher made an affecting address. Then Rev. Dr. Markman read the lesson while Rev. Mr. Martin repeated the psalm, Rev. Mr. Bakewell the versicles and Rev. Mr. Thomson the creed.

At the conclusion of the religious services the casket was borne by a detachment of soldiers to the handsomely decorated caisson on which it was to be conveyed to the cemetery. The casket rested on a slight elevation and the caisson was drawn by six black horses, two abreast, caparisoned in artillery harness and plumes and each animal led by a soldier in uniform. With marvellous military precision the various battalions wheeled into line proceeded by a detachment of the city police and followed by the clergy, pallbearers and others in their respective order until the mammoth procession was formed.

The procession after leaving the City Hall proceeded up St. Charles to Calliope and from Calliope moved into Camp, thence to Chartres to St. Louis to Royal and to Canal on the direct route to the cemetery. It was an hour and ten minutes passing a given point. As the grand funeral cortege traversed the streets from the turrets of every church a knell was tolled. The clank of sabres and tramp of iron shod feet echoed along the unterminable lines while dirges blended with the solemn booming of minute guns. Parts of the city not directly located on the line of march or in any wise remote from the scene of the pageant were literally depopulated, their inhabitants having gathered in countless numbers in places from which a view of the marching columns could be had.

A Mexico's Tender Heart.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 11.—Charles Goodman, the ward heeler who played such a prominent part in the recent political campaign, was the central figure in another dramatic scene to-day in the Court of Commons Pleas. He was the defendant in a habeas corpus case, which was brought by Mrs. W. A. Graham, to take from him the custody of a child whom he had adopted two years ago, and to the astonishment of everybody he cried like a baby as he stood upon the witness stand and begged to be allowed to retain the boy, whom he had learned to love and whom he had tried hard to bring up a Christian. His frame shook with emotion, while the tears rolled down his cheeks as he said, "I taught the boy his prayers, which he said every night before going to bed. I wished to bring him up a Christian. I also taught him to fear God and never to fight, because my own experience in that line had been a sad one. I went to Sunday-school when I was a boy, and if I had followed what I learned there I would have been a better man." The case was not concluded.

A New Cook For the White House.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 11.—The White House is to have a cook from the blue grass. Dollie Johnson, of Lexington, who is reported the finest of her class, has been engaged by Mrs. Harrison. Dollie is a mulatto, about thirty-seven years old. After a thorough training she was engaged as cook by Col. John Mason Brown, who is a son-in-law of the late Gen. Wm. Preston, who was an epicure and a fine cook. Dollie's knowledge of the art was partly obtained from him. About two months ago Dollie returned to her home at Lexington. She had been there only a short time, when she received an offer from Mrs. Harrison. Among others who have known and praised Dollie's cooking is Commissioner Roosevelt.

Business Embarrassments.

MONTREAL, Dec. 12.—Messrs. Mullarky & Co., boot and shoe makers, of 32 College street have suspended at the instance of Chas. Stimson, with liabilities to the extent of about $75,000. The heaviest creditors are Messrs. Shaw Bros. & Casels, to the extent of about $20,000; the merchants Bank of Canada, $15,000; Bickle & Wicket, Toronto, $9,000; J. E. Mullin, Montreal, $8000; and McIndoe & Vaughan, $3000.

Messrs. E. Masdivotte & Freres, wholesale grocers, have assigned with about $12,000 liabilities, at the instance of Messrs Michel Lefebvre & Co. The chief creditor is La Banque Jacques Cartier, to the amount of $4700.

The Dominion Bridge Company have seized $4000 worth of railway supplies in the hands of the Baie Des Chaleur Railway Company for a claim that they allege was got from them by Messrs Henry and Geo. H. Macfarlane, the insolvent contractors of Toronto, and for which the latter never paid them it is alleged.

For Law Go to Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Dec. 11.—Paul Hackett, a convalescent typhoid fever patient at the hospital, was arrested this afternoon and taken to the jail on the complaint of Dr Crowthwaite, charging him with using abusive language.

John Kelly, who keeps a hotel in the Market-square, was fined $75 this morning for refusing to admit Constable Cargaigh into his bar room at 9.35 last Saturday night.

Kyle's Big Embezzlement.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 11—Richard D. Kyle, late vice president of the Anderson-Harris Carriage Company, was to-day arrested charged with embezzlement. A few weeks ago he had a rupture with the company and embezzlement was then suggested.

Kyle paid the company $80,000, and it was supposed by him that all charges were withdrawn. But the books have meantime been examined, and it is now said that the amount of his embezzlement was nearly $40,000. The charge in the warrant is $11,669, embezzled between October 1 and October 11.

The Globe Trotters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—The steamship Oceanic arrived at Yokohama Dec. 8, sixteen days from San Francisco. Among her passengers is Miss Bisland, making the tour of the world as the representative of The Cosmopolitan Magazine. Her passage across the Pacific was remarkably good for this season of the year and good judges think she will beat Nellie Bly, travelling around the world in the opposite direction in the interest of The New York World.

Fined for Overdriving a Horse.

WHITBY, Dec. 11.—Police Magistrate Harper fined Bowerman, skipper of the Marie Louise, and McKenzie, of the Fisheries Department, both of Port Perry, $10 and costs each on a charge of cruelly overdriving one of Schell's horses coming home from the late Pickering Shooting match.

FORREST'S SPEECH ENDED

CONCLUSION OF A THREE AND HALF-DAY'S ADDRESS.

Several Points in Favor of the Prisoners Re-Counted—An Appeal to the Jury for Acquittal—The Court Adjourned Till Friday The End of Trial in Sight.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—At the Cronin trial today Mr. Forrest resumed his address for the defence. He made a long argument to show that the horse which drew Cronin to his death was not Dinan's white horse. Then he took up the question of Coughlin's guilt or innocence and cited the probabilities from Coughlin's words and actions in favor of the theory of his innocence. Among other things he said:

"Coughlin could not have had any desire to injure or wrong Cronin, because Cronin had never in any way wronged him. No angry words had ever been passed between him and Cronin. The theory of the prosecution seems to be that Coughlin, without cause, without ever hearing a threat from the doctor against him directly or indirectly had a motive for killing Cronin, so strong that he tried to get thieves to do it. Don't you see that is inconsistent with human conduct, contrary to human experience? Don't you see the whole thing is absurd? Don't you see it is ridiculous?"

Mr. Forrest then took up the case of Martins, the expressman who hauled the furniture to the Carlson Cottage, and said it was only the fact of his nationality which prevented him from being suspected of complicity in the crime. Yet in the eye of the law had he been an Irishman and a member of Camp 20 the evidence against him would not have been any stronger. So should not the evidence be any stronger against the accused because of their nationality.

The case of Burke was next taken up and the advocate argued that there was no evidence that Burke fled to Winnipeg. When questioned by the police there he voluntarily gave his true name and his alias, Delaney, and gave his true residence in Chicago. That did not comport with guilt and flight. There was, he declared, no credible evidence that Burke was at the Carlson cottage on the night of the murder.

Mr. Forrest closed his address, which had lasted 3½ days, with an appeal to the jury for an acquittal.

The Court then adjourned until Friday, to-morrow being election day.

THE McDONALD MURDER TRIAL.

Expert Evidence—The Prisoner Once Claimed to be the Prophet Elijah

ST. JOHN, Dec. 11.—The McDonald case was resumed this morning. Rev. Mr. Shaw, the first witness, was followed by Miss Fannie Shaw, who testified to the circumstances connected with the box left at their house. Postmaster King testified principally to the routine work of the postoffice in collecting mail from street boxes. James, L. Tinen, clerk in the postoffice testified to seeing the package in the postoffice on the evening of Oct. 1, addressed to Rev. Donald MacRae. He identified the box produced in court as the same one he saw in the postoffice.

W. F. Best, analytical chemist, produced pieces of paper cut from the wrapper received from the detective and compared them with a piece from the MacRae box. He had tested them and found the papers identical in color, texture and appearance under the microscope. On close examination he said he did not think paper would be materially changed by being carried in the pocket. He had found a few crystals of strychnine in the bottom of the box which he thought had dropped from the candies. He knew no perceptible difference between American and German strychnine crystals.

Frank Bellis said he had known McDonald since the day the latter walked into the market slip. Had heard McDonald say afterward at G. B. Barker's house that he had to do this as he was the prophet Elijah, and that he could walk across the slip.

THE JOHNSTON PANIC.

Ten Killed and Seventy-Five Injured—List of the Dead.

JOHNSTOWN, Dec. 11.—The opera house horror last night was fully as shocking as the first reports made it. The number of dead positively known is ten, and five of the injured are reported to have died this morning at their homes in various sections of the town. The number of injured is about thirty. None of those now surviving are seriously injured, being merely bruised and shocked. The doctors say the most remarkable feature of the accident is that not a single bone was broken, either of those killed or those injured. The following is a correct list of those killed: George Slonaker, aged twenty-three, teamster; Miss Lizzie Claycomb, aged seventeen, domestic; John Miller (colored), waiter; Isaac Foler, aged sixty eight, coalminer; Mrs. Wesley Burns, aged forty, of Somerset county; Miss Clara Burns, aged nineteen, daughter of the above. George Holmer, aged 11, Mrs. John W. Nestor, aged 35; Eddie Blugler, aged 9.

LATER—The number of injured has swelled to seventy-five and ten of these are seriously hurt. Two or three will die. It is probable that the officials will close the opera house. Had the crowd kept their wits about them not one would have been hurt. An unknown man in the gallery, who is known as "Nigger Heaven," did a great deal in keeping the people from jumping from the third story windows and doubtless saved many lives. The blame is put on a fireman, who rang the Johnstown fire bell because the fire was in Kernville; but he was not at fault. It was over two hours after the jam before the hall was cleared and some of the injured and dead were lying in the building hours after the crush. The excitement during the night was intense. There are several persons missing—all women—but owing to the confusion their names could not be ascertained. A large number of saloons were open until twelve o'clock and there was a great deal of drinking. Had not the hose been turned on the people it is hard to tell what would have been the result. The house is a small three-story brick building fronting on Main street. It had but one small exit from the second story by a narrow pair of stairs to the street and had no fire escapes.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A New Street Railway Projected—Other News Notes.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—The news last evening says: Application will be made in a few weeks to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council for articles of incorporation for the Citizens' Street Railway Company of Toronto. The application will be made under the provisions of the Ontario Joint Stock Companies Letters Patent Act, and the incorporators are: William Henry Comstock, manufacturer; Edwin Perkins Comstock, accountant; German Mott Comitt, manufacturer; Robert Glasford Harvey, contractor; George Ira Mallory, accountant; David Spencer Booth, contractor, all of Brockville, and Frank Nicholls Kennir, of Toronto, solicitor. Of these William Henry Comstock, Robert Glasford Harvey, David Spencer Booth, George Ira Mallory and Frank Nicholls Kennin are to be the first directors of the new company, the capital stock of which is fixed at $1,000,000.

Prof. Goldwin Smith has given 40 pairs of blankets to St. George's Society for distribution among worthy poor families in the city.

Mr. Charles Millar, solicitor for Madame Albani Gye, yesterday at Osgoode Hall appealed to Mr. Justice Street from the order made by the Master in Chambers for the examination of Albani at Chicago during her opening of the new Auditorium. Mr. Millar contends that this examination cannot be taken pending his appeal to the Divisional Court to have the action of Mr. Thomson against his client dismissed for want of prosecution. Mr. W. H. Blake opposed the appeal. His Lordship reserved judgment.

The Indian commission will sit at Osgoode Hall to-day to hear evidence regarding the claim of the Cayuga Indians for the continuance of the bounty that was paid by the state of New York until 1903. Col. Gilkinson, ex-superintendent of the Brantford reserve, arrived in the city yesterday with James Skyes, the interpreter; the Cayuga chief, William Wyce and Isaac Hicks, and a number of witnesses.

At the Police Court yesterday afternoon C. H. Newman, druggist, 169 Ernescliffe avenue, pleaded guilty to four charges of a breach of the liquor law and was fined $20 and costs in each case. E. T. Lumsden, druggist, 256 Queen street west, was also fined $20 and costs in two similar cases.

EVENTS IN THE OLD WORLD

IRISH LANDLORDS MAKE REPRESENTATIONS TO LORD SALISBURY.

A Heavy Snow-storm in Germany—Brazil's Ex-Empress Receives Some Bad News—Dr Peters' Fate—Frances' Funny Project—Tickled Under the Ocean.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The Social Democrats, which was compelled to migrate from Zurich to London, complains that it is still pursued by the machinations of its pet aversion, Bismarck. Some scathing articles in the Democrat on the new socialist bill now before the Reichstag and particularly on the expulsion clause contained in it, have been the cause of a remonstrance being addressed to the paper, which naturally wishes to know to what extent the boasted freedom of the press may be said to exist in England.

There is as yet no difficulty in obtaining money for new schemes in London, no matter how doubtful the projects appear. Anything introduced by such men as the O'Hagans or Hume, Webster & Co., it may be taken for granted has been carefully examined, but there are swarms of minor floaters of companies who are not at all scrupulous, and there will undoubtedly be a crash before long that will ruin hundreds of luckless investors. John Bull has hitherto fought shy of mines, but there are plenty of mining schemes now in the market, and whether they propose to extract untold wealth in the shape of cinnabar in Spain, tin in Banca or Dakota, or gold in Peru, there is no lack of money for them.

Goron, chief of Paris detectives, paid a private visit to London a few days ago, and the reporters have been making the lives of the men at Scotland Yard miserable ever since. Not being able to extract the truth as to the purport of his visit they have naturally invented an errand for him; in fact several errands, the most popular of which is that there is in custody in France a person who may possibly prove to be the perpetrator of the Whitechapel murders, who is still an object of the greatest dread to the London police, and whom people still expect to hear from again every day.

France's Project to Tax Foreigners.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The project to tax foreigners resident in France, which is being seriously considered and will not unlikely become a law, can't fail to appear in the eyes of some of the victims as the height of absurdity. Americans and English are of the opinion that it is enough of a tax to be known as a foreigner in Paris, tradesman promptly levying an impost upon them in the form of an augmentation of prices as soon as they hear their voices. One clause of the trouble is aimed at workmen born out of the country and skillfully fosters the prejudices of the native laborer. In this lies the possibility of its adoption. There are in round numbers half a million Italian workman in France, and notwithstanding the intense hatred borne to the Germans, there are many of the latter in the large cities. They invariably claim to be Alsatians and are shrewd enough to pass muster as such. Nearly all the best waiters in the Parisian restaurants are of this class, and as they are valued for their lingual accomplishments their employers do not inquire too curiously into their nativity.

Brazilian Affairs.

LISBON, Dec. 11.—Senor Bocayura, the Brazilian Minister of Foreign Affairs, has cabled to the Portugese Minister of Foreign Affairs a formal request that he shall have proclaimed the recognition of the Brazilian Republic.

The ex-Empress of Brazil has received a telegram from Rio Janeiro informing her that all her jewels have been stolen, and that the police are investigating the case. This loss will be a heavy blow to the Imperial family. The jewels comprised the finest Brazilian diamonds in the world. If the Republic should decline to continue Dom Pedro's income, the loss of the treasure will be severely felt, as they were looked upon as the chief immediate resource of the family.

Failure of a Kansas Bank.

ABILENE, Dec. 11.—The First National Bank of this city has suspended business. Ever since the failure of the bank of Leopold Elsh & Co., confidence in other banks has been somewhat shaken. Many Eastern depositors withdrew their deposits from the First National Bank and yesterday the drafts became so exceptionally heavy that enough cash could not be secured to transact to-day's business. The liabilities of the bank are placed at $116, and the resources at $300,000.

How Peters was Betrayed.

BERLIN, Dec. 11.—A member of the Plantation Company has received a letter from Dr. Peters, written during his march into the Somali country. The letter refers to a treaty with the Somali emissaries. It is believed this treaty lured Peters to his doom, and that the emissaries were spies.

Irish Landlords to Salisbury.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—A Committee of the Irish landlords, who are about to hold a convention, waited upon Lord Salisbury to-day, and urged that the Cabinet ought not to decide upon a land bill for Ireland until the resolutions adopted by the convention are known.

Poet Browning's Illness.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—An English trained nurse from the American hospital at Rome has gone to attend the poet Robert Browning at Venice His friends manifest great anxiety.

Sailing for the Isthmus.

PARIS, Dec. 11.—The Commission appointed by the the liquidator of the Panama Canal Company to examine into the affairs of the Company on the Isthmus have sailed for Aspinwall.

Snow in Germany.

COLOGNE, Dec. 11.—There is a great snow-storm throughout all Central Germany. All the Thuringian railways, and those in the Rhine Provinces, a re-obstructed, and travel has ceased.

The Socialist Spy.

ELBERFIELD, Dec. 11.—Roettlingboff, the Treasurer of the Socialist Club, declared on the witness stand in the socialist trial that he had acted as a spy for the police, and had betrayed the secrets of the Socialist movement.

Krupp and His Employees.

BERLIN, Dec. 11.—Frederic Krupp, the head of the great metal and gun foundry, has established a fund of $100,000 to enable his employees to build their own houses.

Ticked Under the Ocean.

The Board of Health deny that influenza is epidemic in Vienna. They say there are only a few isolated cases there.

The influenza epidemic is spreading in Paris. The disease has appeared in the barracks, the markets and Ecole Central.

Two men named Turner and Clarke have arrested in London on the charge of forging and uttering Chilian and Alabama bonds. The arrests were made in connection with the theft of £28,000 from Baging Bros. & Co. in 1868.

The New Senator.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—Major Boulton, well known throghout Manitoba and the Northwest, commander of "Boulton's Scouts" during the North-west rebellion, has been called to the Senate in the stead of Hon. John Schultz, now Lieut. Governor of Manitoba.

Benjamin Le Baron the Man.

AYERS FLATS, Que., Dec. 11.—An Equal Rights meeting was held here last night. Mr. Chas. Wheeler, a Colby supporter, was the chairman and the speakers were Mr. Harper, Mr. Wm. Galbraith and Dr. Davidson. The doctor pointed out the inequality of rights in the council of instruction in the distribution of the school tax from corporations in Montreal. He attacked Mr. Colby for his speech on the Jesuit Bill last session. He said that if Stansteal allowed him to go in by acclamation they were endorsing every position he took in that speech. He appealed to them to face the duty of the hour and act today according to the dictates of conscience.

At one o'clock to-day Mr. Colby's nomination papers were filed and signed by thirty-eight electors.

The Equal Rights people filed their papers just in time and nominated Benjamin Le Baron against Mr. Colby.

He is a retired merchant of North Hateley, sixty years of age, a staunch temperance supporter and a highly respectable man. He was formerly a Liberal.

Connaught to Visit Canada.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—Intimation was received at the Government House yesterday that the Duke of Connaught will arrive at Vancouver from Japan about the middle of May next, and will spend a month in Canada, embarking for home about the middle of June.

Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of overworked business men, wearied businesswomen industrious mechanics, and tried women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

Springville.

A Visit to Lowland Stock Farm—Situated One Mile from Cavanville Station and Six Miles from Peterborough.

From a Correspondent.

This farm contains 250 acres of splendid land suitable for carrying on a very extensive stock farming business, being well watered by a splendid running creek and numerous living springs of water. Mr. Grandy who formerly lived for many years in the township of Monaghan, and filled the honorable position of reeve of that township for several terms, has recently purchased the farm of Mr. Wm. Egan of two hundred acres, and entered into partnership with Mr. R. D. Dundas. The latter is a young man of much executive business ability, who has for the past four years been engaged in importing the much prized Clydesdale stock from Scotland. This firm, with their combined wealth and suitably situated premises, will ere long be one of the foremost importers and breeders in Ontario. The firm during the past summer have erected a very handsome and commodious barn and stables. On the invitation of the proprietors, Messrs. Dundas & Grandy, your correspondent visited this barn which has been completed. It is of the old style frame, very heavy timbers. Its size is 5x100 feet with 16 feet posts with purlins ascending very high, making a magnificent style of roof. The height from floor to centre of roof is thirty-eight feet, and the capacity of the barn is 135,000 cubic feet, with a well finished double granary. The timber is of the best material that could be obtained, all sawn, consisting of spruce, pine and tamarac (4,728 feet), and is braced with 182 brace. The roof is extra well finished with 50,000 first-class shingles, with galvanized iron eave troughing. This barn is filled completely full of hay and grain. The basement is enclosed by a nineteen inch wall all round, ten feet high, built by R. Smith, of Peterborough. The workmanship reflects great credit on Mr. Smith. This apartment is one of the best that your correspondent ever had the pleasure of inspecting, and it is doubtful if there is its equal in Ontario. It has accommodation for forty-five head of stock, contains six long alleyways with numerous close box stalls on each side. It is lighted with thirteen windows of good size, and also contains a root bin with a capacity of 3,000 bushels. The whole structure has 52,000 feet of lumber, and was built by Reynold & McKee, of Cartwright. The noteworthy object on this magnificent farm was the imported stock. Mr. Dundas, of the firm, has just recently arrived home with six imported Clydesdales. Seven were shipped from Scotland, but one of the fillies was unfortunately lost at sea. The ten head of imported stock consists of seven fillies and three stallions. Two of the two-year-old fillies recently imported are extra well bred; their sire was Lord Sanquhar, whose dam was also dam of the famous Lord Erskine. All this stock has extra fine bone descending into a fine, strong, well shaped foot, with long silky hair on legs. This firm make a specialty of these characteristics in the selection of this famous stock, these points being much sought after by expert judges of the Clydesdale. They have eight Clydesdale mares in foal to their noted stallion, General Wolfe. The firm were successful in gaining a first and third at "Canada's greatest show" in Toronto this year, and silver medal for best Clydesdale mare of any age, in competition with the strongest field of Clydesdales ever held in Canada. They also gained second prize for their famous young three-year old stallion General Wolfe (5800) by St. Lawrence (2200). He is a white coloured rich bay, with wonderful style; capital bone, pictured at the most approved form, with plenty of good quality, and bone and nicely feathered legs. This is a horse that the firm may feel proud of. At the Provincial show held in Kingston in 1888, the firm were successful in gaining with their stock no less than three first, two second and a third prize. They have been making extensive sales to western and American buyers during the last four years, which is noteworthy evidence of their superior skill in selecting this stock. One of these stallions, a two-year-old, rising three, gives promise of a very excellent horse. He is a full brother to that famous stallion, General Neil (1443), which had few equals as a show and breeding horse in the whole of Scotland. The firm has some other minor improvements to make on these already handsome premises, which will then be one of the most perfect and suitable farms for conducting the important business that the firm are now engaged in, that could be desired.

Young's Point.

From Our Own Correspondent.

During the building boom this season our village has not been behind its neighbours in improvements. Mr. R. Hurd has erected a large frame cottage, which he intends to brick next summer. Mr. Wm. McFarlane had his hotel veneered with white brick, which adds much to the appearance of the place. Several new rooms have been added and he is now better prepared than ever to entertain his guests. Mr. Geo. Curtis, of Peterborough, was the contractor.

Mr. W. J. Young being compelled to give up business for a while owing to ill-health, has leased his general store to Mr. Jas. Stewart, of Peterborough, a former resident of this place, who will do all in his power to supply the wants of his customers.

The flour and grist mill has also been rented by Mr. Jos. Golbeau, who is doing a lively trade with the farmers of this section, who heretofore were compelled to draw their grain to Lakefield and other centres.

Local sportsmen report partridge scarce and very wild, while rabbits are plentiful.

Annual Meeting of Directors and Patrons —A Satisfactory Report.

The annual meeting of the patrons of the North Smith Dairy Co. was held at the factory in Selwyn December 5th. An oyster supper was spread in the lower room of the factory, of which a large number partook.

Afterwards an entertainment was held in the hall above. There must have been over 500 patrons, directors and others present. Mr. M. E. Sanderson, President, occupied the chair. The chief event of the evening was the reading of the secretary's report, which gave general satisfaction to all concerned, showing, as it did, that the past season has been most prosperous. Following is the report:—

THE FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Opening of the Annual Convention—President Gompers' Address.

BOSTON, Dec. 10—The annual convention of the American Federation of Labor opened here to-day. President Gompers in his address emphasized the necessity of organization as the keystone of all progress, improvement and success to the workingmen. The purpose of the American Federation of Labor was to improve the condition of working people. He believed they knew what they wanted and had the intelligence to formulate their wants and influence to secure them. In conclusion he said he was confident the deliberation of this convention would reflect no discredit on Massachusetts but on the contrary would be fraught with the best results for the people of America.

After President Gompers address a recess was taken until 1 o'clock, when the convention resumed deliberations. The chief business transacted was the acceptance and adoption of the report of the Committee on Credentials, showing 71 delegates present, and the appointment of Archibald Barnes, J. D. Warder, C. P. Sloan, Daniel Harris and William Shippack as a Committee on Rules. In response to a suggestion of one of the delegates President Gompers announced that the meeting of the federation were open to the public. Christopher Gwens was appointed Assistant secretary and Hugh McGregor Messenger and Sergeant-at-arms, after which adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Senator Robert Howard who represents the cotton operatives at the convention, says regarding the 8-hour law: "I truly believe it is coming and counting in less that five years to textile operatives. The 9-hour system will come first and the 9-hour will speedily follow."

DRESSES SHORT AT BOTH ENDS.

How Students Ridiculed a Faculty Order Forbidding Dancing.

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 10.—The students of Wooster University are quaking in their boots, for they fear that some of their number will be expelled and many more suspended. Some time ago the Faculty decided that the students must not dance. This did not please the boys, and they sought some means to pass ridicule upon the obnoxious order. They decided to give a stag party at one of the largest public halls in the city. When the orchestra began the opening march about fifty couples walked out upon the floor. Fifty of the boys were dressed as women. Low-necked toilets predominated, and the expanse of bare bosoms was extensive. Some were resplendent with jewelry, and some wore ridiculously short skirts, beneath which protruded the most unique garments.

A regular dance programme had been printed for the occasion, and sandwiched between the dance numbers were announcements of performances by members of the Faculty.

One of the programmes fell into the hands of a member of the Faculty, and this, coupled with the way the boys had previously fooled one of the Professors, has made matters rather unpleasant for the boys. After a lecture on mesmerism the class requested the Professor to give a practical demonstration and mentioned a student as possessing wonderful hypnotic powers. To this the Professor agreed, and the alleged mesmerist apparently hypnotized several of the students. The Professor was loud in his praise until he was indiscreetly informed of how he had been

The Hundred Million Dollar Scheme.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Herald this morning says: His Holiness Pope Leo has requested the Herald correspondent in Rome to categorically contradict the story that he is about to start a bank.

So ends the enmillioned cloud castle in which Colonel Leybourn has been dwelling. A single breath from the Vatican leaves him shelterless. He stands in the pillory.

What harm might have been worked by this brass lavered schemer had the Herald allowed him to work out in secret his bogus Papal enterprise with its capital stock of a hundred million dollars the public may now judge.

SCROFULA

Humors, Erysipelas, Canker, and Catarrh, Can be cured by purifying the blood with

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches. KIDD is daily receiving a good name for selling the Cheapest Clothing in Ontario. A visit to his store will be sufficient to satisfy the most critical. 372 George street. wd

Never Borrows Trouble.
KIDD never troubles trouble till trouble troubles him. Why? Simply because his $3.50 coat was bought at 67c. on the dollar and is worth $1.50 more than the $3.90 coat we read so much about. Come and see KIDD at 372 George street. dw

The Lucky Ones.
At the Opera House last night the watch was won by J. Cavanagh, the china set by Alfred Tilley and the chamber set by Jno. Fraser. A large quantity of other useful articles was also given away. Zora Semon announces that he will give away a solid gold watch to-night. A complete change of programme also.

The Englishmen's Anniversary.
To-night the Sons of England of both lodges will celebrate their anniversary in their elegant rooms on Hunter street. Tea will be served from 5:30 to 8 o'clock after which a fine programme will be rendered. The public are invited to come and celebrate with the Englishmen. 1d

The Sons of Canada.
The Sons of Canada met last night and nominated their officers for the ensuing term. The election takes place two weeks hence, when the meeting night will be changed from Wednesday (Christmas) to Monday, the 23rd. The Sons of Canada, though only a few months established, have already a membership of 70, and more are being added steadily.

The Cause of Charity.
An entertainment will be held in the school-room of St. John's church Tuesday evening, 17th inst., the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Protestant Home. The public are urged to patronize this entertainment and thereby render assistance to the worthy institution in aid of which it is being gotten up. A good programme will be rendered. Tickets are 25c. 4d

Christmas Gifts.
There is something pleasant in the custom of gift-giving, especially when the gift is a genuine expression of esteem or affection; and in the multitudinous array of good things spread out on tables, counters, and shelves and in the windows of the Peterborough Bookstore even the poorest will find something which may symbolize the feeling of friendship. The whole world is busy now in contributing to the general happiness; and for the next two weeks business and sentiment will go hand in hand, scattering delight throughout thousands of homes.

Grand display of Christmas Goods at Miss Jenkins'. d

Be Content.
Be content with thy lot, though it may be small, each must have their share; one cannot have it all. KIDD does not want the earth, but he does want everybody to know that he is selling Ready-made Clothing at just half the regular price. dw

Do all You Can.
Do all the good you can to the people you can, in all the ways you can, just as long as you can. KIDD is daily practising this motto. To be convinced come and inspect his $3.50 Overcoats, sold by other dealers at $5.00. Be always kind hearted, do good without end, but never forget your affectionate friend KIDD, the regulator of clothing prices, 372 George street. dw

To-night a Farewell Supper
The committee in charge of the "send off" which is being prepared for Mr. J. P. Dunn met last night and decided to tender him an oyster supper at the City Hotel to-night. Mr. Dunn will also be presented with an address and handsome testimonial. Any of Mr. Dunn's friends who may not be seen by the committee to-day, are requested to be at the City Hotel to-night or forward the contributions to Dr. Brennan.

Broke the Window.
An attempt at robbery was reported to the police last night. A citizen walking homeward along Hunter street about midnight reports that he saw two men break a window in David Mallesky's junk-shop, and as he came along they made threatening advances, but as the citizen reached his hand around to his hip pocket the two fellows fled precipitately. No goods were stolen, but Mallesky offers a reward of $5 for the conviction of the would-be thieves.

A Good Mariner.
A smooth sea never made a skillful mariner. No man in town recognises this fact more than KIDD. His sails are neatly trimmed and all the wind bags floating around may burst, still he keeps on selling clothing at 25 per cent. less than other dealers paid for them. dw

Your attention is directed to the holiday advertisement of Geo. W. Wyatt, the jeweller in another column.

The Canadian Horticulturist

The editor is a practical fruit grower, and the other writers are the leading practical gardeners and fruit growers in Ontario. One dollar, addressed to the editor, Grimsby, Ont., secures this monthly, the interesting annual report of the Fruit Growers Association and a choice of plants for testing.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE.

Rare intellectual treat, Rev. Prof. Clark, Trinity College, Toronto, his Famous Lecture on "SAVONAROLA," in Opera House, Thursday Evening, 19th December. General Admission, 25 cents.

A Great Success.
The wonderful bargains and immense value given at the great sale of M. Sullivan & Co's has caused the great success of the sale. Hundreds of customers have come to "shop" and stayed to buy. The prices and goods were such as they could not resist. A splendid stock, kept well assorted, placed at figures which must sell the goods. A beautiful line of woven shawls form one of the latest and most attractive features. Don't neglect this great sale. If you do you will miss the biggest bargains ever presented in Peterborough. dw

SEE here! The loveliest toilet soap in town is kept at M. R. KIDD'S.

By Far the Best.
Sale of crockery, china, glass and silverware will take place on Wednesday, Dec. 11 in the store on Water street, next Jas. Stevenson's office. Our assortment will be complete and bargains plentiful, as all must be sold before Xmas, and we will not dwell long on any one article. All the best goods are yet to be sold. We will sell on Saturday Dinner Sets, Breakfast Sets, Tea Sets, Chamber Sets, Silverware, &c., as well as a full line of other goods. Do not miss it. Sales at 12 o'clock, noon, and 7 o'clock in evening. JOHN HAGGART, auctioneer. dw

For the Newest and most unique designs in fancy articles go to Miss Jenkins'. d

Chicago's Shining Light.
The Charlotte Street Methodists are extremely fortunate in securing Chicago's most eloquent orator for Tuesday evening next in the Opera House. His "Wyandotte Cave" at Grimsby Park this summer gave him his Canadian reputation. He stands ahead of all other lecturers and is, as Sam Jones truly says, "The finest speaker on the continent." Hear him! Hear him! Reserved seats at EXAMINER Bookstore. d

Separate School Board.
We are requested to publish the following:
Attention is directed to the meeting of the supporters of the R. C. S. School, called by Mr. John Hackett, Chairman of the Board of Separate School trustees, for to-morrow evening. It appears that some recent actions of a majority of the Board are contrary to the wishes of nearly all the supporters of the school, and in consequence a number of the heaviest taxpayers have expressed their intention of withdrawing their support from the Separate School. It is to endeavor to have matters amicably arranged that the meeting is called. It is likely that several of the trustees will be asked to resign, as not representing the views of their constituents.

Labor Matters.
A meeting of the different labor unions and Knights of Labor was held in Labor Hall last night for the purpose of taking steps to organize a Trades and Labor Council for the town, such as are in existence in Toronto and other labor centres. There was a large attendance of representatives, and several matters of interest were discussed. It was decided to form a Trades and Labor Council. Several of the Unions have already appointed delegates. It was also decided that the labor party should take part in the coming municipal elections. The course of action of several members of the present council was discussed. The meeting adjourned till Thursday, 19th inst., when a plan for future action will be made out.

All the Trumps!
By reference to announcement elsewhere in this issue of the EXAMINER, it will be seen that we have made another big scoop in overcoats. The excitement over our wonderful $5.00 overcoat is increasing every week. They are going out at a "2.40" gait. But for all that, we have added still another remarkably cheap line of overcoats—the cheapest of all—which we have just secured for the ready money. These we will actually sell for $3.75!! Then beats the record. We now hold all the trumps in the pack, and invite buyers to make an examination. A comparison is all we ask.
wd H. LEBRUN & Co.

Hymeneal.
Yesterday afternoon a quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of the bride's mother on Dublin street, when Mr. M. H. McWilliams, now of Toronto, was married to Miss Jennie Turner by Rev. M. L. Pearson. There were only a few members of the family present, but the numerous and handsome bridal gifts testified to the warm place both the groom and bride held in the affections of their many friends. Mr. J. Millan was groomsman and Miss Ella Barnett bridesmaid. The young couple left on the 5.50 train last evening for Toronto, where they will reside.

Important Notice.
In order to reduce our stock we have decided to make two days each week during this month "bargain days." On these days we will reduce every line of goods by a great big discount, but remember goods will be reduced for these days only. The dates and discount for next week will appear in Monday's paper. Do not neglect getting your list ready and getting the benefit of this sale.
24137 H. S. GRIFFIN & Co.

Mercer's Teas.
Try W. J. Mercer's beautiful blends of Black Tea, Fine Hysons and Japans, acknowledged to be the finest in town. California Dried Fruits, self rising Buckwheat, silver Spanish Onions, very cheap by the grain. Fine Dried Apples; and all wishing a good cup of coffee, should not fail to try our fresh ground. Wait and see you have it ground fresh.

Baptist Church, Peterborough.
On Sunday next, Dec. 15th, the anniversary sermons will be preached by Rev. Ira Smith, of Beverly street, Toronto. Collections morning and evening for church purposes. On Monday evening (16th) the annual tea meeting will be held. Tea served from 5.30 to 7.30, after which a meeting will be addressed by Revs. Ira Smith, J. R. Huff, S. J. Shorey and resident ministers of the town. Special music. Tickets 25 cents. dw

Great Chance for the Public.
At this season of the year the public will be interested in knowing that great bargains in groceries can be obtained at Rosh Bros.' grocery store. Turn to their advertisement and you will see that a great cash sale is now going on. Goods are cut down to the finest kind of price, and the goods are all of high class quality, and no better chance of securing bargains in groceries has been presented in Peterborough. Study the list of prices in Rosh Bros.' advertisement. dw

Bazaar and Entertainment.
A sale of useful and fancy articles, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Charlotte street Methodist church, will be held in the new look works building, Simcoe street, on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 12th and 13th. The sale opens at 10 o'clock each day. Dinner and tea will be served during both days and evenings. Admission, 10 cents. Admission, including dinner or tea, 25 cents. The Y. M. C. A. Band will be present, and a choice musical programme will also be presented. dtd

The Drill Classes.
The first class of the winter series for instruction in drill, in connection with the 57th Battalion, was held in the old music hall last night. There was a fair attendance. Capt. Brennan was the instructor. The time was taken up chiefly with preliminary drill. Next Tuesday night the drill will be in field exercises, sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6 squad drill, and definitions; also, in supplement, the manual exercises, the order arms as given on page 7, and the shoulder arms as given on page 23. The class will begin at eight o'clock sharp. Books are provided those joining the class.

Why Went People Understand?
It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

Mrs. Malaprop in Jail.
A Sunday or two ago a certain lay worker visited the jail to talk on spiritual matters with the prisoners. With unconscious irony he began by singing the hymn "It is Good to be Here," and began his remarks by saying he was "glad to see so many present." These well meant remarks were, of course, ill timed and mal apropos. He would have spoken exactly to the point if he had said that hawley bros'. kept the finest stock of teas and coffees in the district and at the lowest prices. Don't forget this fact when you want a tip-top cup of tea or coffee. d

NEW Sheet Music at the Peterborough Bookstore—J. R. STRATTON.

Housing Value.
10 lbs. bright sugar and 4 lbs. of fine tea for $2. Everyone who has tried our teas say they never have had such value as we are giving. Why? Because we buy in large quantities and pay the cash. We are bound to sell and will sell at close profits. Flour and all kind of meal kept in stock and will be sold cheap. Make no mistake, this is the store to deal in. The wholesale and retail trade supplied on short notice, at the Red Tea Store, 221 George street.
GEORGE CARTON.

A Great Loss to Bricklayers.
A little over ten years ago the eloquent Dr. McIntyre, who lectures for the Charlotte street Methodists on Tuesday evening next in Bradburn's Hall, laid down his trowel for the pulpit and the platform. He is now the foremost orator in America, eclipsing Sam Jones or Talmage. In order to fill every sitting in the Opera House, the tickets have been placed at popular prices—25 and 50 cents. Reserved seats at EXAMINER Bookstore. d

The Great Power of a Little Money.
A little money goes a great way at the great Christmas Sale of Dry Goods of M. Sullivan & Co., which began last Saturday. The Stock must be reduced, and at this sale the biggest kind of inducements are offered to effect this result. Low prices are the rule in every department, and as the goods are all first-class, the customer gets the most astonishing bargains. Those who have patronized this sale are delighted with their purchases—they never know before what a wonderful purchasing power a dollar could have with low prices and tip-top goods. To Tobacconists.
Considerable excitement has been caused in Nepanee by the wholesale confiscation of large quantities of tobacco because the sellers failed to comply with the departmental regulations respecting the opening of caddies and the legal defacement of the inland revenue stamps. One dealer had 200 lbs. of tobacco seized and confiscated, and several others smaller amounts; and the same has been done in Kingston and Belleville. Local dealers are advised to comply strictly with the regulations as comprised in a pamphlet issued and circulated by the Inland Revenue Department bearing on the subject. No doubt every dealer will receive a copy of this document, and it will be well for him to heed it, as the Government is determined to insist on compliance in every case, with the provisions of the Inland Revenue Act.

The Nora Clench Concert.
Miss Nora Clench, Canada's premiere violinista, who will be in the opera house, Jan. 9th, meets with triumph wherever she appears. She stands the severest tests, meeting the severest scrutiny of the critics as well as arousing popular enthusiasm. A performer who can confront these conditions is an artist indeed. The Globe says of her first appearance in Toronto:—"Miss Nora Clench was certainly the heroine of the evening. Five years had elapsed since this young lady appeared in Toronto, an enthusiastic maiden who felt that she had her future, unknown though it was, in her hands, almost in a literal sense. She appeared last evening, after her absence, for the first time in Toronto, and the feeling that she was confronting the musical centre of Canada must have contributed in no small extent to a most natural feeling of trepidation. Yet when she came on the stage she presented a most charming appearance, self possessed, yet with a most engaging air of modesty and absolutely free from the slightest sign of the self-importance that usually characterizes the early appearances of the budding artist. Miss Clench came on in the most gentle, ladylike manner, and in a similarly easy and graceful manner proceeds directly to business. Of her playing one can only speak in the highest terms. She has a thoroughly efficient technique. Certainty and accuracy of intonation, were distinctive features. Her bowing is graceful and easy, and entirely without the extraneous beauties so much affected by violinists. Her tone is large and strong, yet sweet and sympathetic, and her phrasing, is musicianly and artistic. She played the Mendelssohn concerto and Raoul's "Ave Rosgrale" as programme pieces, and as an encore played Wieniawski's "Legende." Altogether her playing was characterized by a strong, sympathetic feeling and great executive resources, tempered by a classical repose of both manner and style that is distinctive of the school she has been studying in. She received some beautiful floral tributes, chief among which was a fine lyre presented by the staff of the College of Music.

County Court.

No Bill in the McWilliams-Colbeck, Colbeck-McWilliams and Queen vs Pearson Assault Cases.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 11th.

The court was occupied to-day with the case of Sherwood vs. Fair till about 7 o'clock. The Grand Jury were occupied with the assault cases, but had not advanced either of them sufficiently to make a presentment.

SHERWOOD VS. FAIR.—An action to recover damages to the amount of $120 for negligent use of a horse, brought by Mrs. Agnes Sherwood, of Fraserville, against William Fair, of Smith. Plaintiff claimed that she had entrusted a mare to defendant for a certain purpose, and that while in his possession the animal had been negligently treated during an attack of sickness and had died. Defendant contended that he had done everything for the relief of the sick mare that could be reasonably expected. The case was tried at the last session of the County Court and a verdict for plaintiff and $50 rendered, but the verdict was set aside and a new trial ordered. The result of this trial was a verdict for plaintiff, Mrs. Sherwood, and $30. Mr. E. B. Edwards for plaintiff; Messrs. Stratton & Hall for defendants. The question of costs was reserved.

THURSDAY, Dec. 12th.

The attention of the Court was engaged this morning with a civil case, Kenny vs. Howden, which was not finished at the hour of going to press.

NO BILL IN THREE ASSAULT CASES.

The Grand Jury after hearing evidence and deliberating for two days, this afternoon, about 3.30, entered court and reported their finding of "no bill" in the three assault cases before them—Queen vs. Pearson; McWilliams vs. Colbeck and Colbeck vs. McWilliams.

After making their presentment the Grand Jury was discharged.

The Feast of Days.

A Novel Entertainment Managed by the Ladies—Everyday Subjects Materialized.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the the Charlotte street church are again to the fore with a novel and unique entertainment known as the "Feast of Days." The building next the look works on Simcoe street was kindly loaned the ladies by Mr. Stevenson, and they have converted the interior into a handsome and attractive bazaar for the sale of useful and fancy articles. The room is nicely decorated, and in the front part are half a dozen booths and a tent, representing the days of the week, in each of which are offered for sale household articles appropriate for the day.

Sunday is flower day. In this booth will be displayed flowers, Bibles, hymn books, etc.

Monday, washing day, is represented by tubs, pails, soap, starch, etc., and all requisites for washing.

Tuesday, ironing day, is supplied with irons, shirt boards, etc., and aprons and gentlemen's furnishings.

Wednesday is mending day. In this booth are all articles used in mending, needles, threads, work baskets, etc.

Thursday, reception day, is represented by fancy goods of all descriptions. The ladies are always "at home" to receive callers (and provide them with a first-class meal).

Friday is sweeping day, and this booth will be supplied with brooms, dusters, carpet sweepers, etc.

Saturday, baking day, calls for a supply of bread and cakes, home made.

The first day was a splendid success. A large number paid the admission fee at the door, and the booths and dining tables were liberally patronized. Music is supplied in abundance by the ladies, a fine piano being a part of the decoration. This evening and to-morrow evening the Y.M.C.A. band will be in attendance.

The "bazaar" will be continued to-day and to-morrow. The ladies hope to have a large number of their friends call upon them.

Canal Statistics.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—Observing that Mr. Clarke is favouring your readers with some statistics as to the cost and trade of the Erie Canal, perhaps you will favour me with space sufficient to express the hope that Mr. Clarke will not confine himself to your columns but that he will also present himself before the Trent Valley Canal Commission at their next meeting in Peterborough, for the purpose of placing before the Commission not merely the figures contained in his letter, but the many others bearing upon the utility of this undertaking with which his evident study of statistics and his long experience with the carrying trade of the continent, must render him familiar, and when, I am sure every one present at the recent sittings of the Commission here, will bear me out in saying, he will be afforded the fullest opportunity of proving that the evidence given last week was "one sided," and not such as to justify "the expenditure of millions of money in this undertaking"—if he can do so.

Yours,

POOR PEASANTS' SAD FATE

THOUSANDS DRIVEN FROM THEIR AUSTRIAN HOMES BY SOLDIERS.

And Forced into Pennsylvania Mines The Government of Austria will Prosecute 300 Officials for Complicity in the Outrage—Money Did It

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—A Pittsburg despatch to The Tribune says: Mr Schamlberg, the Austro-Hungarian consul here, expects to receive orders from the Government of Galicia to [illegible] and probably forward passports for [illegible] of the Government officials who are charged with making common cause with steamship and railway lines in forcing men, women and children to emigrate to America. These officials, some of them of high rank, receiving a bonus for each emigrant transported. Treason was the favorite charge on which the heads of families were frightened into selling their homes and fleeing the country. About 15,000 of these people have come to Pittsburg within the past two years, and the majority are working in the Connellsville coke regions. The gendarmes at Four Points, on the Galician frontier, were either bribed or their imprisonment secured on false charges, and through these four outlets the poor peasants, without passport, were driven over the mountains in droves, put on freight trains and carried to Hamburg, where they were shipped to America.

SUICIDE IN NORTH BRUCE.

A Forger Strangles Himself in a Cheeley Hotel While Under Arrest.

CHESLEY, Dec. 12.—A middle-aged man came to the village yesterday and registered at the Schoen Hotel as "James Ward, Brant." Shortly after he went to the banking office of J. H. Elliott & Co, and represented himself to Manager John McBain as a farmer living near Ellengowan, giving the same name. He presented promissory notes aggregating $650 which he wished to have discounted, $400 to remain on deposit and $250 for immediate use. After referring Mr. McBain to two gentlemen in the village as parties who would identify him he went out for a few minutes. Mr. R. Maxwell, one of the men referred to, was sent for. Maxwell informed the banker that he did not know Ward.

In the evening the same man presented the notes to Dr. H. A. Beamar, but not making any headway or getting them discounted returned to the Windsor where he was arrested for forgery. He acknowledged his guilt and said his name was George Horsley, living near Elsinore.

The village police instead of locking the prisoner in the cells, allowed him the privilege of remaining in a guarded room in the Windsor, an officer occupying an adjoining room. At 6.45 this morning the constable unlocked the door and looking in found the prisoner lying on his face at the foot of the bed, but thinking he was sleeping retired and locked the door. Two hours later he went to awaken the prisoner for breakfast and found the man dead. The suicide had a muffler looped around his neck and tied strongly to the bottom of the bed.

DEATH OF ROBERT BROWNING.

The Venerable Poet Passes Away at Venice Without Suffering.

VENICE, Dec. 12. Robert Browning, the poet, died here to-night without any suffering. During the day he expressed himself as satisfied with the success of his new volume of poems.

Robert Brownig was born at Combewell in 1812, educated at the London University and in the monastic libraries of Lombardy and Venice. Among his works are Paracelsus (1835), Strafford (1837), Sordello (1840), "Bells and Pomegranates" (1842-46), "A Blot on the Scutcheon" (1843), "The Ring and the Book" (1871). In November, 1846, Mr. Browning was married to Elizabeth Barrett, who died in Florence, Italy, June 29, 1861. Soon after her death the poet returned to England with their only child a son, and has since resided in London.

THROUGH THE ICE.

Terrible Drowning Tragedy—A Whole Family Perishes.

FORT WASHINGTON, Wis., Dec. 12.—Mrs. Claude Agustin, her 17-year-old daughter and two infant sons were drowned at Saukville yesterday. One boy broke through the ice and Mrs. Agustin attempted a rescue. The daughter tried to hold her mother and as the three were disappearing the remaining son toddled out on the ice crying, "Mamma, I want you." The little fellow threw himself, as he seemingly supposed, into his mother's arms. In an instant he, like the others, was carried beneath the ice. A man saw the tragedy, but it was all over before he could reach the spot.

HANLAN ON THE SITUATION.

The ex-Champion is Anxious for O'Connor to Visit the Antipodes.

WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 12.—Edward Hanlan, the oarsman, is in this city with the "Park Secret" Company. In speaking of Searle's death he said to-day that he would try and induce O'Connor to go to Australia next year and row Beach for the world's championship, since it has been announced that the title now reverts to the latter. Hanlan would probably back O'Connor, whom he considers one of the fastest men in the world.

Hanlan favors a sweepstakes race on the Thames championship course in England, as the best way to fairly decide the championship. He suggests that each contestant put up $1000, and that Beach, Kemp, and others from Australia, and Teemer, Gaudaur, O'Connor and himself, from this country, compete. Hanlan is in perfect health. He deeply regrets Searle's death. The deceased sculler had anticipated coming to America next summer, and had he done so Hanlan would probably have met him in a race.

[It must be remembered that Beach defeated Hanlan no less than four times and the latter has therefore considerable respect for the former's prowess. When O'Connor was made aware of Hanlan's declaration he simply laughed at the idea and gave out his original opinion that there is no champion.)

MCCARTHY SPEAKS AGAIN

REITERATES THAT "BULLETS" ARE THE ALTERNATIVE OF "BALLOTS."

"It May Not be Now it may but Be Tomorrow" But the Day of Settlement Will Come—English Talking People will Have to Bring About the Change.

OTTAWA, Dec. 12.—Mr D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., M. P., addressed a large audience under the auspices of the Equal Rights Association in the Grand Opera House to-night. He announced that he had resigned the presidency of the Ontario Conservative Union eight months ago and declared that the solution of the political difficulties which beset the Dominion rests with the English-speaking people. He dealt with his subject in a very exhaustive manner, beginning with a description of the condition of affairs at the capitulation of Montcalm, when the 65,000 French Canadians in the Province of Quebec were guaranteed full freedom of their religion. The treaty, he declared, did not make any reference to the language or peculiar laws of the French.

The policy of the Catholic Church came in for a severe handling. The French-Canadians, backed by the hierarchy, have, he said, in effect been encroaching ever since. While claiming absolute freedom of religion to all, he would deny to any sect the power to intrude itself on the spirit of civil power. On this point alone, the Equal Rights supporters differed from Catholic, whom he regretfully observed, were ranging themselves on the opposite side for the inevitable struggle. Once and for all, it must be understood that the present difficulties would never be settled by annexation.

He characterized all past legislation affecting the two races as blunders and of the most pernicious character; the Quebec Act for instance guaranteed to the French not only their own laws and peculiar institutions, but erected the Catholic church in the province to the dignity of a quasi-state church, enabling the latter to exact tithes by force of law. This legislation was a protest for the hierarchy to get rid of the English Protestants of Lower Canada. Lord Durham, sent to Canada on a mission in the forties, made a report embodying the principle that the country must be made English. Four years later however a French majority undid Durham's work by making French the official language.

It may not be to-day, it may not be to-morrow, but the time will come when this question will have to be settled by the English people. He alluded to the remark made on a previous occasion—the alternative of the ballot now or the bayonet later on.

A certain distinguished member of the Dominion Cabinet Mr. McCarthy presumably referring to Sir John Thompson had ascribed Mr. McCarthy's stand to disappointed ambition. He denied this, and when brought face to face with that gentleman would have something more to say on the subject. Though a supporter of the Government's policy in other matters he was prepared to stick to the principles of the Equal Rights Association whenever they conflict with his other political views.

Mr. Mowat's alleged political insincerity in regard to educational matters was also dealt with. He was amused by Premier Mowat's reference to the Separate School Act, stating explicitly what the legislation really did mean. Premier Mercier came in for worse treatment. Mr. McCarthy quoted from speeches to prove that the cherished dream of the Quebec Premier was to establish a dominant French nationality in Quebec.

The separate schools and the dual language must go. If the Quebec Legislature obtained the recognition of French as an official language 50 years ago, why could not the Imperial Parliament be petitioned in 1890 to amend the Federal constitution? The Equal Rights Association for the present could rest assured that where it failed to elect its own candidates, it at any rate could control the elections in many of the English counties.

Mr. McCarthy was tendered a vote of thanks.

Colby at Stanstead.

STANSTEAD, Dec. 12.—At yesterday's nomination Hon. Mr. Colby vigorously defended his course on the Jesuit question. Turning towards Dr. Davidson and other opponents on the platform he said: I defy those gentlemen to go into any part of Stanstead and discuss this question, and their reception will be very little less cordial than that which they have experienced here to-day. I am not going to accept the opinion of a few clergymen on the constitutionality of the Jesuits' Estates Bill, and although I have the greatest respect for these gentlemen in their proper sphere, I will exercise my own judgment after passing twenty-two in Parliament rather than depend too much upon theirs. I would rather stand by the vote of Sir John Macdonald, Sir John Thompson, Hon. Edward Blake, Hon. Mr. Mills, to whom I looked for constitutional guidance, as I do to these clergymen in Spiritual affairs.

No minority has been better treated perhaps, except during the two years of Mr. Mercier's rule, than the Protestant minority of Lower Canada. It is well understood that when exclusive Protestant measures come before the Quebec Legislature they are by mutual consent referred to the Protestant members only for consideration, and those Protestant members are always supposed to compose a standing committee on Protestant affairs. No one can say that the French-Canadians are an aggressive people. Let them alone; allow matters to settle down to their normal condition, and the two races will learn to respect and love each other in the future as they have done in the past.

What do I think of the Equal Rights movement? Judged by the motives of most of the men who started it, I have no hesitation in saying that it is a genuine and sincere uprising and to that extent is praiseworthy. But, judged by the standards of worldly wisdom and common sense, I regard it as most unwise and ill-considered.

Had the Dominion Government disallowed the Jesuits' Estate Act Mr. Mercier would have at once obtained a dissolution of the house and appealed to the constituencies; he would have returned to power with vastly augmented strength would have re-enacted the Jesuit Bill, and then we would have had a very lively fight between the 2,000,000 of Catholics and less than 3,000,000 of Protestants, who constitute the population of this country. The life of the Confederation would not have been worth a five years' purchase.

If this agitation is kept up by the Protestants of Ontario and Quebec, the effect will be to place a hopeless Protestant minority in this province under the pressure of an overbearing and exasperated Catholic majority, and to bring about the very condition of affairs that the Equal Rights men are avowedly fighting against.

The scaffold of Riel is simply decaying. The Jesuit Act is an accomplished fact—beyond reversal by political agencies. Let it sleep on the statute book; let the waters subside to their normal condition of rest; let parties divide upon lines of public policy, and not of hurtful resentment. Let governments stand or fall as they administer the affairs of the provinces well or ill. Let the minority check their endeavor to punish the majority.

The Glorious Climate of California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 12.—The rain storm which has continued throughout the state for eleven days appears to have been broken, although it is still raining at many points in the interior. The rain fall has been seventeen inches here, which is unprecedented, and the damage threatens to be large in bridges washed away and rich valley lands overflowed. For miles above Colusa, on both sides of the Sacramento River, the valley looks like a great lake, with trees and houses standing out like islands. The breaks in the levee are serious, as the river bed is nearly as high as the valley lands, having been artificially raised by rubbish poured into it by years of hydraulic mining. Any break means the opening of a torrent, to stop which requires the strenuous labor of hundreds of men.

Some Gangs of Gas Makers have Struck—Peace Makers at Work—Stanley Views Africa—Outrages in Crete—Emin's Condition—Australian Federation.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The first batch of strikers left the gas works at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A crowd cheered them. Plenty of non-union men are available for the companies and there is no interruption to work.

The gas companies, in view of a threatened stoppage of their supplies of English coal through a boycott arising through the strike of their employes, have arranged with Hamburg dealers for supplies that will be transported in ships with German crews and handled by German porters.

The nail makers in the midland counties have conceded an advance of 10 per cent. in wages to the employes. This will avert a strike.

A conference was held at the Mansion House this afternoon between Sir Mark Wilkes Collet, Sir John Lubbock and Lord Mayor Isaacs, acting as arbitrators and representatives of the gas companies and their employes. The conference resulted in an amicable arrangement of the existing trouble and a general strike of the coal porters is hereby averted. The coal porters in the employ of the South Metropolitan Gas Company will not however return to work until the agreements entered into by some of the men to work for the company for a year, and for signing which the men were paid a bonus, are cancelled. The Sailors' Union, the Firemen's Union, the Gas Stokers' Union and the Coal Porter's Union are acting in concert against the South Metropolitan Company. The gas stokers issued a manifesto to-day stating that the employment of soldiers to take their places would result in a social revolution.

Stanley at Africa.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 12.—The British India steam navigation company to-day gave a luncheon to Henry M. Stanley on board the steamer Arawatta, which has arrived here as the pioneer vessel in the direct service between Great Britain and East Africa. Mr. Stanley made a speech in which he predicted the rapid growth and prosperity of East Africa.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The Queen has sent a cable despatch to Henry M. Stanley, in which she says: "My thoughts are after you and your brave followers whose hardships and dangers are at an end. I again congratulate you all, including the Zanzibars, who displayed such devotion and fortitude during your marvellous expedition. I trust Emin Pasha is making favorable progress."

The Zanzibars who accompanied Stanley on his expedition through Africa were received by the Sultan to-day. The Sultan thanked them for the splendid services they had rendered, and rewarded them with presents. All Zanzibar is feting Stanley and the members of his expedition.

Emin Pasha's Condition.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Dr. Parkes sends a bulletin reporting that Emin Pasha suffered severely on the evening of Dec. 9 with a distressing cough and great difficulty in expectoration. He was much better on Wednesday, and there was no longer any bloody acute. His injured eye was almost restored. Serum still flows from the right ear, and he requires assistance in every movement, owing to the great number of bruises. He is in good spirits.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 12.—Emin Pasha had a restless night, disturbed by frequent and very severe paroxysms of coughing. He is unable to swallow solid food. His bruises continue very painful. Otherwise his condition is unchanged.

Stanley May Paint London Red.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The corporation of London has invited Mr. Stanley to accept the freedom of the city. The ceremony of presentation will take place in the Guildhall. The parchment conferring citizenship upon Mr. Stanley will be enclosed in a gold casket. On the evening of the day on which the presentation is made a reception will be given to Mr. Stanley in the Guildhall.

A Queer Law Repealed.

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—The Reichstag by a large majority, approved the motion to repeal the law which gives the government authority to expel from the country any clergyman who having been officially deprived of his clerical charge, yet persists in the performance of his clerical duties.

Excluded From the Amnesty.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The amnesty granted by the Sultan of Turkey to the Cretan insurgents and political offenders does not include those already condemned by a court-martial, the leading fomenters of the disturbances or common law culprits.

Immigrants Inhumanly Treated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Emigration Inspector Lee reports that while enquiring into alleged breaches of the alien labor law he discovered that the laborers in a sulphur mine in South Carolina are most inhumanly treated. They are nearly all foreigners inveigled from Castle Garden to the mine, and their complaints are being inquired into by French and German consuls.

A Lockout Ended.

DORTMUND, Dec. 12.—The directors of all the mines have agreed together to end the lockout. All the men have been restored to their places. The leaders, Bunt and Siegle, have declined for the present all offers of return to their former employment.

Where the Spicy Breezes Blow.

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Dec. 12.—Nellie Bly is delayed here five days. To make the trip in 75 days she must now be exactly on time at every point.

Opium Smugglers Caught.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Dec. 12.—Information reached here last night of arrest at Tarascoma of John Powers and Wm. Eashen chiefs of Canadian gang of opium smugglers.

Spain Will Cling to Cuba.

MADRID, Dec. 12.—The papers here manifest great irritation at Senator Cally's proposal in regard to Cuba, and roundly denounce it. The Epoch says: "This is a mad idea and it cannot be that anyone in Washington takes it seriously. Even if a Republic were established in Spain she would not consent to the separation of Cuba. Spain is resolved at all hazards to maintain the integrity of the national territory and political divisions do not exist therein.

Japan's Liberal Trade Policy.

VIENNA, Dec. 12.—The Vece Freie Press has information that a Japanese envoy will be sent to Europe to negotiate treaties with the maritime states on a very liberal basis.

COONEY IS CAUGHT.

"The Fox" Safe in the Law's Arms at Dodgeville Wis.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 12.—A special from Dodgeville, Wis., says: Developments of yesterday seem to leave no doubt that Cooney the Fox, one of the men wanted for the Cronin murder, is now in jail in this city. The man was captured here by the sheriff a month ago on suspicion of burglary, and in resisting arrest, displaying a revolver. He refused to give an account of himself, saying they could call him John Jones, and he was sentenced to four months for carrying concealed weapons. He is a middle aged man, apparently intelligent, and a remarkable reader of human nature. His habit of concealing himself in the cell when anyone entered the jail aroused suspicion, and his determination to conceal his identity caused the sheriff to send to Chicago for the photograph of Cooney. The photograph came yesterday and was shown to him, and he said, without a moment's thought, "That is Cooney." He says if he has to go to Chicago he wants the sheriff here to take him. He is smooth shaven now, and the centre of his lower lip, the shape and appearance of his head, and his eyes are exactly like the picture. Since he saw the picture of Cooney, and knows that he is suspected of being the man, he seems to yield to that conclusion, and has ceased his efforts at concealment. The sheriff is in correspondence with the Chicago authorities.

A special from Dodgeville says the man there supposed to be Cooney, confessed that he is the man and gave instructions to the sheriff about taking him to Chicago. A detective is expected from Chicago this evening.

CANADIANS Work Too Hard!

The Result is Sleeplessness, Nervousness and Broken-Down System often

Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of overworked business men, wearied brain-workers industrious mechanics, and tried women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. This is the cause of that terrible Paresis Before it is too late, use Dr. Phelps' wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., Montreal.

Training the Young.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Almost every person professes to be in favour of temperance, and every one must desire to see his children properly trained for a life of worth and usefulness, and all will say that work of this description should be supported and encouraged, and that the making of future good men and women depends altogether upon the proper training of the young. If children are not good the men and women will not be good. If children are abstainers from strong drink, the men and women will be abstainers also. And if churches would be filled, and if a country is to be made prosperous and happy, the foundation for it all must be laid among the children. You cannot begin to establish good social laws and good order from the top—from the old and vicious—and so work downward among the children. You must begin as nature begins—begin at the very bottom and work upwards. The farmer prepares the ground before he sows the seed, and he sows the seed before he can reap the harvest. And so it is with mankind; the children are the soil, and the men and women are the harvest. Every effort should then be made to make the children good and to fit them for after life. And yet how few persons seem to realise this. And how few, outside of their own families, do anything for the thousands of little children who need encouragement and help. How few who try do to train and prepare the young so as to make them good citizens and useful members of society. And how few consider how necessary it is to their own comfort and profit to be able to live among orderly and temperate and industrious men and women and to have peace and prosperity and happiness around them, instead of discord and strife. There are associations now in every community working for temperance and good order. Among these may be mentioned the Women's Christian Temperance Union and the Band of Hope. The good working and success of these societies depend in a great measure upon the exertions of those who are ill able to attend to them. And who are best able to provide the means for their successful working. The work of the maintenance and support of the Band of Hope is particularly onerous, and the expense is considerable. A gathering together of some two hundred and fifty children and the providing them with the means of encouragement and improvement requires much time and labor and not a little expense. Some thoughtful people are ready to do their part to help this work on, but the greaty majority think they have done their duty when they give a blank refusal, although at the same time they would like to be considered good citizens and good members of society, and to be considered also generous and just. The tree is judged by its fruit. And if people turn their backs upon an effort to work good among them and roughly refuse to give any aid they have no right to expect others to say they have done their duty.

A Vindication of Character.

DR. BARNARDO'S GIRLS' HOME,
"HAZEL BRAE," PETERBOROUGH, Ont.,
10th December, 1889.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—I wish through the medium of your journal, to correct certain reports that have reached us, damaging to the character of Mr. Richard Darling, Douro, and his family. These reports are to the effect that one of our girls, who had been placed in the service of Mr. Richard Darling, had returned to the "Orphans'," or had been removed by the "Home" because of ill-treatment, and that Mr. Darling had paid the sum of $1.000 as hush-money. In justice to Mr. Darling and his family, I have to say that these reports are absolutely without foundation. The girl referred to left Mr. Darling's service and returned to the "Home" because she disliked farm work and felt lonely in the country, but she never made any remark about being ill-treated by Mr. Darling or any member of his household. I am, sir,

Yours faithfully,
W. G. ANNESLEY.

Mrs. J. J. Rooney is visiting friends in Western Ontario.

St. Luke's Young Men's Guild meets to-night at the rectory.

The teachers of St. Luke's Sunday School meet Friday evening to arrange for their annual Christmas entertainment.

Mr. Clibborn has the job of painting one of the departments of the public school.

A very unique piece of handwork is on exhibition in the window of Mr. John Turnop's grocery, Elizabeth street. It is in the form of a miniature dwelling, 2 feet by 15 inches and height in proportion. The building consists of a frame work of wood with all the necessary windows and doors. This is then layered with putty, into which stones of all hues and tints are embedded so that it presents the appearance of solid stone. The roof is also shingled with small, flat, arrow-shaped shingles of stone, all the projects being as near of a size as possible. After this work was completed the outer surface was varnished, so that the stones present the appearance of pebbles after having been leached by the spray of the ocean. Nearly all the stones used were imported from the shore of Lake Ontario. The outside has every requisite of a comfortable abode, but not till the inside is surveyed is the completeness of the whole realized. Here are all the departments of a first-class residence, such as drawing room, dining room, kitchen, pantry and bedrooms, every one of which, except the kitchen and pantry, being tastefully carpeted and ornamented in the most modern style. The architect and builder is Miss Mabel Throop, and certainly the whole reflects a great amount of taste on the designer.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites

Is sold all over the world. It is far superior to plain Cod Liver Oil, palatable and easily digested. Dr. Martin Mâcé Stanton, Bury Station, England, says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion, and taken it myself. It is palatable, efficient, and can be tolerated by almost anyone, especially where cod liver oil itself cannot be borne. Sold by all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00. w6tod

TEN NIGHTS IN A BAR-ROOM.—MR. WM. BRYCE, publisher, Toronto, has issued in cheap but excellent form a memorial edition of this popular moral story by the late T. S. Arthur. On sale and the Peterborough Bookstore.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S CHRISTMAS EDITION—by the Sheppard Publishing Company, is more essentially a Canadian holiday number than any previously issued in this country, every feature having been chosen as typical of Canadian life. The issue of a Canadian paper ever before contained so expensive and artistic illustrations, all of which is original, and with two exceptions done especially for this number by Canadian artists. It is a most readable and pleasing number, and unsurpassed for the price.

The Nora Clench Concert.

The Nora Clench concert in the opera house, on Jan. 9th, will be one of the finest ever given in the town. In addition to Miss Nora Clench, the great violinist, Mrs. Chambers, of Montreal, has been engaged as lady soloist. Several years ago Mrs. Chambers was a great favorite here, and since she went to Montreal she has wonderfully improved, and her services are in great demand in that city. The press speaks highly of her singing as shown by the following extracts, referring to different occasions:—

The Herald says:—Mrs. Chambers is well known as one of our sweetest sopranos, and her singing last evening was of a high order. She sang "Sweethearts" with much taste and effect, for which she was encored. Later on she carried her audience with her and richly deserved the encore she received.

The Witness says:—"Mrs. Chambers was in good voice and charmed the audience by her exquisite rendition of 'Angels Ever Bright and Fair.'"

The Gazette says:—"Of the soloists, Mrs. Chambers rendered her part beautifully and was rewarded with enthusiastic applause."

The Witness—"Mrs. Chambers gave a delightful rendering of Rossini's 'La Separazione.'"

WHERE POLITICIANS GATHER.

Premier Blair of New Brunswick Says He Isn't Afraid of "French Domination."

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—Hon. Andrew G. Blair, Premier and Attorney General of New Brunswick, left for home this morning, after transacting some business for his province with the Dominion Government. Speaking of the public schools in the French districts of his province Mr. Blair said "we have never had any difficulty in connection with their management. No charge has ever been made against my Government or any previous provincial administration because French is taught in the public schools, though in New Brunswick the proportion of French in the population is much larger than in Ontario. The French Acadians form between a fourth and a third of the population of our province, and there are whole parishes in which no English people are found. Of course both the French and the English languages are taught in the schools. The French people are anxious that their children should learn English. They know that it is in their own interest that they should do so. We have a series of bi-lingual readers which have lately been adopted in Ontario. They have served well the purpose for which they were intended. For many years the administration of our educational laws has been wholly dissociated from politics and I think it is best that it should be so. Our people are not afraid of French domination even though the people of Acadian parents learn to read and write in their own language in our public schools."

Mr. W. J. Summerby, Public School Inspector for Prescott and Russell, is in town in connection with the Normal School examinations. He says the county Model School for the training of the French teachers in the English language will be ready about the beginning of January. Mr. D. Cheney, at present head master of the French public school in Windsor, has been secured for Principal. The bi-lingual readers are now ready for use in the schools and Mr. Summerby thinks they are admirably suited for the purpose.

Mr Wm. Compton, of Winnipeg, one of the official arbitrators and referees of the Exchequer court, is in town on special business in connection with one of the cases set down for hearing.

An important deputation of the members of the Montreal Board of Trade and Scientific Gentlemen waited on the Ministers this afternoon. The deputation was received by Sir John Macdonald, Sir Hector Langevin and Hon. C. H. Tupper, and was introduced by Mr. R. S. White. It was composed of Messrs. R. K. Lockhart, J. Leggatt, D. Johnson, M. Cleghorn, John Torrance, Dickson Anderson, F. W. Henshaw, Andrew Allan, and representatives of the Dominion Beaver and other steamship lines. The delegation presented a petition that the Government provide funds in the next estimates to maintain a registry of tidal observations, and to procure a more accurate survey of the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Atlantic coast. They reminded the Ministers that the British Association at their session in Montreal in 1884 strongly recommended this course and that since that date other scientists had drawn attention to the importance of the subject. The Ministers promised that the matter should have full and careful consideration.

Hon J. A. Chapleau and Mr. Louis Taché, Private Secretary returned to-day from New York.

Sir Adolphe Caron returns from Chicago to-morrow.

CAMPBELL WILL NOT RELENT.

An Emphatic Denial that he Will Become Reconciled - A Divorce Suit Instituted.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—Mr. Colin Campbell has given instructions to Messrs. Bishop and Greene to institute divorce proceedings against his wife, Christy Campbell, who left her home recently under painful circumstances, it being alleged that she had eloped with Fred O'Connor, a man about town whom Mrs. Campbell was in the habit of driving with. The two left Ottawa about the same time and have not since been heard from. Mr. Campbell was asked to-day whether he had heard from his wife. He declined to speak on the subject. He also declined to say anything about the reports as to Mrs. Campbell's alleged elopement being the grounds on which legal proceedings will be taken.

The report has been widely circulated that Mrs. Campbell was about to return to her home and four children and that Mr. Campbell desired a reconciliation. The latter part of the story is destitute of foundation. A special to the effect that Mrs. Campbell would be taken back by her husband was telegraphed to various papers. Mr. Campbell however has requested the correspondent to give the statement an emphatic denial. Mrs. Campbell's mother lives at Dorchester Station, near London.

The publication of various unauthenticated rumors in connection with the alleged elopement has caused great pain to the deserted husband and the children abandoned by their mother. Mrs. Campbell will be remembered as a tall fine looking woman in the prime of life. She was to be seen almost daily driving about the streets of Ottawa. Being a woman of unusual energy and push, she conceived the idea of manufacturing various articles used by ladies for which she had procured patents, and did business under the style of the Campbell Manufacturing Company. The business proved, however, a loss and had to be wound up. Mr. Campbell had in the meantime had fallen ill and went to New York for medical advice. During his absence which was somewhat prolonged the acts which will be the grounds for divorce to be alleged in the petitions took place. On Mr. Campbell's return he became aware of his wife's relations with the young man who will be co-respondent. The position in which the lady and the co-respondent were discovered at the time of ecclaircissement resulted in a stormy scene, the end being the flight of the lady and of the co-respondent.

HALF OF SIX HUNDRED.

Charge of Hurdy-Gurdy Grinders on the New York Mayor's Office.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—There was a rush of men and women, dressed in all sorts of European costumes, to Mayor's Marshal Englehardt's office, in the basement of the City Hall early this morning. There were Italians, Russians, Greeks and Bohemians, all chattering for licenses to grind organs. It was wonderful how the news spread that the Mayor had signed the ordinance allowing 300 organs to make music on the streets, and the rush to be one of the 300 was great.

When the Marshal informed them by the aid of several interpreters that the licences would not be ready for several days they sent up a howl of despair and it required several policemen to drive them out of the narrow quarters. The blank forms are being prepared and will be ready in a day or two. Meantime the organs will take a rest or their owners be arrested.

Don't be blind to your own interests and think yours a hopeless case. This remarkable remedy has rescued thousands. It is the only medicine of its class, sold by all druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, [or money paid for it will be promptly refunded. c

Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

SCROFULA

Humors, Erysipelas, Canker, and Catarrh, Can be cured by purifying the blood with

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

LOCAL NEWS.

Good Just arrived at the Sunday Words Peterborough Book Magazine store. All the other beautiful annuals in stock at the PETERBOROUGH BOOKSTORE.

SEE here! The loveliest toilet soap in town is kept at M. R. KIDD'S.

St. Paul's Church.

The annual missionary meeting will be held in St. Paul's church this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. Smith, who was for ten years a missionary in India, will address the meeting. A collection on behalf of missions will be taken up.

Does It Move? Does What Move?

Why the turtle in Mason's window. Certainly not, don't you see it's chained. How can it move? True—true, but the Raisins are moving lively at the exceedingly low price—5 lbs. for 25c. Best value in Peterborough for Xmas fruits. 2d138

A Good Mariner.

A smooth sea never made a skillful mariner. No man in town recognises this fact more than KIDD. His sails are neatly trimmed and all the wind bags floating around may burst, still he keeps on sailing clothing at 25 per cent. less than other dealers paid for them. dw

Your attention is directed to the holiday advertisement of Geo. W. Wyatt, the jeweller in another column.

Committed for Trial.

Alexander Ritchie, the horse thief and fire-bug, was yesterday, at Lindsay, committed for trial on two charges—firing I. Junkin's premises, Bobcaygeon, August 14th, 1887, and clipping the mane and tail of Cain Bros', horse the same date. A reward of $300 was offered for the conviction of the guilty party in the first case and $100 for the latter.

The "Y."

At a meeting of the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union held Thursday evening the following resolutions were adopted :—

That in future our regular business meetings shall begin at 7.30 and close at 9 o'clock sharp.

That all gatherings held in the "Y" hall under our auspices shall close at 10 o'clock sharp.

A Great Success.

The wonderful bargains and immense value given at the great sale of M. Sullivan & Co's has caused the great success of the sale. Hundreds of customers have come to "shop" and stayed to buy. The prices and goods were such as they could not resist. A splendid stock, kept well assorted, placed at figures which must sell the goods. A beautiful line of woven shawls form one of the latest and most attractive features. Don't neglect this great sale. If you do you will miss the biggest bargains ever presented in Peterborough. dw

☞ New Sheet Music at the Peterborough Bookstore—J. R. STRATTON.

Rousing Value.

10 lbs. bright sugar and 4 lbs. of fine tea for $1. Everyone who has tried our teas say they never have had such value as we are giving. Why? Because we buy in large quantities and pay the cash. We are bound to sell and will sell at close profits. Flour and all kind of meal kept in stock and will be sold cheap. Make no mistake, this is the store to deal in. The wholesale and retail trade supplied on short notice, at the Red Tea Store, 331 George street.

GEORGE CARTON.

Goods delivered to all parts of the Town and Asphodel free of charge. dw

All the Trumps!

By reference to announcement elsewhere in this issue of the EXAMINER, it will be seen that we have made another big scoop in overcoats. The excitement over our wonderful $5.00 overcoat is increasing every week. They are going out as a "2.40" gait. But for all that, we have added still another remarkably cheap line of overcoats—the cheapest of all—which we have just secured for the ready money. These we will actually sell for $3.75!!! This beats the record. We now hold all the trumps in the pack, and invite buyers to make an examination. A comparison is all we ask.

A FINE stock of toilet, laundry and electric soap at M. R. KIDD'S. d

A Cure of Diphtheria.

Mr. Wm. Carleton, of Belleville, while in town the other day noticed a "diphtheria" placard on one of the houses, and dropped into the EXAMINER office to give the public an infallable remedy for the dread disease. His remedy is to apply a mustard poultice to the neck as long as it can be borne, and on removing it apply another poultice of fat pork. If this does not afford relief, repeat the process. Mr. Carleton assures us this remedy never fails.

Railway vs. Canal.

Peterborough is having her traffic wants carefully attended to just at present, and there seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether the Trent Valley Canal or the extension of the Chemung Valley Railway northward, is the better. Some persons entertain doubts of the probability of the canal being opened for traffic next summer, but as to the railway there is no doubt that hauling team, fine teas have a monopoly of public favour—fresh, directly imported and pure and cheap. Coffees ditto. A fine stock of glassware always on hand.

KIDD'S daily labor is now composed of selling $2.80 overcoats worth $3. KIDD is constantly employed, and he likes his occupation immensely.

The latest novelties in Fancy Work at Miss Jenkins'. d

A Good Name.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches. KIDD is daily receiving a good name for selling the Cheapest Clothing in Ontario. A visit to his store will be sufficient to satisfy the most critical. 372 George street. wd

Never Borrows Trouble.

KIDD never troubles trouble till trouble troubles him. Why? Simply because his $3.80 coat was bought at 67c. on the dollar and is worth $1.50 more than the $3.90 coat we read so much about. Come and see KIDD at 372 George street. dw

Be Content.

Be content with thy lot, though it may be small, each must have their share; one cannot have it all. KIDD does not want the earth, but he does want everybody to know that he is selling Ready-made Clothing at just half the regular price. dw

Do all You Can.

Do all the good you can to the people you can, in all the ways you can, just as long as you can. KIDD is daily practicing this motto. To be convinced come and inspect his $3.80 Overcoats, sold by other dealers at $5.00. Be always kind hearted, do good without end, but never forget your affectionate friend KIDD, the regulator of clothing prices, 372 George street. dw

Morrow's Teas.

Try W. J. Morrow's beautiful blends of Black Tea, Fine Hysons and Japans, acknowledged to be the finest in town. California Dried Fruits, self rising Buckwheat, silver Spanish Onions, very cheap by the grate. Fine Dried Apples; and all wishing a good cup of coffee, should not fail to try our fresh ground. Wait and see you have it ground fresh.

Baptist Church, Peterborough.

On Sunday next, Dec. 15th, the anniversary sermons will be preached by Rev. Ira Smith, of Beverly street, Toronto. Collections morning and evening for church purposes. On Monday evening (16th) the annual tea meeting will be held. Tea served from 5.30 to 7.30, after which a meeting will be addressed by Revs. Ira Smith, J. B. Huff, S. J. Shorey and resident ministers of the town. Special music. Tickets 25 cents. dw

St. Andrew's Church.

The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Auxiliary of St. Andrew's church will be held in the school room of said church on the eve of Dec. 16th. The annual report of the President, Secretary and Treasurer will be presented and other matters of business be considered. Arrangements have been made for a social, tea and musical programme. A cordial invitation is extended to members and friends of the various missionary societies in connection with the town churches. All are welcomed. At the close a collection will be taken up. 3d138

Why Went People Understand?

It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

The Last Night.

The "Feast of Days" being held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Charlotte Street Church will be concluded to-night. The bazaar has been a success all through and the ladies have disposed of a large quantity of useful and fancy articles, besides supplying a large number with meals. To-night the goods remaining unsold will be rushed off at sacrifice prices, so that great bargains may be expected. The ladies hope their bazaar will be patronized as it deserves. After nine o'clock the goods still unsold will be auctioneed off. Everything must be cleared out. Music will be supplied at intervals during the evening. 1d

Winter Sport.

For several years past Peterborough has been without a well-defined and cosmopolitan snowshoe club, and winter sports have been largely confined to skating and curling. This season, however, there will, in all probability, be a club in existence which will fill the long-felt want, and one which will be conducted on a wider scale than hitherto. Already the club has been organized with a large membership, but more gentlemen are needed to enable the committee to carry out their plans. It is proposed to secure commodious club rooms in a central location as a starting point for the tramps, and where also the members and their friends will be able to spend the evenings in a social way with music, refreshments, etc. A meeting of the club was held Thursday night in the rooms over Stetham's hardware store, where the constitution was discussed and the plans for the coming season perfected. Regular weekly or semi-weekly tramps will be held whenever practicable, and the club uniform will be the orthodox blanket costume. The utmost enthusiasm is evinced by the members, and it is hoped to make the club a power for good in the way of healthful exercise during the winter. The officers are :—

County Court.

Continuation of the CIVIL Business—Presentment of the Grand Jury.

FRIDAY, Dec. 13th.

Yesterday afternoon and till late in the evening, the court was engaged with civil business—the case of KENNY VS. HOWDEN.—Action to recover damages for breach of contract. The suit is brought by James Kenny, of the township of Camden, (near Napanee) against Thos. Howden, Peterborough, the plaintiff alleging that defendant entered into contract with him to deliver to the plaintiff 900 lambs at Rathbun Station, near Napanee, the lambs to be delivered during September and October of 1889. Through alleged failure of defendant to supply the full number of lambs contracted for, the plaintiff alleges that he suffered, and therefore claims damages to the extent of $200. Messrs. Deroche & Madden, Napanee, solicitors for plaintiff; Mr. E. B. Edward, counsel; Messrs. Possette & Johnson, solicitors for defendant; Mr. Possette, Q. C., counsel. Verdict for plaintiff for $60, and for defendant (counter claim) $35.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENT.

TO HIS HONOUR JUDGE WELLER :

The Grand Jury of our Sovereign Lady the Queen beg to present :

That they are gratified by the fact that they had no case of serious crime to deal with, as it indicates a continued state of absence of crime in the county.

That they have examined the gaol and find everything about it carefully kept and in good order, and carefully kept, showing carefulness and watchfulness on the part of the gaol authorities.

That they regret to have found lunatics confined in the gaol and hope that they will be removed as quickly as possible to an asylum, where they may receive proper treatment.

That we found a woman confined in jail who is in a very delicate condition and we would recommend her removal for a time, at least, to the hospital.

That the flag flying on the court house is torn and ragged and we would recommend that a new one be provided.

The Englishmen's Anniversary.

Successful Tea and Concert in the S.O.E. Lodge Rooms—A Large and Pleased Audience Attend the Anniversary Celebration.

The jolly Sons of England are not behind the representatives of other nationalities in their efforts to keep alive the sentiments of loyalty and love for the mother land, which burn in the hearts of all true Britons, and at all of their gatherings the utmost enthusiasm is manifested. The anniversary tea and concert Thursday evening was marked by the same characteristic evidences of affection for "merrie England" which are an outgrowth of the association and organization of Englishmen the world over. There is no mistaking the fact that they still retain an ardent love for their native land, which urges them to a most worthy citizenship in this the chief of British Colonies. Fifteen years ago the Order was organized in Toronto, and since that time the Society has flourished apace. In 1883 a branch was established in Peterborough, and now there are two thriving lodges, who fraternise most harmoniously, in town. The anniversary was commemorated by a tea and concert in their elegant lodge rooms on Hunter street Thursday night, and like all their entertainments it was a gratifying success.

Over two hundred persons partook of the substantial supper spread from half-past five till eight o'clock, and in this department the ladies rendered valuable assistance.

At eight o'clock the concert was begun in the lodge room, which was decorated with flags and flowers. Each of the Englishmen also wore a small button-hole ornament in the shape of a "red, red rose," the work of Miss Taylor and Mrs. W. Barlowe. Bro. Thos. Gunn, ex-President of Lansdowne lodge, occupied the chair and did the honors of the evening. In his opening address he announced the patriotic and charitable objects of the Society, and stated that there were now 100 lodges in the Dominion; sixty of them having been established in the last two years. The programme was opened by an instrumental solo by Prof. Seward, followed by a vocal duet by the Misses Turner and Barlowe. A patriotic reading by Mr. B. Earle was encored. Miss Tivey sang a solo in good voice, and was followed by Mr. J. J. Turner in a comic song which brought down the house and required an encore. Miss Lily Jackson then sang a pretty English song, and Master Benton followed with another. Mr. Thos. Osborne's recitation was well received, after which Mr. W. R. Greatrex sang most acceptably a bass solo. The nursery song by Master and Miss Turner was highly pleasing to the audience. Mr. R. M. Roy then gave an exhibition of his powers in legerdemain, performing some startling tricks which evoked the admiration of the audience. Mr. O. C. Rowse's reading was evidently appreciated, the patriotic subject striking a responsive chord in the heart of each one present. Mr. Barne's song, "The Union Jack," in which the audience joined most heartily in the chorus, was the last number on the programme, and enthusiastically received.

The programme gave general satisfaction, and was brought to a close by the singing of the national anthem, votes of thanks and cheers for the Queen and chairman.

The credit for the success of the entertainment is due to the exertions of the small but able committee which had the matter in hand. They deserve a word of praise for their indefatigable efforts to make the anniversary a success. The committee was composed of representatives from both lodges as follows :—Thos. Gunn, W. Taylor, H. W. Stock, F. Brownecombe, W. Stocker, R. Waram, H. Stevens and E. G. Rundle.

A Final, Fond Farewell.

Mr. J. P. Dunn Given a "Send Off"—Supper, Address and Purse—A Jolly and Successful Gathering.

The farewell supper to Mr. J. P. Dunn at the City Hotel last night was a gratifying success to all concerned, though the pleasure usually attendant upon such festive occasions was tempered with a feeling of deepest regret at the circumstance which was the cause of the gathering. Mr. Dunn was a highly popular man in both business and social circles, and by his able and indefatigable exertions "the fast line" assumes a prominent position among the railways of the town. As a citizen also Mr. Dunn made a host of warm friends. Courteous, obliging, and always amiably and genially responsive to the claims of friendship, Mr. Dunn will be greatly missed in Peterborough. Listening to the encomiums passed upon him and the feeling expressions of sorrow over his approaching departure, one could not but arrive at the conclusion that Mr. Dunn was one of the most popular and esteemed men in town, who will always be kindly remembered by all who ever knew him.

The supper, though gotten up in a hurry, was carried out admirably in every detail. The tables were filled with a representation of Peterborough's business men and intimate friends of the guest. Mr. Clancy presented a delectable repast to those for whom he was catering.

After supper the usual toast list was begun. Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M.P., occupied the chair, and Dr. Beamish the vice-chair. "The Queen" was duly honored, after which the "Governor-General and Houses of Parliament" were responded to by Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M. P., and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P. Mr. J. McMillan then favored the company with that old Irish favorite, "Bally-nah-ly." To the toast to "Canada our Country" Mr. C. J. Leonard responded in a happy manner, and Mayor Stevenson and Councillor Cahill to "The Corporation." Then a toast to "Our Guest," was proposed, and after it had been honored by the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," the following address was read by Dr. Beamish :—

THE ADDRESS.

To J. P. Dunn, Esquire, station agent, Canada Pacific Railway, Peterborough :

DEAR SIR,—A few of your many friends and acquaintances in Peterborough, on this the eve of your departure from their midst, desire to express their sincere regret that stern duty calls you, for a time only it is hoped, from the field in which you have laboured so well during the last five years. From the day of your arrival in Peterborough you have, by your unwavering courtesy, your genial disposition, your well-known generosity, and your many good qualities of head and heart, won to yourself not only many warm personal friends, but also the respect and esteem of the whole community. You have, doubtless, had many trials and difficulties to contend with in the important and arduous position you held in a great corporation, but your ready smile and the grasp of your hand will long be cherished and remembered by your Peterborough friends.

Our regret at your departure is in a measure alleviated by the knowledge that removal is a higher step in your career, that you have climber another rung in the ladder, and that in your new sphere of action you will have still wider scope for your native energy and for the varied talents with which you are so bountifully endowed.

Therefore, while sorry to lose so worthy a citizen and so staunch a friend, we tender you our warmest congratulations on your well deserved promotion. You leave Peterborough carrying with you the best wishes of all with whom you have come in contact for your future success and prosperity in life. We trust the course of events may allow you to return to us at no distant date, and, in conclusion, we beg your acceptance of the accompanying purse as a slight testimonial of our regard and esteem.

Your most faithful friends and well-wishers,

J. Stevenson, Mayor, M.P.,	J. R. Stratton, M.P.P.,
A. V. R. Young, U.S.C.	C. J. Leonard,
J. McIlmoyle,	P. D. Doran,
Thos. Dolan,	Harry LeBrun,
L. M. Hayes,	G. J. Gough,
F. H. Brennan, M.D.,	Thos. Dunn,
E. Walsh,	M. Hackett,
J. J. Sheehy.

December 12th, 1889.

The addressed was signed by a large number of other names also, which were not read. Accompanying it was a "fat" purse containing a good sum of money.

THE HONORED GUEST REPLIES.

Mr. Dunn received a cheering reception, and made a feeling and characteristic reply, expressing his thanks for their evident appreciation of what he termed his humble and endeavoring efforts during his sojourn in Peterborough. He assured his kind friends he would always look back with pride upon this night as one of the most pleasant and gratifying events of his life.

Mr. T. Dunn sang "The old Dhudheen." The toast to the "Learned Professions" was responded to by Messrs. Hayes, Leonard, McIlmoyle and Dr. Brennan. The latter's speech was very affecting.

The toast of the "C. P. R." drew replies from Messrs. Burns, Boddy and Dunwell, of the "fastest line on earth"; the "Mercantile Interests," Messrs. T. Dolan, H. LeBrun, P. Doran, J. J. Sheehy and P. J. Quinn; the "United States" and the "Ladies," Mr. A. V. R. Young, U. S. Consul. Toasts were also given the press and the host and hostess.

The proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem.

Mr. Dunn does not leave town until Monday. Meantime he is informing his successor, Mr. Moore, of Norwood, in the duties which he is to assume in a few days.

Our Industries.

The Carbon Works Under Way—A New Industry in View.

Mr. J. W. Taylor, of Chicago, a practical electric light carbon manufacturer, is in town to-day for the purpose of looking over the ground and arranging for the establishment of the works here. Mr. Taylor is having the stove works building on Townsend street fitted up for his requirements, and if all goes well the industry will be started in about two months.

ANOTHER PROJECT.

Mr. A. G. Heath, of Hamilton, was in town yesterday and negotiations were advanced to within a degree of completion for the removal of the Heath Manufacturing Co's works from Hamilton. Mr. Brooks and Mr. Stevenson, of the Lock Works, are largely interested in the new venture, and it is through them the industry is being brought here. Mr. Heath, the manager, is a practical man. His plant will occupy a part of the old stove works building. He manufactures mechanical appliances of several kinds, and employs about fifty hands.

The articles of agreement were made out, and though final arrangements have not yet been completed, there is every probability of the industry being established here. Mr. Heath will return to town next week.

Board of Trade Matters.

To the Editor of the Examiner :

DEAR SIR,—I am delighted to see the agitation regarding railway extension, which the Board of Trade opened at one of its recent meetings. It is to be hoped that at the meeting of the council of the Board of Trade to-night, something further will be done, and that the Trent Valley Canal—that most important project—will be advanced another stage. The members of the council of the Board should all be present, for they will have a chance to do something worth while.

The manner in which a successor to the deceased rector of a parish is selected is not generally known. The congregation, through their representatives, the church wardens and lay delegates, meet and confer with the bishop of the diocese on the subject, and after this conference, the bishop, having due regard to the circumstances of the parish and the general interests of the diocese as well, makes the appointment. It is probable that the representatives of the congregation namely, Dr. Beraham and C. H. Sheffield, Esq., church Wardens and Judge Weller, Dr. Halliday and J. E. Belcher Esq., lay delegates, will proceed to Toronto to morrow to confer with His Lordship Bishop Sweatman as to the appointment of a successor to the late Rev. J. W. R. Beck.

The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them at a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as no other bargains will be given. THE JURY DELIBERATING.

CRONIN SUSPECTS IN AN AGONY OF DOUBT.

No Agreement After Seven Hours in the Jury Room The Closing Argument—The Judge's Charge.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Every available foot in the court room which has for several weeks been the scene of the Cronin trial was thronged by the bustling, eager crowd that assembled this morning to witness the closing scene in the sensational case. State's Attorney Longenecker made the closing argument on behalf of the State owing to the illness of Mr. Mills, to whom that task had been assigned. Judge Longenecker said.

We are met in this case, for the first time after the opening argument, with the theory of the defence. In most all murder cases, in most all important trials, when the State or the People, represented by the State's Attorney, gives an outline of the prosecution's side, the defendants answer and give to the jury their defence. If not at the opening, then after the evidence is closed for the prosecution, they arise and tell us how they are going to meet the evidence. That was not done. It remained until the last counsel for defendants arose to address you in a three days' argument. Then for the first time, you as jurymen and we as representatives of the people were notified that the theory of the defence is that there was a great conspiracy on the part of the people, that there was a conspiracy to murder innocent men under the guise of the law, and the gentleman was so earnest in that statement that he carried it all through his argument to the jury. He argued that proposition with the same force that he did anything else that he talked about in the case.

Now, gentlemen, if that is your notion of this case, if you believe that there is a conspiracy to murder Martin Burke and those other men on trial, then you ought to acquit and you ought to recommend to His Honor that the counsel representing the People of this great State should be indicted and tried for murder. If I, as a representative of the People, am guilty of coaching evidence against Martin Burke and those other men on trial, I ought not to have a trial but ought to be taken by the citizens of your State and hanged without court or jury.

Why, the gentleman tells you that it is done by the other branch of the Clan-na-Gael and they are backing the prosecution. Now, the fact is that every Clan-na-Gael witness that we have called to stand belonged to the triangle part of the Clan-na-Gael organization.

Mr Longenecker then took up the argument of Mr. Foster on behalf of defendant Beggs and replied to it at length, arguing that the proof showed Beggs to be a party to the conspiracy.

Cronin was showing to the order that these men were thieves and robbers, yet Beggs said it was opening old sores. When they were talking of the same thing on the 22nd he said: "I am a friend of Alexander Sullivan," yet Alexander Sullivan was not then a member of the camp, not then in the order.

The State's Attorney went on to say that Beggs' letters to District Member Spellman asking him to investigate Dr. Cronin's conduct were to cover up the work of the secret committee of Camp 20, and that was the reason Beggs was so ready to have them made public. Mr. Beggs, he said, was a lawyer and educated man, a man of ability, and instead of being innocent was at the head of the conspiracy. The chain of evidence binding him to the crime was irrefragible.

The speaker then took up the question of the relation which the various circumstances testified to have to each other, the whole in combination making a strong case, as he claimed. At the close of the forenoon session the address was resting from the expert testimony as to the cause of death.

On the re-assembling of the court Judge Longenecker continued his reply to Mr. Forrest's argument. In answer to the point that the prosecution had not proved the cause of death, he said the jury were the judges of that fact and the verdict of the jury, should it acquit the accused, would be a bar to any subsequent prosecution for the same offence alleging death by any other means.

The speaker then arrayed the facts as proved, drawing the conclusion that the cause of death was fully shown. The indictment, he said, charged death by violence from wounds inflicted in an unknown manner. The experts for the State testified that death was caused by the wounds on the head. The experts for the defence had merely seemed to contradict this because they had replied to a hypothetical question in which the necessary violence for the infliction of the wounds and other circumstances were left out.

Mr. Longenecker then made a rapid running sketch of the evidence of the leading witnesses, and the circumstances under which it was given, by way of reply to Mr. Forrest's charge that there was a conspiracy to convict the defendants, taking occasion in passing to pay his compliments to Mr. Forrest rather sharply for making such a charge in such a wholesale manner. He concluded as follows:

Now, gentlemen, I am through. If you are settled to turn these men loose you will do it. If you believe that this evidence is not sufficient to convict them, of course you will acquit them, but I want to call your attention to the responsibility. This, gentlemen, is a serious matter. It has got down to business. You have been sitting here week in and week out hearing this evidence, undisputed evidence; evidence that must lead your minds to the conclusion that Dr. Cronin was murdered; evidence that must lead your minds to the conclusion that it was done by a conspiracy; evidence that must lead your minds to the belief that it was cold-blooded murder; that it was planned in secret, that it was done with coolness. You must have come to the conclusion that if ever there was a murder case in which the extreme penalty of the law demanded at your hands a verdict of the kind, this is one.

Remember that you are not here to convict innocent men. Remember that we are here insisting that this evidence is so overwhelming that you, as honest men under your oaths, cannot resist this volume of proof that must convince you, as sensible men, beyond a reasonable doubt that all five of these men are guilty of this crime.

Judge McConnell then delivered his charge to the jury. Aside from the merely legal definitions and technicalities it was as follows:

The jury are the judges of the law as well as of the facts in the case, and if they can say upon their oaths they know the law better than the court itself they have the right to do so, but before assuming so solemn a responsibility they should be sure that they are not acting from caprice or prejudice, that they are not controlled by their will or wishes, but from a deep and confident conviction that the court is wrong and they are right.

The manner or cause of death which is alleged in the indictment is an essential element of the charge against the defendants, and the law requires the prosecution to establish that averment to your satisfaction, beyond reasonable doubt as it is laid in the indictment before a conviction of the defendants or either of them can be lawfully had. But whether or not the manner or cause of death was as it is laid in the indictment, may be established by circumstantial evidence, just as any other fact essential to conviction may be.

Circumstantial evidence in criminal cases is the proof of such facts and circumstances connected with or surrounding the commission of the crime charged as tends to show the guilt or innocence of the party charged and if these facts and circumstances are sufficient to satisfy the jury of the guilt of the defendants beyond a reasonable doubt, then such evidence is sufficient to authorize the jury in finding the defendants guilty.

It is the duty of the jury to enter upon the consideration of such circumstance proven, having in their minds the presumption that the defendants and each of them are innocent, and if such fact or circumstance, when considered in connection with all the evidence in the case, can be explained consistently with the innocence of the accused it is their duty so to explain it. In order to justify the inference of legal guilt from circumstantial evidence the existence of the inculpatory facts must be absolutely incompatible with the innocence of the accused and incompatible with explanation of any other reasonable hypothesis than that of their guilt.

If you can reconcile the facts in this case upon any reasonable theory consistent with the innocence of the defendant John Kunze, it is your duty so to do and find Kunze not guilty.

The same charge was made as to each of the other defendants separately except Beggs, concerning whom this special instruction was given:

It is not sufficient for the jury to find that a resolution was adopted for the appointment of a secret committee in Camp 20 on Feb. 8, 1889, but it is must further appear to your satisfaction beyond all reasonable doubt that such a committee was in fact appointed by the defendant Beggs and that such an appointment was set out in the indictment, and you must further be satisfied beyond all reasonable doubt that Beggs had knowledge of the purpose for which said committee was asked or if appointed assented to its purpose subsequently, or you will not be justified in finding a participation in such conspiracy on the part of Beggs by reason of the facts herein stated.

That Beggs was a member of the United Brotherhood and was presiding officer of Camp 20 are not circumstances standing alone tending to establish his guilt of the crime charged in the indictment, and as there is no evidence in this case that any overt act was committed by Beggs in the commission of the alleged murder, therefore, unless it is established that a conspiracy was entered into to commit the murder charged, to which conspiracy Beggs was a party, he should be acquitted.

Testimony of verbal admissions, statements and conversations ought to be taken by you with great caution, because that sort of testimony is subject to much imperfection and mistake, and when the verbal admission of a person charged with crime is offered in evidence the whole of the admission must be taken together as well that part which makes for the accused as that which makes against him, and if part of the statement which is in favor of the defendant is not disproved and is not apparently improbable or untrue when consistent with the other evidence in the case, such part of the statement is entitled to as much consideration from the jury as any other part of the statement.

Although you may believe that the defendant Beggs, at a meeting of Camp 20 on March 20, remarked in substance that that committee was to report to him, and even if you should further believe that such remark possessed some criminal import, yet in no view that can be taken of his case, will you be justified in using such remark as evidence against any other defendant.

Although you may fully and confidently believe that one J. B. Simonds, the person who drove Dr. Cronin away from his home on the night of May 4, and other unknown persons were members of a conspiracy to murder Dr. Cronin as charged in the indictment, and indeed that they did murder him, yet you cannot and ought not to use any evidence respecting the conduct and conversations of such persons, or any of them against any defendant unless you are first convinced beyond every reasonable doubt from the evidence that such defendant was also a member of such conspiracy to murder Dr. Cronin.

If the jury believe from the evidence in this case beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendants or any of them conspired and agreed together or with others to kill and murder Patrick Henry Cronin, and that in pursuance and furtherance of that common design and by a member or members of such conspiracy the said Patrick Henry Cronin was killed and murdered in manner and form as charged in the indictment in this case, then such of these defendants, if any, whom the jury believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt were parties to such conspiracy are guilty of the murder of Cronin, whether the identity of the individual doing the killing be established or not, or whether such defendants were present at the time of the killing or not.

Although you may believe that the defendant Burke rented the Carlson cottage and removed the furniture and other articles mentioned in evidence from 117 South Clark-street to the said cottage, and although you may further believe that Dr. Cronin was murdered in the Carlson cottage, you are advised that these acts of the defendant Burke in themselves are insufficient to justify you in concluding that he was a party to the alleged conspiracy unless it further appears beyond all reasonable doubt that such acts of Burke were deliberately and wilfully intended by him to assist in the perpetration in the crime of murder.

Although you may believe that Dinan's horse and buggy was used on May 4 to take the doctor to his death, you are advised that the act of the defendant Coughlin in engaging such horse and buggy is insufficient to justify you in concluding that he was a party to the alleged conspiracy unless it further appears beyond all reasonable doubt that such act of Coughlin's was deliberately and wilfully intended by him to assist in the perpetration of the crime of murder.

Although you may believe that the contract between O'Sullivan and Dr. Cronin was used on May 4 to decoy the doctor to his death, you are advised that the act of the defendant O'Sullivan in making such contract of itself is insufficient to justify you in concluding that he was a party to the alleged conspiracy unless it further appears beyond all reasonable doubt that such act of O'Sullivan was deliberately and wilfully intended by him to assist in the perpetration of the crime of murder, or that he knowingly and corruptly consented to the use of said contract in accomplishing the murder of the deceased.

The evidence in proof of a conspiracy will generally, in the nature of the case, be circumstantial. Though a common design is the essence of the charge it is not necessary to prove that the defendants came together and actually agreed in terms to have that design and to pursue it by common means. If the jury believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, acting in the light of the entire charge of the court, that the defendants now on trial, or some of them conspired together and with others who were to the grand jury unknown to kill and murder, Patrick Henry Cronin, and that one or more of the conspirators, in pursuance and furtherance of the conspiracy, did kill and murder the said Cronin in manner and form as charged in the indictment, then any or all of the defendants, if any, who so considered are in law guilty of such murder, although they may not have actually killed Cronin or been present at the time or place of the killing.

You ought not and cannot legally convict the defendants or either of them upon the mere doctrine of chance and probability. Although you may believe that it is highly probable and very likely that the defendants are guilty, and that it is far more likely and probable that they are guilty than that they are innocent, yet no amount of suspicion will warrant you in finding a verdict of guilty against the defendants or any of them.

The bailiffs who were to have charge of the jury were then sworn to the faithful discharge of their duty. The jurymen were then taken in charge by the bailiffs and taken to their room to begin their deliberations.

After the retirement of the jury and before the prisoners were escorted back to the jail there was considerable discussion over the question of which of the articles offered in evidence should be taken to the jury room for the inspection of the jury. This discussion lasted fifteen or twenty minutes, and in the course of it the counsel for the defence formally rendered the various motions before made against the introduction in evidence of the articles specified, consisting mostly of the trunk, the valise in which the clothes were found, the instrument case, the O'Sullivan cards, the trunk strap, the doctor's memorandum book, etc. The only articles offered in evidence which were not taken to the jury room were the doctor's clothes, and had the State insisted these would probably have gone to the jury, but as Mr Longenecker did not press the point and as the jury should not go to the jury room unless it was so requested by the jury later in its deliberations objected, it was decided that the clothes should not go.

At 4.35 p.m. the court adjourned until 8 p.m.

It was 8.10 o'clock before Judge McConnell reached the court room and entered his private chamber. The same eager bustling, tumultuous throng that has characterized the ten weeks of the trial was in attendance, and the only variation from the daily aggregation was the conspicuous absence of ladies at this very critical stage. Decorum appeared to take flight for the time being and the heavy fumes of tobacco smoke obscured the atmosphere in the court room. At 8.20 o'clock Judge McConnell emerged from his private chamber and followed his way through the crowd to the clerk's desk.

It was expected that had the jury succeeded in arriving at a verdict by this hour a messenger from that body would been waiting upon the court to inform His Honor that the jury was prepared to make a communication. No such messenger appeared. After a few more minutes of anxious waiting it became apparent that the jury had no communication for the court as yet. Judge McConnell refrained from calling the Court to order and simply announced to the press representatives as he retired to his private chamber: "Well, gentlemen, I am going away until 10 o'clock, so I suppose there will be nothing important until that hour." Slowly the crowd filed out and in a few minutes all was silent in the room except the murmur of a score of press representatives and court bailiffs, who already conversed discouragingly upon the prospects of a disagreeing jury.

As the hour of 10 drew near the court room again became a scene of animation. Anxious men and inquisitive women made their appearance as if by magic and in a few minutes the court-room, which had for 1½ hours been almost deserted, was again filled to its utmost capacity. The male portion of the audience greatly predominated. Most of the women present were relatives or friends of the prisoners.

There was only one theme of conversation in the audience that revolved itself into chattering groups of three or four—the probable verdict of the jury.

At 10.50 a bailiff entered the court room and whispered to Judge McConnell and the two then repaired hurriedly through the private corridor in the direction of the jury room, where it was presumed that body desired the verbal interpretation of the judge upon certain charges in the instructions.

At 11 p.m. the jury having failed to return a verdict, Judge McConnell announced that the court would take a recess until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning to give the jurors further time for deliberation.

HIS LAST GOOD-BY.

Nine-Year-Old Rowland Hewer Drowned at Guelph—A Triple Fatality at Port Hope.

GUELPH, Dec. 13.—Rowland, the 9-year-old son of John R. Hewer, was drowned about 11 o'clock this morning. The little fellow with his sister and companions left the school grounds and went to the river, where they amused themselves by throwing stones on the ice. One of the little girls ball rolled out on the ice and Rowland started after it. When half way across the ice gave way under him. He struggled manfully for a minute or two to catch hold of firm ice, but it gave way each time. When he saw that he could not escape he called out to his little sister, "Good-bye Lottie," and went down. The body was recovered an hour afterwards.

Three Port Hope Lads Drowned.

PORT HOPE, Dec. 13.—Last evening three children belonging to a very respectable family lost their lives by drowning. Two little boys, sons of Mr. Joseph Mallet, and a son of Mr. E. M. An energetic search party are now looking for the bodies

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Gentleman whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 308 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 36 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

Rail vs. Water.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—May I ask you to publish the following clipping from the Toronto Mail of this date.

Yours truly,
W. CLUXTON.

"Financially the season has been a bad one all around, and it is not calculated to lift the price of the miniature marine monsters that ply between ports on the great Canadian chain of lakes. The railways are fast absorbing the grain and lumber shipments, and from Toronto this year the shipment has been even less than last year. All the barley and grain formerly brought down from the rich agricultural counties of Grey and Simcoe are now taken to the seaboard on the Grand Trunk railway. The vessels bring coal both and go away light, and for this vessel-owners claim that they have been receiving a smaller freight than they should. One thing is certain, a vessel costing $10,000 to build a few years ago could not be sold for more than half that amount now."

Dec. 13th, 1889.

The Missionary Cause.

About the usual audience attended the missionary meeting at St. Paul's church Friday evening, when an address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Smith, returned Indian missionary who has been laboring in the great Hindoo empire for ten years under the American Board of Missions, and is now enjoying a well-earned rest.

After the customary opening religious exercises, conducted by Rev. E. F. Torrance, Rev. Mr. Smith began his address upon the subject of the condition of women in India. He contrasted the position of the Hindoo man and woman—the man allowed the fullest license and the woman yielding the strictest dependence upon and subserviency to her lord and master. Their education is neglected and very meagre, in consequence of the pernicious system of early marriages. Women are even denied salvation except through their husbands or by being born again as a man, the Hindoos holding the doctrine that every human creature is born repeatedly in different forms. The speaker quoted largely from the Hindoo book of religion to show the contemptuous spirit in which women is regarded by man. Hindooism, the speaker said, was crystallized, that is, it was unchangeable, and he went on to point out a number of facts which had come under his own observation to prove that the Brahminical system was not subject to changes with the times. Menial and deplorable as was the condition of the wife, that of the widow is infinitely worse. Her life is a perpetual reproach and hardship, and she is frequently driven to immorality. It is said that half the widows in India—and there are twenty millions of them—live immoral lives. What a terrible thought. Men crush and degrade women and then despise and condemn them therefor. The only plan for the amelioration of the condition of Hindoo women which could succeed was the introduction of consecrated women missionaries into the homes of India. The way was already prepared, and if an army of missionary women was sent out for this work they would meet with little opposition. They required workers of three classes—female doctors, teachers of schools for girls and Zenana workers. By these means the Hindoo women could be educated and converted to Christianity. Women must play an important part in the evangelization of India. This was a work in which the women were called to take a part, and in which there was the truest reward.

At the close of the address a collection was taken up to aid of the mission fund of the church. The meeting was brought to a close with singing and prayer, the choir rendering an appropriate anthem. Before closing a vote of thanks was tendered Rev. Mr. Smith.

North Harvey.

It was a grand occasion on Wednesday Nov. 20th, at Prospect Farm, when the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour, Miss Elma Anne, was married to Thomas Cashore, of Bobcaygeon. Although the weather was not so pleasant as it might have been, thirty couples assembled and spent a most enjoyable time. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Dale pastor of the Bobcaygeon Methodist Church and was immediately followed with a most sumptuous dinner, that was highly appreciated by all. After the festivities proper to the occasion, the bridal party started for Lindsay, accompanied by a large party of friends who drove some distance with them, indeed some went as far as Lindsay, where the happy couple took the train for the west. Those who remained at home, had a grand time in the evening, and kept up the fun till an early hour. The presents were very handsome by A. F. Lane, and James Seymour and the bride was charmingly supported by Miss Minnie Seymour and Miss Mary Cashore. The bride was elegantly dressed in terra cotta silk, and looked handsome in her bridal veil and flowers, and the bride's maids in terra cotta and mauve satin were as pretty as could be. The presents were numerous and costly, consisting of a sewing machine from the bride's father; a set of china dishes and thirty five yards of carpet from the bride's mother; glassware and fancy table spread from Jas. Seymour; fancy sofa pillow and bon bonier, Tilly Seymour; toilet set and whisk holder, Minnie Seymour; a bed, mattress and pillows, Chas. Seymour; a pair of linen table covers and dozen table napkins, Harry Seymour; parlor curtains and bed room set, Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore, of Peterborough; vases, Myra Moore, Peterborough; a clock, A. F. Lane; parlor lamp and breakfast cruet, Mary Cashore; silver cake basket and four o'clock tea set, from father of the groom; silver pickle cruet and bread plate, Miss L. Cashore; cut glass water pitcher and goblets, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Fenelon Falls; a whisk and holder, Rev. Mr. Adams; parlor lamp, Annie Shannon, Lindsay; silver tea set, Mr. and Miss Seymour, Orillia; half dozen silver napkin rings, Miss Bradley, Toronto; parlor mirror, Miss Goldie, Lindsay; silver butter cooler, knife, and salt cellar, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert; silver pickel cruet and salt and pepper cruet, Mr. and Mrs. Sperling, of Orillia; floral album, Mr. G. E. Rose; chess or dish Miss N. McKee of Lindsay; toilet set, Miss E. Reavis of Peterborough; bread board and knife, Mr. F. McBrien, of Peterborough; glass cabinet stand, Mr and Mrs. Russell; breakfast cruet, Mrs. Finley; jewellery box, Miss C. Finley; silver napkin ring, Miss M. Lawson; silver butter cooler, Mr. J. and Miss Morrison; mirror, Mr. S. Finley; pair celery dishes, Miss Alma Bradley, Toronto; mantle drape, Miss L. Moore; doz silver spoons, Mr. J. E. Lane, Campbellford, and several articles too numerous to mention. We wish the happy couple all this world can bestow upon them.

Baby one Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched multitude—no rest by day, no peace by night—doctors and all remedies failed—Tried Cuticura—Effect marvellous—Saved his life

Cured by Cuticura.

Our eldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs.

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and perfoming a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH.

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature Death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected Cold, which, by gradual advance, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease [illegible] is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold [illegible] the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as [illegible] dull [illegible] from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, [illegible] from the nostrils, [illegible] of smell, or taste becoming dull, hacking cough, [illegible] general feeling of debility, hoarse [illegible] whooping or cracking sound in your chest, when [illegible] a feeling of dizziness, particularly when stooping, a feeling of tightness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea, in the morning when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat. Do not neglect them, [illegible] but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run [illegible] under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure discovered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestionable fact, which is vouched by thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of many [illegible] cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion, and we append a few, selected at random as a fair example of hundreds:—

Mr. A. [illegible] Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says:—[illegible] Gentlemen,—I may state that I have been afflicted with Catarrh for seven or eight years, and for [illegible] was attended with consequent symptoms, such as foul breath, constant dropping of the throat, hawking and spitting, with [illegible] ringing in the ears, and sick headache. I [illegible] only received relief arising from the use of such [illegible] temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of NASAL BALM are sweet breath, stoppage of the dropping into the throat, [illegible] hawking and spitting, perfect clearness of hearing, and not once since I used its contents have I had a cold in the head. I [illegible] any opinion that careful and [illegible] use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

James H. McLaughlin, Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM has certainly the BEST REMEDY I have tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is [illegible] and convenient to use adds greatly to its [illegible] but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease—C[illegible]

W. Chas. Hanley, postmaster, [illegible] says:—I submit the following to [illegible] that any who may be afflicted with Catarrh may be benefited by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Henrietta Blackwell, Purbrook, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for Catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

Miss Maggie M. Martin, Tatamagouche, Pa., says:—Through a friend in Canada I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with Catarrh, and it is the first remedy from which I have experienced any relief, and I feel certain it will cure me.

Minnie McNairn, Millbrook, Ont., says:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The [illegible] disappeared before I had used [illegible], and I find myself receiving the greatest benefit. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure me of Catarrh if its use is persevered in.

Mr. John [illegible] Adams, Brantford, Ont., says:—I have used NASAL BALM for Catarrh and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

[illegible] Doyle, Jr., Selkirk, writes:—As a medicine to check [illegible] catarrhal affections [illegible] in the Head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We price it [illegible]

Mr. A. Schlenig, [illegible] Ont., says:—For a number of years my [illegible] has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr. [illegible] have promised to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months [illegible] becomes worse and weaker than before. I found that I [illegible] spent $25 for [illegible] treatment that did no good. My [illegible] began to use your NASAL BALM, and [illegible] improved wonderfully, and she is now [illegible] stronger than [illegible] Your medicine is the best in the market, and you can use this as testimony.

Emilie Pelletier, Grenville, says:—I can scarcely find words to tell you how highly I esteem NASAL BALM. The effects in my case have been wonderful.

Alpha H. Dales, Tarbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to take any other remedy which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you on receipt of price—50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

ALBANI'S CASE IN COURT.

The Contralto will Not be Examined at Chicago - Other Toronto Notes.

TORONTO, Dec. 13.—The appeal of Mr. Millar for Albani against her examination at Chicago in the suit of Thomson v Albani Gye has been allowed by Mr. Justice Street, and the order for Albani's examination set aside. Yesterday Mr. Thomson's solicitors made another move in the action by delivering the statement of claim, which sets out the grounds of Mr. Thomson's action against the cantatrice. The plaintiff says he is a real estate broker in the city of Toronto and that the defendant is a professional singer residing in London, Eng., and elsewhere; that during August and November, 1884, defendant, through her agents, Ernest Gye of London, Eng., and John Lavine of New York, contracted with plaintiff that she would, during the then ensuing winter concert season, appear in Toronto and Buffalo to give and sing in two concerts under the management of plaintiff, which contract was concluded by the following letter so far as defendant was concerned:

OCTOBER 14, 1884.

Mr. J. F. Thomson, 75 Grenville-To-street, Toronto, Prov. Ont.

DEAR SIR, In reply to your favors of Sept. 23 and Oct. 6, say that I would accept your offer for two concerts, one in Toronto and one in Buffalo, for Mlle. Albani and Concert Company and pay all expenses (traveling and hotel of the company), and would require a deposit of one-half before Dec. 1. In regard to the Montreal concerts, we will on no condition dispose of them, as we prefer to give them ourselves. I regret that it was impossible for me to give you an answer sooner.

Yours truly, JOHN LAVINE.

In pursuance of this agreement the plaintiff began preparations for the two concerts agreed to be given and expended much time and labor on such preparations, and in traveling, advertising etc., and before Dec. 1, 1884, notified the defendant that he was ready to make the deposit required, but defendant by herself and agents, refused to carry out the contract and has not carried it out, though plaintiff has always been willing and anxious to do so. The plaintiff therefore asks to be recouped by defendant for the time and labor expended and loss and damage sustained by him through the non-fulfillment of the contract and places his damages at $5000. The statement of defence will be delivered at once. The place of trial is fixed at Toronto.

LOOKED DEATH IN THE FACE.

How a Young Soldier Saved His Manhood and His Life.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 11.—When Dr. Charles Garcia, a well-known physician of St. Louis, who is to be buried to-morrow, was a private in the Confederate army he had a remarkable experience with General Braxton Bragg during the retreat from Corinth. General Bragg, then second in command to General P. G. T. Beauregard, whom he afterward superseded, was personally superintending the loading of the cars bound for the rear. At that moment young Garcia, who was suffering from illness, passed near, looking for the cars that were to convey the sick to Tupelo. An officer called Bragg's attention to Garcia, and the General ordered him to go to work at once. Garcia answered that he was too ill to do so. With every appearance of rage Bragg shouted:—

"What! You dare to disobey my orders!"

"I do," replied the young man.

The General called a lieutenant of a Louisiana company of regulars doing guard duty and said:—"Take six of your company and carry this man to that grove and shoot him!"

The lieutenant called his men, but before going to the grove General Bragg took him aside and talked for a moment. The recalcitrant soldier was then taken to the grove and placed upon a stool, with his back to a tree. He refused to be blindfolded, but took off his watch, chain and ring, wrote a name on a piece of paper and handed it all to the lieutenant, asking that the jewelry be sent to the address given.

"Now I am ready," he said.

Muskets were leveled. The young man looked at their muzzels as calmly as though he was being photographed. After a moment the lieutenant ordered "Recover arms!" He rushed upon the young soldier, complimented him upon his bravery, returned his jewelry and ordered him to go.

"Where is the boy?" General Bragg asked of the lieutenant a few minutes later.

"Gone," was the reply and the story of the young man's behavior was told. The General had search made for him, saying, "I'll promote him." But he was not to be found, and did not receive promotion.

The Father of 32 Children.

FAIRBURN, Ga., Dec. 12.—Ussbirs Staton, who died last week in Fayette County, was a remarkable man in many respects. He was eighty-one years old and had lived in the same house for sixty-one years. By his first wife he had seventeen children and by his second fifteen. Around his bedside when he died were seventeen of his nineteen living children. He had grandchildren too numerous to mention. He had given nearly every one some of the land which he owned, and his children always lived close about him. He was 6 feet in height and had been sick only a few hours before death. Last Christmas week he went to Fairmston and going into a store and called for ten hats, saying he wanted them as Christmas gifts for his sons. The merchant said: "If you can call your ten sons into my store now I will give them each a hat." Mr. Stalton went to the door and called the boys until the ten stood in a row before the merchant, and received their hats.

How Louis is Handled about.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 11.—It is reported the Government will settle the application of Prince Louis Bonaparte, the son of Jerome, in a way not to offend the French Government, by appointing him to a regiment station in the Caucasus. The Prince was in the Italian reserve and resigned at the request of his father when there was much irritation in France against Italy because of its alliance with Germany. He subsequently obtained a commission of Major in the Russian service, and asked to be assigned to the Imperial Guard, but the Czar has now decided against that.

O'CONNOR STATES HIS TERMS.

Wants a Guarantee Before Entering the Washington Lake Regatta.

TORONTO, Dec. 13.—Yesterday Champion William O'Connor sent a letter to C. C. Calkins Seattle, stating that he would enter the Washington Lake Regatta, providing the proposed $15,000 purse were guaranteed. It is not at all likely that an answer will be received at an early date as only Mr. Calkins' $5000 and a small portion by Seattle has already been deposited.

It now behooves that prosperous western city to show her munificence and complete arrangements for this great international aquatic regatta.

You sturdy oaks whose branches wide
Defy the storms and winds defy;
Not long ago on acorn small,
Lay dormant 'neath the summer sky

Now within the thrifty oak in its germ, development and growth, is consumption. But even this mighty foe of mankind, positively yields to the wonderful curative properties of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery if taken early. Don't be blind to your own interests and think yours a hopeless case. This remarkable remedy has rescued thousands. It is the only medicine of its class, sold by all druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded. o

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life on energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

Valuable to Many.

CONSUMPTION may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles. 2w51d

A Plain Statement.

All poisonous waste, and worn out matter ought to escape from the system through the excretions of the bowels, kidneys and skin. B.B.B. cleanses, opens and regulates these natural outlets for the removal of disease. 2w51d

If you are tired taking the large, old fashioned griping pills, try Carter's Little Liver Pills and take none comfort. A man can't stand everything. One pill a dose. Try them. dw

To INVIGORATE both the body and the brain, use the reliable tonic, Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine. dw

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Munga," and "Motto E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. ms

Struck with Lightning.

neatly describes the position of a hard or soft corn when Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is applied. It does its work so quickly and without pain that it seems magical in action. Try it. Recollect the name—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere. 6dw50

Important to Workingmen.

ARTIZANS, mechanics, and laboringmen are liable to sudden accidents and injuries, as well as painful sores, stiff joints and lameness. To all thus troubled we would recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the handy and reliable pain cure for outward or internal use. 2w49d

The Best Ever Made.

GENTLEMEN.—My trouble was heart disease and dyspepsia, but I took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and one of Burdock Pills and got well. I never felt better in my life. My brother has also tried B. B. B. and thinks it a splendid medicine. 2w49d MRS. JNO. EARLY, Hamilton, Ont.

What is Wanted

IS something that will make a man sleep well, eat well and rise in the morning refreshed and strong, with none of the worn out tired feeling sure to be found where constipation, dyspepsia or diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood exists. Burdock Blood Bitters meets every indication expressed above 2w49d

DYSPEPSIA, that great source of misery to so many people, can be effectually cured by the use of Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine. It is carefully prepared, easily assimilated and can be taken by the weakest invalid. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal. 6d134

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of deafness and noises in the head of 25 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it FREE to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John st., Montreal. dw

Those unhappy persons who suffer from sour stomach and dyspepsia should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents. dw

SCROFULA

Humors,

Erysipelas,

Canker, and

Catarrh,

Can be cured by purifying the blood with

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindsie, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 908 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

Does It Move? Does What Move?
Why the turtle in Mason's window. Certainly not, don't you see it's chained. How can it move? True—true, but the Raisins are moving lively at the exceedingly low price—5 lbs. for 25c. Best value in Peterborough for Xmas fruits. 2d138

A Great Success.
The wonderful bargains and immense value given at the great sale of M. Sullivan & Co's has caused the great success of the sale. Hundreds of customers have come to "shop" and stayed to buy. The prices and goods were such as they could not resist. A splendid stock, kept well assorted, placed at figures which must sell the goods. A beautiful line of woven shawls form one of the latest and most attractive features. Don't neglect this great sale. If you do you will miss the biggest bargains ever presented in Peterborough. dw

Reasons Why.
10 lbs. bright sugar and 4 lbs. of fine tea for $2. Everyone who has tried our teas say they never have had such value as we are giving. Why? Because we buy in large quantities and pay the cash. We are bound to sell and will sell at close profits. Flour and all kind of meal kept in stock and will be sold cheap. Make no mistake, then is the store to deal in. The wholesale and retail trade supplied on short notice, at the Red Tea Store, 321 George street.

All the Trumps!
By reference to announcement elsewhere in this issue of the EXAMINER, it will be seen that we have made another big swoop in overcoats. The engagement over our wonderful $5.00 overcoat is increasing every week. They are going out at a "2.50" gait. But for all that, we have added still another considerably above that of overcoats—the cheapest of all—which we have just secured for the ready money. These we will actually sell for $3.75!! Can beat the record. We now hold all the trumps in the pack, and invite buyers to make an examination. A comparison is all we ask.

Railway vs. Canal.
Peterborough is having her traffic wants carefully attended to just at present, and there seems to be differences of opinion as to whether the Trent Valley Canal or the extension of the Chemong Valley Railway northward, is the better. Some persons entertain doubts of the probability of the canal being opened for traffic next summer, but as to the railway there is no doubt that having brou't four locomotives on the line, and now have a monopoly of public favours—fresh, directly imported and pure and cheap. Coffees ditto. A fine stock of glassware always on hand.

Labor Conquers all Things.
KIDD's daily labor is now composed of selling $3.90 overcoats worth $6. KIDD is constantly employed, and he likes his occupation immensely. dw

Ladies
Take advantage of this offer for the next 30 days. Ordered corsets $1.25 to $1.40. Perfect fit guaranteed. Good commission paid packing mercantile agents. Mrs. GERMELL, 142 Simcoe street, Peterborough. d131

Closing the Week's Engagement.
At the opera house last night the gold watch was won by Mrs. W. Leblanch, the chime tea set by Miss M. Macaulay, and the chamber set by Mr. A. B. Appleby. The final performance of Zera Semon's company takes place to-night.

Never Borrows Trouble.
KIDD never troubles trouble till trouble troubles him. Why? Simply because his $3.80 coat was bought at 67c. on the dollar and is worth $1.50 more than the $3.90 coat we need so much about. Come and see KIDD at 372 George street. dw

Sam Jones' statements are full of wisdom and truth. One of his latest and best is that "Dr McIntyre, of Chicago, is the finest speaker on this continent." Hundreds of our citizens will agree with Brother Jones for they are going to hear the Eloquent Chicago Plaisform Magnet, on Tuesday evening next.

Do all You Can.
Do all the good you can to the people you can, in all the ways you can, just as long as you can. KIDD is daily practising this motto. To be convinced come and inspect his $3.90 Overcoats, sold by other dealers at $6.00. Be always kind hearted, do good without end, but never forget your affectionate friend KIDD, the regulator of clothing prices, 372 George street. dw

Morrow's Teas.
Try W. J. Morrow's beautiful blends of Black Tea, Fine Hysons and Japans, acknowledged to be the finest in town. California Dried Fruits, self rising Buckwheat, silver Spanish Onions, very cheap by the grain. Fine Dried Apples; and all wishing a good cup of coffee, should not fail to try our fresh ground. Weis and see you have it ground fresh.

Be Content.
Be content with thy lot, though it may be small, each must have their share; one cannot have it all. KIDD does not want the earth, but he does want everybody to know that he is selling Ready-made Clothing at just half the regular price. dw

Going Very Fast.
The remnants of Mantle Cloths which J. J. Sheehy advertised at cost, are going "like hot cakes." There are yet a few nice pieces left; also four or five lengths of beautiful Scalettes, which will be cleared out at cost price. The Scalettes are excellent value and should be seen at once.

An Interesting Suit
Papers have been served in an interesting case which is to come up before the police magistrate Monday morning. Mr. E. E. Bowie charges Mr. John McClelland with using "grossly insulting and abusive language" towards him. The complaint is that Mr. McClelland accused Mr. Bowie and other members of the grand jury with having perjured themselves.

The Feast is Over.
The Feast of Days held on Simcoe street Thursday and Friday was brought to a successful termination last night. During the two days bazaar the ladies of the Charlotte street church cleared a nice sum of money for the benefit of their funds. The ladies desire to thank Mr. Jas. Stevenson for the use of the building, and Mr. J. W. Crosby for his kindness in loaning them the piano they used.

A North-West Pony.
Mr. J. C. Turnbull yesterday received from his brother in the North-West a small native pony, for driving purposes. The mustang is four years old, and is well broken in. When being unloaded at the station the men, who had doubtless heard of the vicious habits of the untamed mustang, were at first afraid to venture near the beast, but on learning that it had been broken in, they went to work with more confidence. The pony is a handsome one and trained for driving.

St. Andrew's Church.
The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Auxiliary of St. Andrew's church will be held in the school room of said church on the eve of Dec. 16th. The annual report of the President, Secretary and Treasurer will be presented and other matters of business be considered. Arrangements have been made for a social, tea and musical programme. A cordial invitation is extended to members and friends of the various missionary societies in connection with the town churches. All are welcomed. At the close a collection will be taken up.3d138

Why Wont People Understand?
It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE.

Rare intellectual treat, Rev. Prof. Clark, Trinity College, Toronto, his Famous Lecture on "SAVONAROLA," in Opera House, Thursday Evening, 19th December. General Admission, 25 cents.

A Terribly Sudden Death.
Friday afternoon shortly after four o'clock Mr. John Jinks, who drives the delivery wagon for W. J. Mason's grocery store, was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs and died with fifteen minutes. Mr. Jinks was engaged in loading some parcels on the wagon in front of the store, and began spitting blood. He was assisted inside and laid down, when he speedily took unconscious, and shortly after the arrival of Dr. Yelland who had been summoned, the unfortunate man died. Deceased was fifty one years of age and lived with his family on London street. He has suffered from previous attacks of hemorrhage, and on Friday complained of feeling rather dull. He was engaged at light work when the attack came on.

A Good Mariner.
A smooth sea never made a skillful mariner. No man in town recognizes this fact more than KIDD. His sails are neatly trimmed and all the wind bags floating around may burst, still he keeps on selling clothing at 25 per cent. less than other dealers paid for them. dw

The Mora Clench Concert.
The public take as great an interest in this great musical treat, to be presented in the Opera House on Jan 9th, that information in regard to the progress of the arrangements for the programme will be very acceptable. Mention has been made of the leading part Miss Clench takes on the programme; also of the appearance of Mrs. Chambers, of Montreal, who has taken so high a place among vocalists. And the public will hear with great pleasure that the services of Mr. T. Dunn, our brilliant baritone, have been secured, who will, it is expected, contribute a couple of his stirring solos, and probably take part in a vocal duet with Mrs. Chambers. As the programme takes shape, the certainty of the concert on January 9th being thoroughly first-class in every department is assured. A specially trained orchestra will be present to give the requisite harmonic balance to the programme.

County Court.

Conclusion of the Business of the Court.

FRIDAY, Dec. 13.

Yesterday the court continued its sittings, and concluded the business.

PATTON vs. WATSON.—An action of replevin for the recovery of two horses, harness and cow, brought by Charles Payton by his agent, John Wesson, of Warsaw, against John Watson. The action arose out of leasing a farm on shares. The horses were delivered to defendant, the tenant, by plaintiff at a valuation of $200—the animals or their equivalent to be returned. The case turned on the question of a proper demand for the return of the horses, and the jury finding that a proper demand had not been made for return, returned a verdict for defendant. Messrs. Peterkin & Johnston, for plaintiff; Mr. W. H. Moore, for defendant.

BARRY vs. MORRISON.—Action of trespass brought by David Barry, of Dummer, against James Morrison, of the same place, to recover damages to the amount of $200 for trespass and cutting timber on plaintiff's premises. Verdict for plaintiff and $75 damages with costs. Mr. Jno. Burnham for plaintiff; Messrs. Edmison & Dixon for defendant.

Young vs. Fair & Co.—An action (non-jury case) brought by Mr. A. V. R. Young, assignee for damages in the case of the assignment of Hugh Quirk against Fair & Co., of Brantford, to set aside alleged fraudulent preference. Settled out of court. Messrs. Peterkin & Johnston for plaintiff; Messrs. Boyd, Muirhead & Jones, Brantford, for defendants.

The court sat till late last night.

No collections have been taken at any service and Mr. Burson has asked nothing. We therefore rely on our people to give a liberal collection. Mr. Burson will address the following meetings:—Young Men's meeting, to-night at 8 p.m. Sabbath morning at 9 a.m.; Consecration meeting, at 4.15; Sodal Purity meeting, 8.30 p.m. in George street Methodist church, farewell meeting. We trust many young men will attend.

The New Rector of Peterboro'.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, M. A., Receives the Appointment.

In obedience to the Bishop's request the churchwardens and lay representatives of St. John's went to Toronto this morning in order to confer with His Lordship as to the appointment of a successor to the late Rev. J. W. R. Beck. A telegram received this afternoon informs us that the Bishop has pleased to appoint Rev. J. C. Davidson, M.A., to be rector of Peterborough. Mr. Davidson will be inducted on the first or second Sunday in January.

The Railway Project.
The meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade last night was largely attended. Matters regarding the Trent Valley Canal and G.T.R. extention northward were discussed. The various committees brought in their reports. Mr. Wm. Hamilton spoke at some length urging the town to look to its road to the north, as other places were cutting in behind them, and if Peterborough wished to continue the splendid markets it was, it must be up and doing. Prices were better here than in any of the surrounding towns, and there was no reason our town should not be the Toronto of the Midland district. Other speakers followed in the same strain, and finally a committee was appointed consisting of Messrs. J. M. Irwin, F. H. Dobbin and the Secretary, to thoroughly investigate this matter, to collect information concerning it and to report to the council at an early date, and to act in conjunction with the town council, which is also bestirring itself. The Board of Trade is now in communication with Manager Hickman with reference to the railway project.

The trial of the Cronin suspects was concluded yesterday and as late as ten o'clock last night the jury had not rendered a verdict. This morning the EXAMINER received the following despatches:—

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Jury have returned verdict. Burke, Coughlin and Sullivan to hang. Beggs to get five years; Kunze two years.

Flogging Pupils.

The Bobcaygeon Independent remarks:—"Whether a parent has a moral right to beat his children is a question that has never been satisfactorily determined, but if a father has a moral right to beat his son it is difficult to give any reason why the man has not a moral right to beat his father—if he can. Leaving this debateable question alone, and granting the moral right of the father to beat his son, it is quite clear that he can have no power to transfer that right to another. The school teacher who flogs a pupil commits an act which no system of morality can justify. Flogging and beating school pupils is a horrible remnant of savage antiquity and should be repressed with a strong hand. A school teacher who beats or flogs a pupil should be instantly dismissed by the authorities, and the parents should indict him for assault. Just think, without prejudice, of the position. The law compels the parent to send his son to school, whether he wishes to do so or whether he does not wish to do so, and then, when the boy is at school the teacher flogs the boy at his own discretion! It is hardly possible to conceive greater tyranny or injustice.

A man named Colbeck was a teacher in a Peterborough school, at that school a little son of Mr. J. B. McWilliams was a pupil. Colbeck beat that little boy with a stick until his body was streaked with bruises. His father went to the school, taking with him a raw-hide whip and gave the fellow a sound thrashing. The matter is now before the courts, but the School Board at a meeting last week, had an animated discussion, Mr. McWilliams being a member of the Board. You would naturally suppose that the Board would summarily dismiss the teacher. Not at all. The Board instead, seriously discussed a proposition to prosecute Mr. McWilliams for having taken justice into his own hands. The Board instead of acting as the trustees of their masters,—the people, as usual acted as the trustees of the people's servants,—the teachers.

"At the next election the people should dispense with the services of those trustees who so seriously misused the trust reposed with them.

"Again this journal observes that the day of force, compulsion, masterful violence and brutality has passed, or at all events is passing away, and if physical force must yet be employed, it can only be rightly used to repel force."

IS YOUR BAKING POWDER PURE?

Do its Manufacturers Publish all the Ingredients Used?

IS IT FREE FROM AMMONIA?

As is well known, ammonia is unhealthful in food, and dries up the bread material.

Protection to consumers of food compounds lies in their ability to choose those made from healthful substances. Unless manufacturers publish just what their baking powder is made of, do not use their goods, but buy instead

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER.

THE JURY STILL OUT.

CRONIN'S ALLEGED SLAYERS IN DIRE SUSPENSE.

Wild Rumors as to the Verdict—Judge McConnell Interviewed—The State's Attorney Confident of an Agreement.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—The jury in the Cronin case is apparently as far from agreement as it was when it retired. It is very generally believed now that the result will be a disagreement.

Another report that now finds ready credence is to the effect that one juror is actuated by motives other than those of strict justice. Names are freely mentioned, but facts upon which to base an assertion of this kind are meagre.

It is stated, however, as a peculiar circumstance that one juror who objected to serving on account of his poverty, did not draw his all wance until a few days ago, while other jurors drew theirs weekly.

At 5:45 p.m. Sheriff Matson announced that the jury had no communication to make to the judge, and therefore Judge McConnell decided he would not open court until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

It seems generally conceded to-night that Juror Culver is the only recalcitrant member, but there is a wide difference of opinion as to the motives by which he is actuated. Culver is a prominent member of the Methodist Church, a prohibitionist and a believer in complete sanctification. During the intervals of the trial he has been a close Bible reader, carrying a small edition in his pocket. Those who know him best declare his integrity impregnable.

The startling statement is made to-night that the mental strain of the long trial has unbalanced his mind and that he is to a degree at least distracted on the subject of Cronin's death and its cause. The report leaks from the jury-room that he has separated himself from the other jurors and maintains continued silence, refusing to discuss the case.

Another report is that the jury have agreed upon a verdict imposing the death penalty upon Coughlin, Burke and O'Sullivan, acquitting Beggs and sentencing Kunze to 15 years in the penitentiary.

DELAY MEANT HOPE.

The Prisoners Cheered by Every Passing Hour—Wild Rumors.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—As the evening passed and the early hours of the night drew on, the wild and groundless rumors which had been rife throughout the day showed some signs of cessation, and the crowd interested in the verdict of the Cronin jury satisfied itself with the abandonment of speculation and awaited the results of its further deliberation without assuming to predict the outcome. The prisoners, so far as knowledge of their feelings could be obtained, were cheered by every passing hour that failed to bring the verdict. In their minds delay meant hope, and the inference was only plausible that when 24 hours of deliberation had failed to enable the jury to reach a verdict the chances were increasing for their disagreement. In short at 8 o'clock to-night but little more was known as to the real status of the jury than was known at 8 o'clock last night, four hours after that body had retired.

If a consensus of opinion be valuable—for there is a consensus of opinion—it may be stated that the general belief to-night is that the jury has decided as to the guilt of Burke, Coughlin and O'Sullivan, and that the prospect of disagreement applies only to Beggs and Kunze. There is really no more ground, however, for this belief than for the groundless rumors that have been afloat during the day: yet, of course, this possible that some information may have leaked from the jury room which may have first established the conviction. It is urged, and even plausibly, that a failure to agree upon the guilt of the principal conspirators would give this time have been referred to the court of a disagreeing jury. As no juror returns himself as personally surmised that this consideration which existed only applies to the question of the guilt of the men against whom the evidence has least weight.

At 10.35 p.m. the large audience which had assembled in the court-room was rapped to order by Sheriff Matson, who said: "Gentlemen, I want to announce that there is no return from the jury and Judge McConnell has left his private chamber and gone home for the night. You are also now all free to go home." "Until when?" inquired a newspaper man from the audience. "The Judge will be down to-morrow when he is sent for," was the answer. "But, see, before?" asked some one. "I think not," said the Sheriff in a low tone and he declined to go into further details. It was understood that there will be no formal session of the court to-morrow, but that the Judge will be prepared at any time during the day to visit the court-room and receive the verdict when notified by the jury that they are ready to make a return.

STILL SILENT.

Sunday Brings no Sign From the Jury Room—Judge McConnell Talks.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Another day of deliberation has passed without bringing any verdict from the Cronin jury. At 5.30 this afternoon Judge McConnell left the court-room stating that he would again be on hand to receive it in case the jury might have to report at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The only instructions he gave were that in case the jury should succeed in arriving at a verdict during the night the bailiff might then conduct them to a hotel, but the verdict would not be received by the court until to-morrow morning.

Rumors of all kinds have been afloat to-day and to-night. However erroneous it may be the public appears to have hastily arrived at the conclusion that there is to be a disagreement of the jury and that the old attempts at bribing have in some mysterious way proved successful. The statement that Juror Culver of Evanston, a Presbyterian, and had of the most respected citizens of his community, is the disagreeing juror has, however, tended to shape this conclusion somewhat and the more conservative are content to await further results before condemning anybody. It is quite possible Mr. Culver's obstinacy may only apply to some minor point in the case or to the guilt of Kunze or Beggs, although the reports most current agree that he is voting no on the broad question of the guilt of the prisoners as a body. The State's Attorney and counsellor citizens generally deprecate the severe strictures made by the local papers upon Mr. Culver's supposed obstinacy and are sure in the city is probably more sanguine of ultimate agreement than is the public prosecutor himself.

Judge McConnell this afternoon was questioned regarding the reported status of the jury: "I have had no intimation," said he, "that the jury thinks it will be unable to agree, and I am of the opinion that a verdict will be ultimately reached. I did not expect any verdict, even if agreed upon, would be turned in to-day. It is in fact doubtful whether the jury is considering the case at all to-day; most of the members are religious men, members of some church, and it is altogether likely that if any particular man demurred at considering the matter to-day the jury would at once acquiesce in his scruples and postpone further deliberations until to-morrow."

"You do not then share in the general belief that there will be a disagreement?"

"I do not. I feel quite confident that the jury will agree in time. There is no good reason for the hasty conclusion of a disagreement. There are thousands of instances where juries have been out much longer than this and yet finally agreed upon a satisfactory verdict."

"You anticipate a run of compromise verdicts, then?"

"All verdicts are naturally compromise verdicts as you term them. If they were not it would mean that the opinions of each of the twelve men were identical upon the question of guilt immediately upon retiring. As a matter of fact that is rarely, if ever, the case. In a case where there is so much to consider as this a departure from the rule could hardly be expected."

"The verdict of a jury is necessarily a compromise one?"

"Well, substantially so. If it were not there would be no need of twelve men, but the jury might just as well be composed of one. It is the consensus of opinion that the law contemplates as being the most likely to ensure justice."

"It is stated that you intend to keep the jury out until they do agree in this case, a week or two if necessary. Is such your intention?"

"Of course it would be improper for me to state at this time my intentions, if I could anticipate the causes which might lead to such a determination. It must be borne in mind, however, that the court must necessarily exercise discretion in such a matter as that. The Supreme Court may have to pass upon this case. Dropping the Cronin case altogether I will illustrate with an imaginary case. Suppose we have a case where eleven men are agreed upon the question of the guilt of the defendant and the twelfth believes in his innocence. That jury, we will say, is kept out two or three days and the status of opinion is the same, the one man still holding out against the eleven. Suppose then as you suggest the judge should order them out immediately after they had stated their inability to agree and ultimately force them to a verdict of the eleven men all the time arguing with, remonstrating and chiding the twelfth. Suppose then the case should go to the Supreme Court and the twelfth man should come forward and state that he had been coerced and worried into an agreement by his fellows against his better judgment that it was only under the stress of mental anxiety or anguish that he had consented to the verdict. In such a case do you doubt that the Supreme Court would invalidate that verdict and order a new trial? Of course the jury should be given ample time and every opportunity to agree, but the demarcation between deliberate concession and a coercive verdict should be closely drawn. The law does not contemplate an inquisition to extort judgment from the mind of the juror."

"Have you received any request from the jury for special instructions since its retirement?"

"I have not. I have never been in the jury room and indeed I have no right to enter it. Should they request any fuller interpretation of any instruction which the court has given them, they can only request it formally, and then it is the duty of the court to call them into the court and there in the presence of the defendants and their attorneys, interpret to the jury's satisfaction the law applying to the evidence. No such request has been made and no reading of the record of evidence has been asked for."

"In case of a disagreement of the jury, will the case be tried again before you, or can the defendant take a change of venue out of the county?"

"The defendants can by the customary affidavits take a change of venue from the consecutive judges and probably succeed in having it tried out of the county. There are five defendants and each defendant can twice have the opportunity of demanding a change of venue, so that a change could be successively taken from 10 judges."

"What county would these changes of venue probably take the case to eventually?"

"Likely to Lake or Du Page County. They are the nearest counties to Cook. Remember, now, in answering these questions I am not attempting to predict what the defendants' attorney would do, but simply what they could do under the law by availing themselves of all its provisions."

WHO WAS HE?

A Hamilton Man Said to Have Been Shot in Ireland.

HAMILTON, Dec. 15.—Yesterday morning this letter was received by The Times:

"CLARE, Ireland, Nov. 29, 1889.

"It has been reported here that a man from Hamilton has been shot in Leitrim, a landlord's bailiff, having a copy of your paper in his pocket."

The Grand Trunk have just about completed arrangements to build the second spur line at the Beach, of which mention was made some time ago. They are purchasing a right of way and have already settled with three farmers and made offers to two others. This spur when built will connect the main line at Stoney Creek with the N. and N. W. branch at the Beach.

Surveyors have been at work recently laying out a route for the Niagara Central from St. Catharines to this city. The line surveyed runs just north of the Grand Trunk track and parallel to it. Just where the line will cross the Grand Trunk is not yet decided.

A proposition was presented to the Railway Committee at its last star chamber meeting by the T. H. & B. projectorate, but no action was taken. The lowest sum the company ask is $225,000.

Judge and Mrs. Sinclair and Miss Sinclair left at 9 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Florida, where they expect to remain about six months. The trip is made for the benefit of His Honor's health, which has been far from good for some time past.

FIRE AT PORT ROBINSON

NEARLY ALL THE BUSINESS HOUSES BURNT.

A Serious Loss to the Merchants—The Queen's Hotel at Trenton Consumed—A Buffalo Elevator in Ashes.

WELLAND, Dec. 14.—About 1.45 this morning a disastrous fire broke out in Macoomb's "Beehive" grocery at Port Robinson, and nearly all the business houses there fell a prey to the flames. As there are no appliances for fighting the fire the flames quickly spread to Coleman's store and bakery, the next to go being J. & T. Coulter's dry goods store in their brick block, occupied overhead by the Rose Hall and lodge rooms. Coulter & Bennett's tailor shop was next attacked, and then the brick block owned by Mrs. Robert Elliott and occupied by C. B. Bennett.

Coulter's loss on building is $3500, insurance $3000 in Waterloo; loss on stock $2300, no insurance. Mrs. Elliott's loss on building $4000, insurance $1300 in Caledonia: Bennett's loss on stock $2000, no insurance; Coleman's loss $800, insurance $500; loss on stock owned by Martin, Small, Masons and Sons of Temperance, about $18,000, total insurance about $8000.

The loss coming just before Christmas and when the merchants had just received their Christmas stocks, makes it doubly hard for them. The fire was no doubt of an incendiary origin.

A Trenton Hotel Burned.

TRENTON, Dec. 14.—About 2 o'clock this afternoon a fire broke out in the stables of the Queen's Hotel and spread with great rapidity, owing to the high wind, to the hotel, which was completely destroyed. In the stables were several horses, four of which were burned together with a cow and a number of pigs. The hotel was owned by the Cooley estate and was insured for $3000, Mr. Birmingham, the proprietor, was partially insured, loss about $7000.

This Blaze May Mull Barley.

BUFFALO, Dec. 15.—The Exchange elevator, situated on the Erie Basin at Peacock Slip, was totally destroyed by fire early this morning. The elevator was owned by C. A. Bloomer and had a capacity of 350,000 bushels. At the time of the fire it contained about 300,000 bushels of barley, worth about $130,000, all of which is ruined or badly damaged, but fully covered by insurance. The building, with machinery, is valued at $75,000, and is insured for $50,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The barley market here has been dull and weak all this season. The withdrawal of so large a stock cannot but have a buoyant effect to some degree. Choice Canada barley is now too dear.

Favored Sectarian Schools.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Dec. 14.—At the session of the Presbyterian Synod of West Florida and Alabama last night, sensation was created by Dr. Shearer, President of Davidson College of North Carolina, who denounced the common school system of the country. He said missionaries were converted the education of youths in the religion of their fathers, and advocated strongly the advisability of having the children of Presbyterians educated in schools fostered by the church.

A Chicago Failure.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—A local paper devotes considerable space to the affairs of C. S. Davis, doing business under the name of the New England Shoe Company. Last Tuesday Davis confessed judgments amounting to $10,000 and the sheriff took possession of the stock, which, it is said, is worth only $5000. It is alleged Davis' debts amount to $100,000 or more, contracted for stock, all of which fall due Jan. 1.

Belleville Druggists Entrapped.

BELLEVILLE, Dec. 13.—By feigning illness an informer has trapped one of the local druggists into violation of the law with reference to prescriptions.

WAR MAY FOLLOW.

SERPA PINTO'S TREACHEROUS PLOT IN AFRICA.

Anglo-Portuguese Relations Very Seriously Strained—Hot Talk at Lisbon—What the London Papers Say.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The fear that trouble in Africa will come out of the action of Serpa Pinto is growing rapidly and the probability that it will lead to serious complications with Portugal increases with the general belief that England has been grievously affronted in the matter. Both Pinto and Consul Johnston are of inflammable temperament and neither is likely to withdraw, except under the pressure of his Government, from the declaration he has made, the one to counter the entire country to the Nyasa, and the other to call Pinto to account for his treacherous and otherwise wholly unwarranted conduct. The probability of a conflict between the two is rendered the greater by the fact that it is impossible for telegrams to reach either of them in time to avert an encounter, in the event of which taking place it is hinted that it will be deemed necessary to send a fleet to Lisbon, instead of Mozambique, though it is likely that that coast will also be regarded as an object worthy of increased watchfulness on the part of British naval vessels.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Lord Salisbury must not hesitate to take decisive action to arrest the progress of Capt. Serpa Pinto, the Portuguese, who is making war on the Makololo tribe in violation of British interests in East Africa."

The Gazette says: "Pinto's progress must be stopped or England will be compelled to regard Portugal's action as a declaration of hostility."

The Globe says: "The conduct of Portugal is practically a casus belli. While negotiations were proceeding concerning the territory in dispute in East Africa she struck for herself in a singularly treacherous manner. England does not relish warring with contemptible foes, but if they become arrogant, insulting, or aggressive beyond endurance she will not hesitate to make her power felt. A British fleet might exercise a gentle pressure at Lisbon. A wave of the Viceroy's hand will suffice to bring Portugal's possessions in India under English sway."

The Daily News says: "It may be fairly conceded Portugal has just claims as well as extravagant pretensions. The question is ripening for settlement. Meanwhile Major Serpa Pinto had better leave his gadding at home."

The Cabinet will meet Monday and discuss the Mozambique news which it is presumed comes from Bishop Smythies. The Marquis of Salisbury will take no definite action until details arrive.

A Counter-Charge of Treachery.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Lisbon papers accuse Mr. Johnston, the British Consul at Mozambique, of availing himself of a Portuguese "safe conduct" to pursue the anti-Portuguese propaganda among the natives.

THE ENGLISH STRIKES.

A Week of Failures—A Man With Backbone—The Question at Issue.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Mr. Smalley cables to The Tribune from London: The revolt of the English laborer against the existing relations between society and himself spreads fast, but runs an uneven course. Down to last week the strikers had been winning; but last week, with one conspicuous exception, their history was one of disaster. The Silvertown strike and the far more important Manchester gas-workers' strike ended in complete collapse. The men were beaten at Silvertown because they were not met with courage and determination equal to their own, and with resources and organization far superior. The facts in that case have been stated, and need not be repeated. So of Manchester. But what is remarkable in Manchester is that the victory has been won by the community itself over one section or one class. Municipal, Democracy has shown itself able to govern, when occasion arises, with a strong hand. Manchester people soon made up their mind that they did not care to see taxes raised in order to increase the wages of the gas-stokers, which were already high. They preferred governing themselves to being governed by the Gas Stokers' Union. They used the police from the beginning to keep order: and when police are used to keep order strikes of the present type have little chance, for the chief weapons of these unions is intimidation, supported by violence.

Little attention, however, is paid in London to what is happening in the provinces, for London has one huge strike of its own on hand, and has had a narrow escape from another. The strike of the gas stokers employed by the South Metropolitan Gas Company, was finally completed on Friday morning. The question at issue may be summarized in a sentence. It was strictly analagous to the question at Manchester. What the directors of the South Metropolitan had to decide was whether they preferred to manage their own company or to have it managed for them by the Gas Stokers' Union. They never hesitated for a moment. They have a chairman, Mr. Livesey, who knows his business and his own mind. He is the company. He told the strikers from the start that there could be no compromise on this one vital point. He has been as good as his word, and, in the present semi-demoralisation of English public opinion, he is a public benefactor. The number of men in this country with backbones has been sadly reduced since the widening of the suffrage. Mr. Livesey has kept his. I imagine that he welcomed this contest, for the men went out of their way to put themselves entirely in the wrong.

THE POET'S FUNERAL.

Services in Venice Over the Body of Robert Browning.

VENICE, Dec. 15.—The funeral of Robert Browning, the poet, occurred at 5 o'clock today. The services were held in the great hall Ressonico. All the notables of Venice were present. Lovely wreaths adorned the coffin. The funeral barge was splendidly decorated and was towed by a steamer of the royal navy.

The municipal guard and a large detachment of the firemen of Venice acted as guard of honor and members of the family and many friends of the deceased occupied separate gondolas.

The remains were deposited in the central chapel of the Cemetery Saint Michael. They will leave Venice Tuesday next and be burried at Westminster in London.

Shortly before Browning died he turned to his son and asked for news from his publisher. The son read a telegram saying the edition of his last volume of poems was almost exhausted. The poet, upon hearing this, smiled and murmured "How gratifying." These were his last words.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

A Movement in Favor of Adopting a National Bank System.

OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—There is a strong movement on foot to petition Parliament to adopt a national banking system like that of the United States when the charters of the Canadian banks expire in 1891. It is opposed by the banking interest on the ground that it would restrict the circulation of bank notes, besides depriving the country of an elastic currency.

Lieut.-Col. Herchmer, assistant commissioner Northwest Mounted Police, has been granted the rank of lieut.-colonel in the active militia and appointed an extra aide-de-camp to the Governor-General.

The standard for men joining the permanent corps of the militia is announced: Minimum chest measure, 34 inches; height for artillery, 5 feet 6 inches; for other corps, 5 feet 5 inches.

In the Supreme Court this afternoon the argument or the Haldimand election appeal was resumed by Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C.

The Free Press says: Mr. Peter White, M.P. for North Renfrew, says he will not accept the position of Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons if it is offered him.

The reconciller of the compositors who were taken on at the Dominion Printing Bureau some time ago by arrangement with the Government to complete their three months' engagement, were discharged yesterday.

THE LADIES!

A New and Medical Power, of Extreme Value to suffering Canadian Women.

Two names of Power Combined, Dyspepsia Conquered, Nervous Debility and Impaired Blood Healed.

A great London Physician says that he notes a new and distinct Power in certain diseases peculiar to Canadian women by every steamer, nervous and exhausted. In asking for the home. This is only too true. It is why we see so many feeble pale, weak, languid, and suffering from headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound. This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of women, and is daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. E. Cooper, 365 St. Dominique St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

A Market For Winter-Made Butter.

BY PROF. JAS. W. ROBERTSON, GUELPH.

I think England is patriotic and motherly enough, in regard to her colonies, to be just as willing to send her money this way for butter as to send it to Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Holland, or even to our friend Uncle Sam, as long as she gets fair value for it. We [illegible] and be on the look out for the introduction of good English gold by every [illegible] one of the things we can [illegible] export, because we [illegible] farmer by sending it [illegible] I heard a recommending [illegible] in our methods, and the adoption of [illegible] instead of home dairying, [illegible] and as an insatiable [illegible], I do not think ours is [illegible] successfully go into [illegible] the summer time. I have [illegible] this question for ten years and [illegible] me it as far as possible, [illegible] that no nation can [illegible] against the natural conditions [illegible] for a certain line of life [illegible] be natural conditions [illegible] of such a character [illegible] certain line of life or [illegible] the summer time. We [illegible] harmony with our natural [illegible] to contend against them. We [illegible] successfully compete with Sweden, Denmark or Ireland in producing butter in the summer time for the English market. All the butter we need to produce in summer time is for our own home trade. If we produce a fancy quality, our own market will be doubled in its extent, and if we can double that market it will be found that it is just as large a market as it will pay to supply; and I, for one, have no desire to foster the making of butter in summer time for export; I don't think it will pay me. Our country, I think, is adapted for the production of cheese in summer time; it is essentially a country for the production of cheese during these months, and I think it is admirably adapted for the growth of calves and the manufacture of butter during the winter months. If we will make our cows come in at the proper time, and make Butter from their milk, the most profitable part of our dairying season will be from October until April, and not, as now, the best from April until October. You would find this plan to have many advantages, some of which I will now try to enumerate, over the system at present practised in this province. First, you will have a longer working season. No man can afford to go idle for six months in the year. I want to make that plain. No man can do without earning anything for six months. When I was making cheese, not so many years ago, I had work only six months in the year, and earned from $100 to $120 a month wages. I had to live on that in the winter. I did some things during the winter, but not much in the way of earning. Well, then, I was working in the summer merely that I might consume in the winter. A man should have employment to keep him occupied the whole twelve months of the year, and if a man finds it necessary that he should have employment the whole year, he should also give his dairy and his cows employment twelve months of the year, that they also may produce. Then he will give himself employment for a long season in a manner which will be highly remunerative to him; that is the first advantage I claim for making cows give an abundance of milk in winter time, and making butter, and feeding, and rearing stock at that time of the year. The second advantage is that by making their cows calve in October, the farmers of this province will have bigger stock than by letting them calve in April. An April calf is expensive to rear and a June calf is simply a burden and expense upon the man who owns it; it is very hard to rear, and hard to winter the first year. If would not rear a calf that would not thrive the first winter; I would make a present of it to some man I didn't like, and try to get him to keep it afterwards. If a man will rear his calves, having them begin their lives in October, he will find it possible to spare the skim milk they need, and he will find that they will thrive upon that with some added meal, and at four months begin to eat fodder, roots and meal, and when the fresh grass comes in May or June, they will be anxious to get out and see how well they can do for themselves. The next year they will grow two pounds a day "as one pound of the calf that came in April. I would rather have a two-year old that came in in October than a three-year old that came in in June. Now, I think we stand at great steers. I think no dairyman understanding his business who does not make [illegible] from [illegible] years. A calf [illegible] and keep them, that is, give them skim milk, give [illegible] scotch, and then to make beef—milk, stock and beef; and a man who has them in that order will make more money from them all three than if he had begun the other way about it. Another advantage is that the winter is the period when high prices rule for the produce of cows, and butter will bring on the average one-half more per pound from October until April than it will from April until October, and you can [illegible] for less between October and April than you could between April and October. Think, then, is the time to feed you ought to be in the best manner. The average price from October to April is one-half more, and you can afford to call for dear. If a man makes butter from his milk in summer, he is about the only valuable product he derives from the cow. The skim milk becomes practically [illegible], and he feeds it to the pigs, which grunt, but do not grow, or to a calf that grows hair—and little else. His butter is about the only valuable product he derives from the cow, the skim milk going to the pigs, and a calf, he [illegible] in fourth [illegible] of calves who follows summer dairying doesn't know enough to make the most of it; which is not very complimentary to the man. But a man who carries on his dairying operations in winter, grows the best calves, and keeps the best pigs, in warm, dry, well ventilated quarters, will make nearly one-third more from his skim milk than he will even if he feeds it to calves, and if he does that he can afford to sell butter cheaper in winter than in summer. He will not require to do that, because he will have a larger profit, as, by the use of fodder corn and the like, the cost of production during the winter will be actually less than during the summer.

BURNT TO DEATH.

Fatal Hotel Fire at Kansas City—Incendiarism Suspected.

KANSAS CITY, Dec 15.—The Oklahoma House was burned here early this morning. James Rossell was burnt to death and Maude Logan, Jack Smith, Zeish Barret and Charles Morbott sustained injuries from jumping from a fourth-story window. They will recover. It is said the walls of the room in which the fire originated were saturated with oil by some person unknown. An officer rescued a woman found unconscious in this room. The building was a fire trap. Four persons escaped naked.

Three Perished.

HANCOCK, Mich., Dec. 13.—The Huron mine office burned last night. One man jumped and was badly injured. Two women and a six-weeks-old child perished in the flames.

BOTH TEMPERANCE MEN.

The Dominion Alliance Will Not Take Sides in Stanstead.

MONTREAL, Dec. 13.—At a meeting of the executive of the Quebec branch of the Dominion Alliance held to-night, a resolution was adopted refusing to discriminate between the two candidates in Stanstead, inasmuch as Mr. Colby has in his representative capacity been true to the principles of the Alliance and Mr. Le Barron has been a total abstainer, an avowed prohibitionist and an ardent temperance worker.

Why He is Not in Stanstead

OTTAWA, Dec. 13.—Mr. D'Alton McCarthy says that pressure of duties alone absents him from Stanstead.

KALAKAUA'S LAWYER

The Attorney-General of the Sandwich Islands at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Dec. 13.—Mr. Clarence W. Ashford, Attorney-General of the Sandwich Islands, who arrived in Ottawa last night, in speaking of Father Damien, missionary priest, who fell a victim to leprosy at the lazaretto on Molokai Island, while he pays a high tribute to the memory of the deceased, says that it is a mistake to suppose that the clergy of other denominations and sects are not even at the present moment ministering to the wants of the victims. The Hawaiian Government recently engaged Dr. Late, an eminent authority on skin diseases, to make a study of leprosy with the object of seeing if a cure can be effected.

The Attorney-General says that a liberal concession for fifteen years has been granted English capitalists provided they lay a cable to Victoria, B.C., within two years.

THE HALDIMAND ELECTION.

Before the Supreme Court—The Arguement Not Concluded.

OTTAWA, Dec. 13.—In the Supreme Court to-day the Haldimand election case was taken up. Mr. A. B. Aylesworth appeared for the appellant and Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., for the petitioner. The appeal is from a judgment of Mr. Justice Falconbridge unseating Mr Colter for two corrupt acts committed by persons said to be his agents. The arguement had not been concluded when the court adjourned.

Death of Noah Webster's Sister.

MIDDLETOWN, N.Y., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Clarissa Jackson, who has just died at Goshen, aged 77, was the sister of Noah Webster of dictionary fame, who formerly taught school in that village.

"Grab" in the Capital a Drink.

OTTAWA, Dec. 13.—The investigation into the condition of slabs taken from the city water supply pipes is concluded. In addition to previous discoveries it appears that a species of grub has been found.

Imprisoned Miners

ISHPEMING, Mich., Dec 13.—Three miners were buried this morning by a fall of ground at the Iron Mountain mines. Their names are not known. The chances of rescuing them are slight.

Two New Cruisers for Uncle Sam.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Secretary Tracy will call for bids next week for the construction of new 3500-ton and 7500-ton cruisers. The appropriation for the former is $1,500,000 and for the latter $3,500,000.

A Dry Dock for St. John.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Dec. 13.—The council this afternoon voted a subsidy of $10,000 a year for twenty years, to James D. Leary of New York, for the construction of a dry dock at St. John.

The Great Pugs Have Come to an Agreement

BOSTON, Dec. 13.—To-day Captain Cooke received a telegram from President Fulda of the California Athletic Club stating that Jackson, the colored pugilist, had cabled from London his willingness to meet Sullivan, provided he had five months to get ready. Fulda asked Cooke to find out if Sullivan would meet Jackson at the California Club rooms at the end of five months for a purse of $15,000. Sullivan was seen this afternoon and at once accepted the proposition.

Up Goes the Price of Nails.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 13.—All the cut nail manufacturers of the United States west of Pittsburg and both to-night and raised the selling price of nails from $2.10 to $2.35 on 12-penny basis, two per cent off on car-load lots. They adjourned to meet again next week, when prices will probably be again raised.

An Epidemic of Measles at Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, Dec. 13.—There are twenty cases of measles amongst the pupils of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. Classes will be continued as the disease is being successfully treated.

Elizabeth Whitelaw, a woman who has been more than 150 times in jail, was to-day committed for four months for drunkenness and vagrancy.

The Old Man's 75th Birthday.

OTTAWA, Dec. 13.—Jan. 11 being Sir John's 75th birthday he will be presented with an address by the citizens of Ottawa irrespective of party.

The Poisoned Candy Case.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Dec. 13.—Six witnesses were examined in the MacDonald trial to-day. Except the story of the finding of the combs told by Barker's clerks no new evidence was brought out. American experts on writing are here for both the Crown and defence, and considerable interest centres in their testimony. Enough combs have now been found to fill the boxes in which the poisoned candy was sent.

The Pan-Americans.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Pan-American congress met this afternoon and appointed seventeen committees, after which the congress adjourned until Jan. 2. The delegates will go to New York Monday next and spend a week there.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To refresh the life or energy of the roots in a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeps the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

Valuable to Know.

CONSUMPTION may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles. 2w51d

A Plain Statement.

ALL poisonous waste, and worn out matter ought to escape from the system through the secretions of the bowels, kidneys and skin. B.B.B. cleanses, opens and regulates these natural outlets for the removal of disease. 2w51d

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it free to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John st., Montreal. dw

Women with pale, colorless faces, who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nervous and complexion. dw

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cabin," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most sceptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. dw require no description, since, with rare exception, all as some time have experienced their agonizing. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundation. The most successful treatment known, and it is not frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the sufferer. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottle of Nerviline can be had at the drug stores for ten cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6dw51

Rheumatic Pains

Important to Workingmen.

MECHANICS, mechanics, and laboringmen are liable to sudden accidents and injuries, as well as painful cards, stiff joints and lameness. To all thus troubled we would recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the handy and reliable pain cure for outward or internal use. 2w51d

The Best Ever Made.

GENTLEMEN,—My trouble was heart disease and dyspepsia, but I took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and one of Burdock Pills and got well. I never felt better in my life. My brother has also tried B. B. B. and thinks it a splendid medicine. 2w49d MRS. JNO. EARLY, Hamilton, Ont.

What is Wanted

IS something that will make a man sleep well, eat well and rise in the morning refreshed and strong, with none of the worn out tired feeling sure to be found where constipation, dyspepsia or diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood exists. Burdock Blood Bitters meets every indication expressed above 2w49d

Many a sufferer from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, general debility & etc., will be glad to find that Dyers Quinine & Iron Wine, is strongly recommended for such cases—, it is easily assimilated, prepared with great care, and is an admirable tonic. W. A Dyer & Co. Montreal. 6d140

Harsh purgative remedies are fast giving way to the gentle action and mild effects of Carter's Little Liver Pills. If you try them, they will certainly please you. dw

NATIONAL PILLS are mild purgative, acting on the Stomach, Liver and bowels, removing all obstructions.

SCROFULA

Tumors,

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lisdale, O.

Erysipelas,

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Texas.

Canker, and

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

Catarrh,

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Can be cured by purifying the blood with

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass

A Great Success.
The wonderful bargains and harmless values given at the great sale of M. Sullivan & Co's has caused the great success of the sale. Hundreds of customers have come to "shop" and stayed to buy. The prices and goods were such as they could not resist. A splendid stock, kept well assorted, placed at figures which must sell the goods. A beautiful line of woven check furs was of the latest and most attractive features. Don't neglect this great sale. If you do you will miss the biggest bargains ever presented in Peterborough. dw

All the Evenings!
By reference to announcement elsewhere in this issue of the Examiner, it will be seen that we have made another big swoop in overcoats. The endowment over our wonderful $5.00 overcoat is increasing every week. They are going out at a "2.50" pitch. But for all that, we have added still another remarkable lining line of overcoats—the result of 450—which, for here just received for the spring season. These we will naturally sell for $3.75!! Time tests the truest! We now think all the things in the trade, and invite buyers to make an examination. A comparison is all we ask.

Railway vs. Canal.
Peterborough is having her traffic wants carefully attended to just at present, and there seems to be difference of opinion as to whether the Trent Valley Canal or the extension of the Chemung Valley Railway northward, is the better. Some parties entertain doubts of the practicability of the canal being opened for traffic next season, but as to the railway there is no doubt that it is to be built. Sir Wm. "WYANDOTTE CAVE."

The Heath Manufacturing Co.
It is not yet decisively settled that the Heath Manufacturing Company, of Toronto, will come to Peterborough, but it is highly probable that the removal will take place, in this event the works will be amalgamated with the Brooks Manufacturing Company [illegible] under the management [illegible]. If this is done the premises at the old shore works will have to be enlarged as they are already too small for the Electric Carbon Works. This is found to be the case more and more as the work of preparing for machinery goes on. If the season permitted of it the additions would be made at once.

Why Were People Undecided?
It's amazing how credible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

OPERA HOUSE

Savonarola.
Rev. Prof. Clark, Trinity College, Toronto, who won such golden opinions from our citizens when he lectured here some months ago, has consented to give his famous lecture on "Savonarola" in the Opera House, Thursday evening next. This is one of the Star Course of the Y.M.C.A., who are to be congratulated in securing such an intellectual treat for our people. Rev. Prof. Clark is acknowledged to be the most scholarly, entertaining and practical lecturer we have in Canada. The prices have been put at the popular rate of 25 cents. All can enjoy this treat. Reserved seats can be secured at Scheifele's drug store on payment of 10 cents extra. 1d

"Veritical Symmetry."
A young lad attending the union school shows great ability at versification. He reels off rhyme at a very rapid rate and the products of his juvenile muse show the germs of genius. He raises on any subjects and turns them into verse. He chose the initial letters of two sodasy phrases as below and turned them into the following decidedly Amercoastic and Tom Moorish versicles:—

A Week's Performances.
Zora Semon closed a week's engagement at the opera house Saturday night, and an better representation for his show is needed than the fact that the last night's performance was attended by a larger audience than the first. The opera house Saturday night was well filled and the novelties introduced by Zora and his company were as much appreciated as ever before. His general excellencies are a show in themselves, while Nelson, one of the best jugglers on the continent, and other features add materially to the entertainment. The usual premiums were given away, the gold watch having been won by C. Cattle, the chain by Mr. Ing. Mr. Quigley and the chamber set by another gent. A large number of other less expensive, but still valuable and useful, articles were given away. Richard Lockhart, Zora Semon announced that during the week he had given away $70 worth to the people, and was out of pocket in consequence. His performances were not as well attended as they should have been.

No Insult Intended.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I observe in Saturday's issue of your evening contemporary a communication signed "Presbyterian" referring to my letter published in a recent issue of your journal, in which I expressed surprise at Rev. Mr. Torrance being "led by the nose" by Mr. Carnegie, and being used by that schemning politician for political purposes. I, for one, as a Presbyterian—and one who probably contributes as much as the writer of the letter in the Review to the support of the Presbyterian church, and have as much interest in its prosperity—wish it to be distinctly understood that I object in the most decided manner to the time of the pastor of St. Paul's being withdrawn from the exercise of his legitimate functions, to stumping the country in the interest of the Tory party, and that, too, in the most questionable political company. While I do not for one moment question Rev. Mr. Torrance's sincerity and singleness of purpose in any course which he chooses to pursue, I do continually protest against his joining issue with political politicians in schemes which may reduce St. Paul's congregation to the condition to which these same schemers have brought St. Andrew's. I do not yield to any one in respect for my pastor, but I will not remain silent when I see him, through the honesty of his convictions, led astray by designing and self-seeking politicians.

Yours, etc.,
Presbyterian.

[So far as the Examiner is concerned in the matter, we have already had over two of three communications on this subject from members of the church. Had we seen fit to publish them at the time, we should have done so regardless of the so-called Presbyterian who wrote to the Review. If any person wishes to question through our columns in a decent manner the actions of any clerical functionary, from a bishop to a lay-worker, he shall have space to do so, so long as his letter treats of matters with a view to the interests of public morals, and does not seek to vent personal malice.—Ed. Examiner.]

The Baptist's Anniversary.

Special Sermons on Sunday—The Annual Tea Meeting To-Night.

Rev. Ira Smith, of Beverley Street Church, Toronto, preached the anniversary sermons in the Murray Street Baptist Church Sunday, and both his eloquent discourses were listened to with rapt attention by large congregations morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Smith is a fluent and graceful speaker and possesses a good voice, earnest manner and impressive delivery, which mark him as a prominent pulpit orator.

The anniversary will be further commemorated by a tea meeting to-night in the church, fuller announcement of which is made elsewhere.

Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Smith chose for the text of his sermon I Chron., xii, 38:

"All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king."

The opening verses of this chapter showed the beginning of David's army and how small it was, and it cannot cover more than ten years of the time David was hunted like a partridge on the mountains. But David lived through all the hardships of these years, and had the courage to hope and quietly wait for God. The six hundred men gathered about David at Hebron were heroic men, and from their bravery and single-heartedness of purpose the preacher drew several moral lessons. First their fearlessness of death in the cause of right; their self-abnegation and complete espousal of the cause of David; their being taught by the spirit, and men of one heart, sincere and true. These men had an understanding of the times, a very necessary characteristic in the men of to day, for the political and social evils of our country can only be eliminated through the affections. If men are to be reached their hearts must be touched. There was nothing could so unravel the gigantic knot of French domination in lower Canada, as the simple name of Jesus. It was such men as these which gathered around David, who were wanted in the world to day. Men make the history and times of their generations. Men were wanted to follow Jesus with the same spirit as the tribes followed David. Their unswerving devotion is one of the beautiful sights of history. Paul in Palestine, Wickliffe in England, John Huss in Austria, Luther in Germany, Judson in America, Williams in the islands of the sea, and Haddington in Central Africa, were men of noble, brave and grand souls. And as David was true to his followers, so will Jesus be, for "for this cause came I into the world." David was loving, generous and chivalrous, and so he suffered, so did Christ. He stood between sin and death and received into His bosom the flaming brand of God's wrath. What was wanted to-day was unswerving loyalty to Jesus, true and sincere men to take up arms in behalf of the Master. In conclusion the reverend gentleman asked for recruits for the army of the Lord, for men and women who wished to enlist in the cause of right.

The Rector Designate of Peterborough.

A Brief Reference to His Clerical Career.

The appointment of Rev. J. Cheyne Davidson, M. A. as rector of Peterborough, is a matter of congratulation both to the parish and incumbent. The new rector is a most energetic worker and is eminently qualified both by clerical zeal and special training for the important duties which have been placed upon him. Rev. Mr. Davidson is a native Canadian, and more than that—"a Canadian," as he has been heard to express himself—"par excellence." His early education was given successively, at Uxbridge High School, Trinity College School, Port Hope, and Trinity College, Toronto. He graduated at the latter in 1881. After the usual two years' Divinity course he was made a deacon in July 1884, subsequently he went to England and spent two years in training—in the practical work of church organization and evangelization, under Rev. F. L. Boyd, rector of Teddington a suburb of London. In December 1886, [illegible] Rev. Mr. Davidson returned to Canada in January 1886, and in March of that year was appointed to the [illegible] which he resigned, having most satisfactory evidence of successful pastoral work behind him, to accept charge of the parish of Peterborough, on Dec. 1st of last year. Since that Rev. Mr. Davidson has zealously, faithfully and successfully discharged his duties, and no more sympathetic expression of his fitness for the high and responsible position in which he has been placed than that which is given by a reference to the evidence afforded by the present condition of the parish and congregation in, and for which he has laboured during the past year, can be desired.

Resolution of Condolence.

At the last meeting of the Peterborough Medical Society, the following [illegible] and [illegible] was adopted:

To the widow children and friends of the late Doctor Harvey.

The Peterborough Medical Society desires to convey to you an expression of sympathy on the occasion of the death of the late Doctor Harvey. We have known him as a laborious, careful and able medical practitioner, untiring of his time and strength to the needs of suffering humanity. In him, the poor always found a friend and helper.

We shall ever cherish his memory as a kind hearted, faithful and painstaking physician.

Signed on behalf of the Peterborough Medical Society,

J. A. Fitz, M.D.,
J. T. I. Halliday, M.D.

Guilty of Murder

And Sentenced to Life Imprisonment—Three of the Suspects Convicted—One Discharged.

Police Court.

Monday, Dec. 16.

Messrs. H. C. Winch and N. T. Laplante, butchers, were arraigned on a charge of forestalling on the market Saturday. Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, conducted the case. The defendants both admitted getting fowl, but claimed they did it for the accommodation of customers. There was some question as to the exact intention of the by-law, and judgment was reserved.

Matthew Young was fined $2 and costs for being drunk.

The case of Moher vs. Barry, for assault, was dismissed as neither party appeared, costs being placed on the plaintiff.

Mr. John McClelland was charged by Mr. E. E. Bowie with using abusive language. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and upon request of his counsel, who stated they had been supprised too late Saturday evening to arrange any defence, the trial was enlarged till Wednesday. Mr. G. M. Rogers, for plaintiff; Mr. E. E. Edwards, for defendant.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

At the young men's meeting Saturday evening, Mr. Barson gave an earnest appeal to the young men to study God's word, if they would have power in their lives. The result was that a large number promised to come each Tuesday evening to study the Scriptures for an hour.

Mr. Barson led all the meetings yesterday—consecration meeting at 9 a.m.; social party meeting at 5.15, and farewell meeting in the George street Methodist church. All these services were well attended, and were seasons of much refreshing and blessing. President Reger preached at the farewell meeting, which was held at the close of the church services. The church was nearly full and much interest was manifested in Mr. Barson's address on "Association Work". A thank offering was taken up, which, with one taken at the afternoon meeting, was very liberal. The money will be given Mr. Barson for his labor of love for the Master. By a standing vote Mr. Barson was requested to return in the near future and continue the good work. Mr. Barson has consented to do so. We thank God for sending Mr. Barson, and praise Him for the work done through Mr. Barson.

SUGGESTIONS

"What would the world be to us
If the children were no more?"

We've a whole flat devoted to toys alone—
And such toys! Cute enough to make the mouth of every human boy and girl just water-

Horses that are ready to spring into action; sleds that are impatiently waiting the first good sleighing; chimes, so content that they just kill you with laughter; games that turn the rumpling boy into a profound philosopher; trains that seem ready to go to Chicago; toy books full of splendid pictures to delight and ins ruct.

And then the dolls for the little girls; such dolls! no common every-day dolls, that a little mother with any pride in her would be ashamed of. But real French Dolls, dressed in the latest Parisian fashions, with lovely golden hair, and long, beautiful eyelashes, and skin just like real baby's skin, you know.

Then there are piles and piles of Albums, awfully cheap, and Plush Goods and Ornamental Cushions, Wall Pieces, Mantels, Photo Frames, Gold Rod Plate, Rings, Brooches, Lamp Mats, Brooches and other jewelry at prices to please you. IT WAS A COMPROMISE.

HOW THE VERDICT IN THE CRONIN CASE WAS RECEIVED.

Scenes in the Court Room, Corridors and Jail—The Jurors Refuse to Talk—What the Convicts Said.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—When the jury sent word that they had agreed on a verdict Judge McConnell took his seat upon the bench and the court was declared to be in session. One moment later the five prisoners were ushered in over the bridge leading from the jail. Last was John F. Beggs with a deathly pallor on his face and his bluish eyes staring as though protruding from the sheer horror of a skeleton, handed the line. Behind him came Dan Coughlin with a half nervous half cynical smile upon his face. It was apparent to every observer that he had nerved himself for the ordeal. Next came O'Sullivan, his jaws compressed and the fingers of his right hand tugging nervously at his mustache. Burke, close behind him, had the same look of stolid indifference that he had worn throughout the trial. Little Kunze the last in line, was, as usual, the comedian of the prisoners and smiled and waved his hands at the officers and newspaper men as he entered the room.

As soon as the defendants had taken their seats three deputy-sheriffs took up a position behind each chair. At the same moment about fifty officers entered the room by the main door and formed a complete barricade between the prisoners' row and all means of exit from the room. At 2:20 the iron doors leading to the jail were again swung open and while the word passed around the audience, "Here they come" the members of the jury filed into the room. Every man had on his overcoat and carried his hat in his hand, and this was at once accepted as conclusive evidence that a verdict had at last been reached. The twelve good men and true were escorted to their seats and the roll was called.

Perfect silence prevailed. Even the judge, usually calm and collected, nervously mopped the perspiration from his brow. The prisoners maintained the demeanor which they had worn when entering the court-room, except that Burke chewed with redoubled energy at his quid of tobacco, while O'Sullivan ran his fingers into his hair with a desperation that threatened to tear it out by the roots. The voice of foreman Clarke came out clear and distinct and with a triumphant ring in it when he answered, "We have," in response to the question of the Clerk of the Court as to whether he and his colleagues had agreed on a verdict. Rising in his seat he handed a folded paper to the clerk. The stillness at this moment was not merely oppressive but painful. Every eye was turned upon the five men whose fate in another moment would be revealed. Forrest cast a glance of encouragement towards his clients, as much as to say, "Be brave!" Foster from his chair a couple of feet distant threw a few words in a whisper to Beggs. In another moment the voice of the clerk clear and distinct rang out on the air:

"We find the defendant John F. Beggs not guilty as charged in the indictment."

There was a buzz in the court room as though a thousand lated breaths had been let loose. The blood rushed to the face of the lawyer prisoner and in a second it was of carmine hue. His right arm, which had been resting on the railing, fell to his side and his entire frame shook like that of a man afflicted with the palsy. All this was but the work of a moment. Again the voice of the clerk rang out.

"We find the defendant John Kunze guilty of manslaughter and fix his penalty at three years in the penitentiary."

The little comedian simply smiled and showed his teeth. To all appearances the verdict at the moment suited him as well as an acquittal. There was a pause before the clerk resumed. No doubt remained but that the three remaining defendants had either been condemned to die on the scaffold or to suffer a living death. The eyes of Coughlin, Burke and O'Sullivan were riveted on the reader while the convulsive movements of the jaws showed that each man was making a superhuman effort to control his feelings. For the third time the clerk cleared his throat and proceeded:

"We find the prisoners Daniel Coughlin, Martin Burke and Patrick O'Sullivan guilty of murder as charged in the indictment and fix their punishment at imprisonment in the penitentiary for the terms of their natural lives."

The suppressed emotions of the audience found vent in a half suppressed shout and the demeanor of the three passed unnoticed in the wild scampering of the newspaper men and officers from the room. Over 3,000 people were congregated on the outside of the jail and the verdict was received by them with satisfaction.

Attorney Forrest, on behalf of Coughlin, Burke, O'Sullivan and Kunze, immediately made a motion for a new trial. Judge McConnell fixed Jan. 13 as the date for argument on the motion.

A little before 4 o'clock the Associated Press representative visited the jail and found three of the convicted defendants in the corridor taking exercise before supper. Coughlin and O'Sullivan were together while Burke was alone on the other side of the corridor. Kunze remained in his cell still refusing to be comforted. His confident demeanor had given way to heavy gloom and he bemoaned his fate and denounced the State's Attorney and jury. Coughlin and O'Sullivan were at the entrance of the cage discussing the case with a couple of members of Camp 20, who had called to offer sympathy or congratulation, who knows which. At the approach of the press representatives they lapsed into silence and the visitors departed. A note was sent to Coughlin and his companion requesting an interview, and they finally approached the visitors.

"I am sorry to disappoint you," said Coughlin coolly, "but I do not desire to be interviewed."

"What is your opinion of the verdict?"

"I am afraid I shall have to refer you to Mr. Forrest, my attorney, for an answer to that question."

"Are you disappointed at the verdict?"

"Well, I suppose no man can receive a verdict of life imprisonment with any particular enthusiasm," said the ex-detective, "but frankly, gentlemen, I must decline to be interviewed. I am sorry I cannot oblige you, but I think it proper that I should not talk with anyone but my lawyer."

With this sentence Coughlin retired, pleasantly bowing a good evening. It was evident to all that the prisoner was in a mood nearly approaching elation and to Coughlin at least the verdict was a source of self-congratulation. His habitual mood during his confinement has been one of taciturnity and this evening a bright smile illuminated his face and his step was light and buoyant.

In the boys' department Burke was found walking up and down smoking a cigar, with the admiring gaze of several young prisoners fixed on him. Burke seemed composed and good natured as he greeted the reporters.

"Well, Burke, what do you think of it?"

"Oh I am not saying a word," said the young Irishman, in his brogue. "The Chicago papers have had enough to say about me already, and I don't want to give them any excuse for any more."

"But don't include us in your general damnation."

"I'm not damning the papers," said Burke. "I've nothing against them, but I guess they can get along without me."

While getting their pay certificates after the verdict the twelve jurors were surrounded by reporters who besieged them for information about what had transpired in the jury room and the cause of the long delay.

"Because," said Juror Harler, "we agreed not to say anything. Our verdict speaks for itself. From what I have heard since I got back to the world again there has been some pretty tall lying in the newspapers. Juror Culver was not the cause of the delay and there was not any unpleasantness or any knock-down as one paper has declared."

"If the others agree to tell what occurred," said Juror Allison, "I am willing, but we made an agreement to keep silent, and I have nothing to say."

Juror North was hot. He had already seen seven of his friends and they had poured into his ears the wild stories of a liar in the jury room and an assault on Culver, and he expressed himself very forcibly. "The man who wrote that ought to be punished," he said, "because there was not any trouble at all. We passed the time very pleasantly, considering our cramped quarters. Please do not talk to me any more because I have been up almost every night since we went out."

Kunze said: "I am innocent, God knows I am innocent. God knows that I never was out to Lakeview that night. Longenecker brought two witnesses. I am sure of that: they went out and bought farms with the money they got. Him and Schuettler did it."

SCENES IN THE CORRIDORS.

Judge Longenecker Talks About the Verdict—What Beggs Says.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—In the main corridor of the court building before the announcement of the verdict set Dan Coughlin's wife. On her knee was the pretty little girl that has continually called out in the court-room for her papa. The old grey haired ex-sheriff knew that preparations were being made for the return of the jury with their verdict and he pleaded with them to go home. He told them no verdict would be reached. They were kept in ignorance of the facts until some one rushed into the corridor and called out the result. Mrs. Coughlin gasped, stood erect, shrieked and fell back into a chair. She buried her face in her hands and moaned wildly as she wept in her anguish. Her swaying form was supported by the kind-hearted old doorkeeper and the pretty child stood leaning against her mother's knees. For a moment she looked into her sorrowing mother's face and then laying her face in her mother's lap she, too, began to cry.

Mrs. Whalen, O'Sullivan's sister-in-law, had come over to hear the result. Her clear cut and handsome face hardened when she heard the news. Her eyes filled for a moment, but only for a moment. She glared for a minute at the jail walls, then she turned savagely upon the men who stood near by, attracted by Mrs. Coughlin's sobs.

"Oh! you cut-throats, you tried your best to hang them, and now you hang around to gloat at us in our misery," she shouted. She looked even more savagely at the men than before, then followed Mrs. Coughlin to the private room.

"Are you satisfied with the verdict?" was asked of State's Attorney Longenecker.

"I am always satisfied when I have an honest jury in a murder case."

"You do not expect any confessions now, do you?"

"I do not."

"What do you think of it, anyway?"

"Why its a compromise verdict. That's all there is about it. That's all anybody can say."

It was plain the State's Attorney was far from being pleased at the outcome of the case.

After congratulations to Beggs in the jail office to-day had somewhat abated he turned to accompany his lawyers and business associates from the place. Passing to the big street doors the conversation in the little group was evidently deeply earnest. As he stepped into the street a free man Beggs was heard to say: "I'm going to spend the rest of my life hunting down the men who killed Cronin." Beggs spent a few minutes at his office and then proceeded home. All callers were refused admittance.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, Dec. 17.—The anticipated advance in flour was made yesterday morning, when prices advanced from 30c to 35c. Northwest millers advanced their prices a week ago. The city prices for ten-barrel lots here are: Family grades, $4.30; pastry, $4.75; patents, $5.30; strong bakers', $4.70. The market for Ontario wheat is quiet, there being but a moderate demand. No. 2 red and fall is quoted at 80c to 82c outside. Manitoba continues very firm. On call No. 1 hard was offered at $1, and No. 2 hard at 98c. Barley is dull and prices nominally unchanged. Oats are firm at 30c to 31c on track. Peas are easier, with prices at 56c outside. Bran is steady at $9.50 at the mills.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

There is a visible improvement in poultry the past two days. On Saturday a good demand developed and stocks were pretty well cleaned out. Yesterday's receipts were, of course, light, almost nil, and prices of turkeys and geese are nominally from one to two cents higher. Dressed hogs are dull, and the top price for car lots is $5.50, the general run being $5.25. Butter keeps steady, with fairly liberal receipts. Choice tub is quoted at 17 and 18c, with medium at 14 to 16c, and common packed 11 to 13c. Rolls are going at 14 to 16c, with a few very choice bringing 18c. Eggs are firm. The association quotes strictly fresh at 24c and limed 19c. Other dealers quote 22 cents for fresh. There is a good demand for potatoes and car lots are firm at 58 to 60 cents. Canadian apples are very scarce and the stock brought from Michigan is not keeping well. Spies, Baldwins and Greenings are quoted at $2.25 to $3 and common at $2. Strictly No. 1 timothy would bring $11.50 on track, but none of good quality is offering. Straw on track $7 to $7.50.

MR. MEREDITH'S SPEECH.

THE OPPOSITION LEADER AT THE FOREST CITY.

He Attacks the Policy of the Ontario Government and Presents His Platform in the Coming Campaign.

LONDON, Ont., Dec. 17.—Mr. N. R. Meredith, leader of the Opposition in the Legislature, addressed his constituents at London last night. He spoke under the auspices of the Young Conservative Association, and was supported by several of his Parliamentary followers. He said in part:

He was not there to explain his silence, but to give an account of his stewardship and to show why Mr. Mowat and his party were not entitled to the confidence of the people of Ontario. He would omit from this the general financial policy of the Government, which, however, was deserving of as much censure as the other numerous shortcomings.

The administration of the Crown lands and the territorial revenues, the great heritage of the province and its people, were almost as corrupt they well could be. All the vast quantities of timber on the north shore of Lake Huron had been handed over to the custody of speculators. The people had not been consulted in these outrageous dispositions of the public wealth and the public domain.

This policy of the Government was wrong, and he had so pointed out in the House last session when he moved for the appointment of a commissioner to ascertain the extent of our timber limits and the richness of our mines, so that we might husband our resources and see how near we were to direct taxation and also to aid with these resources the needful railway enterprises that were knocking at our doors and seeking aid to develope the country. Mr. Meredith next attacked the administration of the Liquor Licenses Act by inspectors and commissioners and the centralising grants of the Government generally. He laughed at Mr. Mowat's statements in the house that patronage is a weakness to any Government. The Premier had truly shown that it was a source of great power to himself. The bailiffs, the issuers of marriage licenses, liquor commissioners, inspectors and even the Education Department itself had been violently seized for party purposes and patronage.

He stated the policy of the Opposition to be, in respect of these liquor licenses, that they should not be under the control of either political party. No interest or trade, even the liquor trade, should be at the mercy of a political party. The licenses should be administered by non-partisan bodies in the various localities.

Why should not the county councils be entrusted with the appointment of the inspectors and the people of the district with the election of the commissioners direct? This would certainly be more in the interest of temperance and honesty.

Mr. Gladstone had taken this stand in England. That eminent statesman had declared that the licensing power should be taken away from the Government of the day and placed in the hands of the newly created county councils. This was the contention of those that followed him and of himself in the Legislature. It would do away with the alleged tyranny exercised by Mr. Mowat and his party over the hotel men. It would also give women, widows and spinsters, who were so deeply interested in temperance, a voice in the selection of inspectors and license commissioners, as they have the right to vote at municipal elections. (Applause.)

The alleged prostitution of the Education Department for political purposes was next referred to. Ontario's education system had no superior on earth until the Government of the day laid violent hands upon it for party purposes. A great wrong was done the people when the department was taken from the hands of a non-partisan administrator like the late Dr. Ryerson and placed in the hands of a minister of the Crown. Dr. Ryerson, back in 1868, pointed out what the dangers of such a transaction would be, and his utterances have proved prophetic, as is seen at present.

Part of the policy of the Opposition is to wipe out this political head, which had dragged the education of our children down into the mire of politics. (Applause.)

The so-called vote by ballot in Ontario was described as no better than the old open system. By the numbering of the ballot papers the Government could trace the vote of every man. The ballot had its drawbacks, but there was nothing that so advanced the interests of the masses. One of the planks of the Opposition was to make the ballot in Ontario just as secret as it was in Dominion elections. There had been no evil results from a genuine, secret ballot in Dominion affairs.

He was also strongly in favor of having the election of Separate School trustees by ballot. This latter statement Mr. Meredith made after having taken his seat. He stated that he had omitted it in his general remarks.

Mr. Meredith next put himself on record as the opponent of exemptions from taxation generally, save in respect of the slight exemptions that working men now enjoy on their incomes. There was much, he said, that the Government could do in enquiring into industrial and social problems instead of its everlasting contests with the Central Government on provincial rights' cry. The Factory Act and other measures of interest to workingmen could stand some investigation.

Then Mr. Meredith branched off into what he described as the vexed questions of the day and he did not let go these subjects until he wound up at 10:30. It was during the last hour that he got thoroughly warmed up. With scorn and contempt he repudiated the everlasting "No Popery" cry that was raised against him whenever he proposed to discuss questions of the day in which his fellow Catholic citizens were interested. He proposed to speak with emphasis on the subject.

"What country in the world, he asked, gives any greater privileges to its Roman Catholic citizens than this great Province of Ontario? There was no office in it that was not open to a Roman Catholic, in theory at least, and still when he had attempted to discuss questions which concerned Roman Catholics, he was met with the everlasting, down with the no papers cry and the thunderbolts of a powerful church were turned against him. This was done in the last general elections.

Across the border, in the great land of freedom, there was not a single separate [illegible] from one end of it to the other. The people of the United States had thought it right to deny their fellow Catholic citizens the use of separate schools. But in Ontario they were guaranteed under the great charter by which we were governed. He considered that it was a great mistake when separate schools were established and he would not go a jot further in opening the door for their further extension.

He hoped his fellow Catholic citizens could see it in the same light that he did and bring their children up in the public schools. Would they be any the worse men and women for that? Mr. Mowat was always posing before the public in the attitude that he had not been the means of extending the facilities of the separate schools. This Mr. Meredith pointed out, was not the case and he instanced the many amendments that had been made to the original Separate School Act of 1863, all broadening the scope and ramifications of these schools.

It was generally understood that the amendments of 1887 were to be a finality to the question and that they would there cease, but such was not the case. They had gone on amending the act, and Mr. Mowat was at the same time telling the House and the people that he was not in favor of altering the original act. (Applause.)

"I will not," exclaimed Mr. Meredith, advocate the abolition of the separate schools, as that would be impossible, for they are enshrined under the charter, but I certainly will strongly oppose opening the door of their extension any wider. I would be open to a charge of treason if I did so. (Applause.)

Then he went on to the matter of the bishops and priests of the Roman Catholic Church interfering with the selection of separate school trustees, and instanced the fight that the late Archbishop Lynch made for the election of Mr. Anglin on the anti-ballot ticket. The late prelate had cautioned the faithful that as the election of a school trustee was a religious affair, every one of them would be called upon to answer to God for his vote.

"Obey your prelates," was the command of the hierarchy, "and vote for their choice of men." If this were sound, continued Mr. Meredith, why the necessity of holding an election at all? Why should not the hierarchy appoint the trustees and save the farce of holding an election?

To show that Mr. Mowat had given every facility for extending the separate schools he pointed out that in 1867 there were only 161 of these schools in Ontario, in 1876 there were 167, in 1885, 218 and in 1888, 233. Again did Mr. Meredith declare that he would strongly oppose the opening of the door for their further extension, and he only hoped the laymen of the separate schools' supporters could agree with him in this respect.

"The present system should be made as perfect as possible," he exclaimed, "but there should be no extension. Our fellow Catholic citizens," continued the speaker, "complain that they do not get their share of offices. That may be so; but what I solemnly protest against is this ever-lasting religious cry. What has a man's religion to do with an office? The State should know no man's religion, that is a matter for his God and his conscience; all we should ask is, Is he a good man? Is he fit for the position?

"I protest against the whole religious cry business. You can't go to Heaven on it. The golden home beyond the skies has, no doubt, often been reached by ways that are not pointed by either priest or presbyter." (Prolonged applause.)

Mr. Meredith's next point was Mr. Mowat's alliance with Mr. Mercier. Mr. Mowat had sat down in secret conclave with this man Mercier, whose avowed aim was to pull down the great arch of Confederation, to abolish the veto power which was the great protectorate of the minorities all over the country. This veto power, which is essential to the perpetuation of Confederation, has been rudely shaken and it must be set up again.

In conclusion he said:

It is said we have no policy and that there are no men in the Opposition fit to take hold of the affairs of this country. For myself I have nothing to say. I am willing to stand any such aspersions that may be made upon my political reputation. But I protest most firmly against the charges which have been made against the brave band of men who surround me and who, against tremendous odds, have been striving to stem the forces of corruption. There are gentlemen assisting me who deserve the confidence of the country.

There is nothing that makes me feel more the injustice of these attacks, sometimes from members of my own party, than when men near at home—gentlemen of being unworthy of Cabinet positions. I know these men to be worthy and capable. The members of the Conservative party and all who wish well for their country should endeavor to hold up the hands of men and assist them in carrying out what they believe to be in the interests of Ontario.

I have now given you my views upon most of the important questions of the day. I am ready to stand by these principles and I am ready to fall by them. I appeal to you to say whether these principles are founded upon truth and justice. If we have a destire to carry on our system of government according to these principles we must unitedly stand by them.

While I repeat that I have no desire to stir up religious or race strife, still I must say that it would be the height of cowardice for me to say that I would not stand up and declare his views upon the great questions now before this country. It is easy to shut one's eyes to the evils of the body politic, but the day will come when these questions will have to be most fearfully and if you do not do it now you will hereafter have to do it under different circumstances.

It is of no consequence to me whether I am elected to Parliament or not. I appreciate the honor that you confer upon me. I have given the best years of my life to my country and have endeavored to discharge my public duties honestly and conscientiously in the interest of this province. I can say here that I have had, and still have, but one burning light—God and my country and my fellowmen.

After Mr. Meredith had taken his seat a resolution of confidence in him and his platform was proposed and carried with enthusiasm. Short addresses were given by H. E. Clarke, G. W. Mosk, A. R. Bogue and Mr. Ingram. The meeting was over at 10.45.

AT LAST!

A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork!

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system usually follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and danger. ous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

THE BUILDING BY-LAW

Will Be Strictly Enforced in Future.

A Threatened Rise in Insurance Rates Brings the Council to Time—Why the By-law Wouldn't Work Before—Other Municipal Matters.

ROBT. MCLEAN, Secretary of the Fire Underwriters Association, complained that the council had allowed the fire limit by-law to be violated, and threatened to lower the classification of the town if the by-law were not rigidly enforced.—Received.

The Trent Valley Canal Commissioners through their Secretary, Mr. L. Oliver, thanked the council for the use of the council chamber during their sittings here.—Received.

A petition was read from the Brooke Manufacturing Co., asking that the water-works system be extended to Townsend street and a hydrant put there.—Granted.

The following applications for remission of taxes, on buildings and land, were referred to the Court of Revision:—Edward Flaherty, Young Men's Christian Association, John Delaney, Michael Ryan, Wm. Wallbrook, H. Laplante, Stewart Rose, and Geo. Perrier.

James Goschin's application for refund of butcher's license was referred to the Finance Committee.

Co., 63c.; Water Co., 9.00; Kingan & Co., 20.80; A McDonald, when certified, 88.92; G.T.R. Co., 2.85; Jas. Edgecombe, 6.00; Dr. Yelland, 22.50; W. H. Robertson, 9.00; G.N.W. RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

Mr. DAVIDSON presented the Treasurer's annual statement of receipts and expenditures, and on motion the report was received and referred to the Finance committee, and the clerk was instructed to have 200 copies of the report printed in sheet form.

Financial statement of the Treasurer for year ending Dec. 14th, 1889:—

Receipts	$ 55747 50
Expenditure	61340 50

NOTE.—The expenditure includes paid on account of market buildings.

CHARITY.

Mr. A. HALL, chairman of the Charity Committee, reported that the sum of $75 had been expended in charity in No. Three Ward from May 1st to Dec. 1st.

The report was adopted.

THE FINISHING TOUCH.

Mr. Kendry moved, seconded by Mr. Hartley, that the Chairman of the Police Supervision Committee be authorized to purchase four fur caps for the police force, the cost not to exceed $6 each.—Carried.

THE FIRE BY-LAW.

Mr. A. HALL referring to the communication of Mr. McLean, said there was no doubt the by-law had not been enforced, and as the threatened reduction of the rate was a serious matter, he moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that Chief Rossel be appointed Building Inspector and instructed to enforce the by-law, and his salary increased $100.

Mr. DAWSON said there was no need of a Building Inspector now when the season was over. It looked like an attempt to raise the Chief's salary. If anyone was to be appointed let a competent man who understands the building business be appointed.

Mr. LANGFORD supported Mr. Dawson.

Mr. HARTLEY said they could not expect to get a thoroughly able man for $100 a year. For himself, he acknowledged the by-law had not been enforced, and it was apparent Mr. Pope had not done his duty. Mr. Hartley thought the Chief would make a good inspector, as he was around town all the time.

Mr. KENDRY supported Mr. Hartley. He thought the Chief could understand the by-law. No expert was needed.

The MAYOR said this trouble arose over the burning of Cavanagh's stables. The Inspector had, as far as he knew, always reported when buildings were being put up, and he thought if the present Inspector was instructed to strictly carry out the by-law it would be sufficient.

Mr. A. HALL said his object was simply to show the Underwriters' Association that they meant business.

Mr. KELLY moved, seconded by Mr. R. H. D. HALL.—That Inspector Pope be instructed to strictly carry out the fire limit by-law.

Mr. KELLY said the council should not interfere with Mr. Pope, but allow him to use his own judgment.

Mr. A. HALL then withdrew his motion.

Mr. RUTHERFORD said that, in spite of all efforts that had been made to lower the insurance rate, the Inspector had not done his duty, and as a consequence there were a lot of illegal buildings within the limits. Why should Mr. Pope ask the Mayor or anyone else about buildings? Mr. Pope had not done his duty and should not be re-appointed.

Mr. DAWSON thought Mr. Pope would have enforced the by-law if he had been let alone.

Mr. HARTLEY denied that he was one of the councillors who interfered with the Inspector, and he thought any member of the council who did such a thing should be censured.

Mr. CAHILL thought the by-law was either not comprehensive enough or too comprehensive. He did not see why Mr. Mowat (who had been previously referred to) should not be allowed to put up the same kind of a house as anyone else when it was so far from the centre of the town.

Mr E H. D. HALL thought Mr. Pope had not done his whole duty and perhaps the Mayor had been instrumental in that by allowing outside interference. But he thought the matter would do.

The motion was then carried.

Mr. Davidson introduced a by-law granting $200 to the West Peterborough Agricultural Society, and moved the council go into a committee on the first reading.

Mr. Rutherford moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry that the council go into committee on the by-law six months hence, Mr. Rutherford [illegible] a short speech in opposition to the grant, claiming that the town people should not be taxed by this money to the rich country people who never contribute to the town. He was ashamed of the council doing such a thing.

Mayor Sawdon thought it remarkable if the town councils did not know their own interests, that the merchants of the town should give the finding $200 in subscriptions.

Mr. Rutherford's amendment was lost, only the mover and seconder voting for it.

The by-law then received its three readings and was finally passed, Mr. Rutherford alone voting against it.

The council then adjourned.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The World's Sculling Championship — A Mother Charged With Manslaughter

TORONTO, Dec 16.—A cable to a friend of O'Connor says that Stansbury, the Australian is on his way to America intending to surprise the Canadian here. The Antipodean has accepted O'Connor's recent offer and expects to have the race rowed early in the summer. To accommodate Teemer O'Connor is willing to row that sculler before his race with Stansbury and will make every effort to secure a contest. Saturday O'Connor issued a formal challenge to Teemer, or any other oarsman, for a world's championship race in best and best boats to take place on American waters and has placed $500 with a local newspaper.

The grand jury returned a true bill Saturday against Mary Welsh, charged with manslaughter. She was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Judge Macdougall asked Mr G. G. S. Lindsey to defend the prisoner. This is the case in which Mrs. Mary Welsh left her little girl in the house alone and the child was burned so badly during the mother's absence that she died shortly after.

Robert Brines was tried before Judge Macdougall Saturday on the charge of setting fire to Greey's warehouse at the foot of Church street on the night of Nov 13. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Clarence Vance, 36 years of age, and a piano tuner by trade, was arrested by Detective Davis on Saturday on a charge of assaulting a little girl at Weston. Vance has been wanted for the past six weeks.

WENT DOWN TO DEATH

A Susquehanna Freight Plunges Through an Open Draw - Three Lives Lost.

HACKENSACK, N.J., Dec. 14.—In a blinding snow storm at noon to-day a heavily laden coal train on the Susquehanna Road, bound east, came rumbling along toward the drawbridge at Little Ferry. Engineer William Nixon, who was on the lookout, could see but a few rods ahead of his engine on account of the storm. The tracks are usually clear at this point and the train was moving at moderate speed. The draw of the bridge, which had been opened to permit the passage of a schooner, had not yet been closed. The engineer and fireman could not see this and no attempt was made to bring the train to a halt. The telegraph operator at the bridge heard the train coming and sprang to his instruments and began sending signals up the track to warn the men of the approaching train of the danger. The wires connected with the alarm bells situated at some distance up the track, and he kept them ringing until he saw the locomotive shriek its nose through the storm. Then he realized that any effort he might make would be useless.

As the train went by the operator looked at the engine cab and saw three men. They were Engineer William Nixon, Fireman Harrington and the boss brakeman William Hasley. In an instant the locomotive reached the open draw and the forward and dived downward and disappeared taking the cab and tender with it. The coupling pin parted and the first car remained on the brink of the bridge. No trace of the three men could be found. Bubbles caused by the escaping steam and hot ashes arose to the surface but not a sign of life. The cars were transferred to the West Shore tracks and the relatives of the dead men, who lived in West End, were notified of the sad occurrence.

POLITICS IN GERMANY.

How the Centre Party Gained a Victory in the Reichstag

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—The success of the Centre party in the vote in the Reichstag relieving all theological students of the obligation to military service, has stirred up a good deal of a breeze in the upper world of politics; and Prince Bismarck complains in regard to it that the highest interests of the government service are neglected for personal interests of individual deputies. The vote was, it appears, rather a snap victory for the Centerists, and does not imply that they have been able to make any political combination which would give them the controlling voice in legislation, as that vote seemed to imply they had secured. Many men of the Cartel party were absent and the Centerists seized the advantage due to that happy chance. The National Zeitung announces that the Government will not accept the decision, and thus the accident of the absence of Cartel deputies will not change the finest point of the Government on this very important subject. It was indeed not to be expected that so grave an infringement of the principle of the May laws should pass unchallenged before these laws themselves shall become totally obsolete.

Prof. Virchow has recovered from the influenza. Several members of the Imperial family have had it. No official estimate has been made of the cases of influenza that have occurred in the city. It is known that few families have escaped, and it is thought that a third of the population has been ill.

KILRAIN FINED $200

He Appeals and is Admitted to Bail in $1000.

PURVIS, Miss., Dec. 15.—At 8.45 yesterday morning court convened, all the parties interested in the Kilrain trial being present. On the jury were three negroes and the others were white men from the back country. The Mayor of Purvis testified materially as he did in the Sullivan trial. He saw the battle. Kilrain received $1000 from Harding and bet it with Sullivan. The taking of testimony lasted less than an hour. The defence offered no witness. Lawyer Deason led for the defence. It was a social contest, said he, not a fight. The prosecuting counsel had been a little too imaginative in presenting his case; the jury must take their own opinion, not his. He read the charges for the defence, defining what would be causes for an acquittal.

At 12.30 the case was given to the jury and at 5.30 they returned a verdict of not guilty of prize fighting but guilty of assault and battery, and Kilrain was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and imprisonment in the county jail two months. The case was appealed and Kilrain admitted to bail in the sum of $1000.

The Last Sad Rites.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Dec. 15.—The remains of Searle, the champion sculler, arrived here to-day en route to Crofton, the birthplace of the oarsmen. Great crowds of people from all the towns around assembled to attend the obsequies.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

COVINGTON, Tenn., Dec. 14.—The large tubular boiler at Randall Bros. saw mill exploded yesterday, demolishing the building and killing Fireman Jones and Mr Stewart, a member of the firm. Two of the employes were seriously injured.

Nearly all colds are slight at first, but their tendency is to so lower the system that the sufferer becomes a ready victim to any prevalent disease. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the beginning of a cold, would guard against this danger.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life or energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisment in another column.

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria neutralizes the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and restlessness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Rheumatic Pains

require no description, since, with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundation. The most successful treatment known, and it is not frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nervilene. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the sufferer. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottle of Nervilene can be had at the drug stores for ten cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6dw51

Important to Workingmen.

ARTIZANS, mechanics, and laboringmen are liable to sudden accidents and injuries, as well as painful cords, stiff joints and lameness. To all thus troubled we would recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the handy and reliable pain cure for outward or internal use. 2w49d

Is something that will make a man sleep well, eat well and rise in the morning refreshed and strong, with none of the worn out tired feeling sure to be found where constipation, dyspepsia or diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood exists. A Common Cold

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was

I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Rogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it for Colds, Coughs, and all Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Medailles, Pa.

Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who knew me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark.

He says that explains why he was disorderly last night.

Another Interesting Case.
Mr. John McNaughton has entered an action in the police court against Geo. Kearns for assault. It seems the difficulty arose in Mr. McNaughton's shop the other day, when the defendant accused the plaintiff, who was a grand juror on the Caldbeck-MacWilliams cases, with having perjured himself. Mr. McNaughton ordered him out of the shop, when, it is alleged the assault was committed. The case comes up for trial on Thursday.

Why Wear People Underrated?
It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

The Nora Clench Concert.
To-day the public are admiring with great pleasure the portraits displayed in the shop windows of Miss Nora Clench, who will appear at the grand concert on Jan. 9th, and at whom the Mail says, "Miss Nora Clench is undoubtedly the greatest Canadian instrumental artist living." Mrs. Chambers, who is to appear as lady vocal soloist at the same concert, takes high rank in Montreal. At the Mendelssohn concert, at which Miss Lauder Obe, the finest lady pupil of the late Abbe Liszt, was pianist, Mrs. Chambers was selected as the vocal soloist. To be thought worthy of appearing in such good company shows how highly Mrs. Chambers' singing is regarded in Montreal. At this same concert Mr. T. Dunn will also give two or three of his beautiful baritone solos. Mr. Dunn's abilities as a singer are too well known in town to need any further commendation.

Over Twelve Years Established.
A live and well established grocery and provision business for sale. R. H. Green, on account of continued ill-health, has decided to sell his entire stock of groceries, provisions, &c., on bloc, at a bargain, to a suitable purchaser. The goods are nearly all new, well assorted and bought at the lowest possible wholesale prices. The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them as a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as decided bargains will be given. The goods must be sold. R. H. GREEN, corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough.

OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT.

Fairweather's Bear.
Fairweather & Co., the furriers, have adopted a unique and startling style of advertisement which attracts large crowds to their store. In the corner window a large bear restlessly paces the length of his tether with all the dignity he can summon up in face of the eager, wondering, throngs which surround the front. Brain is safely chained and caged in, and being quite two there is no danger of anyone being converted into lunch for his bearship. The spectacle is highly amusing, to the children in particular. The bear was captured when yet a cub, back of Stony Lake, and was purchased by Mr. Fairweather. Mr. John Hawden has been feeding the animal since, and now it has attained full growth. The bear is one of the largest and finest ever caught in the district, and in a few weeks his glossy hide will be wound around Indian necks in the form of boas. Brain will be on exhibition only a few days, when he will be led to the slaughter, his carcass turned over to a butcher for the Christmas trade, and his pelt converted into he broadtail boas which are so fashionable among the fair sex this season.

St. Andrew's Auxiliary.

First Annual Meeting of the St. Andrew's Auxiliary—The Secretary's Report—Election of Officers—Remarks of Members—A Social Supper.

The first annual meeting of St. Andrew's Auxiliary Missionary Society was held in the school room on Monday evening. There was, in spite of the bad weather, a good attendance. Mrs. VanEvery, the president, occupied the chair. After devotional exercises—singing, a Scripture lesson read by the president and prayer by Mrs. Fairbairn, the President gave a brief address, referring to the interesting nature of the occasion of the first annual meeting. The young people were especially urged to take an interest in the work of the Auxiliary, and the hope expressed that the encouragement of the past year would stimulate the members to even more successful work in the future.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Miss Edmison then read the secretary's report as follows:—

First annual report of St. Andrew's Auxiliary, Peterborough:—

This Auxiliary was formed on the 15th of March last at a meeting of the ladies of the congregation called for the purpose, and commenced its work with a membership of eleven, which has since increased to seventeen. While this membership may, to some, appear comparatively small, it may fairly be said, considering the limited number of ladies connected with our congregation, to be a successful beginning.

At the inaugural meeting it was decided that the Auxiliary should hold its regular meeting on the third Monday of each month. Since then nine meetings have been held with an average attendance of eight. On the 2nd of July a special meeting was held for the purpose of arranging for the contribution of articles of clothing to send to the North-West, in compliance with the request of the Presbyterial Secretary as contained in her letter of the 3rd of June. At that meeting a committee was appointed to purchase the articles required and have them sent to St. Paul's Church to be forwarded with other contributions, which was done. The goods were valued by the committee at $8. In addition to this, the members of the society contributed $1.00 to pay freight on the goods.

Besides this the Ladies Aid and the Warsaw congregation contributed a box to Dillon Keith, Touchwood, N.W.T.

The membership fee was placed at the small sum of 25 cents, in order that every one willing to join in the good work might be able to do so.

One member of the Society is also a member of the General Society.

With a view of acquiring such useful information regarding the progress of the work in foreign lands, as may be necessary to stimulate and encourage our members to work with more diligence and intelligence, it was decided last month to subscribe for a missionary magazine, which we trust will make our meetings more attractive and interesting.

Since the formation of the Auxiliary, the sum of $6 50 has been raised by voluntary contribution and from membership fees, $5. Altogether our Auxiliary may not have accomplished all that we would have desired, yet during the short time it has been in existence, our members have reason to feel encouraged by the progress made, and by earnest, active work we hope to do better in future.

ANNIE H. EDMISON,
Secretary.

The report was, on motion adopted.

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

resulted in the reappointment of all the officers as follows:—

PRESIDENT—Mrs. VanEvery.
FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT—Mrs. Paton.
SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT—Mrs. (Rev.) A. Bell.
SECRETARY—Miss Edmison.
TREASURER—Miss Ray.

After the election of officers, encouraging and admonitory remarks were made by Mrs. Paton, Mrs. Fairbairn and Mrs. Henderson.

Mrs. Brodigan sang in excellent style the sacred song, "Ashamed of Jesus?" after which Mrs. Payton made the closing prayer.

After the business of the meeting was concluded the ladies partook of refreshments and enjoyed social intercourse for an hour or so, before they separated.

An Organist Honored.

Mr. W. H. Dingle Presented with An Address and Case by the Members of the George Street Choir.

Last evening a pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. R.J. Chowen, George street north, when about fifty members of the choir of the George Street Methodist Church and their friends gathered together to spend the evening. A delightful surprise was also in store for Mr. W. H. Dingle, organist, who has severed his connection with the church and leaves town next Tuesday for his home in Oshawa, where he will spend the holidays before entering upon his duties in another sphere of labor. Mr. Dingle has been in charge of the choir of the George Street Church for the two years past, and the unbiased address will show how popular and esteemed he was among his associates. The sentiments therein expressed will be echoed and re echoed by Mr. Dingle's many friends both inside and outside the church, who will sincerely regret his departure from town.

After some time had been pleasantly spent in musical and literary, as well as material refreshment, Mr. Dingle was called forward, and the following address was read by Mr. S. F. Hill:—

PETERBOROUGH, Dec. 16th, 1889

DEAR MR. DINGLE.—Before taking your departure from among us we, the members of the George street Methodist choir, desire to express our sorrow with having to part with one, whom to know was but to love and esteem, and to assure you that though you may be absent from us, we shall not forget you, but shall watch with pleasure your future career, which we feel assured will be a successful one. During the two years of association together, we bear testimony to the fact of your very faithful services as organist and choir leader, and we are persuaded that in you, we are losing one, whom in respect of true nobility of character, and of professional ability, it will be difficult to replace. We recognize in you a type of manhood, rare indeed, and such as is sound to make life a success. Without words which might be construed as flattery, we are desirous simply of giving expression to our regard for you, our consequent sorrow at having to say farewell, and our best wishes for your future success in years to come, and we beg of you to accept as a slight token or the above, the accompanying case—wishing you a Merry Christmas, a happy and prosperous New Year.

Signed on behalf of the choir,
J. C. MILLER,
S. F. HILL,
R. J. CHOWEN.

Mr. Dingle was completely taken by surprise, but managed to express his thanks in a few feeling remarks. The gift referred to was presented by Miss Maggie Allen. It is a handsome gold-handled case, suitably inscribed, and will always serve a reminder to Mr. Dumble of the warm friends he leaves behind in Peterborough.

Youthful Missionaries.
A new and very commendable method of providing Christmas entertainments for Sunday School children has been adopted by the Superintendent and teachers of the St. Luke's Sunday school. The children have for so many years been receiving presents from a Christmas tree that this year they will, for once, forego the pleasure of receiving, to enjoy the greater blessings of giving. On the Monday evening following Christmas Day, there will be a pleasant entertainment provided in the Sunday School building. Each child and teacher will be requested to bring a present of some kind, however small. A general invitation of the same kind will be given to all church members. These presents will be packed in boxes and sent to poor missions in the back country, where they will gladden the hearts of many children whose parents cannot afford to make such presents. Already there is much enthusiasm manifested over this good work, and as all are invited to send gifts of books, toys, clothing, etc., a liberal response is looked for. There is no patent on this scheme, and other Sunday Schools are at liberty to adopt it.

No remedy for blood disorder can equal Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Though so concentrated and powerful, this medicine is perfectly safe, and may be taken by children as well as adults. Physicians recommend it in preference to any other. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

The Anniversary Tea.

A Successful Entertainment in the Baptist Church—Addresses by Local Divines.

The fifth anniversary tea meeting of the Murray street Baptist church, in continuance of the service on Sunday, was held Monday evening, and needless to say it was a splendid success. The ladies of the Baptist church have long ere this won for themselves an excellent name as giving a first-class tea, and Monday night's "spread" was no exception. The Sabbath school room presented a sociable appearance between six and eight o'clock, and the tables were kept busy for two hours supplying the demands of the several hundred guests who entered the church.

After the tea an entertainment was begun in the church above. Rev. T. C. Parker, pastor, acted as chairman and conducted the opening exercises.

The choir then rendered "Consider the Lillies of the Field," in which they distinguished themselves.

Rev. J. B. Huff was the first speaker. He expressed his disappointment at not being able to see and hear Rev. Ira Smith, of Toronto. He then made a short address, pointing out the pleasure experienced in serving God our Master as far better than the honors of this world, and urging his hearers to follow the Saviour closely.

After the choir had rendered "Awake the Song," Rev. Mr. Shorey was introduced as premier speaker of the town. His address dealt with the question, How we ought to live, and he showed how sin was not only sinful because it offended God, but also because it injured the life of the sinner. He urged young people not to be too fast. Mr. Shorey's remarks were very pointed and full of wisdom and encouragement.

Mr. Arthur Burson spoke in a pathetic manner of a death-bed he had just visited before coming to the meeting, and followed with a number of moral lessons, which he impressed on his hearers.

The choir sang "Lift up Your Heads."

Rev. M. L. Pearson congratulated the Baptists on their anniversary, marking as it did the conclusion of another year of successful work for the Master.

Rev. E. F. Torrance, the last speaker, made a happy speech, and referred to the great men there were in the Baptist Church, particularly to the pleasure he derived from listening to the great Spurgeon.

The meeting was brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

Personal.

Mr. R. H. Henderson is in town for a few days.

Rev. P. C. Parker, pastor of the Baptist Church, preached in the Beverley Street Church, Toronto, Sunday.

Dr. R. W. Bell, Grand Master of the Oddfellows, went to Midland this morning to institute a new lodge of the Order. He was accompanied by Mr. R. M. Roy, Noble Grand of Otonabee lodge. They will also visit Penetanguishene.

The Curlers at It.
The first curling of the season took place at the rink last night. The ice was in good condition and the brawn curlers hurled their stones with such vigor that sore backs and arms will be in fashion among them to-day. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Sam Ray visited the rink and had the honor, so he says, of throwing the first stone of the season. Mr. W. H. Badden, however, claims the honor for himself, and states that he sent a stone over the ice from one end of the rink to the other a week ago.

The Cause of Charity.
An entertainment will be held in the school-room of St. John's church Tuesday evening, 17th inst., the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Protestant Home. A Teacher Remembered.
This afternoon the pupils of the senior third form in the union school presented their teacher, Miss Hall, with a beautiful hand-painted plaque and the following address:—

DEAR MISS HALL,—Your affectionate pupils, at the close of this term, feel that they would like to show you that they remember your many acts of kindness during the term, and the great pains you have taken to give us a taste for our studies, and to help us in them.

At this season of the year it particularly delights us to think kindly of you, and to know that you are not forgotten.

Will you then, dear Miss Hall, do us the pleasure of accepting this little gift, and our sincere wish is that your Xmas will be a merry one, and the New Year, as well as all the future years of your life, may be a happy one.

SUGGESTIONS

"What would the world be to us
If the children were no more!"

We've a whole flat devoted to toys alone. And such toys! Cute enough to make the mouth of every human boy and girl just water. Horses that are ready to spring into action; sheds that are impatiently waiting the first good sleighing; clowns, so comical that they just kill you with laughter; games that turn the romping boy into a profound philosopher; trains that seem ready to go to Chicago; toy books full of splendid pictures to delight and instruct.

And then the dolls for the little girls; such dolls! no common every-day dolls, that a little mother with any pride in her would be ashamed of. But real French Dolls, dressed in the latest Parisian fashions, with lovely golden hair, and long, lanquishing eyelashes, and skin just like real baby's skin, you know.

Then there are games and piles of Albums, awfully cheap, and Plush Goods and Ornamental Crockery, Wall Pieces, Easels, Photo Frames, Gold Roll Plate, Rings, Brooches, Lace Pins, Brooches and other Jewelry at prices to please you. The Federal Capital Furnishes Another Elopement Sensation—A Case of Smallpox in Colchester Township.

OTTAWA, Dec 17 The latest elopement reported is that of a young machinist, who three years ago married an estimable young woman in the West End. He drew his wages on Saturday last and yesterday was missing. It was rather startling intelligence to his young wife, who had not seen him since Saturday morning, to be informed that he had eloped with a young lady, a former sweetheart of his, and had gone to Philadelphia

Bradley & Knox, representing James Leggat of Montreal, who is being sued by W. E. Brown for $35,000 damages in connection with the recent suits, will shortly move before the Toronto courts to make Mrs. Altha Baker a party to Mr Brown's $25,000 suit, she having as claimed given a written guarantee at the time of her settlement that she would protect the creditors from any suits that might subsequently be brought by Mr. Brown.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Ontario Immigration Statistics A Touching Scene in Court.

TORONTO, Dec 18 —A meeting of Catholic Bishops will be held at St. Michael's Palace this morning to nominate the successor at London of Bishop Walsh, now Archbishop of Toronto. The usual course will be followed. The Archbishop will preside, the Bishops will confer and select three names for the vacant post. These three nominations having received unanimous assent will be forwarded by His Grace to Rome, and the Holy See will appoint one of the nominees to the London bishopric It is probable that the new Bishop will be Father O'Connor, who is the present administrator of the London diocese, who has the hearty sympathy of Archbishop Walsh, and who is highly respected by the clergy.

The voters of West Toronto Junction yesterday carried by 375 majority the $150,000 bylaw providing for the necessary funds required to build the two subways on Keele-street and the Western-road, which the Canadian Pacific Railway Company ask in return for establishing their repair shops there for the Ontario system and making it the centre of their whole Ontario system.

The Grand Jury yesterday returned a true bill against Arthur Chamberlain, charged with assaulting the police. No bills were returned in the cases of Elizabeth Charlton, charged with fraud, and Clarence Vance, charged with indecent assault.

The Dominion Alliance begins its annual convention in Richmond Hall this morning Delegates are already on hand from different parts of the province and indications are that there will be a lively meeting. The ever-pressing questions of legislation and political action are what will most likely lead to discussion. The meetings are free to all. A large attendance is anticipated.

Mr. Hector Cameron, Q.C., yesterday filed at Osgoode Hall his statement of defence in the now somewhat famous case of "The Federal Bank against Samuel Nordheimer and the Commercial Loan Company," in which the directors of the bank seek to recover a large sum of money from its ex-president for alleged maladministration of the bank's affairs. The amount claimed from Mr. Nordheimer is said to be in the neighborhood of half a million. The statement of defence, which covers eight pages of type-written copy, is a general denial of the allegations against Mr. Nordheimer, as filed by the solicitor for the directors, Hon. S. H. Blake.

No more touching sight has been witnessed in the Quarter Sessions than when 10-year-old Minnie Walsh stood in the witness box yesterday to testify against her mother, who was on trial for manslaughter. Mrs. Mary Walsh on Dec. 3, left her little children in the house alone, and one of them in her absence was burned to such extent that she died shortly after. The testimony brought out that the prisoner is somewhat addicted to drink and has been known to be the victim of temporary fits of insanity. Mr. G. G. S. Lindsey defended the prisoner and Judge Macdougall took the case from the jury and entered a verdict of not guilty. Before discharging the prisoner he gave her some timely counsel to be warned by the calamity which had taken away one of her little ones and leave drink alone.

Mr. David Spence, secretary of the Ontario Immigration Department, has issued a return showing the arrivals of immigrants in the province for the eleven months from Jan. 1 to Nov. 30, 1889. The return shows that there was the remarkable decrease in the number of arrivals of 38,870 over the same period of last year. The table is as follows:

	Went to Arrived	Went to Quebec.	Went to Manitoba	Remained in Ont
1889	62,397	43,977	161	1776
1888	101,267	68,174	161	2439
Decrease	38,870	24,77	80	676

This decrease is no doubt attributable to the abolition of assisted passages. The great bulk of its arrivals, as in former years, were English, Irish, Scotch and Germans, the English largely predominating.

Brewer May be Balked.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The Senate in executive session this afternoon, considered the nomination of David J. Brewer to be associate justice of the Supreme Court, but reached no conclusion Blair (Rep., N H.) led the opposition to the confirmation and attacked Brewer's record. Ingalls (Rep., Kan.) defended Brewer in a long speech. The whole discussion turned on the celebrated brewery decision.

A Freight Car Famine.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Every railroad eastbound from here reports that December traffic would be the heaviest on record if the roads had a sufficient supply of cars. Careful inquiry among nineteen roads centering here shows a scarcity of each line from 500 to 4000. The grand total will exceed 50,000. Several lines have been compelled to refuse local shipments of grain.

MR. PARNELL TALKS.

TWO VIGOROUS ADDRESSES AT NOTTINGHAM.

Ireland Quiet Through Confidence in Gladstone—How Irish Industries Should be Developed.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—Mr Parnell addressed a large meeting at Nottingham this afternoon. He declared there never had been a movement of such magnitude to the country which was so comparatively free from crime as the Land League movement. The object of the Home Rule movement, he said, was to regenerate Ireland, especially with regard to her industrial condition. Manufactures might be developed to such an extent as to take the strain off the land and enable the people to look to other means than farming for gaining a living, but the idea was not tenable that Ireland could be governed by England's promoting her industries. Irishmen themselves must promote Irish industries by building harbors, clearing out the channels of rivers and reclaiming waste lands, not at the expense of the English Exchequer, but of the Irish exchequer, or, best of all, through the efforts of local and individual enterprise and with private capital. Mr. Balfour's plan of making railways through impoverished districts was a vain expenditure of money.

Home Rule aimed at national regeneration, and this implied the regeneration of the industries and the industrial and commercial spirit of the people. If Home Rule were granted it would not discourage the rich people of England from promoting industrial developments, but the money would be judiciously and advantageously employed instead of being wasted, as now, to maintain in power a Government of fraud and trickery. Expenditure of that sort would enable Ireland to get and to keep her head above water and so exercise and develop the qualities of her people that she would be no longer an exhibition for the wonder of the nations of the world. [Cheers.]

Briefly referring to the Parnell Commission, the speaker said he believed the judges' report would not discredit the national movement.

Mr Parnell devoted the speech he made to-night to the Tenants' League. He said this was by far the greatest and most powerful peaceable movement ever organized in Ireland or any other country. Although Ireland was tranquil she was not appeased, she did not submit. On the contrary the people's dislike of the Government was tenfold more intense for the experiences of three years of coercion. But the country, though it did not yield, was tranquil because of the faith it had in the assurances of Mr. Gladstone that a triumphant Liberal party would soon give it its legitimate freedom.

Mr. Parnell would not say that it would be impossible to govern Ireland by mere coercion, but Balfour's mixture of coercion and constitutionalism would never succeed. Mr. Balfour had made several mistakes: among these was that he had neglected to provide for arrears of rent and for the restitution of evicted tenants. This had led to the formation of a new agrarian movement which would sweep Balfour and his props away as chaff is swept before the whirlwind.

If the Government had nothing to be ashamed of in its connection with The Times, doubtless it would gratify curiosity by making known the truth about the matter. The country wanted to know how far the Government had gone in a course so mean and so thoroughly contrary to the English spirit as to attack men from ambush and by the use of such disreputable instruments. He knew the letters were forgeries, but he would rather have died than have accepted the vindication the Government offered him. The Parnell Commission instead of trying the personal indictment had tried the Irish nation and the movements of the Irish party.

BERLIN, Dec. 17.—The superintendent of the mines in the Saar district has informed the men that the eight hours shift is included in the labor regulation; that equality of wages is not practical, but that increased pay shall be given to men who are not able to earn a living on the pay hitherto given. Despite the concessions made to the miners in this district the strike is under full headway.

RIGA, Dec. 17.—The municipal authorities at their meeting to-day conducted the proceedings in the Russian language instead of the German, in accordance with the ukase recently issued by the Czar. This was the first time the Russian language has been used at a meeting of the council. Mayor Ottengen, Councillors Hillner, Hausmann and Tiesner withdrew from the meeting and the municipal secretary resigned because the ukase was enforced.

It also voted, 190 to 155, against giving amnesty to strikers guilty of violation of law.

He had not asked for medicine, had represented himself as agent for an American Bible Society. Other witnesses swore that it had always been customary for druggists to give medicine under such circumstances. Judgment will be given on Friday.

THAT QUEER VERDICT.

MRS LONGENECKER TELLS HOW IT WAS FOUND.

Juror Culver Did It—He Had Small Faith in Some of the Witnesses—Coughlin's Police Friends.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—State's Attorney Longenecker this evening, after a conference with one of the Cronin jury, whose name he withheld, told how the verdict was reached. As surmised, Juror John Culver, who spent much of his spare time during the long evenings reading the Bible, was the influential factor. The first incident in this connection occurred while the trial was in progress at the time when Mrs. Conklin testified. That evening Mr. Culver notified his fellow jurors that he solemnly believed she had committed perjury. Later Mrs. Hoertel he thought was a liar and Martinson the expressman did not really know Burke, while the Carlsons were plainly telling falsehoods.

Culver, as the trial neared the end, seemed to see in nearly every witness for the State a vindictive or a purchased perjurer He plainly hinted that it looked like a conspiracy on the State's part. The matter of having witnesses under the charge of detectives was one of the things he thought looked bad. He was not sure Dr. Cronin ever went to the Carlson cottage, and when asked "How do you account for the bloody trunk" said, "Why, for all we know a dog may have been taken away in it." The cause of Cronin's death had never been proved, he contended, and he was impressed with the idea that Daniel Coughlin had a "good face."

When the time for balloting arrived Culver voted for the acquittal of all the defendants. He steadfastly declared that Beggs particularly he would not send to jail even for one day. The result was a long struggle and repeated ballots ending in the compromise verdict announced. Farmer Pierson had voted steadily for the execution of all five defendants and was the last man to yield. It was he who was holding out toward the end and not until an hour or so before the verdict reached the public did he give in to the entreaties of his comrades. The leading thought of the majority of the jurors, other than Culver and Pierson, seemed to be to prevent a disagreement. They apparently believed that a mis-trial was what had been aimed at by the defence.

Clan na-Gaelers Bounced

CHICAGO, Dec 17.—State's Attorney Longenecker said to-day he did not believe the defendants in the Cronin case could secure a new trial, but in the event that they did he would endeavor to secure punishment by the death penalty on the next trial. The cases against the jury bribers would be soon tried and beyond doubt five men would be sent to the penitentiary.

A visit to Alexander Sullivan's office was not productive of much information. Sullivan on being asked what he thought of the verdict replied: "I do not wish to be interviewed. I have nothing to say."

Detectives John Stift and M. J. Crowe and Patrolman Edmond McDonald, who testified in favor of Daniel Coughlin in the Cronin trial, received a notice of dismissal to-day from the force "for conduct unbecoming an officer and for neglect of duty." "This is only the beginning of removals," said an official to-day, "and from this time on you can look out for the removal of Clan-na-Gael men and their sympathizers daily."

THE DEADLY WIRES.

A Toledo Painter's Awful Fate—A Sickening Spectacle.

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 18.—Yesterday morning Robert S. Dalton, a painter employed by the Lake Shore Railroad, went to the top of the train shed to measure a skylight for repairs. He was missed a couple of hours afterwards and the foreman climbed to the roof to investigate. He was horrified at seeing the body of Dalton lying on his back across two electric light wires and the smoke curling up from his burning clothing and flesh. The odor fairly sickened him and seeing that Dalton was dead he at once descended to the freight office and telephoned to have the current shut off so that the body could be removed. It presented a horrible spectacle. The face was black and from the mouth great flakes of foam had fallen over his face and on the roof. The left arm, which was fearfully burned about the elbow, was drawn up close to the side, the elbow bent and across the breast were burnt two strips about three inches wide where the man had touched the wires. Dalton was a sober, industrious man, aged 40. He leaves a wife and child.

AT LAST!

A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and dangerous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Robinson, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

Statutory Meeting of the Council—Christmas Entertainment

The Mark street Methodist Sunday school and St. Luke's Sunday school are preparing for Christmas entertainments.

The municipal council held its last meeting for 1889 Monday night, the reeve, Mr. John Burnham, Q.C., in the chair, and councillors Craig, Calcutt, Tivey and Marshall being present. Mr. John Wood, clerk, read the minutes of the last meeting in a very dignified manner, while Mr. A. H. Peck, treasurer, was present and wore a very serious looking countenance. It had been rumored round during the evening that there was going to be a "pic-nic," as some adept in the use of the Queen's English termed it. However, the "picnic" was a very business-like one, but not at all void of some practical jokes.

After confirmation of the minutes a number of accounts and two pay sheets were presented and ordered to be paid.

Mr. John Pollock appeared before the magisterial bench and laid a complaint to the effect that one of his kind neighbors, wishing to confer on him a birthright in the shape of a water power, had dammed up a small stream and turned it into Mr. Pollock's cellar, the effect being anything but pleasant. Alderman Tivey and Marshall were given power to pull down the dam and thus remove the cause of grievance.

Then Mr. J. Whiteman delivered a very neat oration to the effect that one, Mrs. Gleany, whose husband is in the hospital, had brought to his place two children, five and two years old, and had left herself without providing for their keep. He wished the council to adopt them, which they did not take well to. It seems that this woman and her children came here from Omemee, thinking that the council here were a paternal lot, and would not see them suffer. The matter was disposed of however for the time being, Aldermen Marshall and Tivey being appointed a committee to father the little orphans. Alderman Tivey objected to this part, saying that he had a family of his own, and thought Alderman Marshall being a bachelor, should take full charge, the matter dropping with this latter understanding.

Mr. Fitzgerald, who has the contract of the town hall, asked for an extension of one month from the first of January to complete the building. This was granted, with the provision that the shops were to be completed according to time in contract, namely, the first of January.

Mr. H. Belcher claimed that he had been taxed for a dog and had not owned one for the last ten years. Mr. Butcher said there were so many dogs in the village that the assessors, in order to dispose of them all, had to put one on every ratepayer. His dollar was ordered to be refunded.

The question of an extra snow plough was then discussed, the aldermen being unanimously in favour of having one, as it would give more efficient service, while the expense would not be any more, with the exception of the cost of a plough, which would be comparatively small. Aldermen Craig and Calcutt were appointed to purchase this necessary acquisition to the assets of the corporation.

The annual statement of the treasurer was then presented by him and read. This set forth in a very compact form the assets, liabilities and expenditure of the past year. This document was ordered to be printed in the town papers, and a hundred copies or so, struck off for free distribution among all such as require data for a speech on nomination day. This ended the business after which a free and easy conversation took place upon matters in general and nothing in particular.

The Evangelists at Hamilton.

Evangelists Crossley and Hunter have recently been creating a stir in Hamilton by their sweeping denunciations of dancing and dancers, in anticipation of several swell balls which are to come off shortly in the Ambitious City. The newspapers have taken the matter up, and they all state that public indignation runs high. A storm of objection has been raised to Mr. Hunter's remarks in particular, and one lady went so far as to say that "nobody but a man with an essentially impure mind could have said what Mr. Hunter said, and Mr. Crossley's remarks were scarcely better." A Hamilton reporter interviewed Mr. Hunter with regard to the effect these objections were having upon the vigorous revivalists. Mr. Hunter said:—"These things make no impression upon my position. What I said are not random statements, but opinions carefully prepared after long and earnest thought. Any community can get up and say: 'I don't oppose dancing;' but he does not speak for his church. The opinions of the leading divines of all the churches will support my views of the subject. The cry of 'ignorance' does not fit in my case. And," continued Mr. Hunter, "I see that several of those express their views referring to dancing in a light that is not fair or correct. Neither Mr. Crossley or I referred to the subject in the way it is put and I object to that being discussed." The Hamilton Herald adds that the managers of the Empire Quadrille Club have invited the evangelists to attend the club's fifth assembly, to be held in the Alexandria Arcade Monday evening. If they attend, the managers promise to provide them with suitable partners. The club offers to devote $100 to any local charitable institution to be named by Rev. Messrs Hunter and Crossley, provided they can prove to the satisfaction of any disinterested person that any impropriety occur at the assembly, and the members of the fair sex present can be used as witnesses.

A Night Alarm.

I AWOKE last night to find my little boy so hoarse with croup that he could hardly breathe, but on giving him some Hagyard's Yellow Oil on sugar, and rubbing his chest, throat and back with it also, he soon was sleeping quietly and awoke next morning completely cured.

A Large Estate.

A broad land is this in which we live, dotted so thickly with thrifty cities, towns and villages: Amid them all, with ever-increasing popularity and helpfulness, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, giving hope and cheer where there is disease and despair. Wherever there is humanity there is suffering; wherever there is suffering there is the best field for this greatest American Remedy. Consumption (which is lung-scorfula), yields to it, if employed in early stages of the disease; Chronic Nasal Catarrh, yields to it; Kidney and Liver diseases, yield to it! If you want the best known remedy for all diseases of the blood, ask for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and take no other. It is guaranteed to cure in all cases of diseases for which it is recommended, or money refunded. b

COLD IN HEAD
CATARRH
THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH.

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, sudden and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly developes into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature Death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected Cold, which, by gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease which defies the science as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold in the Head, or any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as foul breath, dull [illegible] headaches, dropping from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, impairment of smell, or taste becoming dull, hacking cough, general feeling of debility, hoarseness, wheezing or crackling sounds in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness, particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the stomach, vomiting when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat. Do not neglect them, for there but few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run on under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure. Read the pamphlet on Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestionable fact, which is verified by thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials have received from all parts of the Dominion, and we append a few, selected at random as a fair sample of the whole:—

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says:—Gents,—I may state that I have been afflicted with Catarrh for seven or eight years, and my head was stuffed with consequent symptoms, such as foul breath, constant dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness, ringing in the ears, and sickening headache. I have tried direct by over either by powders and douches, but failed to effect only temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of NASAL BALM are perfect. breath, stoppage of the doppings into the throat consequently hawking and spitting, clearness of hearing, and not once since did I feel the use have I had pain in the head. In fact, it is my opinion that a careful and [illegible] use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

James H. McLaughlin, Bird's Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM has certainly the BEST REMEDY I have tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is [illegible] and convenient to use adds greatly to its [illegible] but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease.—

W. Chas. Stanley, postmaster, Bowmanville, says:—I submit the following to [illegible] that any who may be afflicted may be benefited by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Henrietta Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for Catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath is restored to sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to take any other remedy which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you on receipt of price—50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

PULFORD & CO., Brockville, Ont.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

Baby one Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched malicious—no rest by day, no peace by night—doctors and all remedies failed—Tried Cuticura—Effect marvellous—Saved his life

Cured by Cuticura.

Our eldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs.

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Sullivan and Joe Lannon appeared at Miner's Bowery Theatre to-night in the presence of 4000 people, many of whom paid $5 apiece to witness a sparring exhibition of three rounds. Sullivan appeared in the pink of condition except being very heavy. At the conclusion Sullivan and Lannon entered a carriage, drove to Miner's 8th-avenue Theatre and repeated the exhibition. They will continue these performances during the week. Sullivan received $3,000 and Lannon a liberal compensation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The Evening Sun in its last edition publishes a two-column article alleging gross and criminal irregularities in Custom House affairs at this port. He says that the road is particularly adaptable to Montreal and could be run with more economy and better service than the present wretched system.

The Operation Upon Barrett a Success.

BOSTON, Dec. 16.—An entirely successful surgical operation was performed upon Lawrence Barrett, the tragedian, this morning by Dr. Richardson, consisting of the removal of some fifty lymphatic glands of the throat. For several years Mr. Barrett has suffered intermittently from a swelling of the glands, and although it did not interfere apparently with his work, it was considered best to examine the cause of his disfigurement.

The Influenza in Gotham

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—A physician, whose name has not been given, reported to the Board of Health this afternoon that a family here of six persons are all suffering from what he is convinced is Russian influenza. The symptoms, he says, are precisely similar to those of the influenza that has become epidemic in Europe. The most pronounced symptoms are continuous sneezing and great prostration, and his patients are suffering from both these. The first member of the family to be attacked by the disease was seized in that manner and the same illness rapidly seized each of the other members of the family.

Death of Rev Dr. Williams.

TORONTO, Dec. 17.—The death of Rev. Dr. John A. Williams, which was very long expected, took place early this morning. He was conscious all afternoon and in the early part of the evening he fell asleep, from which he passed to his eternal reward, without any symptoms of pain. During the day, when asked by his sons and daughters, "Do you see us, father?" he whispered an affirmative. There were at his bedside all his surviving children: Rev. Dr. Watson Williams, Clinton; Rev. J. E. Williams, Buffalo; Mr. George Williams, St. Thomas; Mr. Algernon Williams, Brampton; Mr. Benjamin Williams, Buffalo; Mrs. W. E. Ross, Montreal; Miss Williams, and his nephew, Rev. Dr. D. G. Sutherland.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, 30 Maitland-street, on Thursday, at 1.30, to the Metropolitan Church, where a service will be held at 2 o'clock.

Fire at Sudbury

SUDBURY, Dec. 16.—At 10 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the Freed block occupied by Freed & Co. druggists; George Warren, confectionery, and E. J. Ryan, Crown land agency. The building being a frame one was completely consumed. Loss unknown at present.

To Settle a Vexed Question.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—Hon. J. M. Gibson, Provincial Secretary, and Hon. A. M. Ross, Provincial Treasurer of Ontario and Mr. H. T. Machin, Assistant Treasurer of the Quebec Government, arrived in town to-day. They have come to effect a settlement if possible of the accounts outstanding between the Dominion and Provincial Governments.

Highwaymen Lynched.

ST LOUIS, Dec. 15. Half a dozen farmers who were returning home from Dallas, Tex., yesterday after selling their cotton were robbed by highwaymen near White Rock. Bloodhounds were put on the robbers' track, and it is reported two of the thieves were captured and hanged by the enraged farmers.

Nearly all colds are slight, at first, but their tendency is to so lower the system that the sufferer becomes a ready victim to any prevalent disease. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the beginning of a cold, would guard against this danger.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life or energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

Valuable to Know

CONSUMPTION may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles. 2w51d

Mothers'

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and fretfulness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted t infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

DR. H. A. ARCHER,
111 S. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N.Y.
March 8, 1887.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Rheumatic Pains

require no description, since, with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundation. The most successful treatment known, and it is not frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the sufferer. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottle of Nerviline can be had at the drug stores for ten cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6dw51

Important to Workingmen.

ARTIZANS, mechanics, and laboringmen are liable to sudden accidents and injuries, as well as painful cords, stiff joints and lameness. To all these troubled we would recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the handy and reliable pain cure for outward or internal use. 2w49d

The Best Ever Made.

GENTLEMEN.—My trouble was heart disease and dyspepsia, but I took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and one of Burdock Pills and got well. I never felt better in my life. My brother has also tried B. B. B. and thinks it a splendid medicine. 2w49d MRS. JNO. EARLY, Hamilton, Ont.

What is Wanted

IS something that will make a man sleep well, eat well and rise in the morning refreshed and strong, with none of the worn out tired feeling sure to be found where constipation, dyspepsia or diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood exists. Burdock Blood Bitters meets every indication expressed above. 2w49d

Wild Cherry Bark, Elecampane, Hoarhound and Senega. These are the remedies with which Dame Nature has supplied Canada for the cure of Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Loss of Voice. All these are contained in Wilson's Wild Cherry in their most active form, and with other medicines constitute this most reliable cure for all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Wilson's Wild Cherry is sold by all druggists. dw

Many a sufferer from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, general debility & etc., will be glad to find that Dyers Quinine & Iron Wine, is strongly recommended for such cases—, it is easily assimilated, prepared with great care, and is an admirable tonic. W. A Dyer & Co. Montreal. 6d140

A Common Cold

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was Speedily Cured.

I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Rogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it for Colds, Coughs, and all Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Meadville, Pa.

The Best Remedy

Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who knew me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark.

All the Trumps!

By reference to announcement elsewhere in this issue of the EXAMINER, it will be seen that we have made another big sweep in overcoats. The excitement over our wonderful $5.00 overcoat is increasing every week They are going out at a "2.40" gait. But for all that, we have added still another remarkably cheap line of overcoats—the cheapest of all—which we have just secured for the ready money. These we will actually sell for $3.75!! Can beats the record. We now hold all the trumps in the pack, and invite buyers to make an examination. A comparison is all we ask.

Outraging Christmas.

The contentions, controversies and bickerings that now prevail in town are an outrage upon the spirit of peace and good will that should prevail at the Christmas tide. Let all strivers bury the hatchet and make peace over a cup of hawley bros'. inimitable tens. The newest crop, the finest brands, and at the lowest prices. The most fragrant coffees always in stock. Making a specialty of these lines, hawley bros. can give special inducements in prices. Don't forget to drop into 270 George street when you want anything specially fine in the way of teas, coffees or glassware. dw

Why Went People Understand?

It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

Rare intellectual treat, Rev. Prof. Clark, Trinity College, Toronto, his Famous Lecture on "SAVONAROLA," in Opera House, Thursday Evening, 9th December. General Admission, 25 cents. 1d

Are Going to Europe.

"One week more and then we say farewell to Hamilton, never expecting to return—that is, to labor here again," said Mr. Hunter to the congregation that filled Centenary church Friday evening at the revival services. "We go to London, beginning work there on Jan. 5th, 1890. We expect to spend a year in the British Isles, and also expect to visit many cities and towns from the Atlantic to the Pacific. So we will be a good deal older before we ever do return. The crowds keep up wonderfully. Why, if Patti or anyone else was in your opera house for six weeks their crowds would thin out, but there is nothing draws like the gospel. It is sometimes a vulgar practice if a man tries to find fault, but we go right on preaching the gospel."—Hamilton Spectator.

Thirty Hours in a Useless World.

Lectures are as a rule looked upon as an unavoidable public infliction which must be tolerated and patronized in this age of education and literary advancement, and probably a majority of those who climbed the opera house stairs Tuesday night did so more for reasons of policy, or because they couldn't very well help it, rather than from any anticipations of a rhetorical treat which might be in store for them. In this, however, they were agreeably disappointed, and the officers of the Charlotte street Sunday school may safely be accorded the credit of giving the public one of the most enjoyable and satisfactory entertainments of the kind ever placed before a Peterborough audience. The attendance was very fair. Rev. S. J. Shorey occupied the chair, and in a few words introduced the lecturer, Dr. McIntyre, of Chicago, whom Sam Jones has not extravagantly styled one of the best platform speakers in America. His subject was a visit to the celebrated Wyandotte Cave, in Harrison County, Indiana, a subject on which he spoke from personal experience. For over two hours Dr. McIntyre held the interested attention of his hearers as he carried them in thought through the subterranean caverns whose beauties and wonders he said even his eloquent word-pictures fell far short of fitly describing. The worthy lecturer is evidently a man of vivid imagination, and his powerful descriptions, couched in elegant language, sank deep into the memories of his audience. His address abounded with brilliant periods and masterly periphrases. The vastness, darkness, silence and mystery of this immeasurable underground city, with its lofty halls, its streets its palaces and natural wonders, formed a rich and inexhaustable topic for the grand descriptive powers of the lecturer. Dr. McIntyre is, however, handicapped by an inferior voice, and his effectiveness was still further marred by an annoying hoarseness, the result of a cold. He speaks in a rather languid manner, which was perhaps largely due to indisposition, but at critical moments warms up with the enthusiasm of his subject and displays his latent energy of character. His lecture is not devoid of humor, several laughable incidents being related in a droll Yankee style that is irresistible. Altogether Dr. McIntyre scored a signal success as a lecturer in Peterborough, and should he return he is sure to be greeted by a crowded house.

For Charity's Sake.

The Protestant Home Concert in St. John's School Room.

In spite of the counter attractions and unfavorable weather on Tuesday evening, there was a large audience at St. John's School Room on the occasion of the annual entertainment in behalf of that worthy charity, the Peterborough Protestant Home. Rev. Mr. Davidson, Rector, was present, and warmly interested himself in the promotion of the success of the entertainment. The programme prepared was an excellent one excellently presented. The instrumental pianoforte selections of Mesdames Lewis and Robertson (sister of Mr. Lewis) received a rendering worthy of their classical character, and the audience highly appreciated the great musical luxury they afforded. So great was this appreciation of their second number—Goria's setting of a selection from Doretzetti's "Belisario"—that the performers were compelled to respond to an encore, the only number thus honoured. Mrs. Robertson's artistic and brilliant presentation of Liszt's fourth Rhapsodie Hongroise was deservedly rewarded with very warm applause. Musical critics who were present assert that the pianoforte portion of the programme is seldom equalled and rarely surpassed in Peterborough. The performance of "Operatic Gems," presented by Masters McKee, Ferguson, Lewis, (violins) and Duff (piano), was splendidly done and conferred great credit to the youthful artists, as well as their instructor, Mr. Doucet. The vocal numbers were contributed by Miss Hall, who sang in good voice "The Chord of Love;" and Miss Cunningham did full justice to her reputation as a charming vocalist, by her rendering of White's "Marguerite." Messrs. Budden and Shaw, in their respective numbers "Listen to my tale of woe," (Mr. Budden) and "The Police," (Mr. Shaw) afforded a great deal of pleasure to the audience. The concert throughout was a splendidly meritorious and successful one in a musical sense, and the financial outcome was also very gratifying, the result being the addition of a net sum of, at least, $40 to the funds of the Home. Last year a similar concert netted $39. The concert was arranged by Mrs. Lewis, with the kind assistance of the ladies and gentlemen who contributed to the programme, and others also. The promoter of the concert is particularly indebted to Mr. R. W. Enett, agent, who kindly supplied, gratis, the fine Bell pianos used on the occasion with such delightful effect. The piano lamps, which added so much to the appearance of the stage, were very kindly loaned by Mr. Macfarlane Wilson, China Hall.

Bowie vs. McClelland.

The Case Dismissed From Court—The Evidence Taken—Magistrate's Judgment.

The police court room was crowded this morning, when the case of Bowie vs. McClelland, for using abusive language, was heard. Mr. G. M. Roger conducted the prosecution and Mr. E. B. Edwards the defence.

On Mr. Edwards objecting to the information, it was amended by making the charge read that John McClelland did use grossly insulting language to E. E. Bowie by using the words, "You and those nine men who voted for no bill against John McWilliams are perjured men," and "You are a perjured man," and other similar words, imputing perjury to him, the said E. E. Bowie.

Mr. Edward's other objection, that the information included three separate counts, was over-ruled.

THE EVIDENCE.

E. E. BOWIE, sworn, said—Friday morning last I went into Mr. John McClelland's jewelry store. We talked for about a quarter of a minute, when he said, "You were on the Grand Jury." I said I was. He said "You and the nine men that voted for no bill against John McWilliams are perjured men, if there were ever perjured men in Peterborough." I said, "You had better be careful what you say, Mr. McClelland. I will make you suffer for that." He said then, "You are a perjured man," and repeated his former statement. I then turned and went out of the store. I was on the Grand Jury at the last Sessions of the Peace, and Mr. McClelland has reference to the case against Mr. J. B. McWilliams. He didn't ask me how I voted and I didn't tell him.

To Mr. EDWARDS—There was not another word said in connection with this matter. Yes, I believe he did say "that jury will be handed down to posterity."

"Then didn't you say," asked Mr. Edwards, "you were glad your name would be handed down to posterity with such men as John Wesley and John Knox?"

WITNESS—Yes, I think that conversation did take place. I think that took place before he charged the jury with perjury I cannot remember him saying, "by the way, are you the Mr. Bowie whose name appears on the grand jury list?" Mr. McClelland and I always were very good friends. When he spoke about the ten men who voted against the bill, I said, "how do you know, Mr. McClelland, there were ten men voted against it? Were you there?" I don't remember him saying that rumor had it so. He did not say, "In my opinion the ten men who voted against the bill are perjured men." He didn't say anything about his opinion. He said "You and the nine men," etc. I then said, "If you use such language as that to men, I'll make you sorry for it." He repeated it and I walked out. I never told him whether I was one of the ten or not.

THE DEFENCE.

Mr. JOHN MCCLELLAND, sworn, said:—I was very friendly with Mr. Bowie when he came into my store Friday morning. He spoke in an off-hand way about curling, and then asked, "What's the news?" I said, "By the way, Mr. Bowie, are you the Mr. Bowie whose name I see figuring on the Grand Jury?" He replied, "I am. What about it?" I said, "You will have your names handed down to posterity." He said, "I'm glad to hear it; John Wesley's and John Knox's names were handed down to posterity, and if my name is handed down I'll be glad of it." "well, Mr. Bowie, "I'm very sorry." "What about?" he asked, I said, "I hear ten men on that jury voted against that bill and perjured themselves." He said rather indignantly, "how do you know these were ten men voted against the bill." I said "I'm informed so." He replied, "if you say that again I'll take the law on you." I said, "well, Mr. Bowie, in my opinion those ten men perjured themselves." He then turned and walked out. I did not make any personal allusion so Mr. Bowie other than asking if he was on the jury. He did not state he was one of the ten. That was all that took place.

To Mr. Roger—I had not heard up to that time what position Mr. Bowie took on the Grand Jury. I did not mean to class Mr. Bowie with the ten men who perjured themselves. I did not charge him with being a perjured man. I said "in my opinion" both times I spoke to him.

[Mr. Bowie—"You never said it."]

CHAS. MCCLELLAND, sworn, said—I was in my father's shop Friday morning when Mr. Bowie came in and said "good morning," and made some remarks about curling. My father said, "Mr. Bowie, are you the man whose name I see on the papers as being on the Grand Jury." Mr. Bowie replied "I am the man." My father said, "Your names will be handed down to posterity." Mr. Bowie said he was glad to hear it, that Wesley's and Knox's names were handed down to posterity. Father says, "I am sorry, Mr. Bowie, to hear that ten men perjured themselves." Mr. Bowie replied, "You seem to know all about it." My father said, "well, Mr. Bowie, I'm told so." Then Mr. Bowie said, "Mr. McClelland, if you say that again I'll get the law on you." Father replied, "well Mr. Bowie, I say again, in my opinion those ten men perjured themselves." My father did not use the expressions Mr. Bowie says he did, "you and the nine men," etc., nor "you are a perjured man."

To Mr. Roger—I don't know whether Mr. Bowie was angry or not. That was the conversation as I remember it.

THE ARGUMENT.

Mr. ROGER submitted that the language admitted to be used by the defendant was insulting, as the Grand Jury must be taken as a whole, and are entitled to every protection in their deliberations. The language was entirely out of place.

Before Mr. Edwards made any argument, Police Magistrate Dumble said:—In this case I don't think it necessary to waste any time arguing. I find that the complainant entered defendant's shop for a friendly chat and the subject that everybody was talking of became the subject of conversation. Mr. McClelland says he did not know how Mr. Bowie voted as a grand juryman in the McWilliams case, and I cannot assume that anyone knew without assuming that the grand jury broke their oath by disclosing what took place in the grand jury room. This I cannot assume, as it is to be presumed they obeyed their oath. Mr. Bowie swears that he did not tell Mr. McClelland how he voted. Mr. McClelland in commenting upon the action of the grand jury could not have intended a personal insult to Mr. Bowie. The language directed to the grand jury as a whole would hardly come under the language of the by-law as language "grossly insulting" to Mr. Bowie. If, for instance, Mr. Bowie voted "true bill" he would hardly have taken offence at the language of Mr. McClelland; and as only Mr. Bowie knew how he voted, some knowledge within himself had led him to take as an insult what might never have been intended to fit peculiarly on Mr. Bowie.

Mr. ROGER—I object to any such remarks from the bench. I say it is not a fair comment.

Mr. DUMBLE—I say I am assuming that no Grand Juryman disclosed what took place in their room, and in that case Mr. McClelland could not know what took place there. Therefore there could be no personal application of the words unless Mr. Bowie chose to think so. The spirit of the insult was lacking. I am taking the evidence of the Messrs. McClelland. Mr. Bowie and the Messrs. McClelland differ as to the words used. Mr. Bowie has to be reminded of what at first he thought had not been stated, and on the whole I am inclined to think that for some reason Mr. Bowie was a little excited, and perhaps has not so clear a recollection of what took place. It is admitted that the parties are friends, that in part of the conversation, at any rate, they were chaffing good naturedly. Mr. McClelland deems an intention to use words personally insulting, and as the best conclusion I can come to is that words spoken were general and not intended as a personal insult, though for some reason Mr. Bowie seems to have taken it as such. I think on the evidence I must discharge the complaint without costs.

Personal.

His Grace Archbishop Cleary, of Kingston, arrived in town Tuesday evening and was the guest of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor. The two prelates left town this morning for Toronto.

Dr. McIntyre of Chicago, the eloquent lecturer who appeared in the opera house last night, left for home this morning, quite ill. He will be unable to stop at Toronto to-night as he had intended. The Doctor is suffering from a severe cold, the effects of which were too plainly apparent last night.

Rev. Prof. Clarke, of Trinity College, Toronto, who lectures in the Opera House to-morrow night, on the subject of "Savanarola" will arrive in town on the noon train to-morrow, and will be the guest of Mr. Post Master Rogers.

Two Principals Remembered.

Presented With Addresses and Gifts by their Pupils.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Wm. Smith, headmaster of the Union School, was the recipient of the following address, read on behalf of his pupils by Bertie Orde:—

TO MR. WILLIAM SMITH:

DEAR TEACHER,—Ever fleeting time brings the close of another school year. Christmas tide with its joyous sounds is again at hand. Before separating to enjoy the pleasures of a festive season, we esteem it as a pleasure to evince to you in some way as a class, our sincere appreciation of your efforts in our behalf. We are well aware that to learning there is no royal road, but rugged heights of knowledge. As far as we have been permitted to climb, they have, by your skilful direction and guidance, been rendered as smooth and easy of ascent, as though prepared for royalty. We have found you when under trying circumstances, kind and courteous at all times. We have found you constant in season and out of season with apparently but one object in view—the advancement of our best interests. For this we can and all sincerely thank you. If by any act of thoughtlessness or intention, we have added to your burden, we trust you will attribute it to the follies of childhood and not vindictiveness on our part. In conclusion we ask your acceptance of these volumes as a slight token of our regard. As you peruse these pages, may your mind often turn to the pleasant associations of the class rooms, and rest assured if every page contains the wish—aye, ten times of them so you, would not outnumber our good wishes for your future welfare. A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to yourself and those near and dear to you.

Signed on behalf of the class,
MAY BOUCHER, CLARA CLARK,
FATTIE HALL, BERTIE ORDE,
MABEL PRITCHARD.

Peterborough Public School, Dec. 18th, 1889.

Miss Mabel Pritchard presented Mr. Smith with a complete and handsomely bound set of Macauley's history.

Mr. Smith expressed his genuine surprise at the unexpected testimonial he had received from his pupels, and referred to the pleasure he experienced in teaching his class, who one and all afforded him a helping hand in the discharge of his duties. His relations with his pupils were always friendly, and he hoped he would still retain their friendship and confidence.

Another Presentation.

To-day at noon the pupils of Mr. Duff's room in his boarding school on Brock street presented him with a testimonial, in the shape of an address and handsome teacher's lamp. Archie Morrow presented the gift and Lawrence Lockett read the address, to which Mr. Duff made a happy and appropriate reply. Following is a copy of the address:—

DEAR MR. DUFF,—Before separating for the Christmas holidays, the pupils of your room desire to express to you their appreciation of the uniform kindness and attention, which they have received from you. The progress which they have made in their studies, and which have proved thoroughly satisfactory to their parents, they know is due to your untiring care and anxiety for their advancement, and they beg of you to accept the accompanying gift, hoping that it may serve to lighten your daily tasks, and with earnest wishes that you and yours may have many happy returns of this festive season.

A Laundry Burglarized

And Two Men Arrested on Suspicion—Remanded till Saturday.

Tuesday morning on entering the office of his laundry on Aylmer street Mr. James Fanning discovered that the desk had been robbed the night before of about $14 in cash and a check for $9 50 made out by Henry Legros. It was apparent that some one well acquainted with the place had committed the deed. The thief or thieves entered through a broken window and escaped by the side door. He knew where the key of the desk was hidden, and taking it from its place on a shelf opened the desk and took all the contents.

The matter was reported to the police, and Chief Rozel last night made three arrests in connection with the burglary—William Fanning, Howard Harper and Robert Duncan. In the police court this morning Fanning was indicted on two counts—of breaking into the counting house, and of stealing the money and check. He elected to be tried summarily and pleaded not guilty. Harper was charged with receiving part of the spoil, knowing the same to have been stolen property. He elected also to be tried summarily and pleaded guilty. Duncan was simply wanted as a witness to prove the others' complicity.

At the request of the County Crown Attorney the trial was enlarged till Saturday.

Chief Rozel deserves credit for his work in connection with this case. The parties were first traced through Harper, who was yesterday spending money freely when it was known he had none previously in his possession, while Duncan was in possession of the check. Duncan was released from custody on giving bonds to appear Saturday.

SUGGESTIONS

"What would the world be to us
If the children were no more!"

We've a whole flat devoted to toys alone. And such toys! Cute enough to make the mouth of every human boy and girl just water. Horses that are ready to spring into action; sleds that are impatiently waiting the first good sleighing; clowns, so comical that they just kill you with laughter; games that turn the romping boy into a profound philosopher; trains that seem ready to go to Chicago; toy books full of splendid pictures to delight and instruct.

And then the dolls for the little girls; such dolls! no common every-day dolls, that a little mother with any pride in her would be ashamed of. But real French Dolls, dressed in the latest Parisian fashions, with lovely golden hair, and long, langushing eyelashes, and skin just like real baby's skin, you know.

Then there are piles and piles of Albums, awfully cheap, and Plush Goods and Ornaments; Crockery, Wall Pieces, Easels, Photo Frames, Gold Roll Plate, Rings, Bracelets, Lace Pins, Brooches and other Jewelry at prices to please you. These are a few rapid suggestions for gifts for the young to be found at NOTICE.

I HAVE for sale (or to let) Lots Five and Six, west of George Street and south of Antrim Street, in the town of Peterborough, with a comfortable Brick Dwelling House thereon, except so much of Lot Five as is occupied by the Midland Railway. Also the South Half of Lot No. Seven. The property is well adapted for a respectable family and is well and pleasantly situated, and the land, on which there are a number of good fruit trees, would make a good, profitable market garden. By paying down one-fourth of the purchase money, I would give a reasonable time to pay the balance, with interest.

The place would well suit a retired farmer.

SOME FACTS AND FIGURES FROM FOSTER'S BLUE BOOK

Savings Bank Deposits Show an Increase of Over a Million and a Half—The Increase in the Public Debt.

From the blue book it is learned that there was paid on capital account the sum of $4,432,[illegible], of which $757,441.[illegible] were chargeable to public works, and the balance to railways and canals. During the year there was paid as subsidies to railroads the sum of $346,721.85. During the year there has been received on account of Dominion lands $257,230.61. The amount invested on account of the sinking fund was $1,730,044.34, and the amount of debt redeemed $3,516,691.11. The total amount at the credit of Savings' Bank depositors at the close of the year was $42,[illegible].55.68, showing an increase of $1,585,409.45 during the year. The amount of Dominion notes in circulation at the close of the fiscal year was $42,[illegible].57.68, showing a decrease during the year of $621,057.50.

The net debt of the Dominion at the close of the year was $237,535,041.45, an increase of $2,[illegible].96.47, which is more than accounted for by the amount expended on capital account for railways, canals, public works and expenses appertaining to the Northwest rebellion, which aggregated $4,430,313.06. The rate of interest paid on the gross debt during the year averaged $3.53 per cent, against $3.46 per cent. during the year ended June 30, 1888. The increased rate is due chiefly to the fact that prior to June 30, 1888, a portion of the recent 3 per cent loan had been received, upon which no interest at that date had accrued. On the net debt, however, the rate of interest decreased from $3.12 per cent, to $3.07 per cent., as a result of the increased amount received in the way of interest on investments. The balance of the above-mentioned loan has since been received, and the funded debt payable in London has advanced from $176,691,775.89 to $188,239,439.90. Against this an increase of $1,730,044.34 has taken place on the sinking funds, which amounted on June 30 last to $32,730,298.73. The cost of the management of the finance department during the year was $89,840.44

The profit derived from the silver coined, amounted to $52,774.21, an amount more than sufficient to cover the salaries of the staff

Toronto Visitors at the Capital.

OTTAWA, Dec. 18. Ex-Ald. Bernard Saunders and Mr. W. H. Avis of Toronto, representing the Toronto Twine Manufacturing Company are here on departmental business. They visited the Minister of Customs and exhibited a fine assortment of their manufactures from the smallest twine up to the largest rope. The company want certain modifications of the tariff touching the raw material used in their business and also the finished articles. Hon. Mr. Bowell stated that the matter would be taken into consideration.

Messrs. W. R. Brock and Donald McKay, wholesale dry goods merchants of Toronto, were closeted all day with the Minister of Customs with reference to a revision of the tariff on dry goods.

Messrs. H. D. Warren, president, and J. D. Humphries of the Gutta Percha Manufacturing Company, Toronto, had an interview with the Minister of Customs to-day, requesting a readjustment of the tariff on certain rubber goods, especially rubber clothing and shoes.

The Latest From Brazil.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—The steamer Cyril, from Brazilian ports, reports that at Ceara business was going on just as before the revolution. The citizens were tearing down all emblems and coats of arms having any connection with the Imperial party and all streets and avenues which bore names akin to royalty were changed to conform with republican ideas. At Maranho all was quiet, there had been no disturbance since the one before reported in which six men were killed and twenty wounded. Business was not interrupted at Para. It was reported, however, that a party of Republicans had entered the palace and destroyed a large oil painting of the late Emperor by cutting and slashing it.

Powderly "Wanted."

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec 19.—Chief of Police Wade yesterday received a telegram from Constable Washabaugh of Greensburg, Pa., asking for the arrest of T. V. Powderly, General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor, saying he had a warrant and would come on immediately. The telegram contained no criminal or other charge against Powderly and Chief Wade refused to recognize the message other than to have one of his officers inform Powderly of its receipt. The latter will remain at his home here a few days and if Constable Washabaugh arrives will accept service of the warrant and enter bail. The message is believed to have reference to the conspiracy charge preferred by Callaghan of Scottdale.

Got the Bonds From a Tramp.

DENVER, Dec. 18.—Fritz E. Newman was arrested here last night while trying to dispose of indemnity bonds amounting to $20,000 destined for the Anglo-Nevada Assurance Corporation of Chicago. The bonds had been sent by Freith & Sellars, insurance agents of Denver, and are supposed to have been stolen from the Wells-Fargo express while passing through Kansas. Newman says a tramp gave him the bonds to sell. He declared he did not know they were stolen.

Silcott's Stealings

WARRINGTON, Dec. 19.—It is now understood that the Silcott investigating committee is hopelessly divided on the question of a report touching the responsibility for the loss. Some of the members think it should fall upon the members and some upon the Government. The committee is discussing three proposals and may not reach an agreement for some days.

Probably Hydrophobia Victims

FORT RECOVERY, O., Dec. 19.—Five children on their way home from school on Monday were attacked by a vicious dog belonging to Abraham Mott, a farmer living near here. Each of the children has developed symptoms of hydrophobia and but slight hopes are entertained of their recovery.

A Fatal Charivari.

PORT TOWNSEND, Dec 19.—Martin Phillips of Lopez Island was married a few days ago. A large crowd surrounded Phillips' house and began a "charivari." Phillips fired a shot gun into the crowd, fatally wounding John Hall and John Graham. Phillips says he repeatedly, but vainly, warned the crowd to leave.

A Terrible Death

MONTREAL, Dec. 19. A farmer named Magloare Hotte came to a terrible death on the Canadian Pacific Railway track near St. Martin's Junction. The man with a companion arrived at the crossing just as the St. Paul train was coming up. The whistle was sounded, but Hotte stepped upon the track directly in front of the engine before his companion could draw him back, and being struck in the stomach by the "backing iron," a rod connected with the cow-catcher for propelling trains, he was completely impaled. The bar passed entirely through his body. When taken off life was not quite extinct but he died almost immediately.

WOODSTOCK, Dec. 19.—At the cheese market 11,000 boxes were offered, good attendance of both buyers and sellers. No sales effected at prices offered.

NOTES OF THE DOMINION.

REMORSE DRIVES A YOUNG TORONTONIAN TO SUICIDE.

A Missing Hamilton Policeman Writes a Letter to His Wife from Detroit—The Queen's College Jubilee.

TORONTO, Dec. 19.—The Grand Jury's presentment yesterday afternoon created a large sized sensation. The most startling suggestion was that houses of ill-fame should be "regulated" after the manner of European cities. The following is an extract from the presentment: We recommend that some legislation be enacted for the regulation of houses of ill-fame similar to those in European cities, as we think much crime is the outcome of our present system of raiding and that this is the means of driving this class of women into better localities, and educating and erecting the juvenile mind as to their mode of living. We also recommend that no girls be allowed to sell papers on the streets. Judge Macdonald, in reply, spoke of the various aspects of the question of licensing houses of ill-repute, and said that it was a matter for the Legislature to deal with.

At the meeting of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance yesterday there was a long discussion over the report of the Committee on Electoral Action but the matter finally went over.

Joseph Phellimon, an Arabian, was locked up in the Agnes-street Police Station yesterday. He arrived from the States a few days ago and was peddling fancy jewelry and trinkets around the streets. Yesterday morning he went to a respectable house in Centre-street, north of Edward, when he made improper advances to the lady of the house, offering as an inducement a cheap crucifix bearing the inscription "Remembrance of Jerusalem." The police were called in and at the station a charge of trespass was laid against him.

A young man named William H. Hannah, who was employed in Patterson's men's furnishing store, in Yonge-street, as a confidential clerk, left the keys of the store with another clerk about a week ago, remarking, "If I'm not at the store in the morning you will know what's up." Shortly after midnight Hannah, who lived with his brother, was found by the latter in the bathroom vomiting. Corner Lynd was summoned, but in a couple of hours the young man died. A certificate of death from hemorrhage of the stomach was given, and the body was buried at Brampton. The coroner was not satisfied, and, with the assistance of Dr. Spence, held a post mortem examination, and found in the stomach something resembling rough on rats. The case is being investigated. It is supposed Hannah committed suicide from remorse caused by his having led a young woman astray.

DR. STANLEY.

Queen's University Tacks Another Title to the Governor General's Name.

KINGSTON, Dec. 18.—At the convocation of Queen's this afternoon Chancellor Fleming presided and Principal Grant presented Lord Stanley of Preston for the honorary degree of LL.D. His Excellency made a happy speech as did also Sir John Macdonald, Provost Body, Rev. G. M. Milligan and Rev. J. Burton of Toronto were among the other speakers.

At the banquet in the evening covers were laid for for about 400 guests. Among the speakers was Sir John Macdonald, who declared for British connection and held that a majority of the people favored it. Ruin and misfortune would follow severance from Great Britain. No party could ever be formed in Canada having for its object separation from England, either to go it alone or to annex to another land. He intimated that he would again be a candidate for Kingston if he lived. He was vociferously applauded.

SURPRISED AT HIMSELF.

One of Hamilton's Crazy Policemen Turns Up All Right in Detroit

HAMILTON, Dec. 18.—A letter was received this morning from Police Constable Christopher Griggs, whose mysterious disappearance was reported yesterday. It was dated at Detroit, addressed to his wife, and in it he said that he found himself in that city and did not realize how he came to be there. He made up his mind so suddenly to leave Hamilton, and carried out his intentions so quickly that he was surprised at himself. It is thought that his mind is affected. In fact ever since he was roughly handled by Eddie Brand and the West End gang he has not been quite right.

The city will try legal conclusions again against the Grand Trunk Railway, and attempt to prevent it from building the spur line across the beach. The company has not yet started work on the line, but agents are purchasing right of way, and it is hard to say just when they will begin constructing the road. The city is determined that it won't be too slow about applying for the injunction, as it was when the Grand Trunk built the switch over Gage's farm. On that occasion the line was built before the application for the injunction came before the judge at Toronto. Mackelcan, Gibson, Gausby & Martin this morning issued a writ out of the Chancery division on behalf of the city against the Grand Trunk to prevent the building of the spur line. Perhaps when this application comes up the Grand Trunk will say that it has no intention of building the line.

A RACE FOR LIFE.

Collision of Two Sections of a Denver and Rio Grande Freight.

WALSENBURG, Col., Dec. 18.—A freight train on the Denver and Rio Grande road last night left Laveta. It was made up of two engines in front and twenty-two cars of cattle, ten freight cars and caboose and an engine in the rear. The train soon broke in three parts and then began a race for life as the middle section had no brakeman on it. The engines ran three miles at the rate of over a mile a minute over a grade of ninety feet to the mile, and the middle section with twenty-four cars loaded with cattle and lumber overtook them. The first engine escaped but the second was overwhelmed in a great mass of flying wreckage, which buried engineer William Glener and fireman Thomas Baker, killing them instantly. Portions of timber on the flying cars were thrown over 200 feet. Seven cars of cattle and eight cars of lumber were piled up in the wreck and nearly all the cattle killed or horribly mangled. Two brakemen were severely injured.

CULVER ROASTED.

The Cronin Doubting Thomas Has an Interview With Longenecker.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—A lively scene is reported to have taken place at the State's Attorney's office yesterday. Juror Culver called on the State's Attorney to have an amicable talk over the criticisms that have been poured on him since the return of the verdict in the Cronin case. There was plenty of talk but it was not amicable. Judge Longenecker "roasted" Culver until he was done to a turn and then turned him out. Judge Longenecker refuses to say exactly what language passed between them. Juror Bryan followed closely upon the heels of Culver and was closeted with the State's Attorney for a long time and it was whispered by some of the assistants that he was going over the entire case from the day he was selected until the finding of the verdict. He says that Juror Culver was not assaulted, that the first ballot on the guilt or innocence of the defendants stood about half for conviction and half for acquittal. The second ballot leaving Beggs out, was eleven to one and then ballots were taken on the other defendants until it was seen that one man was for the acquittal of all. The verdict was not reached until the thirty-first ballot.

THE POISONED CANDY CASE.

A Handwriting Expert Gives Damaging Evidence Against McDonald.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Dec. 18.—In the McDonald case to-day George A. Sawyer of Boston, a penmanship expert, testified that the addresses on the MacRae, Dunsyres and Dienstadt boxes were written in a disguised, unnatural hand. The Dienstadt address was an attempt at back hand but the forward slope was continually cropping out. The writing is all in the same hand. He described at length the similarity in many of the letters to those of McDonald's in samples identified and was quite positive that McDonald wrote the addresses.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

ROBERT GIFFEN ON THE WEALTH OF GREAT BRITAIN.

A Nefarious Plot Discovered and Thwarted —Fighting in Crete—The Stolen Diamonds—The Serpa Pinto Affair.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Robert Giffen, the famous statistician, has read a paper before the Royal Statistical Society on the accumulated wealth of the kingdom. This amounted in round numbers in 1885 to ten billion pounds. This would give to each person in the kingdom a personal share amounting to £270. If the several countries were to be separated England would be entitled to £308 a head, Scotland to £245 and Ireland to £93. Comparing the decade ending with 1885 with the two previous decades ending in 1875 and 1865, Mr. Giffen finds that in every item an increase of capital marked the preceding decade, whereas the last decade shows numerous instances of a decrease owing to agricultural and industrial depression. Making a comparison of the richest three nations of the world Mr. Giffen finds that the wealth per head of population stands as follows: Great Britain £270, France £190, United States £160.

A NEFARIOUS PROJECT.

The London Strikers Plot to Blow Up a Coal-laden Vessel.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—An increased activity on the part of the Thames police and a considerable addition to their number led to some alarming rumors. The authorities refuse to admit that anything extraordinary has occurred or is expected to happen, with the natural effect of increasing the number of stories current. The one which is best supported by circumstances is that the police have received information of a plot to blow up a coal-laden vessel from Hamburg or Bremen. The gas companies have lately found it difficult to obtain coal from English mines on account of the boycott to which they are subjected by the coal handlers, and several cargoes have been imported in German bottoms which were manned and unloaded by German crews. Unable to gain access to these foreigners, owing to the preventive measures taken by the gas companies, the strikers, it is understood, determined to make such an example of one of the vessels as to deter shipowners and sailors abroad from engaging in the business again. The companies have offered a large reward for the detection of anyone engaged in the attempt to carry out such a nefarious project, and though possibly the threat to destroy a vessel in the crowded river, endangering many lives and property of immense value, was merely bluster, it has given added uneasiness to London merchants and will add another circumstance to those which have contributed this year to depress the commerce of the world's greatest port.

Parnell at Hawarden.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Mr. Parnell visited Mr. Gladstone at Hawarden and goes to Liverpool to-morrow to receive addresses and make speeches.

The West End Scandal.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—As a result of the secret examination in connection with the West End scandal before the magistrate of the Bow street Police Court Monday last, summonses have been issued for the arrest of a solicitor named Arthur Newton, a clerk in his employ named Taylor and an interpreter named De Galo, for conspiracy to defeat justice. It is understood that Newton obtained funds for Hammond, the proprietor of the Cleveland-street house in which the scandal occurred, and for whose arrest a warrant was issued, and assisted him in reaching America.

The Cape Mail Robbery.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—The postoffice authorities and the merchants who owned the diamonds taken from the letter carrier Tuesday by robbers, agree that the value of the gems lost was $40,000.

Steamship Collision in the North Sea.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The steamers Leerdam, bound from Amsterdam to Buenos Ayres with 400 passengers, and Gau Quan Sia, bound from Calcutta to Hamburg, collided with each other in the North Sea to-day and both sank. All aboard the two vessels were saved and were taken to Cuxhaven by the French steamer Emma.

Fighting in Crete.

ATHENS, Dec. 18.—Reports have been received of fresh fighting at Sphakia, in Crete, with many killed.

Praise for Stanley.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 18.—The Indian community here at a nearly spontaneous gathering to-day presented to Mr. Stanley a silver casket containing an address praising his energy in opening Central Africa to commerce. Stanley thanked them and dwelt upon the prospects for an early commercial development of the British East African Company's territory. He urged the importance of connecting Mombasi on the coast with the Victoria Nyanza by a railway, which would pass into the heart of a region all parts of which teemed with a dense population and would consequently open for European manufactures vast markets now dormant and unknown.

Butterworth's Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Mr. Payne (Rep., N.Y. introduced in the House of Representatives to-day a bill for the construction by the Federal Government of a ship canal around Niagara Falls.

Mr. Butterworth (Rep., O.) introduced a bill for full reciprocity between the United States and Canada.

Mr. McMillen (Dem., Tenn.) introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of State to notify the Republic of Brazil of its recognition by the United States.

The number of bills introduced to-day was 194. The deaths of James Laird, Nebraska; S. S. Cox, New York; H. W. Nutting, New York, and R. W. Townshend, Illinois, were announced and the House, as a mark of respect, adjourned until Friday.

THE STANSTEAD ELECTION.

Hon. Mr. Colby Defeats the Equal Rights' Candidate By 1043 Majority.

MONTREAL, Dec. 18.—The election in the County of Stanstead, caused by the elevation of Charles Carroll Colby to the position of President of the Council, took place to-day. Benj. Lebaron, the candidate of the Equal Rights party opposed the return of Mr. Colby, but was defeated by a majority of 1043 votes.

There are 4595 votes in the county, less than half of whom marked their ballots to-day. At the last general election 3354 votes were polled, and Mr. Colby's majority was 434.

The complete returns of yesterday's polling, with the exception of Griffin's Corners—which place reports 12 majority for Colby without giving the votes polled by each candidate—are as follows:

SUGGESTIONS

"What would the world be to us
If the children were no more?"

We've a whole flat devoted to toys alone. And such toys! Cute enough to make the mouth of every human boy and girl just water. Horses that are ready to spring into action; sleds that are impatiently waiting the first good sleighing; clowns, so comical that they just kill you with laughter; games that turn the romping boy into a profound philosopher; trains that seem ready to go to Chicago; toy books full of splendid pictures to delight and instruct. And then the dolls for the little girls; such dolls! no common every day dolls that a little mother with any pride in her would be ashamed of. But real French dolls, dressed in the latest Parisian fashions, with lovely golden hair, and long, lanuishing eyelashes, and skin just like real baby's skin, you know.

Then there are pics and pics of Albums, a fully cheap and Plush Goods and Ornamental Crockery, Wall Pieces, Easels, Photo Frames, Gold Roll Plate, Rings, Bracelets, Lace Pins, Brooches and other Jewelry at prices to please you. IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 96 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

Calm After the Storm.

The School Trustees Smoke the Pipe of Peace—Two Members of the Board Resign for Technical Reasons.

A meeting of the School Board was held Wednesday evening, which was a delightful contrast to several of the previous semi..ns. The lion and the lamb lay down peaceably together, and for once the proceedings were not marred by a hitch of any kind. Everything passed off smoothly. There were present Mr. Jas. Stevenson, chairman, and Messrs. Barnham, Wrighton, McWilliams, English, Kendry, Hamilton, Dunne, Hill and Boucher.

Previous to the meeting of the Board the Committee on Appointments, comprising the whole Board, met and considered the applications for positions on the Collegiate Institute staff. Their report appears below.

Acceptances of the positions on the teaching staff of the schools to which they had been appointed, were read from Miss Lizzie McClelland, of Hastings; Miss E. Blackwell, of Omemee; and Mr. John Jeffers, of Port Perry.—Received.

The Chairman reported that the town had paid over to the Board the sum of $14,000, the amount of the demand made upon the corporation by the Board.

RESIGNATIONS.

PETERBOROUGH, Dec. 13, 1889.

To the Secretary of the School Board:

DEAR SIR,—I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the High School Board for the town of Peterborough. I find that, by the Ontario Statutes of 1889, the town council is prevented from appointing one of their own members as a member of the High School Board; and I therefore beg to tender my resignation, to take effect from the 28th of this month.

Yours truly,
J. STEVENSON.

PETERBOROUGH, Dec. 18, 1889.

To the Chairman of the Board of Education:

DEAR SIR,—I hereby tender my resignation as a member of this Board.

JAMES KENDRY.

With reference to these resignations, Mr. Stevenson explained that by a recent amendment to the Municipal Act he and Mr. Kendry were disqualified from further serving on the Board. However, their withdrawal would not affect the business of the Board, as he would himself remain on till the year was about closed, to sign checks and perform the other duties of Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Dumble, seconded by Mr. Hamilton, the resignations were accepted.

THE SELECTION TO BE MADE.

Mr. DUMBLE, chairman of the Committee on Appointments, reported that the Committee had narrowed the applications down to two each for the position of Classical and Science Master, whose respective merits were referred to the Inspectors at Toronto for final decision, a committee composed of Messrs. Stevenson, Dumble and Boucher to have the power to confirm the selection.

Mr. Geo. Sherwood was appointed janitor of the North Ward school at a salary of $120.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

Mr. DUMBLE said Inspector Tilley was anxious to have the Kindergarten system established in the South Ward school, as it would be a great help to the work.

Mr. Kendry moved, seconded by Mr. Dunne, that the committee previously appointed to deal with this matter, composed of Messrs. Stevenson, Dumble and Boucher, be authorized to employ a Kindergarten teacher.—Carried.

The Board then adjourned.

Mr. J. H. Hourigan, after using Wilson's Wild Cherry in his family for eight years, writes us that it has never failed to cure Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough or Bronchitis. Be wise, profit by the experience of others, and use Wilson's Wild Cherry when afflicted with any such troubles. Sold by all druggists. dw

ROBERT BROWNING.

The Poet's Only Conversation With Queen Victoria. Was He a Hebrew?

LONDON, Dec 17.—Of that large class of persons in England who have nothing to do but to write to the newspapers, one asks the question, "Was Browning a Jew?" The Pall Mall Gazette shoulders its burden and says the question was submitted by one of the best-known literary men, and who was on terms of close acquaintanceship with Browning for forty years. The Pall Mall asks:—"For a score of years and more it has been stated with no little persistence, and circumstantial evidence, such as it is, has been brought to bear out the statement, in the first place the fact that his uncle once held a position of considerable importance at Rothschilds' is looked upon as prima facie evidence, as in those days the ele. Rothschild preferred to give positions of exceptional trust to men of his own faith. Again, the Christian, or rather the first name, of Browning's uncle was Reuben, his mother's name was Sarfana, both of them exponents of Jewish origin, while the name of Bruning is said to be not uncommon among the Jews. Again, one of the favorite topics of the poet was Israelitish character as will be readily recalled by all students of his work. On the other hand, Dr. Furnivall has declared Robert Browning's family to be of Dorsetshire origin."

Robert Browning used often to speak to friends of the only occasion on which he ever spoke to the Queen. Some years ago the late Dean of Westminster and Lady August Stanley invited him, among others, to tea at the Deanery to meet the Queen, and a small select party were present, Carlyle being one. The company, as was befitting in the presence of their sovereign, were respectfully silent, only joining in conversation when addressed. The Queen began to talk to Carlyle, and expressed her opinion on some matter with which he differed, and he as usual contradicted her and silenced her. As the Queen left the room she stopped at the door to speak to Mr Browning and said good-bye, remarking, "What a very extraordinary man Mr. Carlyle is. Does he always talk like that? I never met him before." Mr. Browning was only able to assure her that it was his invariable custom.

EDMUND YATES' GOSSIP.

The Queen's Champion Shorthorn — The Prince of Wales' Health.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Edmund Yates cables to The Tribune. The Queen not only won chief honors at the show at Islington last week, but she sold the champion ox, which had carried all before him, for the highest price ever paid for a fat beast. The Queen's shorthorn fetched 150 guineas, and this, it is reckoned, is equivalent to about half a crown a pound, which is dear even for champion and royal beef.

The Prince of Wales' visit to the east was most successful and he thoroughly enjoyed it. Everything was sans-gene, and he looked well and laughed much over the alarming accounts of his health, which lately appeared in the papers, more especially over a detailed description of the size of his leg with which he managed to get through two good days' walking.

The death of the Marquis de Caux was very unexpected. "I knew him in Paris," writes a correspondent, "only a fortnight ago, looking hale and hearty, and he told me he thought of going to Cannes for January and February." The Marquis de Caux had put on flesh very rapidly of late and it was hard to recognize in him the slim, elegant young man who used to lead the cotillion so well at the Tuileries balls during the last years of the Empress. De Caux found it much easier to lead these than to play the part of Lancelot de-la-Dame, and since Patti and he separated he lived very quietly in Paris, spending most of his time at the Jockey Club, and rarely missing a race at Long Champs.

ABOUT PETER JACKSON

Charlie Mitchell Says That the Blackfellow is No Wonder.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—P. J. Sharkey has received a letter from Charlie Mitchell, the contents of which will rather surprise Peter Jackson's friends. The Englishman says of the black pugilist: "Kilrain fit and well can whip Jackson to a moral certainty. I saw the Smith-Jackson fight and am convinced that Smith has turned a rank cur." Mitchell also says, that in his opinion, Jem Mace will withdraw from the match with him for £500, but he adds: "If he does meet me I will have a walk over." From past experiences a great many sporting men in this city assume that Mitchell's opinions on pugilistic matters are not altogether reliable.

The Brotherhood Meeting.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17. The Players' National League resumed their session here to-day. Ward reported that he had heard nothing from the National League in reference to the threatened civil suit.

At the afternoon session the report of the committee on playing rules was taken up. The most important change made was a provision to have two umpires at each game. One is to stand behind the bat and the other will be stationed in the field. They may change places after each inning. Another change made enlarges the pitcher's box. At present it is 5½ feet by 4, but the new rule makes it 6 feet by 4.

The Keefe's ball was adopted.

Nearly all colds are slight, at first, but their tendency is to so lower the system that the sufferer becomes a ready victim to any prevalent disease. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the beginning of a cold, would guard against this danger.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life on energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot affor to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

Valuable to Know

CONSUMPTION may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles. 2w51d

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and fretfulness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

DR. H. A. ARCHER,
111 S. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N.Y.
March 8, 1887.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD.

Rheumatic Pains

require no description, since, with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundation. The most successful treatment known, and it is not frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the sufferer. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottle of Nervilline can be had at the drug stores for ten cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6dw51

Important to Workingmen.

ARTIZANS, mechanics, and laboringmen are liable to sudden accidents and injuries, as well as painful cords, stiff joints and lameness. To all thus troubled we would recommend Hagyard's Yallow Oil, the handy and reliable pain cure for outward or internal use. 2w49d

The Best Ever Made.

GENTLEMEN,—My trouble was heart disease and dyspepsia, but I took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and one of Burdock Pills and got well. I never felt better in my life. My brother has also tried B. B. B. and thinks it a splendid medicine. 2w49d MRS. JNO. EARLY, Hamilton, Ont.

What is Wanted

IS something that will make a man sleep well, eat well and rise in the morning refreshed and strong, with none of the worn out tired feeling sure to be found where constipation, dyspepsia or diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood exists. Burdock Blood Bitters meets every indication expressed above 2w49d

Wild Cherry Bark, Hleocampane, Hoarhound and Senega. These are the remedies with which Dame Nature has supplied Canada for the cure of Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Loss of Voice. All these are contained in Wilson's Wild Cherry in their most active form, and with other medicines constitute this most reliable cure for all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Wilson's Wild Cherry is sold by all druggists. dw

Many a sufferer from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, general debility & etc., will be glad to find that Dyers Quinine & Iron Wine, is strongly recommended for such cases—, it is easely assimilated, prepared with great care, and is an admirable tonic. W. A Dyer & Co. Montreal. 6l140

Harsh purgative remedies are fast giving way to the gentle action and mild effects of Carter's Little Liver Pills. If you try them, they will certainly please you. dw

TO INVIGORATE both the body and the brain, use the reliable tonic, Milburn's Quinine Wine. dw

NATIONAL PILLS are mild purgative, acting on the Stomach, Liver and bowels, removing all obstruction. dw

A Common Cold

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was Speedily Cured.

I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Rogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it for Colds, Coughs, and all Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Meadville, Pa.

Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who knew me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark.

A Great Success

The wonderful bargains and immense value given at the great sale of M. Sullivan & Co's has caused the great success of the sale. Hundreds of customers have come to "shop" and stayed to buy. Why Went People Understand?

It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

The 'Prentice Boy's Ball.

The annual ball of the 'Prentice Boys was held in the Orange Hall Wednesday evening. There were about 40 couples present, and needless to say a delightful time was spent by the gay dancers. Sherwood's orchestra supplied music. During an interval supper was supplied by Mr. John Craig. Among those present at the ball were Messrs. Jamieson and Billings, of Keepeler. Their old friends were glad to see them again. Much credit is due the committee for the complete manner in which the arrangements were carried out. The committee was composed of Messrs. Kemp, McIntosh, Peck, Craig and Saunders.

All the Trumps!

By reference to announcement elsewhere in this issue of the EXAMINER, it will be seen that we have made another big scoop in overcoats. The excitement over our wonderful $5.00 overcoat is increasing every week. They are going out at a "2.40" gait. But for all that, we have added still another remarkably cheap line of overcoats—the cheapest of all—which we have just secured for the ready money. These we will actually sell for $3.75!! This beats the record. We now hold all the trumps in the pack, and invite buyers to make an examination. A comparison is all we ask.

The Nora Clench Concert

The Norah Clench concert in the Opera House on January 9th, will be the concert, par excellence, of the season. Nora Clench, the great attraction, is having a triumphal progress through Canada. On Monday night she played in Brantford to a crowded house. The Expositor says:—

Her first number was sufficient to electrify the audience, and the applause and recall were almost deafening. But her greatest success was scored in her second number. Her work was superb, and the critical element in the audience could hardly refrain applause during the performance. A great deal has been said of Miss Clench, but she deserves it all—she's a wonderful girl.

Miss Clench played in Woodstock Tuesday night, and there was a rush for seats. Every seat in the hall was reserved, and many were unable to secure seats at all. Her playing created great enthusiasm. She was greeted with a double encore, to which she responded. Don't fail to secure tickets for this great concert on Jan. 9th.

Come and hear the eloquent PROF. CLARK in Opera House To-Night. Admission 25c.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Last evening Mr. I. S. Cole, Travelling Secretary to the Y.M.C.A., gave an earnest and practical address to a large number of our workers on the work of the Provincial Committee, showing the helpful work it does among our Associations, asking our prayers and contributions to enable it to do still greater work for Christ among young men. He urged us to send a large delegation to the Provincial Association to be held in Brantford February 6—10th, showing how much benefit it would be to our work and also personally. It was resolved to ask the Convention to meet here in 1891. We trust by then we shall be able to welcome them in our new home. We feel our people are anxious to help us to. To this end a committee was appointed with power to add to their number to secure a site on Central Park for a building that will be a credit to our town in appearance and work done among our young people for Christ. We know we shall receive the hearty co-operation of our citizens and now is the opportune time to secure this worthy object. We ask all interested in our work to send in their subscriptions to Mr. J. W. Bennet at once, we have heavy obligations to meet and we know you do not want us "to owe any man anything."

Our friends will kindly remember we shall be glad to receive any of the standard works for our library or any other articles that would add to the beauty and effect in our rooms. The best and most profitable gift at this season of the year for your son's would a membership ticket, which will cost only one dollar, we hope to add several hundred to our membership. Wont you help us?

They Buried the Hatchet

Mr. John McNaughton Withdraws His Prosecution Against Mr Geo. Kearns—An Amusing Trial.

The police court room was again crowded this morning, when the case of McNaughton vs. Kearns was tried before P.M. Dumble. Mr. E. B. Edwards conducted the defence.

JNO. MCNAUGHTON, sworn, said—On Monday between 2 and 2.30 p.m. the defendant entered my workshop. My wife offered him a chair. I said, "George, were you up at the trial?" "Yes," he said, "I was." Says I, "what did they do." I meant to say, how did Mr. McClelland's case go. He replied that it was adjourned. Then he said, "all them that voted for McWilliams were bought." Then I said, "George, do you mean what you say." "Yes, I do," he said. So I ordered him out of my shop. I gave him three minutes to get out. He moved from the back shop to the front shop. He did not go out, and used such nasty expressions I would not like to repeat them. He would not go out, but, instead, made a jump at me and grabbed me around the waist, saying, "By ——, you will have to go out first," and then he dragged me out like a dead animal on the front street. I warned him some time ago not to come into my shop when he was the worse of liquor. He had a drop of liquor in him that day.

To Mr. Edwards, Mr. McNaughton stated he and the defendant were pretty good friends. Kearns was all right when he is sober, but he didn't want Kearns in his shop when he was the worse of liquor.

Mr. Edwards asked, Now, Mr. McNaughton, you really don't think he did you any harm, do you?

Oh, well, he didn't kill me.

Now, wasn't it all a sort of a joke.

"Well, what do you call a joke. There's a joke and a joke."

But you don't consider this a serious assault, do you?

Supposing a man came in your office and insulted you, Mr. Edwards, what would you think?

I'm sure I don't know. Anyway, you jumped up and ordered him out lively, didn't you?

Lively? Yes I jumped up and ordered him out, wouldn't you?

And you picked up a rasp, didn't you?

Yes I think I've a right to pick up anything I like in my own shop.

And you flourished it like a shillelah?

Yes, like an Irishman.

Continuing, Mr. McNaughton said Kearns did not go out of the back shop at once, but after a few moments. Mr. McNaughton followed him into the front shop, he thinks still keeping the rasp in his hand. The whole thing occupied only a short time. Mr. Edwards was questioning Mr. McNaughton closely concerning the exact time, when the witness exclaimed:

"You are trying to make your $5, Mr. Edwards, but you have no grounds to work on." (Laughter.)

Now, when you had this rasp, if your Irish got up, you might give him a whack with it, eh?

Yes, if my Irish or Scotch either was up.

Now, did Mr. Kearns catch hold of you with both hands?

Yes, and squeezed me pretty hard, too. (Laughter.)

Now, why didn't you sit in the back shop and let Mr. Kearns go out quietly?

Why, there's no business in that. A gentleman always sees people to the door.

And you were seeing Mr. Kearns to the door out of courtesy, were you?

Oh no, I ordered him out.

And you had the rasp in your hand to hustle him out with?

No, I gave him three minutes to go out, but if he hadn't gone I might have struck him.

After some further cross-firing the examination closed with the following dialogue:—

Don't you think it Mr. Kearns gave you his word not to darken your doors again and give you no more trouble, you had better let the matter drop here?

Mr. McNaughton, after a pause—Well, yes—

Mr. Edwards—Come now, sit right down and let's settle it.

Mr. McNaughton—Now, now. Mr. Edwards, you're after your $5. (Laughter.)

Mrs. McNaughton told practically the same story as her husband. She said further that after Kearns dragged her husband out the latter came in again and then Kearns said, "come out here now," Kearns started to come in again, but she told him he could not come in and told him to go home. Mrs. McNaughton considered it just as well to let the matter drop now.

THE DEFENCE.

Mr. Kearns was called in defence. He said his words were to the effect that he considered the finding of the Grand Jury an improper one, but made no personal remarks at all. Then Mr. McNaughton jumped up and flourished the rasp and ordered him out. He followed him out to the front door, when he (the witness) happened to get his arm around Mr. McNaughton and they both stepped out of the door, which was open.

Mr. Edwards—A sort of waltz-like movement, eh? (laughter) I suppose after you got out you balanced to partners? (laughter).

The witness said Mr. McNaughton was in a passion while they were in the shop, and threatened to knock his brains out with the rasp. Witness only put one hand around Mr. McNaughton, and did not try to hurt him.

Mr. McNaughton subjected the witness to a searching cross-examination, which did not elicit any new facts. Mr. McNaughton finally said:

Your Worship, all I want is for this man to keep away from my shop.

Mr. KEARNS replied—"Mr. McNaughton, I'm never ordered out of a place a second time. I'll never come near you again.

Your worship, I'm afraid he'll come in drunk some time when I'm alone.

Mr. DUMBLE—Are you content to take his word that he'll keep out of your shop.

Mr. MCNAUGHTON—Yes, I don't want to have him fined. But when a big man comes into a small man's house, what is he to do if he can't use anything to defend himself?"

Mrs. McNaughton whispered earnestly to her husband, and the latter rose to say that as it was his wife's wish to let the matter drop he would do so.

Having gone that far, the magistrate said he wished to remark that a man should leave the house when ordered to do so by the proprietor. Mr. McNaughton had a right to order Mr. Kearns out in this case, and it may be Mr. Kearns technically committed an assault, but evidently not in anger. Mr. McNaughton looked at the matter wisely and generously in accepting Mr. Kearns' promise to leave him alone, and as the matter was so settled the case would be dismissed without costs to anyone.

Mr. W. H. Walkey Remembered by His Pupils.

Wednesday afternoon the pupils of Mr. W. H. Walkey's room in the union school gathered about him and presented him with the following address:—

To MR. W. H. WALKEY:—

DEAR TEACHER,—It is pleasing to us to know that your services for the past two years have been so appreciated that the Board of Education have seen fit to advance you from the position of first assistant in the Central School to the principalship of the Fourth Ward School, and we heartily congratulate you on your deserved preferment.

While we are pleased to see you advanced, we deeply regret that, in consequence, we are deprived of your judicious assistance and wise guidance in our studies.

We can assure you that it affords us unmingled pleasure to have this opportunity of conveying to you our sincere and hearty thanks for your unvarying kindness and courtesy. Our school days are indeed pleasant when we have such a kind and willing helper.

As day succeeds day, we are more thoroughly convinced of your zeal and proficiency in the profession you have chosen—the education of the young—and although we may at times have caused you unnecessary anxiety and annoyance, we ask you to accept it as a lack of appreciation on our part, of your earnest endeavors to promote our best interests, and not to any intentional disrespect towards you. As a token of our esteem for you, we ask you to accept this as a memento. We wish you and those near and dear to you, all the joys this happy 'Xmas tide can bring.

Signed on behalf of the class,

FRED NESBITT,	N. RODDY,
E. RUTHERFORD,	B. IRWIN.

Mr. Walkey, though taken entirely by surprise, made a feeling reply, thanking the boys for their kind wishes, and bespeaking for his successor the same kindly feeling as had been shown towards himself.

The address was accompanied by a handsome shaving case and two picture cards.

BOOM! BANG!! CRASH!!!

A "High Old" Hallelujah Welcome.

The Boom of Big Guns and the Rattle of Musketry, Welcome the Commissioner—The "Old Adam" (cast out) Greets the New Adam—A Blazing Escort—Big Rally at the Barracks—Torch Light Turn Out—Gallant Charge on the Devil's Defences.

Wednesday night was a red-letter night with the Salvationists in town. The occasion was a big welcome to Commissioner Adam on his first visit to Peterborough. He was sent out about three months ago from England by General Booth as Commander-in-chief of the Canadian forces. There was a grand rally last night to "give him a volley." There were about thirty officers from the surrounding stations; the Lindsay band was present, and the local corps mustered in great strength.

Commissioner Adam, accompanied by Col. Bailey, Major Margarets and Staff-Captain Leighton, of the Toronto forces, arrived at 5:50 from Ottawa, and were met at the station by a strong detachment headed by the band; and a torch light procession was formed, and through the pouring rain, the procession marched, to the barracks. The Commissioner had a rousing welcome. Just as the escort was reaching the barracks; in concert with the blare of the trumpet and bang of the big drum the town clock and the post office clock boomed the hour of six, the church bells rang, half a dozen factory whistles shrieked in chorus and the railway engine bells joined in the welcome song.

ESCORTING THE VISITING OFFICERS

The officers sat down to lunch prepared for them in the officers' mess in the basement, after which a torch light march-out was held again in the pouring rain.

In spite of the bad weather about five hundred persons assembled in the hall at 8 o'clock, and the platform was well filled with officers and the orchestra and band.

The hall was elaborately and gayly decorated, specially for the occasion. There were festoons of bunting; trophies of flags stretched between the pillars; streamers of bunting and bright hued cloths were crossed and twined; three loyal Orange banners hung across the hall, and there were displayed several mottoes, like "Welcome to Commissioner Adam" and "Welcome to our Colonel," etc. There were also bright mottoes, like "R U Saved?" "We are United," "Victory," "No Retreat," etc., etc., "No Cross, no Crown," etc., etc. To the chorus, "Welcome Him," the officers entered the hall from below and were greeted with a mighty "volley." Then the evening services began with prayer, singing, experiences, etc.

Major Margarets of the Training Home, Toronto, was called for a solo, with banjo accompaniment. His song was evidently a new one and there wasn't a hearty enough chorus to suit; so the words were said over by the singer and repeated by the platform officers till they were learned by heart. The air was a simple one and everybody began to "catch on," first the lady fiddler struck in; then the guitar beside her; then the "Welsh Minstrel" brought his fiddle into play; then the big fiddle began to growl; the concertina, tambourines and horns joined the procession and soon from the whole platform was heard a swelling diapason of vigorous song. Nothing more fervid, enthusiastic and inspiring could be fancied. Every voice, with a heart and will behind it, poured forth its loudest note; every instrument brought every particle of brass, cat gut, key and wind power in its respective composition into play.

There was on the platform one funny little warrior in a close-fitting suit of scarlet, which covered him from bottom to top except his face and head, and when he struck a high note, his beaming face and shiny bald head were scarlet too. He was the most elastic little individual imaginable. He kept time by bobbing up and down bodily, as though he were hung on an invisible bird-cage spring, and once when his bobbing became too violent he was held down by another soldier behind him. But he was radiantly happy; his face glowed, his eyes sparkled, and his whole soul was thrown into his singing, and the same may be said of all the rest—they were radiantly happy to. The "attack" of the chorus was tremendous, their tours de force terrible, and their crescendo crashing. Everything went with a swing. The rendition was not perhaps artistic or refined but the singing came from the heart and went to the heart. The singers kept time with hands, head, feet and those who couldn't sing, dropped in "hallelujahs" and "glories" ad libitum. Every face beamed with happiness, and no one could doubt that every heart was in the singing, and that "all that was within them bessed his holy name." Such whole-souled hearty, hilarious and, withal, fervidly religious singing can not but upon the minds and hearts of those who come under its influence.

Similar singing lessons and similar enthusiastic singing accompanied the sale of the "Welsh Minstrel," with his own violin accompaniment.

Prayers and experiences were interspersed, the most noteworthy of the latter being that of Major Margarets'. Col. Bailey gave a reading of one of Ez kiel's visions, with a running commentary.

Commissioner Adam, who is a square shouldered, square-jawed and resolute looking man, gave a very lervid address. When in excited discourse his voice reminds one of Hon. Mr. Chapleau in heated debate. He said, in spite of predictions to the contrary, the Salvation Army was prospering in its great work. He had been three months in Canada, and had travelled thirteen or fourteen thousand miles and found the army in every part of the Dominion. After a campaign of twenty-four years the Army had 3,500 stations in full operation, 8,500 officers and 4,000 in mission fields. The Army carried on its work in 37 countries in 35 languages. God only could tell what a great work it was doing in rescuing the fallen and raising the degraded. Besides the regular Army work there were Food and Shelter stations and eleven Homes for the rescue of abandoned women.

Staff Captain Leighton, of England, went out to take charge of the children's branch of the service, also gave an interesting address. After a little further devotional exercises the public were dismissed.

In spite of its peculiar methods, the Army seems to be doing a great work. It reaches a class which the churches do not reach—it gathers in the lost sheep who never hear the

ORTHODOX SHEPHERD'S VOICE.

Whatever criticism it may incur from the conventional Christianity of the times, the "Army" in its burning zeal, its intense earnestness and yearning for perishing souls, shames the the flaccid energy and æsthetic earnestness of many a high-toned Christian organization.

Another grand rally will take place at the barracks to-night, when all the visiting officers will take part.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE REV. DR. WILLIAMS AT TORONTO

The Celebrated Brennan Case Again in Court Some Interesting Questions of Law to be Decided.

TORONTO, Dec. 20. The funeral of the late Rev. John A. Williams, D.D., general superintendent of the Methodist church, took place yesterday from the Metropolitan church to Mount Pleasant cemetery. There was a large gathering of the Methodist clergy. It was the anniversary of the birth of the deceased, who was born Dec. 19, 1817. It was also the anniversary of the funeral of Rev. Dr. Ryerson, whom Dr. Williams succeeded as general superintendent.

The celebrated Brennan case, family disruption, Brennan against Brennan, got into Mr. Justice Falconbridge's court yesterday on a motion for a nonsuit and dismissal. The case was tried at the last Toronto Assizes, and after being before the court for 12 days it resulted in a disagreement by the jury. The fair plaintiff is Mrs. Joseph Brennan, nee Miss Libbie Chaffee of Allston. She seeks to recover $20,000 from the father and brother of Jos Brennan of Hamilton, for entering into a conspiracy by which Joe was represented as a nice young man and a fit husband for the plaintiff. After the marriage, according to her evidence, Joe turned out to be anything but a loveable and desirable husband. The case was one of the most remarkable ever heard in a Canadian court.

Yesterday Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., and Hon. S. H. Blake, Q.C., on behalf of the defendant Brennans, who are well-known residents of the Ambitious City, moved that the plaintiff be non-suited. These are the grounds on which the motion is asked:

1. That a wife cannot sue her husband's relatives for commending him as a marriageable man.

2. It is against public policy to make the parents responsible for a son's actions after marriage.

3. The plaintiff, Mrs. Joseph Brennan—nee Miss Libbie Chaffee—has never suffered any damage.

4. According to her marriage vows she took her husband for better or for worse and is bound by the literal terms of the marriage ceremony.

His Lordship reserved judgment.

The Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance concluded its session yesterday. It decided to support Third Party candidates only in case the candidates of neither of the political parties would adopt the platform of the Alliance.

M'DONALD'S DEFENCE.

The Case for the Crown Closed and the Prisoner's Case Outlined

ST JOHN, N.B., Dec. 19.—In the trial of McDonald to-day Mr. Weldon occupied the morning with the cross-examination of Expert Sawyer. This closed the case for the Crown and E. McLeod, Q.C., opened for the defence. He said that witnesses would be produced to show prisoner's good character and to explain many circumstances charged against him. An expert of recognized ability would show that the writing on the boxes could not be the writing of McDonald. As to insanity the defence admitted the prisoner was once insane.

Miss McDonald, sister of prisoner, testified that McDonald was going to Fredericton for the purpose of change and to cash an order. When he was arrested she visited him at the police station and he gave her the Bonsey drawn out of D. Clinch's

DIRECT CABLE CONNECTION.

The Line Between Montreal and Canso Completed and Working.

MONTREAL, Dec. 19. The C.P.R. Telegraph Company yesterday morning completed the line between Montreal and Canso, N.S., where a direct connection is made with the main Atlantic cables of the Commercial Cable Company. By this means the C.P.R. got a direct cable connection throughout Canadian territory, and the time of transmission between the old World and the new will thereby be much reduced.

In the future all cable business from San Francisco, Portland, Or., Seattle, Tacoma, etc., for Europe, will pass over this line instead of being sent via New York as at present, thus giving the Commercial Cable Company the most direct route between Europe and California. During the night time, Canso works direct with Winnipeg, and Winnipeg direct with San Francisco, thus making only one repetition against three or four by the American lines, whose cables, although landing in Nova Scotia, are obliged to send business via New York and Chicago to the coast.

The first message sent over the new line was one of congratulations exchanged between Mr. Horner of the C.P.R., and Mr. Dickinson superintendent of the Cable Company at Canso. Mr. Horner then sent off the first message to Mr. Mackay, president of the Mackay-Bennett Cable Company, who is now in London, informing him of the opening of the new line.

CURE LABELLE'S MISSION.

He Goes to Europe to Obtain Colonists Tilin Bros.' Failure

MONTREAL, Dec. 19. Premier Mercier leaves to-morrow for New York. It is rumored that his mission is to transact business in connection with the proposed new loan Cure Labelle leaves shortly for Europe. His object is to obtain a desirable class of colonists to settle in the large tract of land north of St. Jerome and which will be opened up by the Montreal and Occidental Railway. He stated yesterday that the proposed offering grant inducements to Belgians settlers, who, he said, would be best adapted to that northern climate. He goes on that mission clothed with the authority of the Provincial Government.

Tilin Bros., wholesale grocers, have suspended payment with about $70,000 liabilities, the principal creditor being the Bank of British North America.

A New York Hospital Burns.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The main building of the Presbyterian Hospital, in which were 80 patients, was on fire to-night. The two upper stories were burned and $20,000 damage was done. There were exciting scenes when some of the patients were carried out of the burning building. Fortunately all were rescued safely and removed to different institutions in the neighborhood. Some of them suffered from shock, but beyond this there were no serious results. Four firemen were badly burned about the face and hands.

Belleville Briefs.

BELLEVILLE, Dec. 20.—The Dairymen's Association of Eastern Ontario will hold their annual convention in this city on Jan. 8 and 9, 1890.

The sheriff's bailiff has seized at Tweed all the property that he could find belonging to Mitchell & Oakes, late sub-contractors on the Napanee, Tamworth and Quebec Railway.

Miss Annie Elizabeth Anderson, youngest daughter of William Anderson of Amelias burg, M.L.A. for Prince Edward, was married at her father's residence to Rev. Thomas P. Steel, pastor of the Carleton Circuit of the Methodist Church.

Consul Pope Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The Senate to-day confirmed a number of diplomatic nominations, among them W. G. Frye of Maine as Consul-General at Halifax, and Charles R. Tyge of Missouri as consul at Toronto.

The Keeley Motor.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 17.—The Keeley motor stockholders held a meeting to-day and elected a new board of directors, four Philadelphians and three New Yorkers. Keeley sent in a long communication, in which he narrated his past troubles with some of the directors and says that while the work of graduating or adjusting his machine has not progressed as rapidly as he had expected, no obstacles that could not be overcome have presented themselves and will not. He cannot name a time for completion and graduating but it will not be long.

Coal Miners on Strike.

ROCHESTER, Dec. 18.—About 7000 coal miners employed by the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron Company at the Walton and Adrian mines went out on strike yesterday morning. They demand increased pay for working clay veins, a decrease in rent and the levying by the company of an assessment on each miner for the benefit of the miners' relief committee. The company's headquarters are in this city and the officials confirm the story. They have decided on no plan of action yet.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

MR. PARNELL TALKS AGAIN AT LIVERPOOL.

The Anglo-Portuguese Difficulty — The Brazilian Revolution—Missionaries and Mosaic Sky — French Fishermen and Newfoundland.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—Mr Parnell was received with a public demonstration at Liverpool. In his address he exhorted Lancashire to rally in the next election to the assistance of the grand leader of the Liberal party.

At a banquet at which Mr Parnell was entertained to-night, a check for $17,500, the sum of the proceeds of the Liverpool Tenants' Defence Fund, was presented to him. In thanking the donors he said he thought he was fairly entitled to boast that he was the first Irishman who had been so trusted by Englishmen, who had started this subscription before Russell had won the victory for him. He again declared that the object of the Home Rule party was to secure the industrial development of Ireland. Why should the promoters of a plan of campaign that kept agitation free from crime be treated as criminals? Earl Spencer's coercion was directed at real crime, but Balfour's was only against shopkeepers for refusing to sell. Irishmen had had in times past some justification for hostility to England, but now they entered joyfully hand-in-hand with English Liberals into a battle which he trusted was very near.

The Reproof Valiant.

LISBON, Dec. 19.—A telegram from Senhor Barbosa, Brazilian Minister of Finance, is published denying the assertions in the manifesto recently issued to the people of Brazil by Viscount D'Ouro Preto, lately Imperial Prime Minister. Barbosa declared the Viscount is a calumniator. Dr. Barbosa says it is not true, as alleged by Preto, that a platoon of infantry was held in readiness to shoot him while he was in custody, and also that it was false that Maracaju, the Imperial Minister of War, was in any way a traitor to Dom Pedro. He was dismissed by the republic because he betrayed the army and the country. Barbosa says Preto's manifesto is designed to deceive Europe. Brazil detests Preto and the restoration of the monarchy is absolutely impossible. The diplomats and Republicans around Pedro used him as a tool in the accomplishment of projects which his unbiassed judgment could never have approved. The claims that certain European states may interfere in the concerns of Brazil are merely ridiculous. The continental policy of the western hemisphere on the subject was seen in the history of Mexico, and in virtue of that policy it is a simple fact that Brazil is in offensive and defensive alliance with all America. The national prosperity is increasing on a grand scale. A commission has been appointed to draft a constitution and electoral laws, and the provisional government will in a few days decree religious freedom and civil marriage. Absolute tranquility exists and the financial situation is assured.

French Fishermen and Newfoundland.

PARIS, Dec. 19.—A deputation waited upon M. Spuller, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and informed him of the intention to interpellate the Government in the Chamber of Deputies upon the treatment of French fishermen in Newfoundland. M. Spuller responded that negotiations were in progress with England upon that subject.

In the Chamber of Deputies there was a long discussion upon the election of M. Vacher, the visible head of the Boulangist party in the absence of Boulanger. Deputy Le Herisse demanded an inquiry into the election, which was voted, 274 to 244.

Major Serpa Pinto's Sudden Greatness.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—Major Serpa Pinto from an obscure Portuguese officer has become a person in whom all nations are interested. He has done more than to provoke threatenings of slaughter and confiscation from England; he has rendered himself the Portuguese possessions in Africa and India, and this at a time when the reigning family is in tribulation over the Brazilian troubles. But all this is as nothing in the eyes of military men, for these disagreements will almost undoubtedly be settled after the necessary amount of vaporings on one side and apologies on the other. The circumstance that renders the major an object of the envy of the enthusiastic military men and artillery officers in the German and other armies is the fact that he had such an excellent opportunity to try the Gatling gun in actual warfare against a brave and confident enemy. To be sure the Makololo are undisciplined savages, but they are armed by their allies, the English, and against a force unprovided with such unexpected and terrible implements of warfare might have held their own tolerably well. An exhaustive report from Major Pinto, who is understood to be well qualified to inform the scientific world lucidly how his machine gun mowed down the Makololo, is anxiously awaited by the staffs of all the great armies in Europe.

Arbiters Needed.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—The Council of the London Chamber of Commerce has adopted the report of its committee in favor of creating a permanent committee of capitalists and representative workingmen to arbitrate labor disputes

Willing to Arbitrate

LISBON, Dec. 19. Barros de Gomez expresses his readiness to consent to arbitrate the dispute with England

The Landowners' Convention

DUBLIN, Dec. 19.—The Duke of Abercorn presided at the landowners' convention here to-day. He denied that the combination of the landlords was intended to hamper the tenants and said that not a sixpence of the convention's funds had gone to such a purpose. The convention adopted resolutions declaring that the retention of the landed clause was a necessity for Ireland and protesting against any measure making the sale of land compulsory. It also agreed to provide and advance money to enable landlords to buy out the interests of tenants.

Trouble Ahead for Brazil.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—It may be regarded as certain that there are troublesome times ahead for Brazil. The downfall of the empire and the proclamation of church and state separation, a criminal combination of Superstition and ignorance inimical to the new republic, who may follow protest by force. The navy is understood to be lukewarm toward the new government and the most will be made of continental countries, particularly Germany, of the danger to the life and property of their subjects in Brazil. It will be quite the order for warships of several nations to look into the harbor of Rio during the winter, and their presence there will naturally have an encouraging effect upon the conservative and clerical elements.

Editor Pirie Sticks to His Charge

LONDON, Dec. 19.—At the Old Bailey today, in the case of Editor Parke of The North London Press, charged with libel in accusing the Earl of Euston of being one of the principals in the Cavendish-square scandals, Mr Parke pleaded that the alleged libel was true, and that at its publication was for the public benefit. In view of this unexpected plea the prosecution applied for time to consider and decide upon a plan of action. The case was adjourned until the next session of the court.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Rev. William H. Ramsour, who keeps an alleged "home" for aged men, was placed on trial to-day on the charge of brutally clubbing one of the inmates, John Laverty, aged 72. The jury convicted Ramsour of assault in the third degree and he was remanded for sentence. He may get a year's imprisonment or a fine of $500 or both.

CLAN-NA-GAELS REMOVED

FIVE MORE BOUNCED FROM THE CHICAGO POLICE FORCE.

Their Action in the Cronin Trial the Cause of Their Discharge—Juror Culver Sues The Herald for Libel.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—There were five more discharges issued from the office of Superintendent of Police Hubbard to-day. The officers removed are Detectives Palmer and Flynn, Patrolmen Michael Abern and Daniel Cunningham and Stationkeeper Kelly. The charges in each case are conduct unbecoming an officer and neglect of duty, but the men are all removed for their actions during the Cronin trial.

Frank Culver Sues for $25,000.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—John Culver, the Cronin trial juror, began suit to-day against The Chicago Herald, claiming damages of $25,000 on account of an article concerning him published in last Sunday's edition.

CRAVEN EDWARD SILCOTT

The Man Whom Many Congressmen Would Like to See in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Thus far not the slightest information has been received from the defaulting cashier Silcott. It is believed by many that he has found an asylum across the Atlantic either in Great Britain or on the Continent. The reward of $5000 will stimulate interest in his whereabouts and will no doubt lead to his speedy detection, if not arrest.

Representative Payson of Illinois, has introduced a bill appropriating $75,000 to be immediately available for the purpose of paying the members of Congress their salaries lost by the Silcott defalcation. It charges the investigating committee with the duty of transferring the assets of the office to the United States Treasurer, who shall be intrusted with the disbursement of the same. Any private deposits of members found in the safe are to be held by the treasurer, subject to disposition by the Court of Claims.

KEEPING TAB ON THEM.

The People who Cross the Detroit River Being Counted.

DETROIT, Dec. 19.—The work of procuring evidence as to the violations of the alien labor law commenced early in November last. The custom house officers at the foot of Woodward-avenue and at the foot of Joseph Campau-avenue were instructed to count the persons crossing on the Windsor and Walkerville ferries on Nov. 4 and 5, between 6.30 and 8.30 a.m. On the 4th, 504 persons, and on the 5th, 471 persons came over from Windsor. On the 4th, 32 persons, and on the 5th, 35 persons came over from Walkerville between the same hours.

On the other hand, some 35 Poles cross over from Detroit to Windsor daily to work on the Canadian Pacific Railway, and it is said that about 75 Detroiters in all are employed in Windsor and Walkerville. Several well-to-do Detroit business men, including a bank teller and a member of the Board of Trade, live in Windsor.

THE COLUMBIAN EXHIBITION.

Senator Cullom of Illinois Introduces a World's Fair Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—A bill was introduced in the Senate to-day by Mr. Cullom of Illinois, providing for the holding of an International Exposition under the control of a corporation which shall be known as "The United States Columbian Exposition." The bill does not mention the place where the exposition shall be held, but leaves that to be fixed by Congress, although it requires that the city or state in which it is held shall pledge $5,000,000 towards its support.

The governor of the state or mayor of the city in which the exhibition shall be held, shall nominate 100 commissioners from the list of stockholders and each state shall also nominate one commissioner. They shall effect an organization and open books for subscriptions of stock, not exceeding $15,000,000. The bill appropriates $50,000 from the Government funds for all purposes connected with the admission of foreign exhibits, but expressly provides that the Government of the United States shall be responsible for any debts of the exposition.

UNRESTRICTED RECIPROCITY.

Text of the Bill Introduced by Congressman Butterworth.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Mr. Butterworth has introduced the following bill in the House:

To extend the trade and commerce of the United States and to provide for full reciprocity between the United States and the Dominion of Canada.

Whereas certain controversies have arisen and are still pending between the government of the United States and the government of the Dominion of Canada respecting commercial intercourse; and

Whereas, by reason of the contiguity of the two countries and the similarity of the interests and occupations of the people thereof, it is desired by the United States to remove all existing controversies and all causes of controversy in the future, and to promote and encourage business and commercial intercourse between the people of both countries, and to promote harmony between the two Governments, and to enable the citizens of each to trade with the citizens of the other without unnecessary restrictions: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whenever and as soon as the Government of the Dominion of Canada shall permit all articles of trade and commerce of whatever name or nature, whether the product of the soil or of the waters of the United States, all manufactured articles, live stock of all kinds and its products, and all minerals the produce of the mines of the United States, to enter the ports of the Dominion of Canada free of duty, then all articles manufactured in Canada, and all products of the soil and waters, and all minerals of the produce of the mines of Canada, and all other articles of every name and description produced in said Dominion of Canada, shall be permitted to enter the ports of the United States free of duty: Provided, however, that the provisions of the Act shall not apply to any product or article upon which an internal revenue tax is imposed by the laws of the United States.

Sec 2. That when it shall be certified to the President of the United States by the Government of the said Dominion of Canada that by the authority of its Parliament it has authorised the admission into the ports of said Dominion of all articles of trade and commerce, the growth, produce or manufacture of the United States, free of duty, the President shall make proclamation thereof, and shall likewise proclaim that all articles the growth, produce or manufacture of the said Dominion of Canada shall be admitted into all the ports of the United States free of duty, and such articles shall be so admitted into the ports of the United States free of duty so long as the said Dominion of Canada shall admit the products of the United States, as herein provided, into the ports of the Dominion free of duty.

Section 3. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, with the approval of the President of the United States and in conjunction with the proper officials of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, to make rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act and to protect the said respective Governments against the importation of foreign goods or articles through either into the other without payment of duty; and the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States shall furnish to the Customs officers of the United States all such rules and regulations for the purpose of guiding them in the discharge of their duties in the premises.

Sec. 4. That before making the proclamations, or either of them authorized by this act, the President shall be satisfied that all citizens, subjects and vessels of the United States may have and enjoy the rights of commercial intercourse in all the ports, harbors and places in Canada with the citizens and subjects of the Dominion, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as may be had or enjoyed by the latter in the ports, harbors and places of the United States, with the citizens and subjects thereof.

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 308 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 76 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

The Fulfilment of Prophecy.

In the speech which he delivered in Parliament, March 14th, 1879, when the N.P. was launched by the present Government, Sir Richard Cartwright said:

"I say that if this expedient fails, if this mode of restoring prosperity prove, as I verily believe it will, a sham, a delusion, and a snare; if, after you have locked up many millions in profitless investments, and crowded men by the thousands into the towns and cities; if this system breaks down in Canada as completely as it is known to have broken down in the United States—I say you will be confronted with the cry for larger markets at any cost. Up to the present time there have been two barriers which have assisted in maintaining our political independence, and in keeping us separate from the United States. One of these was the belief which, rightly or wrongly, obtained among us that, after all said and done, our political system was better, and that the purity of our politicians was greater than those of the United States. This may have been only a bit of national self conceit, but, if there ever did exist any belief in such superiority, that belief has been removed for evermore. No intelligent Canadian, no matter how patriotic he may be, can dare to say, with the spectacle now before us, that the politicians of Canada are one whit better or purer than the politicians of the United States. The other was that we possessed a superior fiscal system to the people of the United States. If you sweep this away—I put this question not only to the House, but to the people of Canada—what will then remain to keep us apart from the great nation on our border? We know the direction in which our material interests are likely to draw us, and I tell those gentlemen that, if they desire to maintain our independence, they are taking the surest means to render our separate political existence impossible."

The cry for "larger markets at any cost" is already heard in the Maritime Provinces, British Columbia and the Northwest, and even in Ontario and Quebec. The cry is not confined to the suffering farmer. It is becoming the creed of the fishermen, the miner, the lumbermen, of all, in fact, who are dependent on the natural industries, which are so easily ruined by trade restriction. There are manufacturers, not a few, of the same way of thinking. The prospects of large profits held out by the N.P. has led to over-production, while the duties levied on raw material and half-finished products render a profitable export trade out of the question. As a consequence a great deal of the capital invested in factories has been virtually lost. Except in sugar and one or two other favored lines, manufacturing is just now much depressed. Sir Richard in another speech in the same year predicted a revolution in the American fiscal system—the reduction of the tariff, the early extinction of the debt and the gradual lowering of taxation to a figure below that of Canada. All these things are now within sight, and tend to render the situation here more difficult and precarious. Sir Richard was wrong in one of his 1879 forecasts, and in one only. He altogether underestimated the growth of our debt and expenditure under Tory management. With this exception every word he uttered by way of warning to the infatuated men who thought they could make the Dominion prosperous by taxing it and by covering it commercially from the continent to which it commercially belongs, has been strikingly verified by events.

An Italian Reformer.

The Life and Works of Savonarola, an Italian Preacher—Burned at the Stake.

The second number of the Y.M.C.A. star course was given to a large audience at the opera house last night, when Prof. Clarke, of Trinity University, Toronto, delivered a lecture upon the life and martyrdom of Savonarola, a renowned Italian reformer of the fifteenth century. Mr. G. M. Roger occupied the chair, and briefly introduced the lecturer, whose address was purely historical but quite interesting throughout. Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's, occupied a seat on the platform, as being a friend of Prof. Clarke, and the first to introduce him to the people of Peterborough.

Prof. Clarke said various opinions had been formed of Savonarola by both Roman Catholics and Protestants, to whom he was a fanatic, an impostor, a saint, a prophet or a martyr as the case might be. Prof. Clark said in dealing with this question he did not intend to hurt anyone's feelings, but quoted Roman Catholic authority for everything he said. The period of Savonarola's birth, 1452, or thirty-one years before Luther, was profoundly interesting. It was an important era in the history of the world. Savonarola's family came originally from Rhodes. It was said he had a most excellent mother, and it was intended to educate him for a doctor, as was his grandfather. He was a good student, and in his twenty third year, looking upon life in all its solemnities, he decided to become a friar or monk. He fully put his mind to the work in preparing for and so clever was he, he could quote the whole Bible. His face reminded one of some other great minds, such as Dante and Geo. Eliots. The times in which he lived were bad. The clergy were very corrupt, and right here, Prof. Clark said, he could quote Roman-Catholic authority for this statement. Savonarola possessed some sarcasm and could see it nicely. He soon became a great teacher. His personal instruction was good. As a preacher at first no one admired him and very few went to hear him. Later, while preaching in a distant place, he fell into a trance and beheld a vision, from which he arose feeling he had a mission. His message was three fold:—1st, The scourging of the church; 2nd, A speedy reforming; 3rd, A renovation. He had a divine wisdom one would think, and undoubtedly was a prophet in a sense. He said Italy and the world the great danger which awaited them. If he was sincere he was a great prophet, and if he was not sincere he was any way a very great man. In 1482 he went to Florence but left after a short time, returning in 1487; and here he met a great man who afterwards wrote his life. Prof. Clarke here gave a glowing description of Florence. He referred to Dante and others of great repute who at one time lived there. Savonarola, he said, soon broke forth in Florence in great preaching, and moved many to better works.

He was striving for the purity of that great city and preached powerful sermons. The time came when his preaching annoyed and he was ordered to leave or

CEASE HIS PREACHING.

He said "No, I will not leave, but will do my God's will." He told a great deal of the history of Florence and Italy which influenced and made to his way of thinking. This great man ruled Florence through his work of love for three years, and soon it was declared, 'Florence for Christ." His preaching became horrific, but the Puritanism of his rule proved detrimental as it did in the times of Chas II. He lost his control over that city. The Pope excommunicated him, and finally he surrendered himself. His enemies buffeted him and used him similar to as the way Christ was treated prior to the crucifixion. They tortured him in many hideous ways for days; still it was "none but Christ for him." He was condemned by the Pope and handed over to civil authority, and excommunicated and sentenced to be burned in the great square. The last words he uttered ere he burned were:—"O Florence, what hast thou done to day?" and what had He done? Florence returned to slavery, to sin and to ruin. Prof. Clark concluded with an eloquent peroration upon the greatness of this great man who had formed the subject of his address.

A vote of thanks to the lecturer was moved by Mr. Dumble, seconded by Hon. R. Hamilton, and carried amidst much applause.

Toast to the Ladies.

Being the first time they have been present on St Andrew's night, Nov. 29 1889—Read by the Society's Bard, Wm. Telford.

So this night the old style you have altered,
I think brither Scots that is right:
Ae your wives and your sweethearts are haltered
And brought hame together to-night.

Its the plan I have long advocated
If true Scots, you with me will agree,
At this board you look much better mated
Whether wives or your sweethearts they be.

Him that took more delight in a cronie
Than his wife—he the idea ignored,
While another thanks his rather bonny
To sit down at this festival board.

If this night sets the Scots all a-cheering,
Then I say, let the ladies be here,
For their words and their smiles so endearing
Will delight us much more than a cheer.

It looks mean, selfish, greedy, unloving,
To see a cold narrow souled Scot,
With his spoon, sitting, hurriedly shoving
The haggis all down his own throat.

Your enjoyment will feel more exciting
With the one that you love by your side,
And the good things will seem more inviting
With a partner one half to divide.

The guidman he sits pleasently halfing
The oatcakes, and good things of life,
While the guidwife sits chatting and laughing,
Like the time they were made man and wife.

The young Scot sit immensely delighted
With his dear loving lass seating nigh,
And perhaps true love's vows may be plighted
That may end before spring in a tie.

As I stand this grand audience viewing,
The sight reaches to my heart's core—
What on earth can you Scots have been doing
Not to bring out the ladies before!

Now, Scots, take the hint I am giving,
Bring them up as St. Andrew's night passes;
Robbie said the Scot was not worth living
That loved not his wife or the lasses.

St. Andrew no doubt was affected
With love—that most desperate disease—
Then the ladies should not be neglected;
Let them come the old cadgers to please.

From your wife you will not get a scolding
If too late at your front door you pounce,
She is with you St. Andrew's night holding,
So her tongue will be silenced for once.

I am married to her that I wanted
It is well, with temptation in sight
If I was not I might be enchanted
By some sweet smiling lassie to-night.

I just looked up at Jock and he nodded
Though he spoke not—his meaning it came,
It was, Bill If I do get top-loaded
Ma'ain learwill oxter me home.

Over Twelve Years Established.

A live and well established grocery and provision business for sale. R. H. Green, on account of continued ill-health, has decided to sell his entire stock of groceries, provisions, &c., en bloc, at a bargain, to a suitable purchaser. The goods are nearly all new, well assorted and bought at the lowest possible wholesale prices. The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them at a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as decided bargains will be given. The goods must be sold. R. H. GREEN, corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Dec. 3rd. w47tsf

B. SHORTLY.

TIRED OF WAITING.

While Her Husband Sought a Fortune She Weds His Canadian Servant

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 19.—Captain Peter Bayne has returned from Alaska to find himself a veritable Enoch Arden. In 1878 he married in Tulare County, Cal., the daughter of Rev. Mr. Vandewenter, who afterward preached in Kent, Wash., and is now located at Winnemucca, Nev. In 1887 he located on a homestead in Whatcom county, this state. Needing money to prove his claim he decided to go on whaling trips to Alaska.

He left his wife on his claim with a young Canadian named William J. Forbes. Captain Bayne was fitted out in the schooner Ino by S. H. Frank & Co. of San Francisco, and sailed from there as captain of the schooner in April, 1887. He was unsuccessful, and while establishing a supply station on shore near Barrow, the most northerly point on the American continent, a storm came up and the schooner was wrecked, though the crew and everything on board were saved. The shipwrecked crew commenced whaling from the shore, and during the summer captured twelve whales, which netted a profit of $42,000. Several hundred walrus and seal skins and ivory were also taken. These with the ivory increased the profits about $50,000.

During the second summer the Indians notified Captain Bayne of a large ledge of coal on the beach, 150 miles south and 20 miles south of Cape Lisbon. The vein of coal was nearly 40 feet thick, and was visited by Bayne and ten men. He proposed to return at some future time and develop the mine.

On the evening of Oct. 3, 1887, the whaling bark Little Ohio was wrecked near where the schooner Ino was lost, and out of forty souls only nineteen were saved. The colony now numbered forty-five, and some of them commenced capturing frost fish for extra food. They remained there until last July, when the revenue cutter Thesis found them. Enough provisions were left behind until the Thetis could send word to the owners of the wrecked schooner Ino in San Francisco. They sent up the steamer William Lewis to bring down the shipwrecked men, whale oil and furs.

After settling with the owners Captain Bayne found himself with about $20,000. He hastened back to his Whatcom county farm and found it deserted. He went to the father-in-law's home, and there learned that his wife, supposing him dead, had married the young Canadian Forbes. Continued searching showed that Mrs. Bayne had obtained a divorce from her husband. Captain Bayne, found his children, a girl and a boy, aged respectively nine and seven years, in Port Townsend post office. They had called for their mother's mail. The woman declared young Forbes was blameless and that she thought her husband was dead.

Jugigo Must be Electrocuted.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—In sentencing the Japanese murderer Jugigo, Judge Brady avoided any mention of the method by which the sentence was to be carried out. His wording of the sentence was that it was to be carried out "according to law during the week beginning Feb. 2.

Jugigo's counsel, Lawyer Berlinger, obtained a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that the death warrant was illegal, as it did not state the mode of execution, and the prisoner was taken before Judge Brady yesterday morning. Assistant District-Attorney Greene argued that the sentence was legal and Judge Brady so held, dismissing the writ.

Jugigo, with Clarke and Wilson, sentenced for murder, was taken to Sing Sing in the afternoon. He will be kept in solitary confinement until he is to die in the electric chair.

North Dakota Goes Dry

BISMARCK, Dec. 19.—Contrary to general expectation the prohibitory bill was passed by both branches of the Legislature yesterday. After July 1 there will not be a drop of liquor sold lawfully in North Dakota. The vote in the Senate was 25 to 8. The bill was then rushed to the House, was railroaded through and now only lacks Governor Miller's signature to make it law. Upwards of $700,000 has been spent in the fight by the liquor men, who are now preparing to emigrate from the state.

Nearly all colds are slight, at first, but their tendency is to so lower the system that the suffer becomes a ready victim to any prevalent disease. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the beginning of a cold, would guard against this danger.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life on energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the pfeeble keeper, the hair luxiriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and restlessness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

DR. H. A. ARCHER,
111 S. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N.Y.
March 8, 1887.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pest ap bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Rheumatic Pains

require no description, since, with rare exception, all as some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundation. The most successful treatment known, and it is not frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nervilline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the sufferer. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottle of Nervilline can be had at the drug stores for ten cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6tw51

A Common Cold

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was Speedily Cured.

I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—JNO. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Rogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it for Colds, Coughs, and all Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Meadville, Pa.

Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who knew me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark.

Peterborough Talent Abroad.
A number of young people from Peterborough drove out to Lakefield Thursday night to take part in a bazaar and concert in the P.C.A. Hall, under the auspices of the Mission Band of the Presbyterian church there. Besides the local talent which took part, the following from Peterborough contributed to the programme:—Solos by Miss Sophie Cameron, Miss Mary Paterson and Miss Lily Pearson; instrumental by Miss Nellie Wrighton; a vocal quartette by Messrs. Crase, Graham, McCallum and Dundas.

A Great Success
The wonderful bargains and immense value given at the great sale of M. Sullivan & Co's has caused the great success of the sale. Hundreds of customers have come to "shop" and stayed to buy. The prices and goods were such as they could not resist. A splendid stock, kept well assorted, placed at figures which must sell the goods. A beautiful line of woven shawls form one of the latest and most attractive features. Don't neglect this great sale. If you do you will miss the biggest bargains ever presented in Peterborough. dw

A Coward.
He is a coward who will not turn back When first he discovers he's on the wrong track.
Kidd's advice to all in need of ready-made clothing is to turn back on the road that is leading you to high-priced clothing establishments and inspect his line of overcoats now selling at $3.65. 372 George street. dw

Why Wont People Understand?
It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

A Queer Christmas Box.
An honest Emily farmer, who has gained a reputation for being very close-fisted, surprised a neighbor by saying that he was going to make his wife a handsome Christmas present. "What is it?" Why, I bought five yards of flannel for one dollar, for her to make me some shirts." This is wonderously liberal. If he had bought five pounds of good tea at hawley bros.', he would have saved enough to pay for the wear and tear on his conscience, caused by his reckless generosity. The best and finest crops of teas and fragrant coffees at the lowest prices, at hawley bros. If you want to enjoy your Christmas dinner, don't neglect to buy the materials for your tea and coffees at hawley bros.

The Nora Clench Concert.
The Norah Clench concert in the Opera House on January 9th, will be the concert, par excellence, of the season. Nora Clench, the great actractice, is having a triumphal progress through Canada. On Monday night she played in Brantford to a crowded house. The Expositor says:—

"Her first number was sufficient to electrify the audience, and the applause and recall were almost deafening. But her greatest success was scored in her second number. Her work was superb, and the critical element in the audience could hardly refrain applause during the performance. A great deal has been said of Miss Clench, but she deserves it all—she's a wonderful girl."

Miss Clench played in Woodstock Tuesday night, and there was a rush for seats. Every seat in the hall was reserved, and many were unable to secure seats at all. Her playing created great enthusiasm. She was greeted with a double encore, to which she responded. Don't fail to secure tickets for this great concert on Jan. 9th.

A Nobby Store
Probably no store among the many beautiful places of business in Peterborough during the holiday term, is more attractive than Mr. W. A. Sanderson's jewelry store. The window has been re-fitted and is now well adapted for the magnificent display of goods which are set out before the eyes of the public. The window glistens with rows of gold watches and pieces of silver, of which Mr. Sanderson makes a specialty. The interior of the store is filled with a large and complete stock of watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, etc., including a splendid array of handsome articles suitable for holiday and wedding gifts. Mr. Sanderson has also placed a large regulator in the window, which gives the correct time as accurately as it can possibly be kept. Mr. Sanderson invites the public to call and inspect his stock and warrants satisfaction. Repairing of all kinds is also done in connection.

Another Swindle.
The Campbellford Herald exposes a swindle by which a farmer named Peter McDonald, of Seymour township, was done out of over $200. Mr. McDonald was induced to give his note for $340 to a man who represented himself to be an agent of the National Bucket Co., of Toronto, which claimed to hold the patent right for the sale of an improved dairy bucket. Mr. McDonald purchased the right to sell these buckets at $2 each, and the note was held by the company for security. Three dozen of these buckets were to be sent to Mr. McDonald within 60 days, but neither buckets nor note were forthcoming. The firm was a mythical one, and in the meantime the note was sold to a firm of brokers in Toronto, who demand ed payment of same, and, in default, they have sued upon Mr. McDonald's stock and grain. If the firm are not swindlers, says the Herald, the transaction has a most dishonest odor about it, and Mr. McDonald will be put to considerable trouble and expense to clear himself.

Trades and Labor Council.
An adjourned meeting of representatives of the trades and labor unions of the town was held in Labor Hall last night and a Trades and Labor Council, similar to those in other large towns and cities, was formed. The unions represented at the organization meeting were the Bricklayers,' Carpenters and Joiners, and Knight of Labor. The object of the Trades and Labor Council is to deal with matters of municipal and political discussion of which is prohibited in individual unions, and labor interests in general. The following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT—R. McGregor.
VICE-PRESIDENT—John Miller.
RECORDING AND CORRESPONDING SECRETARY—W. J. Hogan.
TREASURER—E. Sheehy.
WARDEN—John Gibson.

A committee, composed of Messrs. W. Ranger, Geo. Rose and E. Sheehy, was elected to appoint Legislative, Municipal and Organizing committees—standing committees. The Council adjourned to meet Saturday night, Dec. 28th.

Pupils' Presentations.

School Teachers Who Were Honored by Their Pupils—A Number of Presentations.

The pupils of the Separate School have parted with their esteemed Principal, Mr. J. D. Mallmoyle, who will no longer be in charge of the school. That he has won the regard and confidence of his pupils, is evident by the addresses with which he has been presented. On Tuesday the pupils of his own class presented him with an address, accompanied by a handsome gentleman's toilet case. Walter Purdon read the address on behalf of his fellow-pupils, and George Fitzgerald made the presentation. Thursday afternoon another address was forthcoming from the primary classes, which was read by Master Hubert Carleton, Master Chas. Cavanagh handing to Mr. Mallmoyle the complete set of the Waverly Novels the pupils had purchased for him as a memento of their regard. Both addresses spoke in warmest terms of Mr. Mallmoyle's kind and judicious ministrations to them, and expressed regret that the pleasant relations which had always existed between them as teacher and pupils were about to be severed.

MISS NICHOLL REMEMBERED.

Thursday forenoon Miss Nicholls, of the Union School, was presented with a hand some lady's blotter, accompanied by the following address:—

PETERBOROUGH, Dec. 19th, 1889.

DEAR MISS NICHOLLS.—We wish to express our thanks for all your kindness during the term, and also for the patience you have shown in guiding us in the paths of learning.

Will you please accept this as a token of our love and esteem.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, and very many of them.

Signed on behalf of the pupils.
Mabel Mason, Birdie Thompson,
Annie Smart, Annie Sherwood,
Sarah Robinson.

FAREWELL TO MISS IRWIN.

Thursday forenoon at the South Ward School Miss Irwin, who has resigned her position and leaves the school at the close of the term, was presented by her pupils with a farewell address and beautiful silver sugar bowl with spoons. Following is the address:—

MISS IRWIN:—

DEAR TEACHER,—We your pupils in the South Ward School desire to express to you, at this happy holiday season, the love and regard we have for you as our teacher.

We confess that we have been disobedient and troublesome at times, and caused you not a little pain, but you have been gentle and forgiving, and have tried hard to make us good scholars.

Please accept as a Christmas gift this small token of our gratitude to you for all your past kindness, and we will ever pray that our Heavenly Father may bless and guard you.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

CHRIS GRAHAM.
MIZA HENDERSON.

Peterborough, Dec. 17th, 1889.

STILL ANOTHER.

Yesterday Mr. J. W. McCreary, headmaster of the West Ward School, was presented with a handsome and thoroughly equipped portfolio, and the following address:—

DEAR MR. MCCREARY.—We, the pupils of your school, desire to express our appreciation of the kind manner in which you have striven to assist us in our studies.

Kindly accept this as your souvenir as a small token of our gratitude and affection.

Signed on behalf of the school,
A. DILLON H. HODGSON,
D. LEWIS.

Peterborough W. W. School, 19th Dec., 1889.

MISS LEONARD REMEMBERED.

Yesterday afternoon the class of boys taught by Miss Leonard in the Separate School, presented her with a farewell address and a charming ladies dressing case. Miss Leonard is leaving the school after the term, and it must be pleasant to her to know that she possesses the esteem of her pupils. We have been unable to procure a copy of the address for publication, but it contained warmest words of praise for her past efforts, and the deepest expressions of regret on the part of the pupils at their separation.

The Pupils' "At Home."

Collegiate Institute Pupils Close the Term in a Happy Way—Festivities in the "Gym."

Last evening the pupils of the Collegiate Institute held an "At Home" in the gymnasium, at which a large number of the pupils and teachers were in attendance. The following programme was rendered under the chairmanship of Mr. Geo. Edmison:—

Chorus	The Girls
Fancy Club swinging (by request)	The Girls
Reading	A Wood
Duet	H King and E Burnham
Duet (bones and piano)—(encored)	B Brooks and F Burnham
Reading	J Vanevery
Chorus	The Boys
Solo	Miss J Long
Reading	T Power
Solo	J Noble
Reading	K O'Connell
Solo	A Patterson
Duet	Misses Burnham and Clarke
Reading	A Carruth
Solo	A Robinson

The accompaniments for the choruses were played with great taste by Miss Edyth Burnham. The pupils thank Mr. J. W. Crosby for his kindness in loaning them a piano for the occasion.

After the programme refreshments were provided by the pupils, to which it is needless to say their vigorous young appetites did full justice. An hour or so was most pleasantly spent in the enjoyment of games, the proceedings being brought to a close about midnight by the presentation of a complimentary address to Mr. J. H. Long, Principal, which was read by Miss Dover. The address referred in glowing terms to Mr. Long's uniform kindness and skill in conducting the Institute, and bore testimony to the fact that he enjoys the perfect confidence and respect of his pupils. Mr. Long made a feeling reply, Mr. Colbeck adding a few words.

Early Closing.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR.—Is it not the duty of the police to enforce the Early Closing by-law? All this week a certain store on George street was kept open after seven o'clock, the police passing and re-passing, apparently oblivious of the flagrant violation of the by-law.

The advantage this store has over other stores in the same line of business, which close at seven o'clock, is apparent. If the police do not do their duty, it is no reason why the proprietor of the store in question should break an agreement he signed, and which he conspicuously displayed in his window until a week or two ago.

Yours, etc.,

Police Court.

FRIDAY, Dec 20.

P. M. Dumble this morning delivered judgment in the forestalling cases against Messrs. H. C. Winch and H. Laplante imposing a fine of $5 in each case.

This morning a youngster named Eddie Herron was arrested on a charge of being implicated with Johnie Gross in the theft of a couple of hand sleighs last Monday from Messrs. John McKee and John Knox. As young Gross had not yet been apprehended the other juvenile prisoner was remanded.

Two brothers, Walter and Arthur Hoit, were arrested last night by the police to answer for misconduct. They were also remanded.

SAILSBURY BROS.

A POETICAL TRIBUTE
—TO—
HONEST DEALING.

A grateful customer of MESSRS. H. LEBRUN & Co. has been moved to put into verse the following truthful tribute to the excellence of this firm's goods. Truth and poetry do not always go together, but in this case they go hand in hand. There is no exaggeration nor poetical license in the following lines:—

Last night I had a pleasant dream, and well I did enjoy it,
In sleep I scaled Parnassus' height, and awoke a full fledged poet;
I tarried not to eat nor drink, but quickly grasped my pen
To tell in verse how cheaply we could clothe our fellowmen.
Our prices make the rich to smile, the poor with joy to shout,
We are resolved from this henceforth to knock the bottom out;
The man must strike some unseen notch, and shout up from below
That undersells the clothing store of H. LeBrun & Co.

Our choice five dollar overcoats, our genial salesmen shows,
Will keep you warm as a pie in the wildest storm that blows.
No ground up rags, no shoddy stuff, no mill pressed glue and hair,
But every thread spun from the sheep—fine, cheap, and made to wear.
You need not walk round shabby dressed, our prices must you convince,
Our seven dollar suits will dress you stylish as a prince.
For two and fifty we will clothe your boy from head to toe
Right in the City Clothing Store of H. LeBrun & Co.

Our line of ready-made is good, choices you will receive,
Examine, choose and purchase cloth; with us your order leave.
We guarantee to cut and stitch complete as you command,
For style and finish every part here unsurpassed we stand.
Young men that wish a stylish suit, for concert, church or ball,
Will have their true wish gratified, by giving us a call.
Out walking, or in sitting room your girl will wish to know
If you had bought that pretty suit from H. LeBrun & Co.

Our expert cutter measures true and strikes each new d-sign,
With skilful hand his shears play crack, round angle, curve or line.
Our tailor's work, neat, strong, complete, o'er all the hot goose steams,
Leaving no wrinkles in the back, nor puckers in the seams.
We don't believe in paper puffs that float off like a kite,
Our goods and prices come and test, as proofs of what we write.
No shoddy pressed, no ripping seams, air holes in two weeks show,
Cheapness and wear the mottoes is at H. LeBrun's & Co.

Before eighteen and eight-nine bids us a last adieu,
To all our patrons, rich and poor, thanks we return to you.
Fair honest dealing in the past upholds our business name,
And in the future, we resolve strict to pursue the same.
Come old and new friends, welcome come, Christmas is drawing nigh,
How you will smile to see how much a trifling save will buy.
With pleasure we will suit your wants and salute you as you go,
With all the season's compliments, of H. LeBrun & Co.

Peterborough, December, 1889. dw

Scottish Congratulations.

The Chieftain of the San Francisco Scottish Thistle Club to the Officers and Clansmen of The Peterborough St. Andrew's Society.

The following letter has been received by Mr. Chas. Cameron, President of the St. Andrew's Society. It was read at a meeting of Executive Committee in St. Andrew's Hall on Wednesday evening, and after a vote of thanks to the writer, a resolution was passed requesting its publication in the local newspapers. It will not only be particularly interesting to Scotchmen, as showing how they are noticed far away from home, but also the readers of the EXAMINER on account of its local references:—

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Dec. 5th 1889.

To the Officers and Clansmen of the St. Andrew's Society of Peterborough Ontario.

GENTLEMEN.—Pardon me for congratulating you on the opening of your new Hall. I love to hear of the prosperity of Scotch Societies in Canada having been raised from boyhood in Canada, Ottawa City formerly called Bytown. I have lived in Bowmanville, Oshawa and Hamilton. I cannot keep my eyes off any news that I can find from dear old Canada or Scotland where I was born. I have been here thirty years, and have grown up with all three Scotch Societies, and have held offices in all of them, and let me state that we have a fine specimen of a Scotchman from your town a true Highlander and better yet, an honest man, Mr. John Elder; he is one of our leading merchants. We wanted him to take the office of Royal Chieftain of our club this year but he declined with thanks; we laid that to his modesty; he preferred to be in the ranks a soldier. He has held the office of chairman of our trustees a position he has filled with honour to himself and credit to the club. Our club now numbers 500 members from all quarters of Scotland, so we take none but born Scotchmen and their sons. This last year, 1889, we netted at our games sixteen hundred dollars. We expect to do better financially next year. The new members for 1889 has reached so far seventy five. Away out in the far West you see Scotchmen flock together and are as clannish as any other nation. We accomplish something more, we assist one another, help the sick and bury the dead. No Scotchman who applies to us goes away barehanded, and it is out here away from dear Old Scotland where a Scotchman receives a helping hand if he is only deserving. I desire to say again that I must not close this note without saying another word about John Elder, he has been, and is now a great help to me as managing and conducting the club to its present and prominent position, for in only 7 years since its organization, we have increased from 25 members and $25 dollars to 500 members, and about $4000 in the bank of the Board of Trustees. John Elder also presented me with a copy of poems from your BardJTelford which we prize highly, for some of our young orators read or recited from its pages some of the best poems. Please send me a copy of your by-laws and we will return the compliment.

I remain, yours truly,
HUGH FRASER,
Royal Chieftain.

P. S.—We wish you much success in your new hall.

Dog Dispute Decided.
Much time was occupied and considerable amusement afforded by the trial in the Division Court this morning of the celebrated "dog-pup" case between Mr. H. W. Kent and Dr. Pigeon. After hearing the mass of more or less contradictory evidence which such cases usually call forth, the judge held that Mr. Kent had previously bargained for and was entitled to the pup in question, and Mr. Kent accordingly marched triumphantly out of court with the youthful canine under his arms.

THE ST. JOHN MURDER TRIAL NEARING ITS CLOSE.

Arrangements for Yearly Exhibitions in Montreal—United States Consul Downs of Quebec Wins $15,000 in a Lottery.

St John, N.B., Dec 20.—In the prisoned candy case to-day, Dr. Ross of Montreal testified that he attended McDonald in 1888, while the prisoner was in that city. Up to the time McDonald left Montreal he was insane, suffering from melancholia, although as respects many matters he would be perfectly sane.

Rev. A. G. Upham of Montreal stated that he knew McDonald, who bore an excellent reputation, morally and otherwise.

The evidence for the defence closed this afternoon, and counsel began to address the jury.

A LUCKY U. S. CONSUL.

Mr. Louis Sylvestre Elevated to the Legislative Council of Quebec.

Quebec, Dec. 20.—United States Consul Downs has been the lucky winner of $75,000. He held ½ of ticket 89455 of the Louisiana State Lottery.

Mr. Louis Sylvestre, M.L.A. for Berthier, has been elevated to a seat in the Legislative Council, vice Dr Lavallée, expelled for pocketing Government funds entrusted to his care for colonization purposes.

Messrs. Forsyth & Co.'s annual timber circular for this port is just issued. It shows that the volume of business done in the past year was much in excess of the preceding five years. The total export was 10,415,100 feet, as against 8,551,840 in 1888, showing an increase for 1889 of 1,863,320 feet.

A meeting was held here to-day of all the Bishops of the province presided over by the Cardinal. They discussed the proposal of Hon. Mr. Mercier to present a bill next session obliging the institutions of the clergy to pay the water tax. It is considered a step forward but it rests with the Bishops to decide, for if there be one dissentient voice the project will be abandoned.

Quebec's Free Night Schools.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN MONTREAL

Arrangements for Yearly Exhibitions—Statues of Lafontaine and Cartier.

Montreal, Dec. 20.—One of the most important things done by the local ministers during their sojourn here is an arrangement regarding yearly exhibitions in Montreal. Dr. McEachran, Mr. Masson, Seigneur of Varennes, and Ald. Prefontaine, are to undertake to form a joint stock company with a capital of $200,000. A new site will be chosen and new buildings erected within easy access by street cars.

Statues will shortly be erected in front of the Court House here of Sir Louis H. Lafontaine and Sir George Cartier. The Premier has approved the idea and will give the land for the purpose. Hon. Mr. Mercier said that the time is not far distant when a monument will have to be erected to Hon L. J. Papineau, the great leader of '37.

Lord Cecil's Will.

Montreal, Dec. 20.—Intelligence has been received of the disposition of the estate of Lord A. P. Cecil, who was drowned at Adolphustown some months ago. He bequeaths to the British and Foreign Bible Society £3000, to the Inland-China mission £500 and £3000 in trust for such poor Christians and such servants of Jesus Christ in the British Isles, France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, Sweden, Russia, Syria, Canada and United States as the executors in absolute and uncontrolled discretion may think fit. The balance of the estate is given to relatives and friends.

SUED FOR $10,000!

Mrs. Cameron asks Damages for an Alleged Kidnapping Conspiracy.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—Suit for $10,000 has been begun by Mrs. Sarah Cameron against W. H. Bartram, Ludwig K. Cameron, her brother in-law, J. D. Lyon, and D. T. Tierney, whom she charges with a conspiracy to kidnap her 6-year-old daughter Bessie. Mrs. Cameron's husband is an inmate of a London, Canada, lunatic asylum. She came here as the housekeeper of James McCoskrie, but Mrs. McCoskrie followed them and caused their arrest. Mrs. McCoskrie sued for divorce and to get possession of her daughter Claudia May, whom McCoskrie brought with him. Cameron and the other defendants captured Bessie Cameron, but before they could get her to Canada the police recovered her and restored her to her mother.

FIRES OF A DAY.

A $10,000 Blaze at Valleyfield—Fully Covered by Insurance.

Montreal, Dec. 20.—The Watties woolen mills at Valleyfield, now the property of the Montreal Cotton Company, took fire this morning about 2.30. The company's fire brigade was promptly out and had the hose playing on the building shortly after the alarm. Good service was rendered, but before the fire was got under a loss of $10,000 was sustained. Premises and stock fully insured.

Perth, Dec. 20.—The German theatre here was burned to-day. Adjoining buildings were damaged.

Franklinton, N.C., Dec. 20.—The whole business section of this town was burned this morning. Fifteen buildings were consumed. This is the second big fire which has occurred here within two months.

A GRAVE-ROBBER SHOT

Sydenham Ghouls Caught in Their Nefarious Work.

Sydenham, Dec. 20.—Grave-robbers were discovered here in the cemetery last night in the act of opening a grave in which the remains of an old gentleman were deposited yesterday. Two men are employed to watch the cemetery, and one of them fired a charge of buckshot at the party as they were running away. One of them shouted back "I am shot," and all disappeared in the darkness.

Asphyxiated in a Steamer's Hold.

San Francisco, Dec 20.—Fire broke out in the hold of the British ship Durham here a few days ago but was extinguished after slight damage. Heavy rains for the past few days made it necessary to cover the hatches and gas accumulated. This afternoon Surveyor Freeman of Lloyds and Grain Inspector Catton and Capt. Gove went into the hold to ascertain the damage to the grain cargo. A few minutes later Gove came up exhausted. Freeman and Catton were soon drawn up but both died in a few minutes.

THE CHINESE MUST GO.

New United States Regulations Touching Celestials' Transit in Bond.

Washington, Dec. 20.—A set of new regulations governing the movements of Chinamen in transit through the United States has been prepared at the Treasury Department. Heretofore Chinese travelers have been required to give a bond for their direct transit through the country and speedy departure. The new regulations will require the railroad transporting them to give a bond in the sum of $10,000. It will also be required to furnish the customs officer at the port of arrival with a certificate from the customs officer at the port of departure showing that the Chinese described in the certificate left the country within twenty days after their arrival.

THE ALLEGED JURY FIXERS.

Evidence of a Startling Character Said to Have Been Secured.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—It is stated that in the trial of the men charged with an attempt to "fix" the jury in the Cronin case the principal witness will be the chief clerk of the man suspected of being the arch-conspirator in the Cronin murder. "Evidence of the most startling character has been secured," said one of the attorneys for the prosecution today.

EUROPE'S EYES ON AFRICA

SALISBURY'S DEMAND RECEIVED AT LISBON.

Something About the Man Who Has Set England and Portugal by the Ears—Another Letter From Stanley.

Lisbon, Dec. 20.—The Marquis of Salisbury's note in response to the recent communication of Portugal has been presented to the Minister of Foreign Affairs. It calls upon the Portuguese Government to repudiate the action of its agents on the Zambesi River and demands restoration of the status quo as it existed before the recent expedition of Serpa Pinto.

Major Serpa Pinto first became famous in 1879, on the completion of his successful journey from Benguela, on the western coast of the Dark Continent, to Durban, on the southeastern coast, thus making a most valuable addition to the stores of African geography and complementing the great researches of Stanley, Livingstone, Cameron and other famous explorers who have risked their lives in searching the mysteries of that quarter of the globe.

Pinto was at that date an officer in the service of his native country, Portugal, and had for some years been employed in the Portuguese colonies of Western Africa. His expedition was fitted out conjointly by his government and the Lisbon Geographical Society. It occupied 16 months. On his return to Lisbon he was received with evidences of great esteem by the King and was the object of popular adulation in all quarters. In a series of public lectures and in an extended published journal of his travels he described the many strange and interesting places and scenes he had encountered in his arduous and dangerous journey, and he brought home large and valuable collections of plant and animal life. He described the sources of four great rivers heretofore unknown. His discovery of the River Coando, navigable for 600 miles and flowing into the Zambesi, alone placed Major Pinto in the rank of the great African explorers. His escort on this long and hazardous journey was composed of men belonging to a tribe of cannibals. Of the 80 men who started with him only 8 survived the hardships of the weary march and reached with him the eastern coast.

On the basis of the discoveries of Pinto the Portuguese Government has since 1879 laid claim to a wide tract of African territory, including Mozambique on the eastern coast and the Shire River district, in which the Portuguese engineer Castilloes has recently undertaken to survey the route for a railroad, which enterprise met with resistance from the Makololo natives and led to the recently-reported battle between the blacks and the Portuguese forces under Pinto. A portion of the territory claimed by Portugal is also claimed by the British, and the matter may lead to an important conflict between the two European powers.

In 1884 Serpa Pinto made another journey of exploration in Southern Africa, the results of which fully entitled him to the title of the Portuguese Stanley. Following his discoveries the Portuguese have established a system of steam navigation on the Zambesi and Shire Rivers and opened a large and prosperou trading establishment.

Consul Johnston Ill-treated.

London, Dec. 20.—An ugly rumor is in circulation that the Portuguese have ill-treated Mr. Johnston, the British consul at Mozambique, when they charged with stirring up insurrection and distributing English flags in Makololo Land.

A Letter From Stanley.

London, Dec. 20.—Sir Francis de Winton has made public a long letter written to him by Stanley, dated Ossia, Aug. 31. In it Stanley objects very strongly to the tone of a batch of newspaper cuttings he had received, which commented with an utter lack of common-sense and a total disregard of accuracy upon his expedition. He dwells upon Emin's indecision, which cost him a journey otherwise unnecessary of 1300 miles from Bartlelot. He justifies the payment of a salary of £30 per month to Tippoo Tib as a means of averting a desolating war and declares that if both parties are honest in the maintenance of their agreements peace may continue indefinitely. He rebukes three persons in England who had lost faith in his steadfastness of purpose to such a degree as to credit rumors that he was marching to Khartoum.

He dwells at much length upon the case of Bartlelot and removes the impression produced by previous letters reflecting upon the Major's conduct. He says Bartlelot only needed to extricate himself from his dilemma, qualities that will not be gained save by long experience in Africa. He eulogises his courage and high qualities. He knew the Major was a man of little forbearance and had intended to keep him with himself, but necessity compelled the change that caused him to leave him behind. Bartlelot was ignorant of the language of the people, and his interpreter may have been false and occasioned the coolness between the men and the Major, which was never overcome and led to his death.

Stanley recites in detail with much emphasis the alleged Congo atrocities of the Manyema, the cannibalism and the story of photographing women during execution. During the whole expedition he executed only four men.

Brazil's Example Contagious.

Lisbon, Dec. 20.—The Republicans here have decided to issue a manifesto to the effect that the time is favorable for abolishing the monarchy.

Of Course.

London, Dec. 20.—The Brazilian legation here has received instructions by cable from the Government at Rio Janeiro to guard the public against erroneous reports concerning events in Brazil. The despatch says the report of a mutiny among the troops arose from the fact that some soldiers who had been drinking revolted. They, however, immediately surrendered and the movement says order will be firmly maintained and justice will be done to all.

Lisbon Dec. 20.—A despatch from the Brazilian Minister of Finance declares the originators of the revolution are all against the re-establishment of slavery and no planters approving of slavery had any part in the revolution.

Reconsidered Refused

Washington, Dec. 20.—The Senate to-day occupied most of its time discussing Senator Morgan's resolution to immediately acknowledge Brazil a republic. Democratic senators supported the resolution while the party of the Government desired to refer the matter to the Foreign Affairs Committee or have it tabled until it was seen whether Brazil had really become a republic or had merely exchanged the rule of a liberal Emperor for that of a military dictator. When the ayes and nays were called, it was found there was not a quorum present, and the matter went over.

The South African Company's Charter

London, Dec. 20.—The charter of the South African Company is gazetted to-day. It describes the regions of the company's operations as immediately north of Bechuanaland and west of the Portuguese possessions; and north and west of the dominions possessed by the Transvaal Company. This includes therefore the vast tract of Central Africa north of the Zambesi River and west of the

THE TORONTO BUDGET

OPENING OF THE UNIVERSITY'S BIOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

Notices from the Ontario Gazette—Poor Girls in the Soup—Rites Committed for Trial—Heist with His Own Petard:

Toronto, Dec. 21.—The Biological Department of the University was dedicated yesterday with appropriate ceremonies. Sir Daniel Wilson presided. Hon. G. W. Ross, Profs. Osler and Welsh of Johns Hopkins University, Prof. Minot of Harvard and others delivered addresses and scientific dissertations.

At the Police Court yesterday W. F. Ross was charged with having defrauded Schwabb Bros. of Montreal, out of $2,078.71. After hearing the evidence of Mr. Charles A. Grant, of the firm of Schwabb Bros., Ross was committed for trial, bail being accepted in two sureties of $1000 each.

At 11 Colborne-street a firm has been doing business for some time under the name of Levy Bros. German Knitting Co. Thursday afternoon the employes were informed that they could have a half holiday as the senior partner was going to get married. Yesterday morning the girls came down to work as usual, but found the place locked up and all the machinery gone. There was "weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth," for the girls had not been paid for two weeks. The firm leaves several small debts behind. Whether they are taking a Christmas holiday or have left for warmer climes is not known.

At the Police Court on Thursday Henry Morton was charged with having stolen a number of silver-plated knives, forks and spoons from Mrs. McGinnis, Lombard-street, and he was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. After sentence the prisoner said he could produce the thief, and the Magistrate gave him until yesterday to do so. When the case was called Mrs. Johnston entered the witness-box and swore that she stole the cutlery and gave them to the prisoner, who pawned them. As the prisoner knew they had been stolen the Colonel added three months to his sentence, sending him to the Central for nine months instead of six.

Arthur Chamberlain was tried before Judge McDougall yesterday on a charge of assaulting P. C. Moffat, while the latter was trying to head off the procession the other night, which was celebrating the release of Young McIntosh. When Moffat grabbed the heads of the horses drawing the cab in which McIntosh was seated, the prisoner is alleged to have jumped off the rig and kicked the policeman in the groin. After hearing the evidence of P.C. Moffatt, Acting Patrol Sergeant Uts, ex-Ald. Johnson, William McIntosh and others, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Chamberlain was defended by J. G. Holmes.

This week's Gazette contains the official announcement of the opening of the Ontario Legislature on Thursday, Jan. 30.

These companies have been incorporated: Lindsay Stone and Lime Co. (limited), capital $100,000; Midland Driving Park Association (limited), capital $3000; Hawthorne Woolen Co., Carleton Place (limited), capital $40,000; Toronto and Big Creek Shooting Co., Walsingham, Norfolk Co., (limited), capital $4000. In the latter are interested Messrs. McGaw, Winnett, T. G. Foster, C. S. Botsford and others.

WHERE'S THE FOOL KILLER.

A Village Idiot's Performance at a Wedding—The Bride Shot.

Hamilton, Dec. 20.—There is a young bride at 142 Duke-street, in this city, suffering from a bullet-wound in the arm, the result of some careless work with a revolver. The accident occurred at Hatchley Station, near Brantford, on Wednesday last.

A young man named Emerson Lampman, whose friends live over the mountain, has been up in the Northwest farming, and he recently returned to get married. The young lady was a Miss Morris of Hatchley and a number of Hamilton people went up to the wedding, including a young man named Harry Robinson. After the wedding the young couple were about to depart for Toronto, and their Hamilton friends accompanied them. Considerable jubilation filled the air, as is usual on such occasions, and young Robinson and some others vented their enthusiasm by firing of revolvers. Suddenly the bride of an hour felt a stinging sensation in her arm and cried out that she had been hit, but the pain was so slight that she laugh ed over the matter and thought the bullet had only grazed the skin. When the party got on the train Mrs. Lampman felt her arm getting sore and they bandaged it up—until the train reached Hamilton—when the bride was taken up to Dr. Wolverion's office. The doctor found that the bullet had entered the arm about three inches above the wrist and passed down to the wrist, where it lodged, and has not yet been extracted. Mrs. Lampman was taken to Robert Topping's residence, 141 Duke-street, where everything is being done for here, and the doctor does not anticipate any serious results unless inflammation sets in.

AT TERPSICHORE'S SHRINE.

The Masonic Ball at the Ambitious City a Brilliant Success.

Hamilton, Dec. 20.—The Thirteenth Battalion Drill Hall was to-night transformed into a brilliant ball room. The Masonic brethren of this city have not had a public ball for some twelve years, but this year their exclusive custom was varied and their ball to-night was made the event of the season in Hamilton society circles. Grand Master Wilkes of Kingston was present and opened the ball. He was received with grand honors by 400 brethren, all in full Masonic regalia. In addition to the magnificent decorations, flags, evergreens and bunting, the walls and rafters of the building were trimmed with evergreens and many-colored lanterns and illuminated Masonic designs shone over the gay scene below. One half of the hall was set apart as a dining-room. The cedar block floor of this was covered with white canvas and foliage and blossom flowers were found wherever it was possible to place them.

The dancing floor was a large square in the centre of the western half of the room. This was not for a moment deserted, the twenty-three numbers on the program being danced through with a vim that gave evidence of naught else than the heartiest enjoyment. The full band of the 13th Battalion supplied the music.

Altogether there were not less than 1000 people present and of these 400 were Masons. Arrangements were so perfect that, notwithstanding the numerous guests, there was not a single hitch in the whole fete. Everything went along merrily and it was not until after 3 o'clock that the ball broke up.

BREVITIES BY CABLE.

Advices from Crete report terrible barbarities on the part of the Turks at Rethymo.

In the Italian Chamber of Deputies the abolition of differential duties against France was approved, 170 to 55. Premier Crispi said Italy desired to show she did not wish a tariff war with France. He thought, however, there was little reason to hope Italy would obtain in the near future equally favorable treatment from France.

Chakir, the Governor of Crete, sent a mixed Turkish and Christian commission to Rethymo to investigate proceedings there and it has confirmed the report that three gendarmes killed several unarmed Christians.

If the children were no more!"
We've a whole fist devoted to toys alone. And such toys! Cute enough to make the mouth of every human boy and girl just water.
Hor-es that are ready to spring into coming sleds that are impatiently waiting the first good sleighing; clowns, so comical that they just will you with laughter; games that have the rompling boy into a profound philosopher; trains that seem ready to go to Chicago; toy banks full of splendid pictures to delight and rack the rest.
And then the dolls for the little girls; such dolls! no common every-day dolls, that a little mother with any pride in her would be ashamed of. But real French Dolls, dressed in the latest Parisian fashions, with lovely golden hair, and long, lamb'shing eyelashes, and sats just like real baby's skin, you know.

IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Gentleman whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and new feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 76 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

The Daily Examiner.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1889.

Summing Up the Case.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—As there are a number of false statements made respecting the horse-whipping of Mr. Colbeck, I wish to give a correct statement of the affair and leave the public to judge whether under all the circumstances I was justified or not.

My youngest son Victor, a delicate boy twelve years old, has been in the Collegiate Institute for the past year which fact, at his age should be proof that he has been a student. But that there should be no doubt that he was a good student and a well behaved boy at school, I had Mr. Long, Mr. Earle and Mr. Fitz teachers in the Institute with whom he had been studying for the past year, and Mr. Smith the Principal of of the Public school, under whose care he was for three years, examined before the Grand Jury to show that he never had been punished before. Even Mr. Colbeck had to admit under oath that he never had to punish him before the 22nd Nov., the day he gave him the brutal whipping.

Now what great crime had the boy committed that he should receive such brutal treatment from Mr. Colbeck that the marks are visible to this day—simply that this, the boy sitting behind Victor was cutting his ruler, and he reached back to take it when, Mr. Colbeck without asking any explanation and without any investigation struck him with a hard-wood pointer, the first blow leaving a mark four inches long and an inch and a half wide.

For some time Mr. Colbeck had been making complaints about the school with the object of having Mr. Long undermined and removed from his position as Principal of the school and I would not be a party to the little game he and Mr. Dumble were playing. When unsuccessful here, Mr. Colbeck applied for a position in the Dundas school, and he admitted, under oath, that he received notice either on Thursday afternoon or Friday morning that he had been appointed to that position, and on Friday afternoon he gave Victor the whipping.

Victor was punished on the 22nd Nov., and for two or three months previous had been in ill-health. The school register shows that he was absent twelve whole days and three half days; besides, he had been sent home three times on account of illness. Under all the circumstances I am willing to leave the public to judge why my boy was punished, and believe nineteen out of every twenty unprejudiced men will say that he was punished on account of the ill-feeling Mr. Colbeck had against me, and not for any wrong the boy had done. Any man, let alone a minister of the Gospel like Mr. Colbeck, who would take revenge on a delicate boy of twelve years old, for my ill-feeling against the father, could not receive too severe a chastisement.

Those who blame me for horse-whipping Mr. Colbeck, should place themselves in my place and think what they would do if a delicate child of theirs came home with arms and legs all bruised and black, especially if he was such a kind and affectionate child that I never had to punish him.

When we have such a man as Mr. Dumble acting as Police Magistrate, I knew there was no use taking legal proceedings against Mr. Colbeck. Mr. Dumble and I have not been on speaking terms for years, and it is well known that he allows his personal feeling to guide him in his decisions, and that he has even given a written judgment which he had prepared at home before hearing one word of evidence. His actions on the bench the morning of the real would convince any man that he is a partizan in any case and unfit for the position he occupies. In all I have seen or read in connection with judges or magistrates I have never known anything that could be compared with Mr. Dumble's action on the bench except the account of Paul's trial before Ananias, in the 23rd chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. Not satisfied with his unprincipled conduct on the bench, he had to tamper with the gentlemen on the grand jury and tell them the boy's arm was painted with iodine. Had I have shown the same animus against Mr. Dumble when he was before the benchers for unprofessional conduct the grown would have been off him and then he would neither be practising law nor acting as police magistrate.

Every effort was made by designing men to injure me before the grand jury. First we had Mr. Colbeck presented with an address and came as coming from the pupils of the school, when it is well known they had to go outside the school for signatures and subscriptions. Then we find members of the school board passing a resolution for the purpose of influencing the jury. But the over-zealousness of some members is worthy of admiration. One member could denounce my conduct in high-toned terms, but his sons can go to school with flasks of whiskey in their pockets and choke this same Mr. Colbeck when he attempts to punish them, and the father glories in their conduct.

I have also been accused of tampering with the Grand Jury, and taking them to my house and giving them an oyster supper, which is false, for I never asked a member of the Grand Jury to vote for me bill against me, nor did I even take one of the them to my house to see the boy. One member of the Grand Jury was doing a great deal of talking against me, and making statements that the boy was not injured. I believed he was an honest man and would not make the statements he was making if he knew the facts of the case. I went to see him and told him in the hearing of other parties what I had heard, and that I did not intend to say a word to influence him, but if he had any doubts about the boy being injured, to go and see him before he talked any more.

Many people are talking about the Grand Jury, and insinuating the grossest falsehoods against their honor. No man was more surprised at the action of the Grand Jury than myself, for I expected a bill against Mr. Colbeck, and that the bill against me would be thrown out on account of the unmerited, brutal and vindictive beating received by the boy. I gave myself very little trouble about the matter, for I never thought it possible that there would be twelve men out of any twenty-four men respectable enough to be selected for a Grand Jury, who had so little affection for their children, that they would say I was not justified in the course taken. The members of the Grand Jury are sworn to do their duty, and I would not accuse one of them of perjury or my an unkind word against them, only I think they made a mistake in allowing one member to vote when he only attended the meeting to be sworn in on Tuesday afternoon, and then left town, returning on Thursday afternoon in time to vote.

I never reply to anonymous writers, for I believe any man who is such a coward that he is afraid to write over his own signature is beneath notice. It is only necessary to judge the anonymous writer in the Review by his own articles. First he asks to have the names of all parties who voted for or against the bill published, and then publishes the oath taken by every grand juror which binds them to keep everything that transpires in the jury-room a secret. Where is he to get the information except from a grand juror. Consistency is evidently a jewel not possessed by the anonymous writer in the Review.

Believing that the public, with all the particulars before them, will view the matter in a dispassionate and unprejudiced manner.

I remain, yours truly,

J. B. McWILLIAMS.

Peterborough, 20th Dec., 1889.

Baby one Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched, sallow—no rest by day, no peace by night—doctors and all remedies failed—Tried Cuticura—Effect marvellous—Saved his life

Cured by Cuticura.

Our eldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a [illegible] skin disease. As ordinary remedies failed, we called our family physician, who advised us to use it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the body, from the middle of her back down to his knees, was one solid mass, scaly, painful, blotched, and [illegible] no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete [illegible] leaving the little sufferer's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs.

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH.

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly developes into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly developes into Consumption and leads to premature Death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected Cold, which, by gradual stages developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease before which science is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Catarrh in any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, dull [illegible] from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, impairment of smell, or taste becoming dull, hacking cough, general feeling of debility, husky voice, wheezing or cracking sound in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness, particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the stomach, shortness of breath when attempting to disturb accumulations in the throat. Do not neglect them. Do not wait for but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run on under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever discovered for the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestionable fact, which is verified by thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion, and we append a few, selected at random, as a fair sample of the whole:—

Mr. A. E. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says:— Miss Maggie M. Martin, Tyrone, Pa., says:— Gents,—I may state that I have been affected Through a friend in Canada I became acwith Catarrh for seven or eight years, and I quainted with your NASAL BALM. I have was attended with consequent deafness, both suffered for years with Catarrh, and it is the as foul breath, constant dropping in the first remedy I have ever experienced throat, hawking and spitting, terrible headache, relief, and I feel certain it will cure me. ringing in the ears, and sickening pain in the head directly over either eye. Over [illegible] Mrs. Minnie McNairn, Millbrook, Ont., powders and douches, but all to no effect, writes:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did only resulting from the use of each a me much good. The feeling soon disappeared temporary relief, followed by the usual symbefore I had used half a bottle, and I find myself toms in a more aggravating form. The results receiving the greatest benefit from its use. I arising from the use of NASAL BALM are sweet am certain NASAL BALM will cure any breath, stoppage of the droppings into the throat Catarrh if its (consequently) less hawking and spitting, clearuse is persevered with. ness of hearing, and not once since using it have we been troubled with headache. Mr. Johnson Adams, Brantford, Ont., says:—I have used NASAL BALM for my catarrh, and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

Mr. Wm. Doyle, Bruslah, Ont., writes:—As a family medicine to check catarrhal affections of the Head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Mr. A. Schlemig, Berlin, Ont., says:—For a number of years my wife has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr.— have promised to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months she became worse and weaker than ever, and I found that my self spent $35 for medical treatment that did no good. My wife began to use your NASAL BALM, and improved wonderfully, and she is now stronger than for years. Your remedy is the best in the market and you can use this as testimony.

Emilie Pattitier, Grenville, says:—I was covered and words fail to tell you how highly I prize NASAL BALM. Its effects in my case have been wonderful.

Alpha H. Dales, Turbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

Jas. Mink River Road, N.B., says:—I have tried [illegible] remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM is certainly the BEST REMEDY I have tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is pleasant and convenient to use adds greatly to its [illegible], but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease.—Ed.

W. Chas. Hanley, postmaster, [illegible], says:—I submit the following to [illegible] that any who may be afflicted may be benefitted by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Henrietta Blackwell, Parkhill, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for Catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

A CAUTION;—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to take any other remedy which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you on receipt of price—50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

FULFORD & CO., Brockville, Ont.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

AFTER A DOG'S BITE

A Boy Goes Insane and it Takes two Policemen to Master Him.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Henry Daub, a 15-year-old apprentice in a piano factory, suddenly became insane yesterday morning at the residence of his father, No. 82 First-avenue. He imagined that there was a conspiracy to poison him, and he made several attempts to spring from the windows. The neighbors sent to the police for assistance, and Patrolmen Bolger and Reilly were detailed. They were met by young Daub, who was wild with delirium and possessed with the strength of a wild beast. Finally, when his strength was exhausted, the stalwart policemen bound the boy lunatic hands and feet and had him removed to a padded cell in Bellevue Hospital.

Two weeks ago Daub was bitten on the hand by a dog, but suffered no inconvenience. He manifested no symptoms of hydrophobia—there was no frothing at the mouth, nor did he show any aversion to water. His father and his friends are convinced that the sudden development of insanity is due entirely to hereditary causes, his grandmother being crazy. The Bellevue physicians will watch Daub closely for hydrophobic tendencies.

Charged With Attempted Jury Fixing.

TALLAHASSE, Fla., Dec 19.—F E. Hughes, a prominent attorney of Gainesville was arrested last night charged with attempting to influence members of the grand jury in the matter of indicting A. B. Thrasher, recently released on $10,000 bail after having shot and killed Louis Witkowski, mayor of Starke. Hughes is an intimate friend of Thrasher and made strenuous efforts to secure his discharge

IS HE INSANE?

An Interesting Rumor About Constable Griggs of Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Dec. 19.—The report of Constable Chris Griggs' disappearance and the subsequent discovery of his whereabouts in Detroit created quite a flutter of excitement in circles where he was well known and looked upon as an honest, faithful officer. The explanation offered by the Chief of Police is that Griggs is out of his mind and merely wandered away while demented. This explanation is accepted by many whom know him well, but there are others who do not place any reliance in the insanity theory. It is claimed by these people that there is more in the disappearance than the public dream of. They even go so far as to say that there was an object in Griggs' visit to Detroit. That he went up there to see a woman who left this city just as suddenly as he did, only about a month previous to the date of his departure. Enquiry has developed the fact that a certain young woman from the West End is missing, but whether there is any connection between the two it is difficult to say.

The pitiable circumstances surrounding the death of little Gertrude Heintzman, who was so fearfully burned a few days since, moved Crown Attorney Crerar to intercede with the Minister of Justice for the release of the child's father, who was sent to jail recently for assaulting his wife. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Crerar received a telegram stating that an order for Heintzman's release had been made out and sent to the Central Prison, so that Heintzman would be immediately discharged.

"The devil's church" is what Evangelist Hunter calls the theatre. He made a savage attack upon the play houses last night, denominating them dens of iniquity and vice, frequented by gamblers and drunkards.

The Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway Company has given notice that at the next session of the Ontario Assembly and Dominion Parliament it will apply for an amendment to the charter giving it power to amalgamate with or making running arrangements with the Brantford, Waterloo and Lake Erie Railway, Canada Southern, or to lease to or make running or traffic arrangements with any other railway company other than the Grand Trunk Railway or Canadian Pacific Railway; also to enlarge the bonding power of the railway and to increase the capital stock; also to extend the line from a point near the city of Hamilton to a point in the county of Brant.

Uncle Sam's Wealth.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The World has obtained from the treasurer of each State the value of property as assessed for taxation. The census office in 1880 made a report of its exhaustive and laborious inquiry into the proportions existing in each State between taxed property and actual wealth, which ranges between 25 per cent in Illinois and 68 in Wyoming. The World's report shows an increase in taxable property $8,963,000,000, and increase of actual wealth of $18,162,000,000. The total wealth is $61,459,000,000, exclusive of public property and $3,063,000,000 property invested and owned abroad.

Threatened by Nihilists.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 20.—Col. Charles de Arnaud, the well-known Russian who has been many years resident in this country and prominent because of his opposition to Nihilism, has received letters purporting to come from the Central Committee of Russian Nihilists in New York, in which he is given notice that his "removal" has been resolved upon. The letter ends with the words, "Prepare to meet your fate," and is signed in red ink with a skull and cross-bones.

The Monongahela Miners' Strike.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 19.—A general resumption of work by the miners of the Monongahela Valley is looked for by the first of the year. A number of operators have conceded the demands of the strikers. The strike was inaugurated six weeks ago and affects 5000 men.

Bad For the Reading Miners.

READING, Pa., Dec. 18.—The Reading Railway Company to-day posted notices that the miners and laborers in all their collieries throughout the Schuylkill region will be put on three-quarter time on and after next Monday to continue indefinitely. Individual collieries will also go on three-fourths time. This action affects the wages of 20,000 men and boys.

Expensive Wards.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 18.—A lumberman who has explored the whole northern region states the Government has lost $8,000,000 in timber dues alone since 1882 through fires set by Indians. He says $100,000,000 would not cover the amount of timber destroyed by fire between Lake Dauphin and Lake Winnipeg. The Indians set the fires to drive game and signal friends.

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so-called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and flatulence, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

Rheumatic Pains

require no description, since, with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundation. The most successful treatment known, and it is not frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the sufferer. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottle of Nerviline can be had at the drug stores for ten cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6w51

Important to Workingmen.

A Common Cold

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was

I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Rogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it

The Best Remedy

Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who knew me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark.

A POETICAL TRIBUTE
—TO—
HONEST DEALING.

A grateful customer of Messrs. H. LEBRUN & Co. has been moved to put into verse the following truthful tribute to the excellence of this firm's goods. Truth and poetry do not always go together, but in this case they go hand in hand. There is no exaggeration nor poetical license in the following lines:—

Last night I had a pleasant dream, and well I did enjoy it,
In sleep I scaled Parnassus' height, and awoke a full fledged poet;
I tarried not to eat nor drink, but quickly grasped my pen
To tell in verse how cheaply we could clothe our fellowmen.
Our prices make the rich to smile, the poor with joy to shout,
We are resolved from this henceforth to knock the bottom out;
The man must strike some unseen notch, and shout up from below
That undersells the clothing store of H. LeBrun & Co.
Our choice five dollar overcoats, our genial salesmen shows,
Will keep you warm as a pie in the wildest storm that blows.
No ground up rags, no shoddy stuff, no mill pressed glue and hair,
But every thread spun from the sheep—fine, cheap, and made to wear.
You need not walk round shabby dressed, our prices must you convince,
Our seven dollar suits will dress you stylish as a prince.
For two and fifty we will clothe your boy from head to toe
Right in the City Clothing Store of H. LeBrun & Co.
Our line of ready-made is good, choices you will receive,
Examine, choose and purchase cloth; with us your order leave.
We guarantee to cut and stitch complete as you commandi,
For style and finish every part here unsurpassed we stand.
Young gents that wish a stylish suit, for concert, church or ball,
Will have their true wish gratified, by giving us a call.
Out walking, or in sitting room your girl will wish to know
If you had bought that pretty suit from H. LeBrun & Co.
Our expert cutter measures true and strikes each new design,
With skilful hand his shears play crack, round angle, curve or line,
Our tailor's work, neat, strong, complete, o'er all the hot goose steams,
Leaving no wrinkles in the back, nor puckers in the seams.
We don't believe in paper puffs that float off like a kite,
Our goods and prices come and test, as proofs of what we write.
No shoddy pressed, no ripping seams, air holes in two weeks show,
Cheapness and wear the motto is at H. LeBrun's & Co.
Before eighteen and eight-nine bids us a last adieu,
To all our patrons, rich and poor, thanks we return to you,
Fair honest dealing in the past upholds our business name,
And in the future, we resolve strict to pursue the same,
Come old and new friends, welcome come, Christmas is drawing nigh,
How you will smile to see how much a trifling sum will buy.
With pleasure we will suit your wants and salute you as you go,
With all the season's compliments, of H. LeBrun & Co.

The Authorship of "Thoth"

To substantiate his claims to the authorship of "Thoth" and "A Dreamer of Dreams", Gerald L. Marston Pogue sends the Lindsay Post the manuscript of "The Angel of the Torch," an Algonquin love story, which he purposes publishing in instalments. The opening chapters display an evident literary talent on the part of the writer. The Post, however, in the same issue publishes a letter from Wm. Blackwood & Sons, Edinburgh, asserting most positively that the author of "Thoth" is an English gentlemen of high position and repute. So the vexed question of the authorship of "Troth" is no nearer settlement than before.

Why Went People Understand?

It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

The Nora Clench Concert.

Every day adds to the certainty of the concert on Jan. 9th being an extraordinary musical treat. Miss Clench is fulfilling in the most successful degree, the predictions of the Leipziger Nachrichten—"She rises a bright star in the heaven of art." Thursday night she appeared in Guelph with unbounded success, and Friday night in Galt; and so great was the enthusiasm she awakened, that the largest halls were hardly able to contain the audiences which came to be charmed. On January 9th she will give three numbers, but it might or well be made six—for she is never allowed to escape without an encore. There will also be exquisite vocal solos by Mrs. Chambers and Mr. Dean—in fine the best concert of the season, on Jan. 9

Previous to the last number, Miss Maggie Doherty on behalf of the class read a dutiful address to His Lordship the Bishop, which concluded by wishing him a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

His Lordship, in acknowledgement, said he was exceedingly pleased with the entertainment the pupils had presented. The progress made in the short period of four months was very satisfactory. The beginners even did excellently, considering the short time they had been engaged at a study requiring so much application and practice. The success achieved was creditable both to the pupils and to their teachers, especially to Sister St. Aubert, who had charge of this department. He hoped they would continue to exercise energy and application in the delightful study of music, and [persevere so that they would, as he hoped they might do, prove a credit to themselves and to the good sisters. In conclusion he wished them a pleasant Christmas and hoped they would enjoy their holidays. The pupils then retired, worthy of the compliment of having acquitted themselves most creditably.

Ashburnham Brevities.

The public school closes to-day for the holidays, and will re-open on Tuesday, Jan. 7th.

Six candidates from this school wrote on the entrance examination.

Mr. W. Packenham, who has held the position of English Master for the past year in the Smith's Falls High School, and who has resigned that position, is spending his vacation at home. He goes to Toronto University next year to complete his art course, having completed two years already.

The stores are putting on their holiday attire, that of Mr. E. B. Bort being particularly attractive.

The annual statement of the receipts and expenditures and assets and liabilities which was ordered to be printed by the council has been issued, and copies may be had from the clerk, Mr. J. Wood.

Probably no part of the statement can be found fault with so much as the assets. Here actually appears the sum of $336.48 of uncollected taxes for 1888. It appears unnecessary allowing taxes to remain unpaid for such a length of time. Were the ratepayers alive to the fact that they are paying a high rate of interest for borrowed money to make up this deficiency, there is no doubt they would make more serious complaints. If the collector has not authority to collect these taxes then he should be given orders at once. There is no reason why one man should be called upon to pay his taxes for this year when another has not paid his for last year. Then out of over $6000 taxes for 1889 only about $1000 taxes are collected, when nearly one fourth the year has gone since the taxes were due. The other items of the statement will no doubt be satisfactory to the great majority of the ratepayers.

Police Court.

SATURDAY, Dec. 21.

In the police court this morning Wm. Fanning was tried on a charge of having burglarized James Fanning's laundry Monday night last. A number of witnesses gave evidence, that of Howard Harper and Robt. Duncan being particularly damaging. Harper confessed to being with Fanning when the latter went into the lane alongside the office, broke a window, rummaged around inside and came out the door. He afterwards gave Harper some money and a check to keep until next day. Harper got drunk, and Duncan took some money and the check from his pocket, at Fanning's suggestion bearing up the check, as he did not think it was worth anything.

The magistrate reserved judgment until Monday, when Harper, who pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property, will also be sentenced.

The lad, Eddie Herron, accused of the theft of a hand sleigh, was discharged under suspended sentence.

Walter and Arthur Herron, two brothers, about twelve years of age, pleaded guilty to the theft of a camping stove from Mr. W. H. Moore, and were remanded for sentence.

In a Good Man's Memory.

In the George street Methodist church tomorrow, the pastor, Rev. M. L. Pearson will deliver an address, having special reference to the death of the late Rev. John A. Williams, D.D., General Superintendent of the Methodist church.

A Double Farewell.

The Officers of the George Street Church and Sunday School Say Good-Bye to Messrs. Colbeck and Dingle—Mr. Colbeck's Class Remembers Miss Also.

Friday evening a gathering of a somewhat unusual nature took place in the school room of the George Street Methodist Church, when the officers of the church and Sunday school teachers with their wives met together to tender a formal farewell in two of their estimable fellow-workers and brethren in Christ, who are about leaving town. The ladies provided a bountiful repast, and there were few vacant seats at the two long tables spread with toothsome edibles. About half past eight the supper was begun, Rev. Messrs. Pearson and Wilson occupying the chairs.

After tea the company was called to order by Mr. H. S. Griffin, who acted as chairman of the proceedings. After a well rendered vocal duet by Messrs. Bowman and Miller, Mr. D. W. Dumble stepped forward and read the following address, prefacing it with a few remarks regarding the regret he felt at Mr. Colbeck's leaving town. Mr. Colbeck was a gentleman of Christian character and an energetic worker, and, under the circumstances, it appeared to be advisable to give some manifestation of their confidence in and esteem for Mr. Colbeck before he left for his new home. Following is

THE ADDRESS:

F. C. Colbeck, Esq., B.A.:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—As you are about to sever your connection with the church and Sunday school, we feel it incumbent upon us to express to you our appreciation of the services rendered by you, and the regret we feel at losing from our midst one who has been so helpful and faithful in the duties imposed upon him.

During these two years you have been connected with the church you have by your Christian character and integrity gained the confidence of all who know you, and that as you are about to enter upon an enlarged sphere of usefulness, with duties more arduous and responsible, we pray that God's richest blessings may rest upon you, and as you train and teach those entrusted to your care, you yourself may be taught of Christ.

It will be our pleasure to hear of your success in Dundas, which we feel sure will follow your efforts, and pray that many years of useful service await you and your estimable wife.

We all join heartily in wishing you and Mrs. Colbeck a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Signed on behalf of the George street Methodist church,

M. L. PEARSON, Pastor,
D. W. DUMBLE, Recording Steward,
J. A. FIFE, M. D., Treasurer,
W. J. MASON, Secretary,
HERBERT S. GRIFFIN, Supt. S. S.

Peterborough, Dec. 20th, 1889.

Mr. Colbeck made a touching reply, expressing his thanks for the kind words spoken of himself and his wife, and assuring his friends he would always cherish these evidences of their esteem, for though there was that which was not pleasant in his remembrances of Peterborough, still there was much that was pleasant, and he would always try to merit the kind words contained in the address.

Rev. M. L. Pearson, Rev. A. C. Wilson, Dr. Fife, Mr. Wm. Yelland and Mr Geo. S. Bean each made short addresses referring in highly complimentary terms to Mr. Colbeck as a Christian gentleman, whose removal they much regretted.

Mrs. Bradburn and Mrs. Sperry sang, "Shall we know Each Other There," Mr. Sperry joining in the chorus.

MR. DINGLE REMEMBERED.

Mr. A. C. Scott then advanced as read the following address:—

MR. W. H. DINGLE.

DEAR FRIEND AND BROTHER—We, the teachers and officer's of the George street Methodist Sabbath school, desire to express our regret that you have decided to remove from our midst. You have been faithful in your attendance at our school as organist and teacher.

We gladly bear testimony to the earnestness you have shown in your desire to promote the welfare of the school, and we hope that wherever you may go, you always may be followed with God's blessing and benediction. We will always be pleased to hear of your success in new fields of labor, and trust that your whole life may be one of happiness and usefulness. We heartily join in wishing you a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Signed on behalf of the school.

HERBERT S. GRIFFIN,
Supt. S. School.
A. E. SCOTT,
Sec-Treas. S. S.

Peterborough, Dec. 20th, 1889.

Mr. Dingle made a suitable acknowledgment, stating the pleasure it had always given him to take part in the different departments of church work; and he particularly regretted leaving Peterborough because of his connection with the Sunday school. He would ever remember the kind treatment he had received at the hands of his friends of the George Street Church.

Messrs. H. S. Griffin, Wm. Might and A. H. Strike rose a few words in support of the statements contained in the address.

During an interval Mr. Bowman sang a solo.

Mr. Dumble said that, in spite of all that had occurred in the past, the church officials entertained the kindest feelings towards Mr. Dingle, and recognized in him a man of consistent Christian conduct and upright character.

Rev. Mr. Pearson endorsed Mr. Dumble's remarks, and added an expression of his high opinion of Mr. Dingle's musical abilities, which he always gave cheerfully to the church.

Mr. A. Rutherford and Mr. J. J. Hartley also made a few remarks in the same complimentary vein.

MR. COLBECK FURTHER HONORED.

Mr. Colbeck's Bible class came forward, and Mr. A E. Dixon read the subjoined address, the Bible and hymn-book accompanying it being presented by Miss Gamble.

The address read as follows:—

To F. C. Colbeck, Esq., B.A.:—

DEAR TEACHER,—We the members of your Bible Class in the George street Methodist Sunday School, Peterborough, learning that you are about to remove from our midst, felt that we could not allow you to depart without in some way giving expression to our regard for you.

We beg to assure you of our complete confidence in your high character, and integrity as a Christian gentlemen, as well as your zeal, skill and ability as an instructor, and to thank you for the many useful lessons we have learned, not only from your lips, but from your blameless life and Christ-like character; and while deeply regretting the severance of these pleasant relations that have always existed between us, we beg to congratulate you on your promotion to a higher sphere of usefulness.

Please accept as a slight token of our love and esteem the accompanying Bible and hymn book, with the wish that their truths and doctrines may ever guide you through life to the celestial city where we hope all to meet you never more to part.

Signed on behalf of the class by

A. E. DIXON,
M. GAMBLE.

Peterborough, Dec. 20th, 1889.

Mr. Colbeck replied briefly but feelingly, and the gathering dispersed.

A Lecture to Late Comers.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR EDITOR,—I was much pleased to hear the gentle gentlemanly rebuke administered last night to late comers at the lecture by the Rev. Prof. Clark and hope it may have a general satisfactory effect upon all who are in the habit of putting in a late appearance, not only in the opera house, but also at other halls and places where public entertainments are given, for it is a notorious fact that without exception at every entertainment, musical or otherwise, many there are who seemingly make it a rule to walk in and oftentimes to the most remote (or nearly so) part of the hall, thereby disturbing not only the occupants of the platform, but the audience, and not unfrequently at passages where one would wish not to be disturbed.

Another matter I wish to refer to, is, that although an entertainment is advertised to commence, say at 8 o'clock, the majority of persons do not put in an appearance until 15, 20 and even more minutes past the hour named, thereby delaying the whole proceedings, as naturally those who are to entertain like to see the seats well filled before they commence. The effect is that those who do take their places in proper time are compelled to sit and gaze on the beauties before them, in the shape of the lovely headscape and other works of art, no doubt from the first masters (?), the graceful lines of the not just black stove pipes, and other ornaments "too numerous to mention" on the gentlemen's bills my. "Forbear say."

Yours obliged,

ONE OF THE AUDIENCE.

A Queer Christmas Box.

An honest Emily farmer, who has gained a reputation for being very close-fisted, surprised a neighbor by saying that he was going to make his wife a handsome Christmas present. "What is it?" Why, I bought five yards of flannel for one dollar, for her to make me some shirts." This is wondrously liberal. If he had bought five pounds of good tea at hawley bros., he would have saved enough to pay for the wear and tear on his conscience, caused by his reckless generosity. The best and finest crops of teas and fragrant coffees at the lowest prices, at hawley bros. If you want to enjoy your Christmas dinner, don't neglect to buy the materials for your tea and coffees at hawley bros.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mango," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. sm

THE REPUBLICAN AGITATION IN PORTUGAL AND SPAIN

Dom Pedro Banished From Brazil—Alarming Reports About President Fonseca—The Borgo Pinto Incident.

BERLIN, Dec. 21.—The Emperor has been so ill as to be compelled to keep his bed since Thursday morning. He arose for the first time to-day and received official reports. His malady was a catarrh with fever and provoked a recurrence of the old trouble with his ear. There was also in his throat more than the usual trouble experienced in such cases. An injudicious note on the subject printed in The National Zeitung intended to reassure the public, had a contrary effect and caused almost incessant enquiries to be made at the palace. The Emperor forbade the publication of bulletins, received his friends in his bedroom, the leading officials who called, and treated his illness in a jesting spirit. His trouble originated in a cold, caught while the Emperor watched the effect of a night alarm on the garrison at Potsdam, one of his military amusements being to test the rapidity with which the various regiments can be turned out at unexpected moments.

But that is not His Majesty's only military amusement. At the field manœuvres at Bornstedt a regiment of cavalry was suddenly ordered to advance at full gallop. It rode helter skelter down the badly lighted streets of Potsdam. Some of the horses were killed and several of the townspeople were ridden down and badly hurt. This caused much public irritation and was one of the reasons why there was very little sympathy with the Emperor in his illness among his people in that part of the Empire.

For many days now the attention of the Foreign Office has been centred upon the developments in Brazil and the threatened contre coup in Portugal. Long daily dispatches from Lisbon and Madrid have confirmed the intelligence that Portugal is likely to follow the example set by Brazil The Government here share the uneasiness felt in every chancelery in Europe. If Portugal takes fire the movement of the Portuguese Republicans will, it is believed, be the signal for a rising in Spain and this will be followed by agitations in Italy and by a general upheavil of the social forces throughout Europe.

The militant attitude of the Portuguese Government towards England over the Zambesi dispute is recognised here as necessary to strengthen the position of the King of Portugal at home, where any accidental failure of strength at this moment would be made much of in the interest of the Radical party. Prince Bismarck, it is reported, has written to the Marquis of Salisbury expressing the hope that nothing will be done to humiliate the Portuguese Ministry in view of the Imperial catastrophe in Brazil and the position of the monarchy in Portugal face to face with similar forces to those that cast down Dom Pedro.

An article in The National Zeitung appeals to the forbearance of the English Government. The article indicates that Bismarck favors the English claims in this difference between the powers. This attitude is due partly to the attempts of the French press to foment an irritation in Portugal against England.

DOM PEDRO BANISHED.

The Brazilian General Election Fixed for Sept. 15 Next.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 21.—An executive decree promulgated to-day fixes the date of the general election for Sept. 15 and the meeting of the constituent assembly for Nov. 15. By the same decree the ex-Emperor Dom Pedro is banished from Brazil together with the members of the royal family, the Viscount D'Ouro Preto and his brother Carlos Alfonso. Senator Martino, governor of Rio Grande do Sul, charged with treason as the leader of the movement for the secession of that state is condemned to transportation. The decree recalls and cancels the grant of 5,000,000 milreis to Dom Pedro and suspends his allowance in the civil list.

Prospective Brazilian Secession.

LISBON, Dec. 21.—Reports from Brazil indicate a strong feeling in the provinces of Para and Rio Grande do Sul in favor of separating from the other Brazilian States. They object to being dominated by Rio Janeiro, the interests of the sections being in many ways diverse. Reports of the prospective death of Da Fonseca caused surprise. Fonseca left a sick bed to take part in the revolution and it was hardly to be expected that his condition could mend under the excitement and the arduous labors incident to his present position. Senhor Barbosa, Minister of Finance, has already, on account of Da Fonseca's illness, had more than his share of responsibility thrown upon his shoulders, and it is considered likely that in the event of the provisional president's death Barbosa will assume his place.

The Anglo-Portuguese Quarrel.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The English quarrel with Portugal is becoming more acute. There are now direct charges against Major Serpa Pinto, that he wantonly attacked an African tribe in the Shire highlands which was under English protection, killed many, insulted the English flag, and announced his intention of annexing the whole country up to Lake Nyassa. These charges are sustained by evidence. The Portuguese deny them, and allege that Major Serpa Pinto acted in self-defence. Lord Salisbury has used very firm language to Portugal, but the dispute stands adjourned for further evidence, especially for a report from the English consul, Mr. C. Johnston, who is now accused by the Portuguese of fomenting the trouble. The Portuguese are angry. The English take things quietly, being quite certain of having their own way in the end. The French press takes up the Portuguese quarrel, with its usual readiness to believe evil of the English

British Vessels Ordered to Delagoa Bay.

CAPETOWN, Dec 21 — The flagship Raleigh, the corvette Curacoa and the torpedo cruiser Brisk of the British Cape of Good Hope and West Coast of Africa squadron have been ordered to proceed immediately to Delagoa Bay.

The Emergency Was Urgent.

LISBON, Dec. 21.—Senhor Gomes, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has summoned the cabinet to consider Lord Salisbury's note calling upon Portugal to repudiate the acts of her agents on the Zambesi River and demanding the restoration of the status quo as it existed before the recent expedition of Serpa Pinto. Owing to the urgency of the matter Portugal's reply to the note, which will be amicable, will be telegraphed to London to-night.

Boycotting an Offence at Common Law.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Justice Grantham's decision at the Liverpool Assizes, that boycotting is an offence against the common law of England, is important. Boycotted Irish cattle from the Massereene estate having been brought to England for sale, two League emissaries followed them and warned and threatened dealers not to buy them. They were indicted for conspiracy, tried, convicted and sentenced to three months imprisonment. It is said, I believe, disputed that this is good law. Two results follow Mr. Gladstone will have to modify his defence of boycotting as merely exclusive dealing, and the frequent charge that a combination which is lawful in England is unlawful in Ireland must be dropped. When a combination becomes in either country a conspiracy to prevent a man from carrying on his business, it is unlawful in both countries, and throughout the civilized world as well.

THE AGITATION IN SPAIN.

Rioting in the Province of Oviedo—The Republicans Active.

Special to The World.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—The agitation in Spain in favor of a republic continues. It is not so openly conducted in Madrid as it was a fortnight ago. The republican bodies are as active and busy as ever, but have turned their attention to the provinces where, the movement is spreading and gaining strength. A special dispatch from Madrid this afternoon reports that the efforts of the authorities to keep down the agitation in the province of Oviedo, caused a riot in the town of Gigon on the north coast. The Liberals and Republicans assembled in large numbers and refused to disperse. The police were unable to restore order. The Governor-General of Oviedo was sent for and appeared on the scene with two regiments of infantry, when the streets were cleared and quiet restored. During the rioting one man was killed and two badly wounded. A number of arrests have been made.

There are symptoms of trouble in other towns. The Spanish Republicans are in constant communication with their political friends in Portugal. Senor Castellar has all in hand. He is acting with remarkable moderation and reserve. He approves of political agitation within legal bounds and deprecates violent measures on the part of the Republicans or the Government.

The Slavin-Smith Fight.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—It is stated that the fight between Slavin, the Australian pugilist, and Jem Smith will take place to-morrow in a racquet court at Bruges, Belgium.

ALIVE BUT VERY LOW

The Provisional President of Brazil on His Death Bed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The announcement was received here to-night that President Fonseca of Brazil died to-day at Rio Janeiro.

A later cablegram from Rio Janeiro contradicts the report of Fonseca's death. He is still alive but very low.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The Brazilian legation here announces that the illness of President Da Fonseca is not serious.

The bodies of the thirteen victims of the Cleddy disaster have been recovered.

It is announced that a proclamation will shortly be issued declaring Massowah a free port.

As a result of the recent strike of the mother-of-pearl workers in Austria their wages have been advanced 35 per cent.

A disease of the eye is epidemic among the children attending the schools at Worms, and all of the institutions of learning in that city are consequently closed.

At an uproarious meeting in Paris attended by 600 Boulangists a resolution was adopted protesting against the election of M. Joffrion to the Chamber of Deputies.

All the colliers in the greatest mines in the Charlevoi district have gone on strike. They paraded the streets, making a very turbulent demonstration. The civic guard was called out.

The soldiers comprising the Papal army are henceforth to be armed and equipped with guns, uniforms, and accoutrements, patterned after those in use in the Prussian military service.

The Anarchist Frattini, who threw a bomb from the Chamber of Deputies in Rome into the Piazza Colonna in August last, was sentenced Saturday to 15 years' imprisonment. As he was led from the dock he cried "Long Live Anarchy!"

The Russian Government has issued a decree imposing additional limitations upon traffic on the German frontier, making the regulations governing commerce almost prohibitive. A general outcry has been raised against the new order on both sides of the border line, but it is unlikely that the protest will compel a modification of the edict.

It is said that the French delegates to the anti-slavery conference at Brussels voted to reject the proposals that British war ships be empowered to search vessels for slaves, owing to their fear, openly expressed, that war on the Continent is imminent and that England would make use of the authority conferred by the resolution to further her own ends.

CULVER'S COMPLAINT.

THE CRANKY CRONIN JUROR MAKES A STATEMENT.

He Denounces the Conduct of the Press, the People and Judge Longenecker—Satisfied With Nobody but Himself.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Juror John Culver, who held out against the infliction of the death penalty in the Cronin trial, sends to a paper here a long statement in answer to published strictures of his conduct. He says in part:

When I was sworn to try the case in which I was empannelled according to law and the evidence I had no idea I should be required to satisfy the popular clamor, and I now think jury trials have become the veriest farce, if it is true that one must suit his verdict to the demands of newspapers or public opinion or be denounced or maligned and his action attributed to the most detestable of all corruption—bribery—his religion derided and even his wife and family dragged in to enhance the sensation.

Among the natural fruits of this passionate and clamorous treatment on the part of the newspapers alluded to I class the numerous published interviews of persons not sworn to try the case and the conduct of Judge Longenecker in stepping out of the sphere of his duties as prosecuting officer and assuming that of censor of jurors when, forsooth, their verdict happens not to be in accordance with his desires, and the many obscure and threatening letters which myself and my wife have received.

That there was a foul conspiracy to murder Dr. Cronin and that he was foully murdered was the unhesitating verdict of every juror, but if it is true that there are counter sects or societies, as some of these letters indicate, plotting death to jurors that do not find their verdicts according to the desires of the members of these societies to what a pack have we come and in what a perilous position stand our courts of justice! If I am to be the next victim of these feuds I shall have nothing to regret except that the law made it my duty to be a juror in this important case and that the state of public feeling is such as to make it possible that such an outrage can be committed upon one who has endeavored to discharge his duty to the best of his ability.

A number of abusive, obscene and threatening letters which Culver has received since the verdict was rendered are also published.

FATAL STREET FIGHT.

A Pensacolan Resents an Insult to His Wife by Her Ex Husband.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Dec. 22.—Yesterday J. M. Thompson and J. F. Carter, prominent citizens, engaged in a fight here on the street. Carter was stabbed and killed. Thompson's wife was the divorced wife of Carter. She is the daughter of a wealthy lumber merchan and married Carter eight years ago. Carter failed to properly provide for her and she procured a divorce. Less than a year ago she married Thompson, a leading grocer. Since then Carter has repeatedly insulted her. Yesterday Thompson and his wife were conversing on the street. Carter passed, applying to Mrs. Thompson as he brushed by, a very objectionable epithet which her husband resented. The two men clinched, Carter falling on top. As Mrs. Thompson stooped to separate them, a stream of blood from a wound in the neck of her former husband spurted into her face. Thompson had severed Carter's jugular vein, and stabbed him once through the right lung and inflicted several other ugly wounds in different parts of his body. All the parties are highly connected. Public sentiment is strongly with Thompson, who is under arrest.

The Grain Rate Cut.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—Advices from Memphis say that to offset the eastern cut on the grain rate to 20 cents per 100 pounds from Chicago to the Atlantic seaboard the Kansas City, Texas, Fort Scott and Memphis, Friday made a through rate of 22 cents from Kansas City to New Orleans on export grain. This has caused a phenomenal increase of the grain traffic through Memphis for the Gulf and South Atlantic ports, and more than 12,000,000 bushels of grain will be transported to Mobile and New Orleans via Memphis for export to Liverpool.

A Chinaman Flogged With the Cat.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 21.—The flogging of Ah Ris, the Chinaman who was sentenced to twenty lashes for an assault on a little girl, took place at Calgary yesterday. The Chinaman was stripped to the waist and fastened by straps to a triangle, when Sergt. Hooper took his stand at the left of the victim, cat in hand. It had a tail of fifteen inches with knots at the end of each. After the first stroke blue welts appeared on the yellow skin. The victim yelled from start to finish.

GUILTY BUT INSANE.

THE JURY'S VERDICT IN THE ST. JOHN MURDER TRIAL.

McDonald to be Sent to an Insane Asylum—The Prisoner Unconcerned—General Satisfaction with the Result.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Dec. 22.—At the opening of the court Saturday morning Solicitor-General Pugsley commenced his address to the jury in the McDonald case and occupied the time of the court until 12.30, when an adjournment was had for dinner. The court re-assembled at 2 and Judge King commenced his charge to the jury, concluding at 3.35.

During the afternoon and evening there was an immense crowd of people around the court waiting for the verdict. Shortly after 9 word was passed around that the jury had agreed on a verdict and a few minutes later Judge King appeared and took his seat on the bench. The jury filed slowly into court and took their places and the prisoner appeared under a strong guard and entered the dock.

All eyes were turned on the jury as the clerk addressed them in the customary manner, and there was a deathlike silence as Foreman Enoch W. Paul arose and made this announcement:

"The jury are of opinion that the prisoner is guilty, with the plea of insanity."

"Gentlemen, I heartily concur in the verdict," said Judge King.

While this verdict was being put in legal form and recorded C. A. Stockton approached the prisoner and whispered to him the meaning of the verdict, but McDonald showed no anxiety in the matter, and simply stared Stockton in the face for half a minute and then looked down at his boots. He then in as unconcerned a manner as at any day since his arrest stooped down, put on his rubbers without displaying nervousness and quietly stood up and put on his overcoat. In fact, he displayed no apparent interest in the proceedings whatever, and did not in the least seem to realise his position.

He was remanded to jail to be kept under close confinement, and to-morrow or Tuesday the Solicitor-General will move for his committment to the Insane Asylum during the pleasure of the Crown. It is quite probable he will be sent to the Criminal Insane Asylum at Kingston. The verdict is one which gives general satisfaction.

TORONTO TOPICS.

McMahon to be Hanged on Jan 13—Two Churches Dedicated.

TORONTO, Dec. 23.—The Justices of the Queen's Bench Division on Saturday gave judgment at Osgoode Hall affirming the conviction of the Chatham murderer, Benjamin McMahon, who was tried at the last Kent Assizes before Mr. Justice Rose and sentenced to be hanged on Dec. 13. A HORRIBLE BUTCHERY.

Charles Shelar of Niles, O., Kills his Wife-Three Children and Himself.

NILES, O., Dec. 22.—This community was startled this evening by the discovery of a horrible butchery. The victims are Charles Shelar and wife and three children and the crime is supposed to have taken place early this morning. When the deed was discovered all five bodies were stiff and cold, with their throats cut from ear to ear. Shelar and his wife were lying together across the foot of the bed, and the three children were on the floor in different parts of the house. Shelar was a milliman and had steady employment, but of late drank heavily and it is rumored that he and his wife did not live happily together. The weapon used was a razor and was purchased by Shelar Saturday. The street in front of the house was densely packed with excited people to-day.

THE WAR OF THE RACES.

A Mississippi Town Under Arms—Half-a-Dozen Men Wounded.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—Meagre reports came here last night that a riot was in progress at Potts' Camp, Miss., 65 miles from Memphis. The trouble was precipitated by a fight between a white man and a negro, in which the latter was worsted. He went out from town, collected a party of friends and returned to clean out the victor. The whites rallied and fighting ensued all around. Half-a-dozen were wounded but none were killed. The latest advices were that everybody was in arms and further trouble was expected.

Three negroes were jailed. Last night an unsuccessful attempt was made to release the prisoners by the blacks when a riot ensued and two negroes, Tom McGhee and Henry Starks, were shot, the latter dying almost instantly. About 25 shots were exchanged.

The trouble originated over the ownership of a dog.

May Revert to the Treaty of 1818.

OTTAWA, Dec. 21.—It is reported that the Dominion Government will announce its intention during the coming session of Parliament to revert to the treaty of 1818, because the American Government showed no desire to negotiate for a settlement of the Atlantic fishery question. The modus vivendi extended from last year for another twelve months will expire February.

The Daily Smash.

LIMA, O., Dec. 21.—A freight train on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, broke in two-to-day near here and the rear half clashed into the train following. IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 308 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 76 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

A Young Girl's Grief

at seeing her charms of face and form departing, and her health imperilled by functional irregularities, at her critical period o' life, was turned to joy and gratitude after a brief self treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It purified and enriched her blood, gave a healthy activity to the kidneys, stomach, bowels, and other organs, and her return to robust health speedily followed. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. a

WHILE working in a lumber camp a year ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, I got no relief until I tried Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which cured me entirely. I highly recommend it.

A POETICAL TRIBUTE
—TO—
HONEST DEALING.

A grateful customer of MESSRS. H. LEBRUN & Co. has been moved to put into verse the following truthful tribute to the excellence of this firm's goods. Truth and poetry do not always go together, but in this case they go hand in hand. There is no exaggeration nor poetical license in the following lines:—

Last night I had a pleasant dream, and well I did enjoy it,
In sleep I scaled Parnassus' height, and awoke a full fledged poet;
I tarried not to eat nor drink, but quickly grasped my pen
To tell in verse how cheaply we could clothe our fellowmen.
Our prices make the rich to smile, the poor with joy to shout,
We are resolved from this henceforth to knock the bottom out;
The man must strike some unseen notch, and shoot up from below
That undersells the clothing store of H. LeBrun & Co.

Our choice five dollar overcoats, our genial salesmen shows,
Will keep you warm as a pie in the wildest storm that blows.
No ground up rags, no shoddy stuff, no mill pressed glue and hair,
But every thread spun from the sheep—fine, cheap, and meant to wear.
You need not walk round shabby dressed, our prices must you convince,
Our seven dollar suits will dress you stylish as a prince.
For two and fifty we will clothe your boy from head to toe
Right in the City Clothing Store of H. LeBrun & Co.

Our line of ready-made is good, choices you will receive,
Examine, choose and purchase cloth; with us your order leave.
We guarantee to cut and stitch complete as you command,
For style and finish every part here unsurpassed we stand.
Young gents that wish a stylish suit, for concert, church or ball,
Will have their true wish gratified, by giving us a call.
Out walking, or in sitting room your girl will wish to know
If you had bought that pretty suit from H. LeBrun & Co.

Our expert cutter measures true and strikes each new design,
With skilful hand his shears play crack, round angle, curve or line.
Our tailor's work, neat, strong, complete, o'er all the hot goose steams,
Leaving no wrinkles in the back, nor puckers in the seams.
We don't believe in paper puffs that float off like a kite
Our goods and prices come and test, as proofs of what we write.
No shoddy pressed, no ripping seams, air holes in two weeks show,
Cheapness and wear the motto is at H. LeBrun's & Co.

Before eighteen and eight-nine bids us a last adieu,
To all our patrons, rich and poor, thanks we return to you.
Fair honest dealing in the past upholds our business name,
And in the future, we resolve strict to pursue the same.
Come old and new friends, welcome come, Christmas is drawing nigh,
How you will smile to see how much a trifling sum will buy.
With pleasure we will suit your wants and salute you as you go.
With all the season's compliments, of H. LeBrun & Co.

PLUMS FOR THE XMAS PUDDING!

What's Nuts for the Buyers is Fun for Us.

12 DAYS OF SACRIFICE

From now until after Christmas we intend to let everything go! Our great $40,000 Sale, at 50 cents on the dollar, was a great success—in fact, away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Notwithstanding the great business done, there is yet about 1800 Overcoats, and 1900 Suits, and nearly 10,000 pairs of Boots to close out. To convert this into money, we have organised a Grand Sacrifice Sale of our whole stock, for 12 days, and will sell every article in our two big stores at ten per cent advance on cost. Taking into consideration that the goods were bought at 50 cents on the dollar, the reader can readily see that this sacrifice means a saving to the buyer of nearly one hundred per cent; or, in other words, WE PURPOSE FOR TWELVE DAYS GIVING GOLD DOLLARS FOR FIFTY CENT PIECES.

PLUMS FOR THE PUDDING:

$2.95 will buy a Man's All Wool Etoffe Overcoat.
$3.90 will buy a Man's Tweed Overcoat, lined with Heavy Serge, trimmed with Velvet Collar
$5.00 is our sale price, for Twelve Days only, for a Fine Worsted Overcoat.
$9.00 gives you your choice for all $15.00, $16.00 and $18.00 Overcoats.

MAY BE A B. A. IN THREE YEARS.

The Harvard College Faculty Considering an Innovation.

BOSTON, Dec 20.—A new departure in the way of university education is now under consideration by the Harvard Faculty, with the prospects entirely in favor of its adoption. This is the awarding of the degree of bachelor of Arts after three years study. Nowadays a student can't get such a degree unless he takes the full academic course for four years. The result is that a good many young fellows, who are handicapped by a scarcity of money or a lack of time, find themselves unable to take the coveted sheepskin. Under the plan proposed all such students may take the four years' course in three years, but they will have to work that much harder. At present all academic students are required to take 4½ courses each week. Those who study under the new plan will have to take six courses a week. They will thus save a year's time and $600 to $1000 in money.

In conversation to-day, President Eliot said the plan might be adopted by the college at next commencement so that students could enter the new course in the fall. There has been some talk about reducing the four years' course to two, but President Eliot said the idea was preposterous. In the further evolution of this innovation it is said not to be improbable that a man may study wherever he happens to be, and by passing the Harvard annual examinations at Cambridge get a degree just the same as the students in actual attendance at the college.

GOTHAM IN GLOOM.

A Heavy Fog Impedes Travel in the Streets and on the River.

NEW YORK, Dec 20.—New York was enveloped in one of the most disagreeable fogs to-day the city has seen in many years. It was cold, clammy and suggestive of pneumonia. During the day the city was in a twilight haziness and to-night the entire absence of electric lights with the denseness of the fog makes the main thoroughfares very gloomy, while the side streets are almost dark as pitch.

The impediments offered to travel by the fog were greater than have ever been observed before. The elevated trains ran far behind time, while the entrance to the Brooklyn Bridge was in a state of blockade all day. At the Courtland, Barclay and Desbrosses street ferry, where traffic is the heaviest, the boats usually leave every 10 minutes, but to-day and to-night they were not getting out on forty minutes. The Grand-street ferry to Brooklyn was even worse, and all the ferry entrances were blockaded by passengers and vehicles. The Brooklyn Bridge trains were at times badly mixed up and the passengers were badly frightened once or twice. This evening two trains collided on the bridge at Brooklyn terminus. A trainmen had his left leg fractured.

The Fulton ferry boat Minnola, New York to Brooklyn, collided this afternoon in the fog with an unknown tug. The Minnola sustained no damage. The ferry boats Princeton and Monochie of the Hoboken line also collided. The Monochie's bow was so damaged that she had to be laid up on reaching her landing. There was great excitement among the passengers but no one was hurt. Owing to the heavy fog but five vessels arrived by way of Sandy Hook to-day and worked up to quarantine. Not a vessel of any kind ventured out to sea. At 11 o'clock to-night the fog disappeared.

THE EXTRADITION TREATY.

A List of the Offences Which it is Proposed to Cover.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The proposed new extradition treaty between Great Britain and the United States, omits many of the features which caused the rejection of the former draft treaty by the Senate last spring. The list of offences which it is proposed to make extraditable is as follows:

Murder, or attempt or conspiracy to murder.
Manslaughter.
Counterfeiting or altering money, and uttering counterfeit or altered money.
Larceny.
Embezzlement.
Obtaining money or goods under false pretences.
Robbery.
Burglary.
Arson.
Abduction.
Train-wrecking.
Piracy.

Fraud committed by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or member or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.

This list, it will be seen, covers most of the offences committed by the fugitives from American justice now sojourning in Canada. Should the treaty be adopted, therefore, the Dominion will no longer be favored with the sort of immigration from across the border which has been so fashionable of late years.

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so-called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine: in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and fretfulness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

DR. H. A. ARCHER,
111 S. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N.Y.
March 8, 1887.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children." DR. G. C. OSGOOD.

Death Dealing Drugs.

SUCH as Calomel, Morphine, etc., are remedies better left alone. They often weaken even strong constitutions. The Burdock Blood Bitters never does, it contains no mineral or other poison, and cures all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood by unlocking the secretions and removing all impurities. 2w52d

Make no Delay!

IS a perfect cure for croup and colds, and I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil—one bottle of which cured me of a very bad cold. I would say to all sufferers, make no delay in using it as it gives quick relief.

Wild Cherry Bark, Elecampane, Hoarhound and Senega. These are the remedies with which Dame Nature has supplied Canada for the cure of Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Loss of Voice. All these are contained in Wilson's Wild Cherry in their most active form, and with other medicines constitute this most reliable cure for all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Wilson's Wild Cherry is sold by all druggists. dw

Many a sufferer from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, general debility & etc., will be glad to find that Dyers Quinine & Iron Wine, is strongly recommended for such cases—, it is easely assimilated, prepared with great care, and is an admirable tonic. W. A Dyer & Co. Montreal. 6d140

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was Speedily Cured.

I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life.—Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I.

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Pogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it for Colds, Coughs, and all Throat and Lung diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Vanderpool, Meadville, Pa.

Some time ago I took a slight Cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. Those who knew me best considered my life to be in great danger. I continued to suffer until I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Less than one bottle of this valuable medicine cured me, and I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Akron, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered, here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Magnolia, Ark.

Why Went People Understand?

It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

When Miss Clench appeared in Oxford, England, the Oxford Magazine, in referring to her performance said: "It was a treat beyond words to listen to her delicate execution." And it will be a "treat beyond words" to hear her in the Opera House on Jan. 9th. She will also be supported by Mrs. Chambers, soprano soloist of whom the Montreal Gazette says: "Mrs. Chambers is well known as one of our sweetest sopranos, and her singing last evening was of a high order. She sang "Sweethearts" with much taste and effect, for which she was encored. Later on she carried her audience with her and richly deserved the encore she received." Mr. T. Dunn will also contribute a stirring baritone solo or two at the Nora Clench concert in the Opera House on Jan. 9th.

The Railway Scheme.

The Kinmount correspondent of the Bobcaygeon Independent writes that journal in a strain which should afford encouragement to the promoters of the new railway scheme. The letter is as follows:—"The subject of conversation here is the intention of the Peterborough people to construct a railway from that town to this place. It has caused quite a sensation throughout the district. The existing line of railway to Peterborough is about 53 miles in length, and we leave here at eight o'clock in the morning and arrive in Peterborough by noon. Should Peterborough build the new line, it will only be 42 miles to Peterborough, and if we leave at eight in the morning we shall arrive at ten o'clock. This will be a great saving in time, whilst the money saving will be at least thirty-three cents each trip. It is our most earnest hope that the railway will be built. If Galloway were invited to do so, it would, no doubt, give a bonus suited to the wealth, intelligence and prosperity of its farmers. The merchants and property owners of this village would also contribute largely, and I hear from Mr. Dunbar's own lips that he will give to the project all his own personal weight, which, I need not remark, is considerable. Altogether we are much delighted at the prospect; it will be a good thing for Peterborough; boom in that enterprising town will assuredly follow, and we know of no town where a boom is more wanted. We are anxious to help Peterborough in any reasonable manner within our power."

Church Chimes.

At St. Paul's.

Sunday was children's day at St. Paul's church, and in the morning the pastor, Rev. E. F. Torrance preached a special sermon to young people, taking for his subject the slaying of Goliath by David, from which he drew the lesson that there are many Goliath's of sin in the world to be conquered; and as David slew Goliath with a pebble, so we to-day may slay the worldly Goliath's with the small things which go to make up Christian character. In the afternoon a mass meeting of Sunday school children was held in the church, at which a printed order of service was gone through with. It consisted of hymns, responsive readings, and remarks by Mr. Hall, Superintendent, and Rev. Mr. Torrance. Mr. Hall's question concerning the life of David and Absalom, elicited ready replies from the children, and he pointed a moral therefrom. Mr. Hall also stated that the year just cleared was a prosperous one in the history of the Sunday School, as the average attendance had increased to over 300, and the collections by about $40. Rev. Mr. Torrance addressed the children from the text:—"Fear God and obey his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." The children of the school are to be given their tea Friday evening, after which a programme will be rendered.

At the George Street Methodist.

Rev. M. L. Pearson, Sunday evening, paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Williams, Superintendent of the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Pearson spoke from personal acquaintance with the deceased divine, whom he eulogized as one of the greatest and grandest men the Methodist church in Canada ever produced.

Police Court,

Fanning and Harper Sentenced—A Fair Docket This Morning.

MONDAY, Dec. 23.

This morning Police Magistrate Dumble sentenced Wm. Fanning and Howard Harper, the former to one year in the Central Prison for burglary, and the latter to six months in the same institution for receiving stolen goods. The magistrate warned the young men of the terrible degredation to which their sin would inevitably lead them unless they reformed, and on account of their youth and to give them a chance to turn over a new leaf, he made their sentences more lenient than he otherwise would. Fanning received his sentence without betraying the least emotion, but Harper, when reminded of the sorrow he had caused his heart-broken mother, was visibly affected and controlled himself with difficulty.

The two boys Walter and Arthur Herron, convicted of larceny, were further remanded till to morrow for sentence.

Edward Wilson, a mendicant who appeared in the police court not long ago, was again arrested last night as a "vag." Edward owned to the corn, and promised to leave town if allowed to go. "It's that or six months," said the magistrate. "I'll leave at once, yer HONOR," and Edward ambled out joyfully.

Jas Beevan made his first bow before the magistrate this morning on a charge of drunkenness. The magistrate asked him if he would undertake not to appear there again if he was allowed to go. "I'll try my best, your Honor," was the response, and the magistrate gave him a chance to test his will power.

The row which occurred at Connor's saloon Saturday was ventilated in the police court Saturday night. Al. Windover was sent up to gaol for two days and the Parson brothers fined $2 each.

Personal.

The name of Mr. Dickson Davidson, of of Peterborough, appears upon the pass list of those who passed the junior examination in the Ontario College of Pharmacy.

Mrs. J. B Hunter left this morning for Ogden, Utah, to join her husband, Dr. J. B. Hunter, who is lying dangerously ill at that place, whither he went for the benefit of his health. He, however, failed to receive any benefit; indeed, his condition is so alarming that little, if any, hope is entertained of his recovery.

Pertinent Questions.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—It is whispered on the streets that Mr. Stevenson is going to be a candidate for school trustee in No 2 Ward. Now, I would like to know if this rumour is correct? And, furthermore, is it true that Mr. Hill intends resigning in his favour, with the understanding that the council appoint the latter to the School Board? I hope that at the next session of the Local Legislature the school law will be so amended that it will be illegal, as it is at present, for any man to hold a seat in the Town Council and one in the School Board at the same time.

Yours inquiringly,
RATEPAYER.

Manitoba Seen With Ontario Eyes.

At the request of the EXAMINER, Mr. W. Ferguson has furnished the following interesting recital of his observations and experiences during a two months' visit to Manitoba, from which he has just returned:

"So much has been said and written about Manitoba that one would think very little remained to be explained. The farmer who has spent all his days in Ontario thinks he knows a great deal about Manitoba, but until one has actually visited and seen for himself, it is impossible to form anything like a correct idea. Speaking for myself as a visitor to that country, I may say not only was I surprised at the great progress it must have made the past few years, to be what it now is, but also at the advanced civilization which is now to be found in every frontier county.

Arriving at Winnipeg, a person in search of a farm is for a time almost at a stand-still—there are so many companies who have land in all parts of the province. These keep a liberal supply of agents to instruct new-comers that their land is situated in the most fertile and prosperous district in the country. During my visit so much was being said of the rising town of Melita, that I determined to visit it and judge for myself. This town is situated in the south-west corner of the province, on the banks of the Souris river, twenty-five miles west of Deloraine, the terminus of the C. P. R. South-Western Railway. It is proposed to extend this railway next summer, meeting the Brandon and Souris branch, which is already graded for the rails as far as Melita, and forming a junction at this place. From Melita it is proposed to extend this railway eighty miles farther west, as far as the coal fields. A more beautiful spot for a town than where Melita now stands could not possibly be found.

Situated as it is upon the high banks of a creek, running into the Souris about three quarters of a mile to the south. This river is wooded along the banks, and the winding course it takes, gives it a very picturesque appearance, and relieves greatly the monotony of the surrounding prairie.

The country surrounding is extremely fertile, though I failed to see it at its best owing to the drought; this proved serious in some parts of the province, and this district was no exception—at the same time comparing very favorably with any other part of the province. The soil is a very rich, sandy loom, with clay subsoil, and these past few years has produced most excellent crops, both in quantity and quality. Owing to the fact of it being settled 6 or 8 years, the farmers have broken up their lands extensively and it is not at all uncommon to see one man farming 125 to 150 acres of land alone, with the exception of harvest time. A great deal of land has changed hands in this district, the farmer of Ontario able to buy, prefers doing so, to going farther west on homestead government lands, and by so doing he has the great advantage of churches, schools and society. To the ambitious young man, who is desirous of homesteading, he can do so by going west—there is yet a great deal of government lands to be taken up all through the scattered settlement of the west. Hundreds of young men who commenced in Manitoba without capital, have succeeded and worked out a comfortable home for themselves.

In conclusion I may mention that cattle turned out on the prairie during the summer, do splendidly in the fall—they are fat and ready for market, and I can vouch for this fact that Manitoba prairie fed beef is superior to any I ever ate before."

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Mr. Albert Younger, late general secretary, Summit, New Jersey, gave earnest talks to our young men at the Saturday night meeting, also at the "personal purity meeting" and Gospel and song service yesterday. They were much appreciated, and we hope to hear from our brother again before he leaves our town. Mr. Younger is here in the interests of the Y.M.C.A. Watchman. We trust he will receive a hearty welcome from all our members and that his visit may prove both pleasant and profitable.

Our orchestra, under the able leadership of Mr. John Miller, was present and led the singing very acceptably at the pursonal purity meeting.

The Ladies' Auxiliary are making preparations for the "At Home" on New Year's Day for the young men of our town and their visiting friends. We hope they will all call and enjoy the hospitality of our ladies. A programme of music, &c., is being prepared by the band and others. Young men will keep this in mind.

The Mono Tragedy.

The Mono murder case, the details of which are fresh in the public mind, are to be revived. Mrs. Scott, mother of the murdered man, who lives in Peterborough with her daughter, Mrs. John Fraser, has entered a civil notice for $10,000 against Henry Atkinson, who was accused of the murder but found not guilty at the last assizes. The case will be tried at the Dufferin Assizes next spring.

PENITENTIARY FOR LIFE

THE SENTENCE IMPOSED ON A TORONTO BRUTE

Archbishop Walsh Declares Against the Ballot in Separate School Trustee Elections—An Important Decision.

TORONTO, Dec. 24.—Judge McDougall yesterday sentenced James Kew, convicted of a shocking assault on a 4-year-old child, to imprisonment for life in Kingston Penitentiary. The prisoner, who is 50 years of age, acted as though quite indifferent, and coolly looked around when an involuntary burst of applause followed the judge's sentence. Arthur H. Jenkins, aged 24, who has spent 14 years in prison, was sent to Kingston for 3 years for larceny and false pretences.

It having been rumored that on the occasion of the late interview with some members of the Catholic School Board the Archbishop of Toronto expressed himself to the effect that he was in favor of the ballot for the election of Separate School trustees, Vicar-General Laurent and Father McBride, who were present at the interview in question, declare that the rumor is without foundation; that His Grace, on the contrary, clearly stated that he was entirely opposed to voting by ballot for that purpose, and that the bishops and clergy of the province unanimously, and the laity with but few exceptions were also opposed to it.

Archbishop Cleary of Kingston has replied at length to the recent letter of Mr. W. R. Meredith, M. L. A.

The Ontario Government has appointed the following barristers Queen's Counsel:

Toronto—J. J. Maclaren, John Leys, James David Edgar, William Muloch, William Barclay McMurrich, Newman Wright Hoyles, Charles Robert Webster Biggar, Daniel Edmund Thomson, E. Douglas Armour, George F. Shepley, A. B. Aylesworth, W. Mortimer Clarke, E. F. B. Johnston, John B. Cartwright.

Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice Robertson in the Chancery Division yesterday at Osgoode Hall gave judgment on the petition of the Hon. G. W. Ross as to certain disputed points in the Separate Schools and the Public Schools Acts.

The court makes answer as follows: "If the assessor is satisfied with the prima facie evidence of the statement made by or on behalf of any ratepayer that he is a Roman Catholic and thereupon seeking and hearing no further information places such person upon the assessment roll as a separate school supporter—this ratepayer, though he may not by himself or agent give notice in writing pursuant to section 40 of the Separate Schools Act, may be entitled to exemption from the payment of rates for public school purposes—he being in the case supposed assessed as a supporter of Roman Catholic separate schools."

"The Court of Revision has jurisdiction on application of the person assessed or of any municipal elector [or ratepayer i.e. in the Separate School Act] to hear and determine complaints (a) in regard to the religion of the person placed on the roll as Protestant or Roman Catholic, and (b) as to whether such person is or is not a supporter of public or separate schools, within the meaning of the provisions of law in that behalf, and (c) [which appears to be included in (b)] whether such person has been placed in the wrong column of the assessment roll for the purposes of the school tax. It is also competent for the Court of Revision to determine w ether the name of any person wrongfully omitted from the proper column of the assessment roll should be inserted therein upon the complaint of the person himself or of any elector [or ratepayer]. As to the trial of any other fact or particular under sec. 120 of the Public Schools Act, the answers already given appear to exhaust all facts and particulars thereunder."

"The assessor is not bound to accept the statement of or made on behalf of any ratepayer under sec. 120 (3) of the Public Schools Act in case he is made aware or ascertains before completing his roll that such ratepayer is not a Roman Catholic or has not given the notice required by sec. 40 of the Separate Schools Act, or is for any reason not entitled to exemption from public school rates."

"(a) A ratepayer not a Roman Catholic, being wrongfully assessed as a Roman Catholic and supporter of separate schools, who, through inadvertence or other causes, does not appeal therefrom, is not estopped nor are the ratepayers from claiming with reference to the assessment of the following or future year that he is not a Roman Catholic.

"(b) A ratepayer being a Roman Catholic and appearing on the assessment roll as a Roman Catholic and supporter of separate schools, who has not given the notice in writing of being such supporter mentioned in sec 40 of the Separate Schools Act, is not nor are the other ratepayers estopped from claiming in the following or future year that he should not be placed as a supporter of separate schools with reference to the assessment of such year, although he has not given notice of withdrawal mentioned in sec. 47 of the Separate Schools Act."

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

SENHOR GOMEZ REPLIES TO SALISBURY'S NOTE.

The Major and the Flags—A German Paper Attacks Stanley—The Duke of Brunswick's Wealth.

LISBON, Dec. 23.—Senor Gomez, in his reply to the note of Lord Salisbury relative to the movements of Major Serpa Pinto in Africa, says the Major did nothing to warrant the accusation against him. He merely repulsed hostile natives, among whose baggage after the fight three British flags were found. Gomez asks Salisbury to await further information concerning the affair.

Without Authority.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—A cablegram dated Ottawa, published in yesterday's Standard, states that the modus vivendi with the United States re the fisheries will not be renewed by Canada, owing to President Harrison's inaction. Sir Charles Tupper says that this statement is without authority.

COMING HOME TO ROOST.

One of Lord Salisbury's Old Speeches Unearthed by the Liberals.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The Liberal newspapers have unearthed a speech made by Lord Salisbury twenty-five years ago, and are using it to show that the Tory Premier at one time held very liberal views with regard to the Government of Ireland. The following extract is taken from this address delivered at a time when, as Lord Robert Cecil, he represented Stamford in the House of Commons:

"What is the reason," he asked, "that a people with so beautiful a soil, with such enormous resources as the Irish, lag so far behind the English in the race? Some say that it is to be found in the character of the Celtic race, but I look to France and I see a Celtic race there going forward in the path of prosperity with most rapid strides, I believe at the present moment more rapidly than England herself. Some people say it is to be found in the Roman Catholic religion, but I look to Belgium and there I see a people second to none in Europe, except the English, in industry; singularly prosperous considering the small country they occupy; having improved to the utmost the natural resources of that country, but distinguished among all the people of Europe for the earnestness and intensity of their Roman Catholic belief. Therefore I cannot say the cause of Irish distress is to be found in the Roman Catholic religion. An honorable friend beside me says it arises from the Irish people listening to demagogs, but when I look to the northern states of America I see there people who listen to demagogs, but who undoubtedly have not been wanting in material prosperity. It cannot be demagogs, Romanism or the Celtic race What then, is it? I am afraid that the one thing which has been peculiar to Ireland has been the Government of England."

The Liberals call attention in a forcible manner to the contrast between these words of "truth and soberness" and the more recent and more famous "Hottentot" deliverances. The Marquis of Salisbury is best and most effectually confuted out of the mouth of Lord Robert Cecil.

BRUNSWICK'S WEALTH.

The Countess of Curry's Children Defeated in Their Suit.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The Brunswick Court has dismissed the suit undertaken on behalf of the children of the Countess of Curry to recover the fortune of the late Duke of Brunswick. The Duke Charles Frederick Augustus William died at Geneva in 1873. He was the elder of two sons of the "Brunswick's Fated Chieftain" of Byron's lines—the Duke Frederick, who was killed at Quatre Bras. He succeeded to his father's title and became the reigning Duke of Brunswick in 1823, but he misgoverned and was driven out in 1829. The German Diet gave his estates to his brother William. Charles led a loose and eccentric life and accumulated property, particularly diamonds. His diamonds were sold at his death for a very large sum. He was never married, or at least, never otherwise than morganatically. The mother of the children, in whose name the suit is brought, is alleged however to be a legitimate daughter of the Duke, and the ground of action was that claim. The Court on the contrary stands by the law that has made the King of Saxony and the Duke of Cumberland the beneficiaries of the estates and vast personal fortune of the Duke.

A German Paper Attacks Stanley.

BERLIN, Dec. 23.—The National Zeitung attacks Stanley's statements in regard to Emin Pasha. It says these statements seem to be made with the intention of replying to the reproach that Emin's embarrassments were caused in part by Stanley's appearance and his determination to rescue one who did not desire to be rescued, and that Emin must be heard in his own defence before conclusions are reached.

Slavin Talks.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Slavin, the pugilist, has arrived at Margate on his return from the battle with Smith. There was a good deal of enthusiasm over him on his arrival and he made a speech, in which he said he was a good deal more hurt by the roughs who indulged in the ruffianly tactics common with them than by Smith in the fight. Slavin's backer assert that Smith never hit Slavin and that he was hurt only by the crowd which beat Slavin because enraged at the defeat of Smith. Slavin is now said to be ready to meet Sullivan or any one and fight for the championship of the world.

Slavin Challenges Sullivan.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Slavin challenges Sullivan to fight for $2500 or $5000 a side and the championship within six weeks.

Tremendous Atlantic Gales.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Incoming vessels report tremendous gales on the Atlantic. The British bark Ashlow, from St. John, N.B., which reached Queenstown to-day, lost part of her deck load during the voyage and one of her seamen was drowned. The British bark Russia, from St. John, N.B., arrived at Londonderry to-day severely damaged. Two of her crew were killed and two disabled during the terribly stormy weather.

The Daily Smash.

ANDOVER, Mass., Dec. 25.—As the Portland express from Boston was passing a freight train on the Boston and Maine Railway near here this evening, a heavy piece of timber became unfastened from a freight car and struck the front end of the rear car of the express. The express was running at 40 miles an hour and the timber crashed through the car, raking it broadside, breaking every window sash on that side and covering the passengers with glass and splinters. The cars were heavily laden with passengers and a number of ladies fainted from freight, while 15 or 20 of them were more or less cut about the face and shoulders. One woman was unconscious for several hours and is reported to be fatally injured. Upon the arrival of the train at Lawrence the injured passengers were cared for, and most of them were able to continue their journey.

THE INFLUENZA'S GRIP.

ITS GERMS NOURISHED BY THE MILD WEATHER.

Parisians Brave Attempts to Escape the Epidemic—Over 500,000 Europeans Suffering From the Disease—Royal Victims.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Europe is still in the influenza's grip. Some experts say it is due to the phenomenally mild weather, which has been favorable to breeding and nourishing certain germs which long ere this time of year should have been annihilated by frost. In Paris men have painted their moustaches with a preparation of pinol and have tried bravely to give up smoking. Many families have tried keeping indoors with the doors and windows sealed, but the result has not been encouraging.

At the present moment there cannot be less than 500,000 people suffering from this disease in Europe. The Parisians have almost ceased to make fun over the disease. There may be something comical about red noses and loud sneezing, but when one has to lay abed for days and howl over violent abdominal pains the laughter is apt to become somewhat forced.

In Germany, from Hamburg to Munich, the influenza is raging unchecked. Similar news comes from Austria, Italy, Spain, Switzerland and Portugal, but it is comforting to know that not a single death was recorded last week. Everywhere the favorite remedies seem to be antipyrine and quinine, in which just now there is an emphatic and tremendous boom. The most exalted sufferer is the German Emperor.

The little King Alfonso of Spain, had an attack which proved to be really serious; it was not until yesterday that he was allowed to leave his cot, which by the way, is placed alongside the Queen Regent's own bed. The royal mother nursed the little fellow with assiduous devotion, following the instructions of the five physicians who had charge of the baby king's case with the scrupulous care of a hospital nurse. Alfonso's sisters had a mild attack, and his aunt, the Infanta Eulacia, was suffering at the same time.

In Paris Roumania's poet Queen had been ill, rumor says with influenza, and has been ordered to spend the winter in Italy.

All Germany Sneezes.

BERLIN, Dec. 23.—The epidemic of influenza is now spread over every part of Germany, but is now worst in Hesse, Hanover, Thuringia, and Saxony. In Potsdam, Stettin, Cassel, Frankfort, Freiburg, and Dresden at least half the garrison is affected.

It Must Be So.

OTTAWA, Dec. 23.—Prof. E. Stone Wiggins, the weather prophet, offers an ingenious theory for the outbreak of "la gripue" and Russian influenza. He says it is caused by the excessive carbon in the atmosphere, generated by the earthquake which originated last year in Japan, and which slowly moved east around the globe.

QUEBEC'S MINERALS.

Premier Mercier Decides to Establish a Provincial Geological Survey.

QUEBEC, Dec. 23.—It is learned on the best of authority that the Mercier Government contemplate establishing a provincial geological survey to make reports in a detailed and minute manner of the different parts of the province. At present there are nearly 10,000,000 acres of crown lands. The staff will be composed of the best talent available. The names of Dr. T. Sterry Hunt and Mr. McFarlane are mentioned in this connection.

THE ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.

Report of the Observers at St. Paul de Loanda Seventy Pictures Taken.

ST. PAUL DE LOANDA, West Coast of Africa, Dec. 24.—The eclipse of the sun was observed with partial success yesterday. The sky was clear during the first part of the eclipse, but was obscured during totality. The results obtained through the 40 foot photohellograph managed by Bigelow were entirely successful. They will enable us to give accurate corrections of the position of the moon relative to the sun. Seventy pictures were taken before and 40 after totality. There was no hitch in the working of the apparatus. With extra photographic appliances and assistance we could easily have obtained 1500 pictures. Different phases of the clouds were recorded with success.

HAMILTON HIGHWAYMEN.

Two Men Held up in the Most Approved Style Near Dundas.

HAMILTON, Dec. 23.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, on the Hamilton and Dundas railway track, near Dundas, Fred Sorby and James Laidle, met three men walking on the track, one of whom pointed a revolver toward them and called upon them in true highwaymen style to stand and deliver. His companions then went through their clothes and got a nickle watch, with a gold-mounted chain, a nickle-plated revolver, two scarf pins and two pocket-knives. They have no idea who the robbers were, but were able to give a description of them which may lead to their arrest.

Northwest News.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 23.—A. Smith's wood camp, south of Monmouth, was destroyed by fire about 2 o'clock on Friday morning. A large number of men employed in the camp lost all their effects. By a collapse of a beam in a logging shanty at Shelby Station Joseph Basher had his leg seriously injured.

The Duluth and Winnipeg railway officials have decided to push work as rapidly as possible and it is confidently expected to have trains running to the Manitoba border by Jan. 1, 1891.

The Ogilvie Milling Company have secured a corner on wheat in the Province, and are now practically owners of the entire lot, save about half a million bushels which the Keewatin Milling Company have secured. The action of the Ogilvies is doubtless due to anticipation of an increase in the flour duty, and to the fact that they want to keep all the wheat now in the Province for their own milling purposes. The price paid was high, and all dealers have sold out, making a good margin.

The Commercial Bank of Manitoba has decided to open a branch at Minnedosa, with Henry Fisher of Regina, as manager.

The epidemic of measles is spreading through the city, and it is likely the Health Inspector will ask the School Inspector not to reopen the schools until it has abated.

CANADIANS
Work Too Hard!

The Result is Sleeplessness, Nervousness and a Broken-Down System, often

Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of overworked business men, wearied housekeepers industrious mechanics, and tired women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. This is the cause of that terrible Paresis Before it is too late, use Dr. Phelps' wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., Montreal.

CHRISTMAS.

Christmas, the season of rejoicing, of charity, of home gathering, has come again. Again gather in the old, the loved home, parents and children and grand-children. Hoary heads have grown whiter in the last twelve-month. Grey hairs have come where last year were few or none. Boys and girls have opened wider the blossoms of manhood and womanhood, and high chair and cradles long time put away in the attic are again in requisition. There are some vacant places, and we mention softly the names of those whose empty chairs fill our eyes with tears, and whose voices still seem to ring in our ears. They shall not return to us, but we shall go to them. Our joy in this festival grows as it is multiplied by reflection from the eyes and hearts of others. The wider the brotherhood of which we recognize ourselves the members, the greater the sum of our satisfaction. The poor we have always with us; the sorrowing we need not go far to seek: the erring are waiting for gentle words that shall lead them back into right paths. If we cannot give gold to those that need, we may tender golden words of sympathy, of counsel, support, and thus give of ourselves to others in the spirit of Him who gave Himself for us. We all have much to be grateful for during the year now drawing to a close. We have had provided for us, food and health, strength, raiment and shelter; and now at this season it is meet for us to make practical acknowledgement of all these blessings. Our wordy gratitude will be mere lip service if in our range of acquaintance or knowledge there is one of God's children, lacking bread or heat or comfort on this blessed Christmas day. Our Christmas feast should turn to gall on our tongues, if we eat with selfish disregard of the famine of heart, famine of home, famine of fire, or lack of any kind that may exist around us. The Great Gift was sent us as a type of conduct, an example of life and we shall the more closely follow him, the more closely we look to the wants of the poor when he left as special wards of His faithful followers. In this spirit let us keep the Christmas feast and then we shall approach the realisation of what the EXAMINER wishes to every one of its thousands of readers—A MERRY CHRISTMAS—AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

A Teacher Receives a Most Complimentary Testimonial—Presentation to Miss Beckett.

On Friday afternoon, at the close of the term of the Toll Gate school house, the retirement of Miss Beckett from the position of teacher was very pleasantly signalised. Miss Beckett, who has held the position for four years, was held in the highest estimation by both pupils and trustees. The latter parted with Miss Beckett with great reluctance, and the high estimate they held of her teaching abilities is shown by the fact that her successor (a male teacher) receives the same salary as that paid Miss Beckett. The trustees thought that, as they don't want a better teacher than Miss Beckett, who gave the best of satisfaction, they would not pay a successor, whoever he or she might be any higher salary. One of the trustees, who has been a trustee for 30 years, pays Miss Beckett the compliment of pronouncing her one of the best, if not the best teacher the section ever employed. Miss Beckett's engagement in the Toll Gate school ceased, not from any dissatisfaction on either side, but solely because she could not get board at a convenient distance. She then accepted a position in the new North Ward school, town. On the occasion of the close of the term, the pupils presented Miss Beckett with a complimentary address accompanied by a present of a beautiful dressing case. The address was read by Miss Ada Hopkins and the presentation made by Miss Alice Carver.

Many an otherwise handsome face is disfigured with pimples and blotches, caused by a humor in the blood, which may be thoroughly eradicated by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest blood medicine in the market, being entirely free from arsenic or any deleterious drug.

Grave Robberies at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The citizens of the eastern section of the city known as Capitol Hill are greatly excited over numerous grave robberies that have taken place there recently, and unsuccessful attempts to catch the perpetrators. The latest attempt was made Friday night, when Policeman Clinton succeeded in capturing a horse and buggy and implements used and two female bodies, one white and one colored. Three reputable physicians and a disreputable dentist are under suspicion.

Mexico's New Loan.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 23.—The announcement of the success of the Mexican loan created considerable excitement here. The press demanded an explanation from the Government, which has been denying that negotiations for a loan were on foot. Now The Official Gazette says it is true the Government negotiated a loan, but that is intended for the construction of the Tehuantepec Railroad. The loan was placed in different European money centres and in Germany was taken ten times over.

C.P.R. Cars Burnt at Galt.

GALT, Dec. 23.—Two cars of the Canadian Pacific Railway were burnt on the track at 3.30 this morning. The cars, one a caboose and the other a freight filled with mixed merchandise, had become detached from a train and were run into by an incoming freight from the west, the stove being upset.

A Young Girl's Grief

at seeing her charms of face and form departing, and her health imperiled by functional irregularities, at her critical period of life, was turned to joy and gratitude after a brief self treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It purified and enriched her blood, gave a healthy activity to the kidneys, stomach, bowels, and other organs, and her return to robust health speedily followed. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life on energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

A POETICAL TRIBUTE
—TO—
HONEST DEALING.

A grateful customer of Messrs. H. LEBRUN & Co. has been moved to put into verse the following truthful tribute to the excellence of this firm's goods. Truth and poetry do not always go together, but in this case they go hand in hand. There is no exaggeration nor poetical license in the following lines:—

Last night I had a pleasant dream, and well I did enjoy it,
In sleep I scaled Parnassus' height, and awoke a full fledged poet;
I tarried not to eat nor drink, but quickly grasped my pen
To tell in verse how cheaply we could clothe our fellowmen.
Our prices make the rich to smile, the poor with joy to shout,
We are resolved from this henceforth to knock the bottom out;
The man must strike some unseen notch, and shout up from below
That undersells the clothing store of H. LeBrun & Co.

Our choice five dollar overcoats, our genial salesmen shows,
Will keep you warm as a pie in the wildest storm that blows.
No ground up rags, no shoddy stuff, no mill pressed glue and hair,
But every thread spun from the sheep—fine, cheap, and made to wear.
You need not walk round shabby dressed, our prices must you convince,
Our seven dollar suits will dress you stylish as a prince.
For two and fifty we will clothe your boy from head to toe
Right in the City Clothing Store of H. LeBrun & Co.

Our line of ready-made is good, choices you will receive,
Examine, choose and purchase cloth; with us your order leave.
We guarantee to cut and stitch complete as you command,
For style and finish every part here unsurpassed we stand.
Young gents that wish a stylish suit, for concert, church or ball,
Will have their true wish gratified, by giving us a call.
Out walking, or in sitting room your girl will wish to know
If you had bought that pretty suit from H. LeBrun & Co.

Our expert cutter measures true and strikes each new design,
With skilful hand his shears play crack, round angle, curve or line.
Our tailor's work, neat, strong, complete, o'er all the hot goose steams,
Leaving no wrinkles in the back, nor puckers in the seams.
We don't believe in paper puffs that float off like a kite.
Our goods and prices come and test, as proofs of what we write,
No shoddy pressed, no ripping seams, air holes in two weeks show.
Cheapness and wear the motto is at H. LeBrun's & Co.

Before eighteen and eight-nine bids us a last adieu,
To all our patrons, rich and poor, thanks we return to you.
Fair honest dealing in the past upholds our business name,
And in the future, we resolve strict to pursue the same.
Come old and new friends, welcome come, Christmas is drawing nigh,
How you will smile to see how much a trifling sum will buy.
With pleasure we will suit your wants and salute you as you go.
With all the season's compliments, of H. LeBrun & Co.

THE ENGLISH STRIKES.

Total Defeat of the London Gas Strikers—A Healthy Public Sentiment.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The gas stokers in the South of London seem to be completely beaten. No strike, in the proper sense of the word, can any longer be said to exist. A certain number of old hands are out, and their places are filled by new hands. The supply of gas, which has never failed, is daily increasing, and all the works at the different stations of the company are in full operation. All of South London is lighted. The street lamps were dim for some days, but no serious difficulty has arisen anywhere in the vast area served by this single company. Coal is regularly unloaded at the company's wharves. Mr. Michael Henry's threats in behalf of the Coal Porters' Union proving thus far empty. The men have again attempted negotiation with the company Mr Livesey refused to recognize or to see the strike committee, but offered to hear anything that the men themselves had to say. Their last word was an offer to return if the new hands were discharged. "Never" answered Mr Livesey with his usual decision. "We are bound in honor to stand by the men who stood by us." He told his former stokers that a certain number of places were still open to them if they liked to return at once, but could not long be kept open. An official notice is issued, that all capable men newly employed wishing to remain with the company are engaged for three months. Most of them will have work no longer, while with 500 the company is ready to make permanent terms. The bonus offers of $10 for the first week and $5 for each following week in addition to full wages are confirmed.

The strike list for the week elsewhere than in London is short. A month ago the workingmen thought that they were winning everywhere, and had only to demand in order to obtain higher wages and shorter hours, or any other terms, in the interest of the Trades Unions which they liked to impose. Manchester and South London have taught them a much-needed lesson. The railway servants' meeting last Sunday in Hyde Park was a dismal affair, small in numbers. The attempt at a fresh strike at the Victoria Dock, to prevent the delivery of goods to any but unionist carmen, broke down completely. The South Wales miners, who lately were all for striking for higher wages, have sent delegates to make the best bargain they can with their employers. A fresh strike, or lockout, in the boot and shoe trade at Bristol is threatened, the recent agreement with the employers not suiting the shoemakers on trial. The employers decline to give way.

What is the most noticeable of all is the healthy tone of public opinion. The scare of last month is for the present over. There are movements for the formation of a Committee of Conciliation, in which the London Chamber of Commerce is taking the lead. They may come to something if the workingmen will join.

AN OIL TOWN SCORCHED.

Petrolea, Pa., the Scene of a Disastrous Sunday Conflagration.

PETROLEA, Pa., Dec. 23.—A fire broke out here at 8 o'clock this morning in Klingensmith's grocery when a strong wind was prevailing, and burned along both sides of Main, Argyle and Fairview streets, destroying practically all the business houses and many residences. The fire plugs were filled with mud and no water could be had. Little or no efforts were made to fight the flames, which swept over the prosperous little oil town with frightful velocity.

It was all the sleeping inhabitants could do to go out with their lives and wearing apparel. Nothing of value was saved from the burned district. Fortunately no loss of life is reported and no one was seriously hurt. The total loss will range between $85,000 and $100,000.

The thickly settled portion of the town on the north side of Main street between Argyle street and the offices of the United Pipe Line, including the latter, and on the south side from the bank, which is still standing, to Fairview street, is destroyed, as well the buildings to the cemetery. About forty buildings were consumed.

The loss to the merchants is very heavy. They saved neither buildings or stock. It is believed that in most instances there was very little if any insurance. The buildings were generally frame, and the insurance rate was so high as to be almost prohibitory. Petrolea has been afflicted several times by fire and flood, but this is the most disastrous visitation in its history. Its present population is 700.

DEVOURED BY CANNIBALS.

Four Sydney Sailors Fall a Prey to Solomon Islanders.

SANFRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 22.—The Sydney Herald of Nov. 5 says a letter from Captain Woodhouse of the trading schooner Elma Fisher states that Boat-steerer Nelson of the schooner Enterprise of Sydney, and three of the native crew of the Enterprise were killed and their bodies roasted and eaten by cannibals of the Solomon Islands. The Enterprise was trading among the islands and the natives from Hammond Island, one of the Solomon group, induced Nelson and the others to go ashore to make purchases. Once on shore they were knocked on the head. The letter states that H.M.S. Royalist shelled the villages on the islands. No particulars were learned.

THE GLEN CROSS TRAGEDY!

Mrs. Scott Sues the Slayer of Her Son for $10,000 Damages.

ORANGEVILLE, Dec. 21.—The details of the tragedy which occurred at Glen Cross on May 30 last, when James Scott lost his life through being struck with a stone by Henry Atkinson, are fresh in the public mind. Atkinson was indicted for murder at the recent Dufferin Fall Assizes, but was acquitted. This morning A. A. Hugeson, solicitor for Annie Scott, the mother of the dead man, issued a writ out of the Common Pleas Division of the High Court of Justice against Atkinson. The plaintiff claims $10,000 damages and the endorsement on the writ sets out that these damages are for the wrongful killing of Scott by Atkinson.

SUICIDE OR MURDER.

Mrs. Truman Davis of Aylmer Found Drowned in a Cistern.

ST. THOMAS, Dec. 21.—Mrs. Truman Davis of Aylmer was found drowned in a cistern this morning. It is supposed she suicided, though some hint at murder. The cause was, perhaps, family troubles.

A Tramp Roasted by his Fellows.

LAFAYETTE, Ind. Dec. 21.—This morning the body of J. Mooney, a tramp, was found in a deserted spot a mile below the city horribly burned and charred. Investigation shows drunken tramps held him over a log fire until life was extinct. Five tramps have been arrested on suspicion.

In the Hole for $3000.

HAMILTON, Dec. 23.—It is said that the Summer Carnival Committee is in the hole for $3000, the printing and pyrotechnic bills being unpaid. The Times has commenced suit to recover a $700 account.

Not Only For Man.

I CAN say that your Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best thing I ever saw for croup, coughs, colds, cuts or burns, and it is good for man or beast. MISS E. M. HOPKINS, Claremont, Ont. Yellow Oil cures rheumatism, neuralgia and all pain. 2w51d

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so-called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and restlessness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

DR. H. A. ARCHER,
111 S. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N.Y.
March 8, 1887.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Visitors to Mr W. W. It is hoped the influenza epidemic which has struck this continent will not spread to Peterborough, but if it does Mr. Johnston will be able to supply the extra demand for handkerchief without trouble.

Railway Curves.

Engineering summarizes a paper by the Chief Engineer to the Belgian State railways in which it is stated that on certain curves, the rails wore almost exactly twice as long when the brakes were not used to what they did with the use of brakes; and a nearly similar result was attained on rails on a tangent, with brakes and without brakes. On this the Newcastle Chronicle comments: "If this experience be general, then the less the brake is used the longer the 'life' of the rail will be."

The Business College of this place reopens Jan. 7th, 1890. The past year has seen the attendance increase three times what it was the proceeding year, a fact which speaks for the excellent management of the college, and also shows that a practical education is demanded on all sides. Next year the teaching staff will be increased, and also the seating accommodation.

All interested will please call on the the Principal, at his office, 266 Water Street. Circulars will be sent to any address. dw

Presentation and Address.

On Monday night the workmen in the knob department of the Lock Works, presented the foreman of this department, with a knobby shaving case and the following address:—

MR. FRANK BURDETT:—

DEAR SIR,—As this is the season of fellowship and good will, a few of your employes thought we could find no better time than the present to express our appreciation of you, both as an employer and a friend. Knowing, as we do, that you are always as watchful for our interests as your own, we would ask your acceptance of this shaving case, as a slight token of the high regard and esteem in which you are held by us. Wishing yourself and Mrs. Burdett a Merry Christmas and a bright and prosperous New Year, we remain,

Yours most sincerely,

J. SWEET,	B. DUNCAN,
M. CRAMER,	W. SHARP,
W. BERNTON,	B. HODGSON.

Mr. Burdett replied in very feeling terms, reciprocating the kindly wishes expressed in the address.

More Presentations.

Santa Claus is laying himself out in "great shape" this year. He is showering his presents about at a grand rate. Last night at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Mechanics' Institute, Mr. Geo. Peters, Librarian, was called into the room and addressed by the President, Mr. T. A. Hay, who complimented him on the faithful manner he had discharged his duties for five and a half years, and concluded by presenting Mr. Peters with a well filled purse. Mr. Peters was much surprised, and returned his hearty thanks for the pleasant recognition of his services.

At the Lock Works at noon to-day, the employees of the polishing department presented their foreman, Mr. A. Corcoran, with a beautiful smokers' set—meerschaum and briar pipe and meerschaum cigar-holder and match holder—in plush case. Mr. Corcoran warmly thanked the doners of the handsome present.

Band of Hope.

A delightful entertainment was given in the W. C. T. U. rooms, on Tuesday night, under the management of Miss Kelly and Mrs. Paton. There were about two-hundred children present, and three huge Christmas trees were laden with gifts for the children. After a choice programme was rendered, the presents were distributed to the delighted youngsters. The occasion was a grand success, and the promoters had the pleasure of making a host of little children happy. The following is a copy of the programme:

Episcopal Greetings.

Pastoral From the Bishop of Toronto.

The following Pastoral letter has been received at St. John's and St. Luke's church from the Bishop of Toronto:—

SEE HOUSE, TORONTO, December 16th, 1889.

To the Lay Members of the Church of England in the Diocese of Toronto:

BELOVED BRETHREN,—It is once more my privilege, as your chief pastor, to send you my Christmas greeting, with the best wishes that this may be to you and your families a very happy and blessed season.

I invite you to keep the Feast which commemorates the Incarnation of the Godhead, not with mere holiday merry-making, but with devout and adoring worship; for, of all the verities of the Christian faith, of all the great facts in the redemption work of Ch. st, this which we give thanks for at this Holy Season, is the foundation and the crown.

St. John the Divine asserts this:—"Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God; and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God," and the Church makes the same acknowledgment in the venerable confession which we know as the Creed of Saint Athanasius, "it is necessary to everlasting salvation that (we) believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ."

And as this Article of our Faith has this supremacy of theological importance, so is it fullest of joyful import to us men. The Word made flesh, and dwelling among us, full of grace and truth; God's gift of His own Son to take our nature upon Him; the lowly birth of the Divine babe; His cradling in the manger; His spotless childhood and dutiful youth; His perfect manhood; His life of self-denial, tender sympathy, gracious teaching, and active doing of good; His death, the just for the unjust; His burial in the grave: these, dear brethren, are the blessed facts of the Gospel story to which we owe the redemption of our nature; all that makes our lives worthy, and gracious, and happy: all our religious privileges and social institutions and family affections: all our better purposes and kindlier dispositions one towards another, and on which we build our hopes of a redeemed immortality.

I call upon you, then, to receive these glad tidings of joy with a lively faith and unfeigned gratitude, and to make proof of your Christmas thankfulness by acts of kindness to those who are near and dear to you, and of charity to those who need.

According to custom, your Christmas offerings will be devoted as a personal gift of good-will to your pastor. I trust that their generosity will be such as to give him the happy assurance how highly you esteem him in love for his work's sake.

Praying that every rich blessing flowing from the Incarnation of our Saviour, God, may be yours,

I am, your faithful friend and Bishop,
ARTHUR TORONTO.

Their Clergyman Friend.

The Young Men of St. John Show Their Regard for Rev. C. B. Kenrick—Presentation Last Night.

The young men's Bible class of St. John's is a large and flourishing institution. Though organized only in February last, it has already 57 members in good standing, and the roll is being added to, almost every week. While styled a class it is practically a young men's club, with headquarters at Mr. Kenrick's rooms where the members constantly resort for quiet informal recreation.

The three weekly events in connection with the organization are the Bible class on Sunday afternoon, the Glee club on Monday evenings and the Athletic club on Thursday evenings. In this last department Sergt. Elliott, of Lakefield, has just been engaged at considerable expense to give weekly instructions in single stick, boxing and other gymnastic achievements. But to return to the event of Monday night.

Mr. Kenrick's rooms were taken possession of at an early hour in the evening. This was nothing unusual in itself, but a mysterious element was quickly developed. Two large boxes were brought in and opened by interested hands, after which the Rev. gentleman was summoned from his work in the church. On entering his rooms he was attacked by a select deputation, one of whom—Mr. R. A. W. Hay, led on the charge with an engrossed address, while the other two, Messrs. Foot and Howden bore down upon him with the contents of the aforesaid boxes. These proved to be a morocco-covered family Bible with all the latest embellishments, and a most handsome set of desk furniture in burnished brass candlesticks, ink stand, pen receiver, etc. Mr. Kenrick was utterly unprepared for this demonstration of kind feeling. In the course of a brief informal reply, after warmly thanking the young men, he said that the happiest part of his life in Peterborough was in his work for them, and that their companionship had been a never failing source of pleasure.

Following is a copy of the address, which speaks for itself:—

To the Rev. C. B. Kenrick, M.A:

On behalf of the members of the St. John's young men's Bible class permit us to present you with the slight accompanying tokens of our love, regard and esteem for you, both as a friend and a teacher, as felt by each individual member of our class, and to wish you all the compliments of the happy season now upon us.

N.B.—We had serious intentions of asking you to hang up your stocking, but on the score of economy refrained.

Signed,

W. G. HOWDEN,	H. F. FOOT,
F. J. ELMHIRST,	H. J. B. DUNSFORD,
R. A. W. HAY,	Secretary.
Treasurer,	B. ARMSTRONG.

We may add that the above act of thoughtfulness is not the only one which falls to the credit of the class this Christmas. Several of the members have taken an active share in the decoration of St. John's, and the beautiful chancel screen and reredos, which will strike the attention of worshippers on entering to-morrow, has been made and partly designed by Messrs. Ted Courtney and C. Roberts.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Notices of the annual school meeting for the election of school trustees are posted up, as directed by law. Thursday at noon is the time of meeting. Messrs. H. Calcutt and A. Ingram are the retiring members and as the Rev. W. C. Bradshaw's seat, on account of non-residence, is vacant, there will be three members to be elected. Mr. Calcutt is a good man and will no doubt receive a strong support. As the office of school trustee is a very important one, none but men of liberal minds and thorough business principles should be nominated. Education in the past has been very much hindered by the actions of men on school boards, who, to say the least, were not fitted for the position. It was very wisely suggested by a gentleman to say that it should be made compulsory to have all notices of school meetings printed and a great many more posted up, as the expense would be very small compared with the advantages. At present only three notices are required to fulfil the demands of the law and as these are invariably written on the corner of some scrap of second hand paper, very few of the ratepayers are aware of such a meeting and as a result the streets have to be secured to get enough people together to form a quorum.

The members of the Mark street Sunday school are putting forth strenuous efforts to make their Christmas boat on Christmas eve a grand success, and there is no doubt their efforts will be rewarded.

The decoration committee of St. Luke's Church completed the Christmas decorations Monday evening and the results of their labors must be very gratifying. A very large amount of work has been done by willing hands, and well done. Wreaths of evergreens are placed round every window in the church, and also round the gas jets. The chancel is handsomely festooned, while a screen of evergreens is placed at the front of the chancel. The pulpit and reading desks are also neatly trimmed and texts of white letters on a groundwork of cardinal, are hung up at intervals, so that the whole presents a very striking appearance.

The teachers and scholars of St. Luke's Sunday school have adopted a new plan this year in the manner of distribution of prizes at their annual Christmas tree. Instead of each child receiving a gift, they are asked each to bring a gift and put it on the tree. These gifts will then be sent to poor missions where assistance is greatly needed. Gifts of toys, books, money, clothing, or any other useful articles will be accepted. The idea is one suggested by the Rev. J. W. McCleary, and from present prospects it will prove a decided success. Already gifts of money and many useful articles have been received, and as the scholars are very jubilant over the plan there is sure to be success. Those wishing to do so may send their gifts to the rectory. The principle underlying this plan is good, namely, teaching the youth the privilege of giving.

A Great Success.

The wonderful bargains and immense value given at the great sale of M. Sullivan & Co's has caused the great success of the sale. Hundreds of customers have come to "shop" and stayed to buy. The prices and goods were such as they could not resist. A splendid stock, kept well assorted, placed at figures which must sell the goods. A beautiful line of woven shawls form one of the latest and most attractive features. Don't neglect this great sale. If you do you will miss the biggest bargains ever presented in Peterborough. dw

Why Went People Understand?

It's amazing how sensible people with half an eye to business can overlook the great sacrifice sale of dry goods now going on at John Hackett's old stand. The public can't afford to miss these grand bargains. The large and complete stock must be cleared off by January 1st, and though the wonderful cheap sale has been in progress for a month past, there is still a large and well-assorted quantity of dry goods to be rushed off during the holiday season. If the people would only call at the store they would be quickly convinced of the truth of this statement. The stock must be sold regardless of cost.

A Queer Christmas Box.

An honest Emily farmer, who has gained a reputation for being very close fisted, surprised a neighbor by saying that he was going to make his wife a handsome Christmas present. "What is it?" Why, I bought five yards of flannel for one dollar, for her to make me some shirts." This is wonderously liberal. If he had bought five pounds of good tea at hawley bros., he would have saved enough to pay for the wear and tear on his conscience, caused by his reckless generosity. The best and finest crops of teas and fragrant coffees at the lowest prices, at hawley bros. If you want to enjoy your Christmas dinner, don't neglect to buy the materials for your tea and coffees at hawleys.

Over Twelve Years Established.

A live and well established grocery and provision business for sale. R. H. Green, on account of continued ill-health, has decided to sell his entire stock of groceries, provisions, &c., en bloc, at a bargain, to a suitable purchaser. The goods are nearly all new, well assorted and bought at the lowest possible wholesale prices. The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them at a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as decided bargains will be given. The goods must be sold. R. H. GREEN, corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Dec. 3rd. w47tf

Police Court.

TUESDAY, Dec. 24th.

It was a rather sad scene which occurred at the police court this morning, when a father pleaded hard that his three boys be given "just one more chance," for their mother's sake. Walter, Arthur and Eddie Herron live on Smithdown Hill, but their youth has been sadly neglected and the lads have fallen into dishonest ways. Only a few months ago the boys were before the magistrate on a charge of stealing apples from an orchard. The neighbors complain that they dare not leave anything outside the house that can be carried away, on account of these boys' depredations. The boys were before the magistrate this morning again, and the theft of a stove and a couple of hand sleighs proved against them. Johnnie Gross, another wayward ten year old, was also implicated. The magistrate thought of sending them to Penetanguishene, where they would be educated and trained in ways of thrift and industry, but the father of the Herron boys begged that they be given one more chance for their mothers sake, and he would do his utmost to see that they were better controlled in future. On account of their youth, the magistrate was lenient, and after reading the lads a paternal lecture, he discharged them under suspended sentence, warning them, that if they ever appeared before him again, they would be severely dealt with.

James Fax celebrated the approach of Christmas yesterday by getting gloriously drunk, and this morning was fined $2 or ten days in gaol. The chief returned James a $2 bill, all the money found on him when arrested, and after looking at it regretfully, James slowly handed it to the clerk to pay his fine. James will be a little short when he comes to buy his Christmas presents.

A Handsome Christmas Box.

Mr. M. Reilly Remembered by the Employes of the Lock Works.

At one o'clock to-day Mr. M. Reilly, foreman of the Lock Works, was presented with the appended highly complimentary address and a beautiful and valuable gold watch. The address was read by Mr. Herb. Dixon, as follows:—

TO MR. MICHAEL RILEY,

DEAR SIR,—We your employes in the Lock Works desire at this festive season to express to you our feelings and deep respect and esteem for you. Some of us have had the good fortune to have been in your employment for many years and others of us for a shorter time, but we all heartily unite in testifying to the esteem in which you are held by us. As an employer you have always been generous in your recognition of the rights and privileges of working men, and we would fail in our duty if we did not give expression to our gratitude to you.

If all employers acted on the principles as you do, labor troubles would be unknown, and pleasant feelings and good will would take the place of the friction which is, unfortunately, so often seen. As a citizen we have recognized and admired your open handed but unostentatious charity, and when we express our feelings, we but echo the sentiments of all who have had the pleasure of your acquaintanceship. As a token, though a slight one, of our esteem for you please accept this watch.

In conclusion, permit us to wish yourself and family a Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year. Signed on behalf of your employes,

CHRISTMAS CRIMES.

A BIG BATCH OF MURDERS IN THE SOUTHERN STATES.

Race Troubles in Georgia—Several Men Killed in a Riot—Whisky Helps to Fill a Number of Graves.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 25.—Last night in a drunken row Wm Button shot and killed John Schaefer.

To-day Gus Zelig murdered James O'Keefe and another man to leave his premises. O'Keefe refused to go and Zelig shot him dead.

At Memphis, Tenn., a negro stepped to by Dan Hawkins, was shot dead and robbed under the bayou bridge early this morning.

To-night Street car Driver Pinkston was stabbed and instantly killed by an unknown negro.

Killed His Love's Father.

NEWMAN, Ill., Dec. 25.—Arthur Craig of Indianapolis, arrived last evening to wed Miss Hattie Sutton, a pretty teacher. Her father, Detective John Sutton, who bitterly opposed the match, placed a revolver at Craig's head and said: "Get or I'll kill you." He pulled the trigger twice but missed fire. Craig then fired two bullets into the detective's brain, killing him instantly. Craig then gave himself up. A jury acquitted him. He returned to Indianapolis fearing trouble from Sutton's friends. The young lady is said to exonerate her lover.

A RACE RIOT IN GEORGIA.

Two White Men and Several Negroes Killed—More Trouble Expected.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 25.—A riot occurred to-day at Jesup, 57 miles south of Savannah. Two white men were killed and two others seriously wounded and several negroes are reported killed. The Georgia Hussars sent two detachments of men to-night, and more trouble is apprehended.

One Man Killed in This Scrimmage.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 25.—Officers Williams and Crawford went to arrest some drunken negroes to-day. The latter resisted, disarmed the policemen and beat them badly with their clubs. The police were reinforced and half-a-dozen negroes were locked up in the engine house. A large number of citizens, white and black, collected and great excitement prevailed. The prisoners were removed later to the jail. When the officers started for the jail with the prisoners a difficulty occurred between a negro and several whites. First clubs were used, then pistols. One negro was killed and another badly wounded. All is quiet to-night.

A Free Fight at a Christmas Celebration.

SHANNERTOWN, Ill., Dec. 25.—A free fight took place at a Christmas celebration in Eagle Creek precinct last night. Chairs, clubs, knives and pistols were used. Thomas Burroughs, the church door keeper and one of the most respectable and prominent farmers in the county, was dangerously stabbed in two places. Stout Colbert was hit in the chin with a bullet, and several other persons received minor injuries.

The fight arose from a mistake in distributing the presents. Parents in the neighborhood had taken their children's gifts to the church where they were properly labelled and hung on the tree. Some tags were in securely fastened and dropped off, but were replaced as accurately as possible. Last night a large crowd assembled to witness the distribution. When about a dozen presents had been handed to the children a farmer named Johnson grabbed a sled from a child's hands and declared it was one he had bought there for his boy. The sexton attempted to explain his mistake but Johnson pushed him rudely aside and started for the door carrying the sled in his hand. Some young men who had been drinking tried to snatch the sled from Johnson and he struck one of them and was himself hit with a chair and felled to the floor. The fight then became general and for a time it looked as though a number of the combatants would be killed.

Killed in a Quarrel.

PARIS, Tex., Dec. 25.—Leo Connors, aged 20, was shot and killed last night by Chris Holt in a quarrel.

Intruded on a Christmas Party.

LEBANON, Mo., Dec. 25.—James Carter, aged 17, intruded on a Christmas party last night. A quarrel followed and he was struck on the head with a stone and killed instantly.

Their Last Christmas Drunk.

STINCESVILLE, Ind., Dec. 25.—George Easton and John Douglass indulged in a Christmas drunk and were ordered out of George Buskirk's saloon. Buskirk then locked the door. They tried to kick in the door and Buskirk fired at them with a double barrelled shot-gun, blowing off Easton's head and fatally wounding Douglass.

CHRISTMAS CONFLAGRATIONS.

A Disastrous Fire at Vicksburg, Miss.—The Losses Total $170,000.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Dec. 25.—Fire broke out here at 11 o'clock last night in the basement of Switzer, Newwitter & Co.'s wholesale drygoods store, which was full of cotton goods. Dense smoke poured from the building, making it impossible to enter until the flames burst through the first floor. By midnight five streams were playing on it and at 1 a.m. the flames were apparently checked. The rear of the building fell. This weakened the corner of Rose & Jackson's building, which fell at 3 a.m. The flames then burst out afresh and licked up this building and contents in a few minutes. The fire was the most disastrous here in years. The total loss reaches $170,000.

Steamship Wharves Burnt at Sydney.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Dec. 25.—Fire yesterday destroyed the wharves of the New Zealand Steamship Company with a large quantity of stored produce.

THE DAY IN THE STATES.

Father Christmas Visits Gotham in Summer Attire.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—Santa Claus visited New York wearing a linen duster, carrying a fan and sunshade. It was the warmest Christmas day in the memory of "the oldest inhabitant."

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—Christmas passed away quietly, a large number of people spending the day outdoors, as the weather reminded one of an April day, being clear and warm. Reports from Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Paul and Minneapolis, say the day passed off quietly with the usual festivities.

A SMASHUP ON THE C.P.R.

An Entire Train Leaves the track Near Brownsville, N.B.

ST JOHN, N.B., Dec. 25.—The Canadian Pacific Railway train did not reach here till 7.10 this evening, five hours late, owing to a big smashup near Brownsville. In rounding a curve the whole train left the rails in a rock cutting, smashing the sleeper, first-class and colonist cars. The baggage car was not damaged. The porter of the sleeper and the cook sustained slight injuries.

THERE WAS A GOLD WATCH IN IT.

The Proprietor of the Enterprise Tea Company Arrested at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Dec. 25.—The proprietor of the Enterprise Tea Company here, who gives his name as Charles W. Chessar, aged 23, has been arrested on the following warrant.

That a certain Enterprise Tea Company of the said city of Montreal, on Dec 21, at the said city, did sell a certain movable article by lottery, to wit, a certain box of tea for the price of $1, said box of tea being worth about 70c., together with the chance that the said box of tea might contain a reasonable article of value, such as a gold watch or a diamond breast pin, such article being of a much higher value than the said box of tea, and said box of tea thus sold on the day aforesaid, containing a gold watch of the value of about $25; said sale of said box of tea being only a sham or disguised sale to cover the sale by lottery of the said gold watch, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided.

Chessar was bailed out by a hotelkeeper, and will be tried on Dec. 30.

A New Comet.

GENEVA, Dec. 25.—Prof. Brooks discovered a new comet this evening in right ascension 18 hours 23 minutes, declination north 34 degrees, 40 minutes. The comet is a bright telescopic one and is moving slowly westerly.

SCALED THE WALLS.

FIVE KINGSTON CONVICTS CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS.

They Steal a Boat and Start Across the Lake—How the Trick Was Done—The Records of the Men.

KINGSTON, Dec. 25.—The five convicts who escaped from the Penitentiary last night are still at large. These additional particulars of the affair are learned to-day:

As has been the custom from time immemorial the bakers at the Penitentiary were put at the extra duty after the rest of the convicts were in their cells of making final preparation for the Christmas dinner, always more elaborate than on ordinary days. Seven men were marched to the bakery and they worked until nearly 10 o'clock. They were in charge of Guard Appleton, the bakery instructor, Mr. Coward, being ill. About 10 o'clock Appleton was suddenly seized, overpowered, tied and gagged. His coat was removed and donned by one of the prisoners. Two convicts named Morgan and Ray, who remonstrated with their comrades, were also bound when they refused to join in the mutiny.

Then the door of the bakery was opened with Appleton's keys and the quintet awaited the coming of the night watches. Keeper Brennan was the first to appear. He entered and in the dim light saw what he took to be an officer by the brass buttons on his coat. In a moment he was felled by a blow from a club. Behind him was Yardman Driscoll carrying a lantern. He was soon overpowered, choked, and together they were bound, the straps used being pieces of flour bags, and their mouths stuffed with gags. Their coats and weapons were taken.

Then the five convicts started for liberty, locking the door after them. By means of ropes two ladders were bound together and the top of the wall reached. Then a rope with a grappling hook was let down on the other side and freedom was secured. The men seem to have followed the lake shore and at Mortonwood robbed Lieut.-Col. Smith's boat house. They seem to have started off with it for the United States. The lake was very rough, so their passage could not have been a pleasant one.

Some time after the convicts had cleared, one of the imprisoned guards secured the release of a hand and speedily his bindings were unloosened. Then when he freed his comrades, Appleton fired an alarm, and the grounds were soon swarming with guards. Messengers went in all directions, but the fugitives have not been run down yet. The descriptions are as follows:

John Ryan, Toronto—Sent for robbery for five years, served half his time, 34 years of age, 5 ft. 6½ in. in height, blue eyes.

William D. Crawford, Brockville—Shooting and larceny, ten years, served 4¾, aged 30 years, 5 ft. 7 in. in height, dark complexion, blue eyes and dark brown hair.

Charles Hall, Hamilton—Horse stealing and highway robbery, nine years, served four months, aged 20 years, 5 ft. 8¾ in. in height, dark complexion, dark blue eyes and dark brown hair.

James Daly, Toronto—Robbery, five years, served half his time, aged 30, 5 ft. 7¾ in. in height, fresh complexion, hazel eyes, grey hair.

Oscar Hopkins, Toronto—Uttering forged paper, ten years, served 2½, aged 36, 5 ft. 11 in. in height, blue eyes, dark brown hair.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

An Insane Man Kills His Wife and Then Cuts His Throat.

EAST TEMPLETON, Que., December 25.—W. H. Ford, who has been out of his mind for some months, committed a most atrocious deed last night about midnight. He murdered his wife and the noise of the struggle awakened his sister-in-law, Miss Busby, and his little daughter, who were asleep upstairs, and on their awakening, Ford attacked Miss Busby, striking her several times on the head with a poker after dragging her downstairs.

Miss Busby made a most desperate struggle escaped with the little girl to a neighbor's house about a mile distant. Barefoot, their feet badly frozen, clad only in their night clothes, which were covered with blood, they presented a spectacle more easily imagined than described.

On leaving the house they noticed the old man cutting his throat with his razor, the lamp having upset in the struggle and fired the house which was burned to the ground. It is supposed his body was burned with it. Only one charred body, part of a head and chest, can be discovered, whether of Ford or his wife, it is impossible to determine.

The deed, which for horror and atrocity is without parallel in the history of the place, has caused the greatest sorrow and gloom. The family were well-known and highly esteemed.

Mr. Ford was, previous to being insane, a member of the council here and highly respected. The sad deed reflects small credit on the municipality for not having the man placed in some asylum, as he has been out of his mind for some time.

CANADA'S COAL WEALTH.

Enormous Increase in the Cape Breton Production During Recent Years.

HALIFAX, December 25.—The Herald to-day publishes a North Sydney despatch saying: "During the year 745,000 tons of coal have been mined in Cape Breton, against 240,000 in 1879. North Sydney and Sydney shipped 460,000 tons in 1889, as compared with 140,000 tons in 1879. The growth of this important industry, feeling all other branches of commerce, illustrates the great benefit of the National Policy, which has made a home market for such a large output of coal, giving employment to our people and making them virtually independent of the New England market and the adverse American tariff which crippled our coal industry so long.

"Comparing the yearly coal exports since 1878, the result of the present tariff is most satisfactory. In 1878 the coal shipments from all the Cape Breton mines only aggregated 247,200 tons: in 1884, 308,150 tons, and in 1889 they increased to 749,357 tons. The shipments from North Sydney and Sydney were 140,000 in 1879, 229,000 in 1884, and 460,148 tons to Dec. 15. The shipping season is not yet over, and your correspondent can only give the shipments from the several mines to date, which are as follows: Sydney, 120,000 tons; International, 123,000; Bridgeport, 25,000; Reserve, 103,257; Little Glace Bay, 73,000; Port Caledonia, 105,000; Gowrie Mines, 104,000.

"At the present time there are nine coal mines in operation in Cape Breton and two more are opening connection with these mines. Indirectly there is an army of about 4,000 to 5,000 persons employed, and a gross population of about 18,000 has settled in and about the various mining localities. About 2350 vessels, with an aggregate tonnage of 250,000 tons, handle our coal shipment this year, with an employment of 24,000 hands. Considering the employment, the commerce and the number of industries affected through the development of the coal trade, the importance of the industry can hardly be over-estimated."

WASHED OVERBOARD

Three Sailors Drowned by a Big Wave in an Oregon Harbor.

YAQUINA CITY, Ore., Dec. 25.—The steam pilot boat Farallone, after being towed across the bar yesterday was struck by a heavy sea, which carried overboard Chief Engineer Pugsley, a cabin boy, and three sailors named Frank Johnson, Charles Dickinson and Wm. Brown. The sailors were drowned. Pugsley and the cabin boy caught some wreckage and were rescued when nearly exhausted. The sea shipped put out the fires in the schooner, and the assistant engineer and two firemen narrowly escaped drowning in the fire-room. The Farallone's starboard side was stove in, the rail carried away, the davits and lifeboats washed overboard and the hatches torn up, filling the hold with water and damaging the cargo of wheat. The schooner was towed in.

FOUND DROWNED.

Fatal Mishap to a Farmer Living Near Attercliffe Craig.

AILSA CRAIG, Dec. 25.—Isaac Walker, a well-to-do farmer living about six miles from here, while on his way home from here last evening was drowned. It is supposed that the buggy wheels got into a rut and upset, throwing Mr. Walker into a deep ditch that is now swelled into a small torrent. The deceased was 60 years old and unmarried.

NOT TO BE SNEEZED AT

THE INFLUENZA ASSUMING A MALIGNANT PHASE.

Fighting in the Streets of Rio—The Egyptian Question—A General Strike of Colliers in Belgium.

PARIS, Dec. 25.—In consequence of the spread of the epidemic the hospitals are crowded and the authorities have been compelled to make extraordinary provision for new patients. This has been done by the erection of a temporary pavilion on the grounds of the Hospital Beaujon. In the school of the daughters of members of the Legion of Honor one-third of the pupils were ill and the school has therefore been closed.

Dr. Germaine See to-day read a paper on the influenza before the Academy of Medicine in this city which was discussed by other distinguished members of the profession. Dr. See thought that the academy should not encourage the opinion that the epidemic was without gravity. He said the patients were apt to have pneumonia or bronchitis in fatal forms.

Dr. Beaumetz disagreed with Dr. See as to some points in the nature of the malady, but not as to the fact that it is not always benign. He believed the epidemic was a form of the dengue, a peculiar erratic epidemic fever allied to the rheumatic affections. He had observed that it presented two phases: First, a nervous phase, and next a catarrhal phase, and that there was sometimes an eruption—a simple rash. The varieties in the disease were due to the predominance in a case of any one of these facts.

Dr. Rochard suggested that the rash might perhaps not be a part of the disease, but only a consequence of the large quantities of antipyrine given to the patients.

All the speakers concurred in the opinion that the disease is not harmless and that in case of relapse the consequences are very serious.

WORSE AND MORE OF IT.

A Great Increase in the Number of Influenza Cases—Many Deaths.

BERLIN, Dec. 25.—The public health authorities report a great increase in the number of cases of influenza and an aggravation of the disease, with an increase in the death rate. The fatal effects are produced by complications of pneumonia and laryngitis. From Bremen there is news that the gasworks are short of hands in consequence of the number of employes down with the epidemic. In Munich the disease is increasing and the hospitals are full. The epidemic has appeared at Bucharest, Galaba and Brailau.

The Soldiers Succss.

LISBON, Dec. 25.—Influenza prevails to such an extent among the soldiers in the garrison here that it will probably prevent the proposed review on Dec. 28, on the occasion of the proclaiming of Dom Carlos as King of Portugal.

The Czar Has the Influenza.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 25.—The Czar has suffered severely from the prevailing epidemic of influenza. To-day he was too ill to attend the regular Christmas church service, and was also compelled to omit the customary review of the parade of the Guards. The Empress presided at the luncheon given in the Anitchkoff Palace after the military parade.

Portugal's King Has It.

LISBON, Dec. 25.—The King of Portugal is suffering from an attack of influenza.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION.

An Important Article in The Paris Temps—France's Change of Attitude.

PARIS, Dec. 25.—The Temps has an important article on the position of the French Government with regard to the conversion of the Egyptian preference loan from a 5 per cent. to a 4 per cent. stock, as proposed early in the year by Sir Edgar Vincent. The Temps reports that the Government has intimated to the British Minister that it will no longer insist upon the evacuation of Egypt by England as the condition of its assent to the conversion of this portion of the Egyptian debt, but may consent if England initiates the process of evacuation by withdrawing part of her troops and if it is agreed that the profit of the conversion shall be applied to the purpose of strengthening the Egyptian army. It has been calculated that the saving to the Egyptian treasury by this reduction would be equal to $800,000 a year, and this money spent upon the Egyptian army would admit of an important reduction in the effective British army without endangering any interest that the presence of that army protects. As the Marquis of Salisbury has hitherto refused to negotiate, upon the ground that the military occupation and the debt were parts of the same question, and as England claims that the retirement of her forces will be followed by the over-running of Egypt from the Soudan, the prospect for an acceptance of the French proposition is not promising.

THE BRAZILIAN REVOLT.

Two Days' Serious Fighting in the Streets of Rio de Janeiro.

LISBON, Dec. 25.—Despatches from Rio de Janeiro received in cipher by the newspaper Novidades contain important and deeply interesting facts about the political upheaval reported as having occurred there on Dec. 18. From the information contained in the cipher telegrams it is undoubtedly correct that the provisional government found itself confronted by a very formidable and active opposition, among the members of which were numbered many soldiers and a good contingent from the navy, backed up by several officers from both branches of the service, while numerous citizens also joined the revolt in favor of the monarchy. These banded together and paraded the principal streets, giving full aggressive show of their sentiments, and very serious fighting resulted. The revolt was not suppressed until the morning of Dec. 20, when the regularly organized troops overcame and dispersed the monarchists. The provisional authorities arrested quite a number of leading participants in the revolt.

Dom Pedro at Oporto.

LISBON, Dec. 25.—Dom Pedro and the ex-Empress of Brazil are in Oporto. The ex-Empress is still indisposed.

The Brazilian Imperial family attended mass in the Lapa Convent and visited the chapel in which is deposited the heart of Dom Pedro I., the father of the Imperial exile.

The Anglo-Portuguese Dispute.

LISBON, Dec. 25.—It is reported that the dispute between England and Portugal regarding their African possession will be submitted to Duke Ernest of Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha for arbitration. The British Minister here has had several long interviews with Senhor Gomez on the questions at issue. The Portuguese corvette Mindello has been ordered to remain in Delagoa Bay.

Progressive Japan.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 25.—There has been a reconstruction of the ministry, intended to give ultimate effect to the purpose with which General Count Yamagata Aritorno was sent on his long visit to Europe, namely to introduce European methods in a larger degree into the legal and administrative system. It has resulted in an exchange of places in the ministry introducing two new men, Aoki and Iwamura, the first of whom becomes Minister of Foreign Affairs and the second Minister of Commerce. Count Aritorno becomes President of the Ministry.

Declared Himself a Socialist.

CARLSRUHE, Dec. 25.—Herr Guttenstein, the public prosecutor of the Grand Duchy of Baden, speaking at a public meeting here declared himself a socialist and proceeded to develop the socialist theory and to advocate the socialist political program. The meeting was immediately suspended and the hall closed by the police.

Belgian Coal Miners on Strike.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 25.—A general strike of colliers has been inaugurated throughout Belgium. The scarcity of coal is already beginning to be severely felt.

Brazil Will be Shy of Funds.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—The Times' Lisbon correspondent reports that English and Portuguese bankers have within the last fortnight greatly reduced their remittances to Brazil.

THE LADIES!

A New and Distinct Form of Disease which is Afflicting Canadian Women.

How some of These Regulated Fresh Complexion, Perfect Health and Superb Physical Beauty.

A great London Physician says that he notes a new and distinct form of nervous disease produced in Canadian women by worry about servants and overwork in doing for the home. This is only too true. It is why we see so many ladies pale, weak, languid, and suffering them headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of women, and is daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. E. Cooper, 60 St. Hippolite St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now looks as well as she ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

There will be an evening meeting during the session, which begins at the Court House on Jan. 10th, at 10.30 a.m. There will be a meeting of the directors on Saturday to select the subjects (from the above list) to be presented.

Springville.

From a Correspondent.

The country surrounding Springville is fast becoming one of the most noted places in Ontario for thoroughbred stock, especially Clydesdale horses. It bids fair to follow in the line of thoroughbred sheep and swine. The very excellent stock owned by Brown Bros., of North Monaghan, your correspondent had the privilege of inspecting. This firm reside half a mile east of Springville and own 200 acres of farm land, some of which is well adapted for stock raising, having excellent farm buildings and, just recently erected, a spacious dwelling house. These young men have been engaged for two or three years past in raising thoroughbred sheep of the registered Shropshire class, and have now on hand about twenty five of this grade, of which they make a specialty. The ram, Favorite Second, No. A.S.R., his sire and dam have both been prize-winners at all the important shows held in the province; each ewe has individual merits of its own. At Peterborough fall show this flock won four first and four second prizes and also diploma for the best flock in attendance, beating recently imported sheep. The firm has been making very profitable sales to American buyers the past season. Their Berkshire pigs are of the very best quality, being possessed of pedigree. The fine sow, Bonnie Lady, No. 751, C.B.R., which was winner of first prize at Peterborough Central, was followed by five of her offspring, which took four first and one second, and also diploma. The firm has lately purchased a nice young hog from the well known firm of J. G. Snell & Bros. In viewing these two highly bred class of stock, it is doubtful if there is their equal to be found anywhere. The Brown Bros., who are young men who are fast meriting the patronage of old and experienced stockmen as purchasers, are to be congratulated on their success.

Christmas Tree.

Tuesday was a happy night for the many little folk who thronged the Mission Hall at Auburn to receive some of the numerous presents which adorned the 'Xmas tree, gotten up by the teachers, parents and friends of the Auburn Mission School The evening's programme was opened by a chorus, after which the Rev. Mr. Pearson led in prayer, and following, made few appropriate remarks. The chair was taken by Rev. Mr. Leitch, who has charge of the mission work at Auburn. The programme consisted of songs, readings and recitations, which were select and well rendered. The distribution of presents by good old Santa Claus, who was impersonated by Mr. T. Fowlds, was a happy event for both young and old. It was a wonderful tree, yielding all manner of fruit, together with an endless variety of dolls of all sizes, shapes and figures, watches, horses, books, toys too numerous to mention, together with useful and fancy ornaments of an endless variety. The scholars of school section No. 4 presented the teacher, Miss Kearns, with an address and a beautiful plush covered toilet box, in appreciation of her service during the past year. Miss M. Johnson received a teacher's Bible, presented by Rev. Mr. Pearson for her faithful service in connection with the Sunday school. Another pleasant surprise was a beautiful Bible and M. E. Hymn Book, which were from the school to Rev. F. A. Leitch as a slight token of their appreciation of his faithful service at Auburn. The entertainment was closed by singing and prayer. The hall was tastefully decorated with evergreen by the skilled hands of the young ladies of the school—Miss M. Brown, Miss M. Sperry, organist, Miss A. Coveny, Miss Nicholl, Miss Robb and Miss E. Spensley.

WHO BIDS?

The United States Government Offers a Seal Monopoly in Alaska.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—Secretary Windom yesterday issued proposals calling for bids for the privilege of taking fur seals upon the islands of St. George and St. Paul, Alaska. The bids are to be opened on Jan. 23 next, and are for the exclusive right to take fur seals on those islands for the term of 20 years from May 1, 1890. In addition to the requirements of the statutes on the subject, the successful bidder will be required to erect a school building on each island and maintain a public school there for at least eight months in each year; also to pay the inhabitants of the said islands for labor performed by them just compensation, to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The successful bidder will be allowed to catch 60,000 seals for their skins during the first year of the contract, but after that the Secretary of the Treasury will fix the number. Each bid must be accompanied by a properly certified check for $100,000 and drawn upon a National Bank payable to the order of the secretary. The check of the successful bidder will be retained by the secretary and forfeited unless he (the successful bidder) executes the lease and gives the bond required by law. The secretary reserves the right to reject any and all bids not deemed to be in accordance with the best interests of the United States and the inhabitants of the said islands.

$10,000 Found in an Ash Barrel.

A New York rag-picker is reported to have found $10,000 in greenbacks in an ash barrel. This was a rare piece of good luck, but how much more fortunate is the sufferer from consumption who learns that although the doctors may have p onounced his case hopeless, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure him. Consumption is a scrofulous disease of the lungs. The "Discovery," which is the most potent blood-purifier of the age, strikes right at the root of the evil, and there is no resisting it, if taken in time. In all scrofulous or other blood taints, skin and scalp diseases, old sores and swellings, it is guaranteed to cure or money paid for it promptly refunded. By druggists. b

Baby one Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched, meddlesome—no rest by day, no peace by night—doctors and all remedies failed—Tried Cuticura—Effect marvellous—Saved his life

Cured by Cuticura.

Our eldest child, now six years of age, when six least six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs.

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and contained daily growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, I determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, Dec. 24.—At St. Lawrence Market yesterday very few dressed hogs were offered, and prices were firm at $5.50 to $6. The receipts of poultry were light and prices were firm. Turkeys sold at 12 and 12½ cents per pound. Geese brought 9 cents. Chickens were scarce, and easily brought 50c to 60c per pair, and ducks ranged all the way from 70c to $1.20. Too much inferior butter is offered and not enough good. Pound rolls are worth 22c to 25c and inferior 14c to 18c; tub is quoted at 16c to 20c. Good fresh eggs are worth 20c to 25c. Vegetables are unchanged. Potatoes are selling at 75c to 90c per bag. Apples are very scarce and are quoted at $3 50 to $4 for eating and $2 to $2.50 for cooking.

BREADSTUFFS.

Flour—City prices for ten barrel lots—Family grades, $4.30; pastry, $4.75; patents, $5.30; strong bakers, $4.70.

Barley—Dull and prices purely nominal.

Oats—Quiet. Mixed are quoted at 26 to 27c, outside and white at 27½c.

Peas—Dull and easier. Outside quotations are at 54c.

Bran—Little is offering and there is only a fair demand. At the mills quotations are at $6 50 to $10.

STREET MARKETS.

The sales of grain on the street were: 1000 bushels of barley at 39c to 46c; 100 bushels of peas at 59c to 61c, and 900 bushels of oats at 31c to 33c. No wheat was offered and prices were nominally 85c for fall, 85c for spring and 68c to 70c for goose.

Receipts of hay were light, the demand good and prices firm and higher, at $12 to $14 for timothy and $9 to $10 for clover.

Receipts of straw were small and prices steady at $9.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Kilrain to Spar With Vanquelin.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 23.—Articles of agreement were signed to-day by Jake Kilrain and Felix Vanquelin for a six-round glove contest, Marquis of Queensbury rule, to take place in this city Jan. 19 next for a purse of $2000, of which $1500 goes to the winner and $500 to the loser. The money was put up. If Kilrain fails to knock Vanquelin out in six rounds he loses the fight.

Sudden Death at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Dec. 24.—Michael Brady, who has been attending college at Saratoga, reached here yesterday afternoon intending to spend Christmas with his friends. While being driven from the station to his parent's house he took suddenly ill and died before his home was reached. He had not been in good health for some time, having been a sufferer from rheumatism.

Feeling With a Locomotive.

PORT HOPE, Dec. 23.—About 6.30 o'clock on Saturday night an engine, tender and van was standing on the siding at the G.T.R. station, the driver and fireman having stepped into Mrs. Christopher's hotel to get some supper before starting for Toronto. Franklin Sidey, a man of about thirty years, son of Dr. Sidey of Bewdley, who had been drinking pretty freely, jumped into the cab, pulled back the lever and opened the throttle of the engine to its fullest extent. She started to back up at a furious rate, but it happened she was on a dead switch and soon reached the end, landing in the mud. Sidey was paralysed at what he had done, but remarked, "And didn't I bring her up quick." The Chief Constable was telephoned for and he escorted Mr. Sidey to the lock-up. This morning he was brought before the Police Magistrate and remanded until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

He Slugged the Constable.

GUELPH, Dec. 24.—A case of highway robbery and daring escape occurred on the Brock-road, about three miles from here, on Saturday night. John Carruthers of Puslinch township, while walking home was met by a man who had been hanging round the vicinity for some time. He immediately jumped on Carruthers, threw him down and rifled his pockets of all he had—some nine or ten dollars. Carruthers reported to the Chief of Police, who sent Special Constable Elliott out. The special found his man in bed at Condy's Hotel, about three miles out. He was told to consider himself under arrest. Apparently the constable's revolver and baton failed to scare the man, as, when half dressed, he defied the constable to arrest him, at the same time pitching into him and giving him a black eye. The special returned to the city for help, but when he got back to the hotel the highwayman was gone, and is still at liberty.

Drowned.

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—A drowning accident occurred on the Coulougne River on Saturday, the victim being a young bushman named Godfrey Marson, who lives thirty miles up the Gatineau road, and was returning home to his friends to spend Christmas and New Years. Marson took the ice in search of better sleighing and had proceeded but a short distance when his horses and sleigh broke through. A companion who was along with him managed to jump in time to save his life but Marson with the horses and sleigh disappeared.

The Washington Ghouls.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Some startling developments are expected shortly in the grave robbery cases here. Warrants were issued yesterday for Dr. A. C. Adams and a dentist named Bealle. The latter has been known as a resurrectionist by the police for some time, but they never could trap him. Dr. Adams has heretofore borne a good reputation. Several other parties are under surveillance. Adams and Bealle have both disappeared and the police can get no clue to their whereabouts. The officials of the Cremonial Cemetery are also under surveillance, as it is believed they aided the ghouls in their work.

Rose Island Reports

I CAN state that we have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil with great benefit for colds, sore throat, cuts, burns, chapped hands, etc. We can recommend it be very useful and good in many different ways.
MRS. ABEL HELPS,
Rose Island, Ont.

Not Only For Man.

I CAN say that your Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best thing I ever saw for croup, coughs, colds, cuts or burns, and it is good for man or beast. MISS E. M. HOPKINS, Claremont, Ont. Yellow Oil cures rheumatism, neuralgia and all pain. 2w51d

Valuable to Know.

CONSUMPTION may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles. 2w51d

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so-called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and restlessness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."
DR. H. A. ARCHER,
111 S. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N.Y.
March 8, 1887.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Wild Cherry Bark, Elecampane, Hoarhound and Senega. These are the remedies with which Dame Nature has supplied Canada for the cure of Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Loss of Voice. Wilson's Wild Cherry is sold by all druggists. dw

Death Dealing Drugs.

SUCH as Calomel, Morphine, etc., are remedies better left alone. They often weaken even strong constitutions. This Burdock Blood Bitters never does, it contains no mineral or other poison, and cures all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood by unlocking the secretions and removing all impurities. 2w52d

Make no Delay!

IS a perfect cure for croup and colds, and I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil—one bottle of which cured me of a very bad cold. I would say to all sufferers, make no delay in using it as it gives quick relief.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Delayed by a Landslide.

The C. P. R. local train Tuesday evening was delayed by a landslide over two hours. Between Manvers and Cavanville stations, the heavy rain had washed out the sides of an embankment, and several inches of mud lay on the track. The local was unable to force its way through and had to wait until the mud drift could be cleared away.

An Old and Respected Citizen Removed.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. A. McNeil left town for Bay City, Michigan, where they will take up residence with their son, Mr. Harry McNeil. Mr. and Mrs. McNeil are old residents of the town, and it was expected they would end their days in Peterborough, but the want of filial comfort in their declining years—Mr. McNeil is 85 and his wife 75—decided them to remove to their son. Mr. McNeil came to Peterborough in 1826 taking up residence in Ashburnham the 1860, when he removed to Water street. Mr. McNeil was a well known citizen of Peterborough, and enjoyed the high respect of the thousands that knew him. He and Mrs. McNeil will be followed to their new home with the wish that their closing years may be happy ones.

The Drama.

The Wood-St. John English Comedy Company appears in Bradburn's opera house two nights, Dec. 27 and 28, playing "Roger La Honte" and "David Garrick." The Toronto Empire of Nov. 8th says of the company:—A large audience assembled at the new playhouse yesterday afternoon. The old comedy "David Garrick" was really well put on. Mr. Geo. M. Wood, in the title role, presented the "actor and the gentleman" with the grace and dignity which the part demands, while in the second act the after-dinner boisterousness was a true portrayal of a bacchanalian orgy. Miss St. John as May Densture proved herself a thorough artist, and the representation was a finished piece of acting, which was thoroughly appreciated. The leading artists were called before the curtain at the close of the second and third acts. The evening performance was a repetition of the success of the afternoon. 1d

The Nora Clench Concert.

Miss Clench appeared at the annual concert of the Buffalo Liedertafel, one of the most critical and musically cultured organizations of the country. She stood this severe test triumphantly—she was a star amongst stars. The report of the concert says:—"But the great feature of the concert was the violin playing of Miss Nora Clench, the young Canadian violiniste. She developed a wonderfully broad and resonant tone, which filled the large auditorium like a voice, and her executive skill and intelligent, artistic interpretation called forth loud and hearty plaudits at every pause. Miss Clench scored a decided triumph before an extremely critical audience. She was the only soloist encored." Miss Clench performs in Bradburn's opera house on Jan. 9th. She will be supported by Mrs. Chambers, soprano, Montreal, and Mr. T. Dunn, baritone, town. For tickets apply to Mr. A. F. Hoover or Mr. W. E. Loch.

The Christmas Boat.

The annual treat of the Mark Street Methodist Sunday school pupils was given them Christmas night, in the shape of a Christmas boat, fully rigged, and hung profusely with presents of all kinds for the young people. The church was filled with the pupils and their parents and friends. After opening devotional exercises, conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Wilson, the following programme was rendered:—

Address	Chairman
Singing	The Children
Recitation	W Hooper
Dialogue	Three Girls and Two Boys
Song	A Armstrong
Dialogue	Kate Wand and Maud Dormer
Singing	The Children
Recitation	Geo Dormer
Solo	Miss Mowry
Dialogue	Fr. ddie and Kitty Andrew
Song	Max Peters
Dialogue	H Wilson and A Trickey
Singing	The Children
Dialogue	Eight Boys
Recitation	Hodder Wilson
Singing	Bruce and Ida Armstrong
Dialogue	Kate Wand and Robt White
Singing	The Children
Dialogue	Seven Little Girls

The distribution of the gifts to the children was the last, but not least event on the programme. A buzz of merriment filled the church, as the young people received their presents. Each one was remembered and made correspondingly happy. One of the gifts was a handsome toilet case from the choir to their popular leader, Mr. H. S. Armstrong. The proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $25. The Epworth League hold an entertainment in the Mark street church New Year's night.

Christmas Chimes.

At St. Peter's.

At St. Peter's Cathedral Christmas morning there were continuous masses from six a. m. till noon. High mass was said at six o'clock, the boy choir singing. At 10 30 Pontificial High Mass was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop O Connor, assisted by Rev. Fathers Dube, Cotey and Guinan, of Toronto, the latter also preaching. The mass was sung by the choir, led by the orchestra.

At St. John's.

At St. John's there were two services yesterday, at 8 30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Both were largely attended and the services were hearty and inspiring. The church was most beautifully and tastefully decorated. The chancel screen of evergreens was particularly attractive. Upon the pointed arches of fragile evergreen, was supported a frieze with evergreens fringing a crimson ground, upon which were blazoned the legend "The Word was Made Flesh." From the apex of the chancel arch depended graceful festoons of evergreens, which were continued in loopings broken only by the windows down either side of the nave, till they met at the door, above which was placed a design corresponding to that in the chancel arch opposite. The window sills were bordered with evergreens, and upon their broad surfaces tastefully disposed ferns spread their emerald fronds; while spiral swathings of evergreens climbed the tall pillars of the nave. The decorations were altogether extremely effective—the decorators made an artistic avoidance of overdoing their work. There was just enough and not too much adornment to meet the conditions of a model Christmas decoration. At the 11 o'clock service Rev. Messrs. Davidson and Kenrick took the service, the former preaching the very effective sermon on the theme of the day. The musical portion of the service was also admirably produced, the large choir rendering the Te Deum and Jubilate in a very effective manner. At the offertory a delightful duet was sung by Mrs. Seward and Miss Cottingham. There was nothing florid about the music, but the exquisite sweetness and perfect harmony of the singing made the duet a great pleasure.

At St. Paul's.

A most interesting feature of the Christmas morning service in St. Paul's Church was the rendition of the cantata, "The First Christmas Morn," a Biblical pastoral composed by Henry Leslie, the words being written by Rev. S. J. Stone. The choruses were given with good effect, while the solos of Miss Sophie Cameron, Miss Lily Dixon and Mrs. W. A. Sanderson were charmingly rendered. The music was a most pleasing addition to the service, and Mr. Parker deserves a word of praise for his indefatigable efforts in training the choir to such perfection. Rev. S. F. Torrance preached a sermon suitable to the occasion from the text:—"Glory to God in the Highest, peace on earth, good-will toward men."

At the Methodist Churches.

At the Charlotte and George street Methodist churches special services were held, Rev. S. J. Shorey and Rev. P. C. Parker preaching sermons. Liberal collections were taken up for the benefit of the poor.

At St. Luke's.

The rector, Rev. W. J. McCleary, conducted the services. There was an unusually large number of communicants. The choir rendered special music.

Personal.

Mr. Frank Kingan is home from St. Paul for a few holidays. Frank's face is a model of hirsute adornment.

The Hastings Star says:—Miss McClelland was made the recipient of a handsome napkin ring, card case and salt cup, by her scholars in the junior department of the Public school, previous to her departure for Peterborough.

Mr. C. J. Phelan has returned from St. Michael's College, Toronto, for the holidays. Joe comes home loaded down with athletic honors. He won several prizes for different events at the annual sports, and besides carried off the championship silver cup offered to the student scoring the most victories. The prizes were presented by champion oarsman O'Connor.

Golden Wedding Celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Judge Dennistoun Signalized the Jubilee Anniversary of Their Marriage.

On Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. Judge Dennistoun celebrated their golden wedding at Castle Knock, the residence of Mrs. J. F. Dennistoun. The occasion was a memorable and delightful one. There were present sixteen members of their family—children and grand children. The venerable couple were very liberally remembered by their children; there was an elegant profusion of handsome and valuable golden wedding presents. The celebration of this very unusual anniversary was as delightful as it is rare—it is very seldom that two persons live to reach the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennistoun have the congratulations of their numerous friends, as cordial as those they received on Christmas Day, 1839. As a coincidence worthy of notice, Mr. James Wallis, North Monaghan, was present as a guest. He had the pleasure of driving in his four-in hand, the bridal pair from Peterborough, on the first stages of their wedding journey—there having been, of course, no other means of travel in the primitive time of half a century ago.

Stewart's, Otonabee.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—As usual, success attended the Christmas tree and entertainment of the River Road union Sabbath school, which was held in Bethel church on Monday evening, Dec. 23rd. The church was crowded, a large number being present from a distance. There were two trees, one in each corner, joined by an arch, and on these the presents were placed. The superintendent, Mr. George Stewart, was chairman. An excellent programme of music, recitations, dialogues, readings, etc., had been prepared. The children, especially, performed their parts well, reflecting credit on themselves and on those who trained them. Not the least interesting part of the programme was the giving away of the presents, many of which were very handsome tokens of friendship, and others, intended as "jokes," causing no end of fun to those who were "in the secret." R. v. Mr. Wilson, of Ashburnham, made a few complimentary and encouraging remarks. After singing the doxology all departed for home, sorry that Christmas comes so seldom.

CLOSING EXAMINATION.—On Monday Dec. 23, the work for the year of S. S. No. 10, Otonabee, was brought to a close by a public examination. At its close, Mrs John Handbidge, on behalf of the school presented Mr. W. Matchett, who has been teacher in this section for the past three years, a handsome writing desk, bound in leather, as a slight token of their appreciation of his work in the school. In a brief reply, Mr. Matchett thanked them for their kindness, and expressed the wish that the present good wishes and kind feeling would ever continue. The trustees present made a few remarks, expressing their regret at losing Mr. Matchett as their teacher, and wishing him success in his future work. He goes next year to the adjoining section, No. 16.

TEACHER ENGAGED.—Miss Elliott, of Millbrook, has been engaged to teach in Stewart's school next year.

SCHOOL SOCIAL AND PRESENTATION.—A Basket Social was held at School Section No. 3, Otonabee, on the evening of the 12th inst. An excellent programme had been prepared and was carried out to the satisfaction of all present. The proceeds were expended in prizes for the children. A public examination was held on Friday the 20th, closing Miss Young's term of three years in this school. After the recitals were finished and the result of the promotion examinations were read, parents and children were equally interested in the distribution of the prizes. As Miss Young was about to make her farewell remarks two of the senior students presented her with a handsome writing desk accompanied by the following address:—

TO MISS YOUNG: DEAR FRIEND AND TEACHER,—We your pupils having enjoyed the advantages of your instructions while you have been a teacher in this school, knowing that you are about to leave us, we desire to express our gratitude to you for the interest you have always taken in our welfare and Christian zeal you have shown in endeavouring to make us careful and thoughtful children. Although sometimes inattentive we fully appreciate your efforts in our behalf. We feel we cannot allow you to leave us without some expression of our confidence and esteem for you, both as a qualified teacher and a Christian lady. Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Signed on behalf of the school,
JESSIE ELMHIRST,
ADDIE FALLIS.

Miss Young's surprise and pleasure were shown by her manner and expression of thanks. In parting all joined heartily in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Fatal Accident.

A Brakesman Slips Under a Train—So Fearfully Mutilated that Death Ensued.

A very painful accident took place at Blackwater about 6.25 Tuesday evening by which one of the Grand Trunk Railway brakesmen lost his life. As a special freight train was slowly pulling up past the station platform, Brakesman P. Maloney attempted to get on the van, and in doing so slipped and fell under the wheels, which passed over both legs above the knees, besides doing other injuries to his body, which proved fatal. He was taken up and carried into the station and medical aid was in attendance in a few minutes. His wounds were promptly attended to, and he was taken to his home in Lindsay, where he died at nine o'clock the same evening. Maloney was married and leaves a wife and six children. He was on his way home to spend Christmas when the accident occurred.

A POETICAL TRIBUTE
—TO—
HONEST DEALING.

A grateful customer of MESSRS. H. LEBRUN & Co. has been moved to put into verse the following truthful tribute to the excellence of this firm's goods. Truth and poetry do not always go together, but in this case they go hand in hand. There is no exaggeration nor poetical license in the following lines:—

Last night I had a pleasant dream, and well I did enjoy it,
In deep I sailed Parnassus' height, and awoke a full fledged poet;
I tarried not to pat nor drink, but quickly grasped my pen
To tell in verse how cheaply we could clothe our fellowmen.
Our prices make the rich to smile, the poor with joy to shout,
We are resolved from this hene forth to knock the bottom out;
The man must strike some unseen notch, and shout up from below
That uncle sells the clothing store of H. LeBrun & Co.

Our choice five dollar overcoats, our genial salesmen shows,

FIRST MEETING OF THE INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS.

Home Rule Demanded — The Influenza Swells the Death Roll of Paris—A Serious Revolt in Afghanistan.

BOMBAY, Dec. 27.—Two thousand delegates attended the first meeting of the National Congress. Mr Bradlaugh was present as a visitor. Sir William Wedderburn, the president of the Congress, condemned the Indian bureaucracy, and claimed for India the same control over their government that the people of England possess over theirs. He instanced many abuses under the present irresponsible despotic government.

A Revolt in Afghanistan.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 27.—A serious revolt is reported to have occurred in Afghanistan. It was instigated by Russian agents.

CANADIAN QUESTIONS.

The Home Government Determined to Anglicise Quebec.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The London Globe's editorials on the course to be pursued in the Behring Sea difficulty have created anew a languid interest in the matter here. But few except those who have made the Canadian question a study, however, regard it as of any importance. The general opinion is that all the seals in the Pacific Ocean are not worth quarrelling about with the United States but there is still a desire to do justice to the Dominion if it should prove true that the maritime interests have been abused.

On the question of the ill-feeling between the Canadian-French and the English-speaking colonists, it may be taken as granted that the Home Government's mind is made up once for all. It is as steadily bent upon Anglicising the Dominion as Emperor William is determined to make his captured provinces German in fact as well as in name. The encroachment will be gradual but steady, and it will not be long before the English language will be the only one recognized on the statute books and court proceedings of all descriptions.

The French-Canadians will be encouraged to emigrate, and any inclination they may manifest to make themselves disagreeable to the authorities will be promptly and firmly repressed. An inkling of this determination must have reached France, for the majority of the journals there are very bitter against England for "tyrannical" policy toward all under her sway abroad.

THE DEATH ROLL SWELLED.

Influenza Greatly Increases the Death Roll in Paris.

PARIS, Dec. 26.—The epidemic has assumed a grave type and many cases are now complicated with pneumonia. In consequence of the steady increasing crowd at the hospitals the authorities are erecting tents for the sufferers. The undertakers are overworked and many of their employes are down. In consequence of the increase in the number of funerals the system of draping the church with enormous hangings of black and the expensive parade of various emblems of woe has been dispensed with by authority. The official report of deaths for the week gives 800 more deaths than for the preceding week.

It Attacks Horses.

BERLIN, Dec. 26.—The epidemic is decreasing here. It is spreading at Bremen and the managers of the gas works have notified consumers that the supply will be short for a time, in consequence of the sickness of many employes. At Darmstadt it is very severe, and at Vienna there are many cases among children followed by measles. The Christmas festivities were made very dull, as few families celebrated the day. Reports from the Austrian Provinces are that the malady prevails among the horses.

60,000 Cases in Madrid.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The influenza epidemic continues to spread. At Frankfort there have been two deaths from the disease. Numerous cases are reported among English visitors at Engadine. In Madrid there are over 60,000 cases and many persons have died. In West London about 250 shopmen and postmen are affected.

King Carlos Better.

LISBON, Dec. 26.—King Carlos I. left his room to-day and attended to business with his ministers. He expects to be completely recovered by Saturday and will attend the ceremonies of proclamation.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 26.—Two hundred and fifty of the followers of Emin Pasha will sail from here for Suez to-morrow. Emin will not be able to leave Bagamoyo for three weeks. Mr. Stanley will sail for Egypt Dec. 30.

Dr. Mackenzie, agent of the British East Africa Company, has returned to Mombasa. He has agreed to pay annually to the Sultan a certain sum of money according to the terms of the British concession. The Sultan will henceforth cease to interfere with administration of affairs in the territory controlled by the British East Africa Company.

The P. A., D. & W R R

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 26.—Mr. McCallum, engineer of the Public Works Department of the Provincial Government, who has been here inspecting the P. A., D. & W Ry., on behalf of the department left for the east this week. He has gone over the line and channel every foot of it and will make his report to the Government accordingly. On this report the subsidy will be granted. Including spurs and the main line there is now a trifle over 15 miles of road built and the track laid. The P. A., D. & W is the first company among all those which obtained grants at the last session that has applied to have its work inspected.

A Japanese Hotel Burnt.

NAPANEE, Dec. 26.—Fire was discovered in the rear sheds of the Royal Hotel at 6.30 this morning. There was a high wind from the south which carried the fire into the hotel, and before it could be checked had damaged the hotel to the extent of about $3,000. Insured for $1,000. E. W. A. Taylor, proprietor. One of the hotel, loses about $2,000 on contents Fully insured.

The Glorious Climate of California.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26.—The heavy rain of the last few days continued this morning. All trains from the northwest and south are cut off and the damage to the tracks very great. The Santa Fe officials estimate the loss on that line will reach $300,000 and the loss on the Southern Pacific lines will reach $200,000. It is reported that James Reavis' house on the river bank has been washed away and the whole family is missing. Twenty-five inches of rain have fallen this season.

They Want Canadian Coal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The New England iron manufacturers gave their views on the tariff to the Committee of Ways and Means to-day. Most of them favored abolition of duty on Canadian coal or reciprocity in that product.

The Gale at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Dec. 26.—The storm of last night did a considerable amount of petty damage here. The telephone and other wires suffered severely.

Fences Blown Down.

GUELPH, Dec. 26.—The wind to-day did considerable damage to fences, etc., in this vicinity. In the city signs were blown down and windows broken.

THE BRAZILIAN REVOLT

MINISTER BARBOZA'S PLAIN, UNVARNISHED TALE.

There Was Only a Mutiny of a Few Soldiers—Fonseca Believed Anyway, Etc.—But Matters Look Squally.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The Brazilian Minister has received the following cablegram, dated to-day from Rio Barboza, Minister of Finance at Rio Janeiro: "The report about the mutiny of a corps of artillery is false. There was only a mutiny of a few soldiers immediately repressed. The circumstance increased confidence in the Government which shows itself strongly prepared with prompt and decisive means to put down any disturbance of public order. The aggravation of General Fonseca's illness is not true, on the contrary he is recovering speedily from his former complaint. The assistant doctor believes his recovery to be certain. At any rate the fate of the revolution, now accepted by the whole country, does not depend on the contingency of any one man's life how ever precious it may be. In the army itself the revolution can rely on other chiefs of great prestige and no less devoted to the cause. All the different political parties have espoused with enthusiasm the term fixed (Nov. 15, 1890, for the meeting of the Constituent Assembly, they considering by this act the stability of the republic is assured. Beware of newsmongers."

Exchange Markets in Bad Shape.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Private cables received to-day from Brazil state the markets for exchange at both Rio and Para are in bad shape, while the rubber supply on hand will only last a few weeks. Rubber has taken an upward jump. At Para exchange is demoralized while at Rio the rate has declined 2 per cent. to 25½. This makes a total decline of 8 per cent. since Dom Pedro's expulsion.

Suppressing Opposition.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 26.—The Government has issued a decree providing that all persons found endeavoring or proposing any measure for active opposition to the Republic shall be tried by a military tribunal. An opposition journal was suspended Tuesday.

BUNKOED CELESTIALS.

A Washee-Washee Becomes a Mandarin Friend and Fleeces His Countrymen.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Yong Fong Doy used to run a laundry in this city. With a capital of $1 he won $1500 at policy at one play, and with some more judicious gambling and washing he accumulated $3800 and started off for China. In his native land Yong has gone through a most variegated experience, and has bunkoed several large cities of something like $2,000,000 and is now enjoying the excitement of a pursuit by the soldiers of the emperor, who have instructions when they find him to cut him into 10 pieces. While on the voyage to China Yong picked up a wicked companion who had lived in Chicago. The two resolved on a vigorous campaign of bunko throughout the flowery kingdom.

The Chicago man acted as valet. They arrived at Canton, and the valet gave out the information to some journalist that Yong was recently returned a commissioned mandarin to this country, where he had been studying railroads, and was then on his way to Pekin to make his report.

Yong was accepted as Chi Chong Wong the king of one of the six imperial boards. Whatever he wished for he had given him. He objected to washing in an ordinary basin, and a gold-lined affair was presented him. He hired an escort of 200 soldiers, and rode on a sedan chair, and started out on a triumphal march toward Pekin.

Chi Chong Wong, whom he represented, is the uncle of the present emperor, and keeps within his palace; so that he is not known to the outside world, except by reputation. Yong got Chi's seal forged and began operations on the town of Soon Chu, where the chefoo, or prefect, entertained him magnificently, and on his departure begged him to accept $50,000 in gold bricks, the only available cash in the public treasury. The city of Lin Kiang gave him $35,000. While in Shoo Hing the chefoo became suspicious and asked His Excellency some questions, which so offended the impostor that he forthwith dismissed the frightened prefect from his office as chefoo and placed a clerk of the office in his chair. The dismissed official was sent out of town while the imposters plundered the city treasury of all that was valuable. From Foo Chow he obtained $250,000 and from Ly Chu $180,000. More than 30 cities paid tribute to him before the discovery of the fraud. An immense sum is now offered for him, but with all the money at his disposal it is probable that he will escape.

Smuggled Holiday Cheer.

BOSTON, Dec. 26.—The smuggling of Canadian gin in bales of Canadian hay imported to the United States is a subject the Treasury special agents are looking into just now. A large quantity of liquor, which unmistakably never passed through the Custom House, has been placed in Lawrence, Haverhill and other towns. In this neighborhood 600 bales of Canadian hay were found, but the liquor was missing. Six cases of John De Kuyper & Sons' gin, of Rotterdam, containing 24 bottles, were traced to a large importer of hay, potatoes and grain doing business in Haverhill, and the liquor was found to have been sold by him to persons in Lawrence. The liquor was seized, but the suspected man is believed to be in Canada. The opportunities afforded to smugglers for bringing goods across the line in this way are due to the defective system of inspection at the Canadian line.

CANADA'S FUTURE.

Premier Mercier Talks on Imperial Federation, Independence, etc.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Honore Mercier, Premier of Quebec, was interviewed here yesterday by a Herald reporter. Said Mr. Mercier: "There isn't much talk of annexation just now, but there is a general feeling in favor of some political change. There is, however, a respectable portion of the community in favor of maintaining the present condition of affairs. As concerning the proportion of Canadians in favor of the continuance of the present political system, I cannot say exactly, but I believe they are quite numerous and important, socially, politically and financially.

"Those who favor a change are divided between three schemes—imperial federation, annexation and independence. Very few, I believe, outside the ultra-royalists, are in favor of imperial federation. Sir John A Macdonald and Sir Charles Tupper are, I believe, the only two English-speaking men of great political importance who are actually trying to bring about a change in that direction. Of the French-Canadians you could not find ten disposed to speak in favor of imperial federation.

"After imperial federation comes the question of annexation. There is, no doubt, a respectable number of Canadians favorable to annexation. It is no use denying the fact. Those who do it are either ignorant or hypocrites. As to the proportion in favor of the scheme, that question cannot be answered, no votes having ever been taken and there being no practical means of ascertaining public opinion on the subject.

"Then come those who favor independence. I believe they are very numerous and that they form the most important portion, from certain points of view, of our population. They are important socially, politically and financially, and they recruit themselves in a great part from among the young men who have naturally more liberal tendencies and a greater disposition for independence. They don't like the title of 'colonist,' they do not like to be governed in a certain way and, to a certain degree by strangers, and they are quite disposed, through their education and their training, to carry into effect the sentimental idea of an independent country of which they would be the children and become the free citizens. They are proud to call themselves Canadians, but would be much prouder to call themselves so if they were members of one of the independent nations of the world. This sentiment cannot be considered as hostile to England or to the English people or to the Queen. Canadians are generally satisfied with the relations they have had with England lately, and I may add that, as a rule, the English Government has sent to Canada since 1840 clever Governors, men of tact, who have acted with great kindness toward the Canadians."

THE GEORGIA RIOT.

AT LEAST TEN PERSONS KILLED IN THE RACE FIGHT.

Prisoners Taken from the Jail and Lynched—Four Unknown Negroes Found Dead in a Swamp.

JESSUP, Ga., Dec. 26.—A posse of 20 men, under command of S. White, left by the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia train to-day for Lumber City to intercept Brewer and his gang, who it is rumored have gone there for reinforcements. The firing along the picket line keeps up, but it is principally by boys. A crowd of armed men have just returned from a trip to the swamp, and report that four colored men were found dead, but they gave no names and said they did not know the negroes.

The jail was broken into early this morning and two negro prisoners were riddled with bullets. Another negro was found at home shot through the heart and one with a flesh wound in the shoulder. It was reported others had been killed, but the officers have not found them. A search for bodies will be kept up all day.

The negroes are quitting their homes and moving to other towns on the line of the railway. A large number of negroes were taken from their homes this morning and many of them whipped, several being prostitutes. A crowd of white men went to several houses after breakfast this morning and compelled the negroes to leave.

If Brewer's gang are found in the swamp lynching will probably follow. The coroner is holding an inquest on the dead bodies.

Ten People Killed.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 26.—The most reliable information is that ten people have been killed at Jessup. There is still great excitement around Jessup.

Just a Plain Murder.

MACON, Ga., Dec. 26.—The report of a riot at Barnesville is erroneous. It arose from the unprovoked murder of a negro of excellent character by four drunken white men, strangers in the place.

WAS HE WRONGLY CONVICTED?

The Ringleader of the Escaped Convicts Said to Have Been Innocent.

HAMILTON, Dec. 26.—The Herald to-night says: A perusal of the details of the escape of the five penitentiary convicts on Christmas Eve, shows that William D. Crawford was the ringleader. He was convicted in Brockville four years ago for shooting with attempt to murder, and was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. Two other prisoners were tried along with him for complicity in the same offence. One of them was acquitted, the other received the same sentence as Crawford. The late Judge O'Connor tried the case. The peculiar feature about the case is that Crawford and his alleged accomplice were undoubtedly innocent of the crime of which they were convicted, and for which they were sentenced to ten years' imprisonment.

At the time of the trial there was a great deal of public interest taken in the proceedings. Three dangerous men had been lurking up and down the river near Brockville. Several heinous offences had been committed in the neighborhood and public indignation was high. At last three tough-looking customers were apprehended and tried for shooting a man named Christopher Richards. That is the charge of which Crawford was convicted. There is not the least doubt, however, that there was a miscarriage of justice in this case. Crawford and his alleged accomplice were innocent of this crime. This fact the evidence clearly discloses. The judge made a mistake, the jury made a mistake, and two innocent men were condemned for a long term of imprisonment.

No wonder, then, that Crawford made a big effort to regain his liberty. This episode ought to have the effect of causing the evidence and the conviction of Crawford and his alleged accomplice to be reconsidered. A couple of months ago the Minister of Justice made application for the shorthand reporter's notes of the evidence in the case, showing that the injustice done the men had been brought to his attention.

Probably in Safety.

KINGSTON, Dec. 26.—The search for the escaped convicts has thus far been unsuccessful. It is reported that a skiff containing four or five men was seen early Christmas morning off the foot of Wolfe Island. If this skiff contained the convicts they have no doubt made a landing on the American side before this.

BEAUTY IN A NEW ROLE.

Driven Insane by Disappointment, a Girl Sells Newspapers in the Streets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—After making three vain attempts to pass examination for a teacher's ship in the public schools the mind of beautiful May Ella Earl became unbalanced, and she disappeared from her home at 423 West Thirty-eighth-street, several days ago. Her mother spent many restless days and nights in hunting for her, and was overjoyed last night on finding her daughter on the street in front of No. 1841 Third-avenue. Her joy turned to grief when the girl ignored her, and she was obliged to summon a policeman, who caused the girl's removal to Bellevue Hospital.

Subsequent investigation showed that the girl, who is 23 years old, had hired a basement in Third-avenue, which she had fitted up for the sale of newspapers, and when seen by her mother she was imploring every passer-by to purchase a paper. At the hospital it is thought that a few weeks of absolute rest will restore her equanimity of mind.

A Silent Wedding.

HAMILTON, Dec. 26.—Miss Linnie Feast and Mr. Albert E. Smith of Toronto were married yesterday at the residence of the bride's mother in this city, Rev. R. G. Boville officiating. Both bride and groom are deaf mutes. Will R. Feast, the bride's brother, acted as interpreter and, through the signs of the deaf and dumb language, conveyed to the contracting parties a knowledge of the solemn vows they were taking upon themselves. The ceremony was unique and interesting to the assembled friends who witnessed it. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Toronto.

Three Children Burned to Death.

OMAHA, Dec. 26.—Mrs. L. Ship this morning started the kitchen fire, locked the door and went out to get some clothes to wash. During her absence the house took fire and her three children, aged 7 years, 4 years and 6 months respectively, were burned to death in the presence of 100 people who were powerless to save them.

A 3-story Building Leveled.

BROOKLYN, Dec. 26.—During the gale today a 3-story building in course of erection at East New York was blown down. Four carpenters were buried in the ruins and were severely injured. Two children who were passing were also covered with debris and one, a girl of 8, was so badly injured that she is likely to die.

FOUR KILLED.

The Deadly Work of a Falling Tree in British Columbia.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Dec. 26.—This morning at 8 o'clock a party of six persons, who had been enjoying themselves at a Christmas fair at a farmer's residence on the north arm of the Fraser River, left in a double sleigh for their homes. While passing through some woods a large fir tree fell, striking diagonally across the sleigh, instantly killing four of the occupants: J. V. Bodwell, James Lawson, Clarence Campbell and Jasper Locke. The other two escaped almost uninjured. One of the horses was killed and the other broke one leg and was subsequently shot.

THE BERTHIER ELECTION.

Montreal Conservatives Will Take a Hand—Senator Trudel Dying.

MONTREAL, Dec. 26.—The Montreal Conservatives held a caucus to-night and decided to take an active part in the Berthier campaign.

Madam Albani will visit Montreal and Quebec early in the new year.

Senator Trudel has been attacked by dropsy and his death is hourly expected.

THE LADIES!

The Most and Direst Form of Disease which is afflicting Canadian Women.

How some of Them Regained Fresh Complexion, Perfect Health and Superb Physical Beauty.

A great London Physician says that he notes a new and distinct form of nervous disease produced in Canadian women by worry about servants and overwork in doing for the home. This is only too true. It is why we see so many ladies pale, weak, languid, and suffering from headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound. This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of women, and is daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. E. Cooper, 880 St. Hypolite St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

Forestry.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Some time since I addressed a communication to your readers on this important subject, and will, with your permission add a few words now, namely, in extract from Hon. Carl Schurz late speech in Philadelphia showing how fast the U. S. forests are going:—

"My heart sickens when I see the indiscriminate reckless destruction of the present day, and which has been going on for generations. Who destroys? It is not merely the lumberman who cuts trees for his private use and his own gain. It is that same lumberman, who wastes as much as he sells; without benefit to anybody. It is the settler and mining prospector, who devastate whole mountain sides for the sake of getting a few sticks. It is the timber thief will get ahead of him. It is the tourist building a camp fire to warm his coffee, and walking away without extinguishing that fire; setting in flames hundreds of miles of noble forest and dooming them to utter destruction. It is not the legitimate satisfaction of the private and public wants of the country that destroys the forest. It is the spendthrift wasting of the heritage of future generations. It is the neglect of government, reckless of the future of the country. It is a public opinion looking on with stolid indifference while this cruel, disgraceful, barbarous devastation is going on. When twelve years ago, I came into the office of Secretary of the interior, I saw upon the public domain, the noblest forests, the public property. I saw timber thieves not stealing single trees, but stealing whole forests. The people seemed to be deaf to all this, but I am glad to say they are deaf no longer."

Yours truly,
R. W. PHIPPS.

Eastern Ontario Dairyman's Association.

The Dairymen's Association of Eastern Ontario, will hold their annual meeting and convention in the City of Belleville, on the second Wednesday and Thursday of January, Jan. 8 and 9. The following gentlemen will be present to deliver addresses on Dairy Farming, best Breeds of Cattle, Cheese and Butter Making, Construction of Silos, Ensilage for Cattle, and everything pertaining to the welfare of the farmer who produces good, pure, unadulterated milk, butter and cheese, as well as the consumers who reside in the towns and cities, viz:—Prof. J. P. Roberts, of Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. Governor Hoard, of Wisconsin, U.S., who has made the Cow, her wants, etc., his study for years, a fact which, doubtless, led to his being elected Governor of said State by a sweeping majority. Prof. Robertson, of Agricultural College, Guelph, who represented Canada at the Colonial Exhibition, at London, Eng., and several others well versed in Dairy Farming, etc., breeders of Holstein and other good strains of Dairy cattle. Certificates of membership can be had of Harford Ashley, Secretary, at Belleville; P. Hinman, (Grafton; Jas. Rassel and F. H. MacCrea, Brockville; M. K. Everetts, Easton's Corners; and others, at $1 each, entitling the holder to go and return at reduced fare over the C.P.R. and G.T.R., and other railways.

Hotels in Belleville will allow low rates of fare to all attending the convention.

M. K. EVERETTS,
Pres., Easton's Corners.

HARFORD ASHLEY,
Secretary, Belleville.

The Farmers.

Whenever the exodus from Canada is mentioned the protectionist press retorts, and thinks it has settled the question by retorting, that there is also an exodus from the Atlantic States. This is true. But whereas the exodus from the Atlantic States is merely a transfer of population from one part of the Union to another, involving no serious economic loss, the exodus from Ontario is a migration of people from our country, which means that we are losing our life-blood. There is therefore a pronounced difference between the character of the two movements, though both spring from the same cause, viz., the cheaper wheat productions of the western prairies which, reinforced by cheaper transportation, is rendering it unprofitable for the farmer in the old bush land regions to grow cereals.

The phenomenon has at least one good effect—it has cleared away the rubbish talked by protectionists about the home markets which a high tariff creates for the farmer. In the greatest of manufacturing States, Massachusetts, the depression in agriculture is greatest. Here in Ontario, the chief seat of manufactures, the value of farm lands is steadily shrinking and the price of produce continues low notwithstanding the tall chimneys. In short, while the N.P. has increased the cost of producing agricultural products, it has failed to benefit the farmer in the manner promised by its advocates. The usual reply of the protectionists is that agriculture is suffering just as severely in England, where free trade prevails. But free trade was never put forward by anybody as a panacea for all the ills that affect the farmer. The English economists have all agreed in saying that no peculiarity of currency, banking, or standard of value, no form of government, or incidence or degree of taxation, or condition of land tenure, or legislation respecting trade and tariffs, is sufficient to guard or save agriculture from such disturbance as we are now experiencing. In England, however, the cost of raising crops is not artificially exalted as it is with us in Canada, the farmer being allowed to buy where he has to sell, that is in the cheapest market. Moreover, the depression has resulted in the United Kingdom in a general reduction of rents, whilst in this country the money lender, who is really the landlord in many cases, has not remitted a farthing of interest. The fact when are now being cruelly thrust upon the Ontario farmer by the course of events will enable him, we fancy, to see through the sophistries of the N.P. men when next they take the stump. There is a remarkable awakening amongst the farmers across the line, and ours are just as intelligent.

A POETICAL TRIBUTE
—TO—
HONEST DEALING.

A grateful customer of MESSRS. H. LEBRUN & Co. has been moved to put into verse the following truthful tribute to the excellence of this firm's goods. Truth and poetry do not always go together, but in this case they go hand in hand. There is no exaggeration nor poetical license in the following lines:—

Last night I had a pleasant dream, and well I did enjoy it,
In sleep I soared Parnassus' height, and awoke a frail fledged poet;
I tarried not to eat nor drink, but quickly grasped my pen
To tell in verse how cheaply we could clothe our fellowmen.
Our prices make the rich to smile, the poor with joy to shout,
We are resolved from this henceforth to knock th bottom out;
The man must strike some unseen notch, and shout up from below
That undersells the clothing store of H. LeBrun & Co.
Our choice five dollar overcoats, our genial salesmen shows,
Will keep you warm as a pie in the wildest storm that blows.
No ground up rags, no shoddy stuff, no mill pressed glue and hair,
But every thread spun from the sheep—fine, cheap, and made to wear.
You need not walk round shabby dressed, our prices meet you convince.
Our seven dollar suits will dress you stylish as a prince.
For two and fifty we will clothe your boy from heart to toe
Right in the City Clothing Store of H. LeBrun & Co.
Our line of ready-made is good, choices you will receive,
Examine, choose and purchase cloth; with us your order leave.
We guarantee to cut and stitch complete as you command,
For style and finish every part here unsurpassed we stand.
Young scouts that wish a stylish suit, for concert, church or ball,
Will have their true wish gratified, by giving us a call.
Out walking, or in sitting room your girl will wish to know
If you had bought that pretty suit from H. LeBrun & Co.
Our expert cutter measures true and strikes each new design,
With skilful hand his shears play crack, round angle, curve or line,
Our tailor's work, neat, strong, complete, o'er all the host grease steams,
Leaving no wrinkles in the back, nor puckers in the seams.
We don't believe in paper puffs that float off like a kite,
Our goods and prices come and test, as proofs of what we write.
No shoddy pressed, no ripping seams, air holes in two weeks show.
Cheapness and wear the motto is at H. LeBrun's & Co.
Before eighteen and eight-nine bids us a last adieu,
To all our patrons, rich and poor, thanks we return to you.
Fair honest dealing in the past upholds our business name,
And in the future, we resolve strict to pursue the same.
Come old and new friends, welcome come, Christmas is drawing nigh.
How you will smile to see how much a trifling sum will buy.
With pleasure we will suit your wants and salute you as you go.
With all the season's compliments, of H. LeBrun & Co.

What's Nuts for the Buyers is Fun for Us.

12 DAYS OF SACRIFICE

From now until after Christmas we intend to let everything go! Our great $40,000 Sale, at 50 cents on the dollar, was a great success—in fact, away beyond our most sanguine expectations. GRAHAM'S DEFENCE

The Alleged Jury Bribery Counsel Outlines His Theory.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—A. S. Trude is of the opinion that the State will be unable to maintain its charge against John Graham, of attempting to bribe the Cronin jury. He is attorney for Graham and, contrary to the usual custom, fully outlined the theory of the defence in The Evening Journal.

"When the Cronin trial began," said he, "it was, of course, seen to be a very important case. The lives of five men were in jeopardy. Consequently a juror susceptible of purchase would be a valuable commodity. Well, this fact was appreciated by the man who subsequently was the first to accost, Solomon, a Hebrew bailiff. This man, scenting a fortune in the air, began at once the formation of a jury trust, of which he made himself president, secretary-treasurer and board of directors. This trust was to get a man upon whom it could depend on the jury and then open negotiations with a man who, for some strange reason was supposed to have a vital interest in the whole affair, and to sell this trust juror to him for a big consideration. With this idea the Pooh Bah of the trust went to work. Several men who were supposed to have intimate relations with the man who, as I said, was in some strange way thought to have a vital interest in the whole affair were approached. With none was the envoy of the trust successful, and he went to John Graham, who was thought to be on intimate terms with this man. But they found that wouldn't work either. John Graham had nothing to do with the case. He is perfectly willing to waive the formality of a jury and be tried before the judge alone, so confident is he of the outcome."

Attorney Brown, who has charge of the case of Frank Woodruff, has created a sensation by claiming to be in possession of a legal point that will secure a reversal by the Supreme Court of the recent verdict in the Cronin case. This point is the discovery of a precedent which will compel the Supreme Court to render a decision favorable to Woodruff in his petition for release under habeas corpus on the ground that he had not been admitted to trial within the third term of court after his imprisonment. In the preceding decision, the Supreme Court declares that the three branches of the Criminal Court are as distinct each from the other as the County Court is from the Circuit Court. Mr. Brown has hunted up several decisions in which the Supreme Courts have held that one court can not. If its own volition transfer to another distinct and independent court a case already pending before it. Mr. Brown argues that this is precisely what was done by Judge Horton in the beginning of the case. Mr. Brown's alleged discovery has created some commotion, but it is observed that his sanguine expectations are not shared by the attorney of the other defendants.

ALL THE GREAT LAKES OPEN.

Boats Still Plying Between Duluth and Port Arthur.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—The entire winter so far has been most remarkable. Almost no snow has fallen and but few frosts, and although the entire summer was unusually cool, bringing the average for the year much below the normal, the temperature during December has been so high as to bring the average of the year one degree above the normal. The great lakes are as free from ice as in midsummer and navigation to a limited extent is kept up even on the north shore of Lake Superior, a couple of boats plying regularly between Duluth and Forth Arthur. On Lake Michigan half-a-dozen steam barges are still carrying lumber, mostly from Muskegon.

A Waverly (Ia.) special says to-day has been the warmest December day known in this section. The thermometer registered 70 degrees for several hours in the middle of the day on the north side of buildings.

Galion (O.) special says: The mild weather has caused the grass to grow, dandelions to bloom, lilacs to leaf and maples to bud. It beats the oldest inhabitant.

SLIPPERY SILCOTT.

The Missing Cashier Believed to Have Been in Ottawa This Week

OTTAWA, Dec. 25.—A man answering in most particulars the description of Silcott, as telegraphed from Washington, for whose arrest a reward of $3000 is offered by the United States Government, has been traced to Ottawa. He is believed to have left the Capital last night for the west. He was greatly changed in appearance. His hair was dyed a dark brown, and he had entirely discarded the clothing with which he came into Canada. He said he was going up the country to look for work, but from words he inadvertently dropped it was inferred he might try to leave the country through British Columbia and make his way eventually to England by way of Australia. He evidently had plenty of money.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 25.—Anna C. Jones, 17 years old, the daughter of Rev. Sam Jones, the evangelist, eloped from Centerville, Ga., to-day with Wm. M. Graham, the official stenographer of the Cherokee judicial circuit, and was married in this city. Rev. Mr. Jones and his wife opposed the match

SUICIDE OF A MISER.

Haunted by a Dread of Being Forced to go to the Poorhouse.

BINGHAMTON, N.Y., Dec. 25.—Anson Dewey, a wealthy farmer and owner of the grist mill at Vestal, near here, committed suicide by cutting his throat this afternoon owing to his dread of going to the poorhouse. After his death rumors were circulated that he had money concealed in his house. The premises were searched and in old tin cans in the cellar were found $6000 in gold and over $1000 in bills.

CHILDHOOD'S SCOURGES.

Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria Raging in Dakota

SIOUX FALLS, S.D., Dec. 25.—Scarlet fever and diphtheria are raging in Campbell county. Forty cases are reported, twenty-six of which proved fatal. Mitchell, Huron and Aberdeen also report several deaths from these diseases. Some of the public schools have been closed.

A Big Batch of Prisoners.

GALVESTON, Dec. 25.—Fifty prisoners from Fort Bend County, arrived last night under escort of United States Marshal Dickinson and posse. Those with twenty-three other citizens of Fort Bend County were indicted for running citizens out of the county, while twenty-six besides those charged are indicted for murder.

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so-called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and frets fulness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."
DR. H. A. ARCHER,
111 S. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N.Y.
March 8, 1887.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp causes my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Remembering the Old.

At the Protestant Home last night the hearts of the inmates were gladdened by a Christmas tree entertainment gotten up by Miss Errett and Miss Thompson. The Home was nicely decorated, and the old people were each one presented with some token of kindness by their benefactors. Songs and music helped to pass the evening most pleasantly.

SATURDAY NIGHT

At the Opera House To-night.

With reference to the Wood St. John Comedy Company, who appear at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow, the Toronto World of Nov. 8th says:—"Man Proposes" serves to introduce Miss Marguerite St. John as a dashing light comedienne and give contrast to her work later on in "David Garrick." Mr. Wood looked the part and dressed it well and proved an actor of considerably more than ordinary merit and with Miss St. John succeeded in capturing the good will of the audience and several curtain calls." 1d

ROGER-LA-HONTE.

Arrested and Discharged.

A young man named Geo. Sauvais was last night arrested by P.C. Stewart while creating a disturbance on Simcoe street. It was found the young man answered the description of a person wanted at Tweed, the Chief having the day before received a telegram instructing him to arrest Sauvais, who has a scar on the side of his face, no charge being named. The Chief wired to Tweed last night that Sauvais had been arrested, but receiving no reply the prisoner was discharged to-day.

Enlarging the Bank.

A significant improvement has been made in the interior arrangements of the Ontario Bank. Under the able management of Mr. C. McGill, the business of the bank has increased so steadily that the staff found their quarters somewhat cramped, and an improvement has been effected by the addition of a new department for the Savings Bank. This apartment is now entirely separate from the other, and all business connected with the Savings Bank will be conducted therein, thus relieving the congestion in the other departments. The new section is finished in the same style as the remainder of the bank furnishings.

Wood-St. John English Comedy Co.

To-night, Friday, the Company will appear in Sydney Grundy's comedietta of "Man Proposes" and the old English comedy of "David Garrick," which they played with great success recently in Toronto. The costumes are magnificent and the company accredited as one one of the best that has visited Peterborough. They play at Toronto all next week. To-morrow night "Roger La Honte or Thou art the Man," will be given. A crowded house should welcome this excellent company. Plan of house at Doucet's Music Store.

The Business College of this place reopens Jan. 7th, 1890. The past year has seen the attendance increase three times what it was the proceeding year, a fact which speaks for the excellent management of the college, and also shows that a practical education is demanded on all sides. Next year the teaching staff will be increased, and also the seating accommodation.

All interested will please call on the the Principal, at his office, 368 Water Street. Circulars will be sent to any address. dw

The Nora Clench Concert.

The violin which Nora Clench will use in the Opera House on Jan. 9th, is 180 years old—a Venere, made in 1710. One and three-quarters of a century of melodious existence. How many has it delighted in its long life! How many skilful fingers have swept entrancing music from its tuneful strings? And now it has fallen into the hand of one whose genius will do justice to its wonderful powers, as the delighted public will prove on Thursday evening, January 9th. Three numbers have been assigned her and by the rule of the inevitable encore she has always received, these will be increased to six. Besides there will be captivating vocal solos by Mrs. Chambers and Mr. T. Dunn. Tickets may be had on application to either Mr. A. F. Hoover or Mr. W. E. Loch.

Over Twelve Years Established.

A live and well established grocery and provision business for sale. R. H. Green, on account of continued ill-health, has decided to sell his entire stock of groceries, provisions, &c., en bloc, at a bargain, to a suitable purchaser. The goods are nearly all new, well assorted and bought at the lowest possible wholesale prices. The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them at a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as decided bargains will be given. The goods must be sold. R. H. GREEN, corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Dec. 3rd. w47tuf

The Municipal Elections.

There is scarcely any street talk concerning the approaching municipal elections. The ratepayers appear to be unaware of the fact that next Monday is nomination day, and they must make up their minds quickly regarding who shall be the people's representatives in the council next year. Mayor Stevenson announces that he is prepared to again act as Mayor if the electors wish it, and there will not likely be any opposition to his candidacy. It is probable all the members of the present council will again offer their services, and the general opinion is said to be that this year's representatives have done so well as a rule that there will be very little opposition. In only one ward, Number Three, is there a new candidate. Mr. W. H. Moore, who has served in the council before, told the EXAMINER to-day that, though he had intended to remain at home this next year; at the request of a number of the ratepayers he would stand for number three if nominated. Mr. J. B. McWilliams' name has been mentioned on the street as a possible candidate, but he says he positively will not run. In the other wards no new names are brought forward at all, so it is probable the coming election will be one of the quietest on record. Nomination day may, however, see some unexpected changes in the aspect of municipal affairs.

THE POISONED CANDY CASE.

An Interesting Question Touching the $1000 Reward Offered.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Dec. 26.—The question as who, if anyone, will get the reward of $1000 offered by the Local Government for the conviction of the person who sent the poisoned candy packages, is one which is perplexing the minds of many. The reward was offered for the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime. Although McDonald has, through the verdict of the jury, been legally acquitted, he has been convicted of preparing, addressing and mailing the poisoned candy packages. The paper which the jury handed to the judge was prepared in such a way that he would instruct them so that they could ultimately bring in a properly worded verdict. They arrived at the conclusion that McDonald committed the crime he was charged with, but that he was insane at the time of its commission. When the jury came to the conclusion that McDonald was insane at the time he committed the crime, they had to acquit him of the charge because, as Judge King said, "in the eye of the law an insane man cannot commit a crime." But on the other hand, the verdict was tantamount to a conviction, for the jury found that McDonald did prepare, address and mail the poisoned candy packages. This being so, some claim that the person who gave the information which led to McDonald's arrest can, if he establishes the fact, claim the $1000 reward. The Solicitor-General, when asked about the matter of the reward, said that so far no person had made an application for the $1000 and the Government would not, and could not, consider the matter until they received an application.

Smith.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The pupils of S. S. No. 2 could not allow their teacher, Miss Lewis, to depart from them without bringing her some small token of the high esteem in which she was held by them. Imagine her surprise, when about to close school to be made the present of a beautiful plush ladies' companion, and a well worded address.

The Lime Baptist Sunday School held their annual Christmas entertainment and Christmas entertainment Monday evening, the 23rd inst., and a most enjoyable time was spent listening to the different pieces given by the children and their teacher. After the presents had been distributed, all returned to their homes well pleased with the two or three hours they had spent together.

SOCIAL AND PRESENTATION.—On Thursday evening, Dec. 19th, although the weather was anything but pleasant, a large crowd met in the Temperance Hall, 4th line, composed of the scholars and their parents of school section No. 2, Smith, and a number of the members of L.O.L., No. 178, to bid farewell to Mr. George McLean, who has taught in this school for a number of years, and who was held in high esteem by all the scholars whom it was his duty to teach, and the members of L.O.L., No. 178, of which he was an active member. After the tables had been removed, Mr. W. Graham took the chair, when the following programme was given:—

SMITH, Dec. 19th, 1889.

MR. GEO. MCLEAN,

DEAR TEACHER.—We, the pupils of school sec. No. 2, Smith, having learned that at the close of the present term, you cease to become our teacher, in order to give yourself an opportunity of preparing for a higher stage of usefulness, desire to tell you how sorry we are to part with you.

For all this we thank you, and as a mark of our gratitude and esteem, please accept this little present, and whenever you use it, you may be assured that the givers have you in their memory. Address and Presentation.

Miss Neill's Sunday School Class Practically Remember Her.

Thursday night the pupils of Miss Neill's class in the Charlotte street Methodist Sunday school, waited upon her at her residence Simcoe street, and presented her with a handsome "ladies' companion," accompanied with the following address:

TO MISS NEILL:—

DEAR TEACHER,—We, the pupils of your class in the Charlotte street Sunday school, take advantage of this joyous season to express our appreciation of the kindness you have shown to us in your relation of teacher.

You have tried by an earnest, loving and faithful discharge of duty to win our confidence and respect, and we gladly assure you that you have succeeded.

In token of our gratitude to you, and in reverent recognition of that greater Gift which this season of the year commemorates, please accept this little present, with our best wishes for, not only a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, but for many years of happiness and usefulness in this life, and the rich reward of the "good and faithful servant" in the glorious life of the world to come.

Signed on behalf of the class,

W. WILSON,
A. MARTIN.

PETERBOROUGH, Dec. 18th, 1889.

The address was read by Master Wesley Wilson and the presentation made by Master Albert Martin. Miss Neill replied in a few graceful words, warmly thanking the pupils for their highly appreciated gift. Afterwards the class, to the number of seven, were entertained with refreshments. Thus the bond of union between teacher and pupils was strengthened and the good will of the Christmas tide delightfully typified.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Expelled Congregationalists—A Scene Blaze in Front-street.

TORONTO, Dec. 27.—The council of Congregationalists who considered the case of the 47 dismissed members of the Western Congregational Church, have issued their report. It reviews all the circumstances which led to the rupture at Mr. McGregor's Spadina-avenue church and concludes: Much as it is to be regretted, the dismissal of all those members was congregationally illegal; the letters of dismissal were invalid, and the dismissed are still de facto members of the Western Church.

There was a $3000 fire in the Phœnix Block in Front-street west at 10 o'clock last night. It started from an over-heated stove.

The Law and Order League of Toronto has passed this resolution: That this meeting desires to record its unqualified disapproval of the recommendation to the Grand Jury of the Sessions in its recent presentment that houses of ill-fame should be licensed, and believing that such licensing would be contrary to the teaching and principles of Christianity and abhorrent to the spirit of the age: would strongly deprecate such a recognition and sanction of vice, and the introduction of a system here that has sapped the foundation of morals in every place in the Old World where it has been introduced; and we hereby resolve that should such a recommendation ever assume any vitality, to pledge our utmost endeavors to prevent such an obnoxious measure ever being placed on the statute book.

Six small boys presented themselves at Police Headquarters yesterday afternoon and made a strange request to the sergeant. They said "We want three years in the Reformatory." The reason they gave was that they wanted to learn to read and master a trade. The object was praiseworthy, but the way the boys went about hardly so. They were referred to Inspector Archabold who sent them away, telling them to come back this morning. About half-an-hour afterwards they again appeared at the police station with a hand sleigh which they said they had just spirited away from No. 90 Yonge-street, (old number) and wished to be locked up for it. All pleaded equally guilty of the theft and all were sent down. Their names are: William McCracken, aged 13, lives rear of 109 Portland-street; Thomas Henry, 14, 491 Adelaide-street west; Michael Downs, 14, 59 Nelson-street; William Trahey, 13, 467 Adelaide-street west; William Grant, 12, 434 Adelaide-street west; William Carey, 9, 351 Adelaide-street west. It is not at all probable that the theft will bring the boys to the Reformatory.

JEFFERSONIAN SIMPLETONS.

Innovations at the White House Which Are Causing Comment.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The Sun's Washington special says: Mrs. Blaine gave a luncheon to the ladies of the cabinet Tuesday. There were present Mrs. Morton, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Windom, Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Wilmerding, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Rusk. The New Year's Day program for the cabinet ministers homes was discussed, but nothing was said about the action of Mrs. Harrison in assigning to her daughter, Mrs. McKee, the first place in the receiving line on New Year's Day. This departure from the etiquette of official society has raised a veritable hornets' nest among the wives of the Cabinet ministers. It had not been expected that the President's wife would appear at the New Year's reception, owing to the death of her sister, but it was supposed that the Vice-president's wife would take Mrs. Harrison's place in the line, and take precedence of course over the ladies of the cabinet, all of whom are asked to assist at the reception. Mrs. McKee is not in official life, and therefore, the ladies say, Mrs. McKee has no official status.

As the line of presidental succession is directed from the vice-president into the cabinet, the order of precedence becomes a mighty thing to the wives of cabinet ministers. If Mrs. McKee should precede the wife of the vice-president and the wives of the cabinet officers on New Year's Day, why not at the state dinners also, and on other occasions? Is the vice-president's wife to make her own little court, and are the wives of the cabinet officers to be ranked by the wife of a private citizen? are questions that are being debated very earnestly.

The published program for the New Year's Day reception at the White House also makes another departure from the established order of things, which is causing nearly as much comment as the designation of Mrs. McKee to outrank the cabinet ladies. The program for the first time gives precedence to the justices of the Supreme Court of the district of Columbia over the senators and representatives in Congress, and admits them, with the justices of the United States Superior Court, during the first half-hour of the reception. The congressmen and their wives do not accept this innovation gracefully, and the ladies especially are grumbling. They are earnestly trying to learn who is responsible, but have not yet succeeded. The state department has no responsibility for the official program, except that part of it which relates to the disposition of the diplomatic corps. There is no evidence connecting Private Secretary Halford with the amended program of the new administration. He never does anything rash.

MR. SMITH, LABORER.

How He Purchased a Livingston County Salt Mine for $80,000.

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y., Dec. 26.—William H. Smith, a millionaire interested in coal and salt mining, has a bill of $2.60 against the Retsof Salt Mining Company of York, Livingston county, for two days' work as a common laborer in the Retsof mines. The bill will probably be disputed, but Mr. Smith doesn't care, for, acting upon knowledge gained during the two days that he took his place with the laborers in the mines, he has purchased a valuable bit of salt territory which promises to net him a handsome profit. Smith presented himself at the office of the Retsof Company the other day and asked for work. He was engaged as a common laborer at $1.80 per day and sent down into the mine.

On the third day he pleaded sickness and was granted a lay-off. He was well enough, however, to drive to the farm-house of S. H. Gray, who owned a valuable tract of salt territory which the Retsof people had been negotiating for. Smith said he was an employe of the Retsof company, and asked Mr. Gray what he would take for his land. "Two hundred dollars per acre for the 400 acres," was the reply, and the words had hardly been uttered when the indisposed miner pulled $10,000 in bills from his overalls to bind the bargain. An agreement was drawn up whereby Gray was to transfer his entire estate for $80,000, and Mr. Smith returned to the shaft, announced that he had recovered from his indisposition, and resumed his work underground.

Mr. Gray, happening to meet an officer of the Retsof Company on that same day, remarked that he had finally concluded a bargain with one of their men. The explanations which followed were not calculated to put the Retsof people in good humor. They called the men up from the mine in order to allow Mr. Gray to identify the party of the second part of the sale he had consummated, and when Smith was pointed out he was promptly discharged. The Retsof people were chagrined over the way they had been outwitted and were willing to raise Mr. Smith's ante, but it was too late. They had "passed," and Smith had "called."

The millionaire received his dismissal philosophically and in extraordinarily good humor. In a business-like way he presented his bill for two days' labor at the office, but it was not honored. He told the Retsof people that he was abundantly able to stand it, and that he was going to sink a shaft on his new purchase at once and start opposition. Mr. Smith's achievement is looked upon as a clever piece of business as well as a good joke. The land he purchased from Gray is believed to be the richest salt territory in the Western New York region.

FIRED BY ELECTIC WIRES.

The Useful but Dangerous Agent Kindles Two Blazes in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Dec. 26.—An electric light wire did its best toward making a Christmas eve conflagration on Main-street yesterday afternoon. While the inmates of Watson's jewelry store were busy waiting on customers it was discovered that a sign in front of the building was on fire. A Brush electric light wire had come in contact with the sign and not only was the woodwork burned but a piece of iron spout touched by the wire was melted. Had the wire come in contact with the woodwork in some exposed place it is probable that the building would have been in flames before anything wrong was noticed.

The fire department was called out twice yesterday for small fires started by wires. Last night a wire set fire to the sign at the jewelry store of T. & E. Dickinson on Main-street.

A WHISKY-CRAZED FIEND

IN A DRUNKEN FRENZY KILLS HIS WIFE

An Awful Tragedy in Toronto—John Milligan, ex-Steward at the University, Behind the Bars on a charge of Murder.

TORONTO, Dec. 28.—Behind the bars of No. 6 Police Station, bloated with drink and wearing all the signs of a protracted debauch, John Milligan, for eighteen years the steward at Toronto University, was placed last night on the awful charge of wife-murder.

The story of the tragedy as told by the neighbors is that Mrs. Fanny Milligan, the murdered woman, early yesterday went home complaining of cramp. She asked her little daughter Frances, 13 years of age, to bring her some warm water that she might bathe her feet, thinking this to allay the pain. She then went up to bed, and afterwards, it is alleged, the prisoner followed her and jumped upon her with his knees. She came downstairs, and after going about some household duties again retired, stating that she was very ill. Milligan also went up and lay down beside her. Two hours later her aged father, who lives in the house, heard cries and groans, but paid little attention, as it seems of common occurrence with the husband and wife have frequently quarrelled. Still later in the day little Frances went upstairs, spoke to her mother and tried to awake her. But the dead did not answer, and the child left the room and told her aged grandfather. He went up and lifted the dead woman's head from the pillow, and discovering the awful truth and remembering the crime he had heard, told the neighbors what had happened. Milligan was then arrested.

Milligan has been a fine-looking man. He is about 45 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches in height, with broad shoulders, dark hair, long side whiskers and heavy mustache. His eyes were glassy when seen in his cell, and in maudlin accents he protested his innocence. "I didn't kill my wife," he said. "Didn't know anything about her being dead, see? She's my wife and I didn't kill her. I'm in an awful fix, ain't I? But I didn't kill her. Oh, no! But I'll not tell you any more. I'll tell them all at the court to-morrow," and the half crazy man sat down on his bed with a silly, drunken laugh. He was clad in a dark tweed suit, much worn and very shabby. He had on a dirty linen collar, but no tie, and his bloated face and bleary eyes told too well the story of his drunken dissipation.

The house in which the murderer and his family live is one of a row of two-story houses in Lisgar-street. It is No. 130. There are three rooms downstairs and a like number upstairs. Mrs. Milligan's room in which the awful crime was committed, with which her husband is charged, is a front room. There are two windows looking out in the street. The floor was bare and clean. The bed is in the north-western corner, about two feet from the wall.

There was no indication of any struggle having taken place. A few cheap pictures prints on the wall, a heavy walnut bureau, three chairs, two frail wash-stands and a little dressing-table comprised all the furniture, except a large deal table near the foot of the bed. On the table was an old and heavy wooden writing desk, full of odds and ends. In the corner vertically opposite the bed was an old-fashioned leather-covered trunk. It was locked. Behind this there was a pile of rubbish and rags.

The bed on which the corpse lay was walnut, with a carved head, evidently a relic of other days. There were plenty of bed clothes, but they were all very much worn, and the sheets and pillow cases were soiled and stained. On the right hand side of the corpse as it lay upon the bed was a depression in the bed clothes and in the pillow. This was where the husband was found, lying in a drunken stupor, beside the body of the woman whom he, years ago, took unto him as his wife.

The dead woman was lying on the bed, clad only in a chemise and a nightshirt. Her head was thrown back on the pillow and her eyes were still open. The front of the nightdress was open and revealed a snowy breast and shoulders underneath. Her rich, black, luxuriant hair clustered around her head and the back of her neck. There were no marks visible on the poor woman's throat to indicate violence, or that she was choked to death. The mouth was partly opened, showing a set of perfect teeth, but the lips, no doubt once red with life, were blue in death. The expression on the face was not one of peace, nor yet was it one of agony. Rather an expression, vague though it was, of mental anguish and not bodily pain. Though her lips were open and extended, the teeth were firmly set. Her hands were beneath the bed clothes. The rest of the body was covered, but although she was lying flat on her back her lips were drawn up and her legs extended across the bed. She was about 35 years of age.

There are three children: Frances, aged 13; Isabella, 10; Margaret, 7. Milligan was born in Ireland and came to Canada some 28 or 24 years ago. He lost his place at the University through drink and after that kept a small shop for a time. The murdered woman's father Mr. Anderson lived with them. There had been frequent quarrels owing to her husband's drinking habits. An inquest will be held to-day.

Hornbacker Wasn't in It.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Eugene Hornbacher was done up to-night in quick order by Geo. Dixon of Boston in a fight near New London, Conn. Dixon was backed heavily by Boston people who captured many hundreds of dollars of the New York men's money. At the call of time Hornbacher led with his left for Dixon's stomach, but while he landed safely he got a stinging blow in the face in return. Dixon then forced the fighting, rushing Hornbacher and not only driving him all over the ring but gaining four clean knocks down before the close of the round. Hornbacher was hit so hard that he was very groggy at the call of time, and it was seen that the fight was about over. When the men were called for the second round Hornbacher was still stupid. He tried to rally but was not in it. Dixon pounded the little German all over the ring and knocked him out with a well delivered right-hander on the left jaw after they had been fighting one minute. The whole fight, rest and all, only lasted five minutes.

Provincial councils are also proposed. Mr. Bradlaugh will frame the bill and present it to Parliament.

LEARNING OF CANADA.

Russian Engineers Examining the Canadian Pacific Railway.

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—N. S. Kronghlicoff and S. B. T. Tinshenich, two civil engineers from Russia, arrived here this morning from the Pacific coast. In conversation with your correspondent they said that they left St. Petersburg two years ago with instructions to examine the projected railway by Russia in Siberia, and then proceed to Canada and take a run over the Canadian Pacific Railway. The object of this railway in Siberia is to get Russia connected with the Pacific Ocean. The road is about 5000 miles long. They spent eighteen months in Siberia, and then proceeded to Japan, from whence they sailed to Vancouver. Their object in coming to Canada is to obtain some practical idea, by observation and otherwise, as to the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway, particularly in British Columbia, which would be of advantage to the Russian Government in constructing their Siberia road. British Columbia, they describe as being very similar in appearance to part of Siberia, but our scenery is more picturesque than that of the latter country. On the Pacific slope they remained for two weeks. Here they intend visiting the Railway Department to obtain copies of official railway reports, and then proceed to Montreal, where they will interview the head officials of the road, returning to St. Petersburg by Niagara Falls, Philadelphia, New York and Liverpool.

JOHN BETZELL'S FALL.

An Unlucky Hamiltonian's Luck—Houses Blown Down by the Gale.

HAMILTON, Dec. 27.—John Betzell, a cigar maker, 23 years old, fell from the window of his room in the third story of the Franklin House at 2 o'clock this morning. He landed on the roof of Thomas piano factory, bounding to the shed below and thence to the ground, where he was found three hours later. His back was bruised and his face badly cut, but no bones were broken.

President Macpherson of the South Ontario Pacific Railway has received a communication from Mr Van Horne which, it is understood, urges an immediate settlement of the route question, and he has asked that a meeting of the Railway Committee be held to consider the matter. Ald. Moore has accordingly called a meeting for to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Two frame houses which are being erected by Mr. Kennedy Connor in West-street were reduced to a heap of timbers by the terrific wind which prevailed in this district yesterday. Several outbuildings in that vicinity were also blown down, in some cases being moved ten or twelve yards by the fury of the gusts.

Charlie Phillips was sentenced yesterday to seven years in the Penitentiary for burglarizing the residence of L. Sovereign, a Simcoe merchant.

William Monaghan, the newly appointed United States consul at Hamilton, arrived with his family yesterday. He will take up his residence immediately at 160 Main-street

BARBOZA'S BOASTS.

BRAZIL'S FINANCE MINISTER ON THE SITUATION.

Why the Revolutionists Cut Off the Civil List and the Subsidy to Dom Pedro—Bad News Predicted.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—A despatch to the Brazilian Minister here from Barbosa, Minister of Finance, says: Silveira Martens, who was transported, has acknowledged to the police authorities the wisdom of the act of banishment. Ex-Premier Ouro Preto has himself been banished on account of acts of conspiracy on the part of his followers. The imperial family, because of their having changed their attitude taken here from acquiescence to encouragement of the pretensions of reaction and making this the cause of the throne, were deprived of the civil list and the subsidy. The provisional government maintained the civil list as an act of mere tolerance unheard of in any other revolution, and added to this a subsidy of $2,500,000. The Emperor accepted both here but on his arrival in Europe, under the advice of disastrous counsellors, who had brought about the fall of the monarchy, refused the subsidy because it was an act of the revolution, but accepted the civil list as a right based upon law. In view of the denial of the legitimacy of the revolution which had been sanctioned by the whole country our measure cutting off the civil list and subsidy was an act of mere common sense. These measures have here met with general support.

Let Europe reflect on her resolutions effected at the expense of floods of blood and great financial disaster. We have accomplished ours without one drop of blood or the least financial trouble. Whoever thus conducts himself in the most trying moments must be able to manage his affairs with sufficient discretion and judgment. We shall continue to respect all rights, maintain the tribunals, organize the administration, observe all contracts and keep up the budget, but any attempt against public order will be repressed with implacable severity. Commerce, agriculture and the working classes call upon us to assume this attitude.

We shall hand over to the Constitutional Convention the republic intact. Those who believe that this convention is called to decide between the republic and the monarchy are mistaken. The monarchy is out of the question. The Constitutional Convention will only have to organize the republic. There is no more a monarchic party here. The European press should not be misled by newsmongers, whose machinations are here objects either of amazement or derision. These mistakes of the press foment here schemes of disturbance but the dilemma now is simply "Republic or Anarchy."

Bad News Looked For.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Salvador Mendonca, a delegate from Brazil to the Pan-American Congress, telegraphs to a firm here that he has received cables from Brazil preparing him for bad news. He, however, thinks the Government is strong.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Deputy-Sheriff Henderson of Carleton Resigns—The Ford Tragedy.

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—Mr. George F. Henderson Deputy-Sheriff of Carleton County, has carried out his long-announced intention of resigning. The vacant position has been offered to John McLaughlin of the Attorney-General's office, Toronto.

It is stated that no successor to the late Mr. Miller, clerk of the English journals for the Senate will be appointed until after the meeting of Parliament.

At a special meeting here to-day of the directors of the Vaudreuil and Prescott Railway it was resolved to deposit plans with the Government to-morrow for the approaches of the road into Ottawa, also to give notice of application to Parliament for expropriation of lands to enter the city over the Rideau River and down the banks of the the Rideau Canal, to within 50 yards of Rideau-street. The depot will thus be close to the militia stores, Sparks-street Bridge, in the very heart of the city, only a block or two from the Russel House and the Parliamentary buildings. This is the very route for which the Canada Atlantic has given notice by extension of its main road and transfer of its terminus to the same vicinity.

The inquest on the body of Mrs. Ford, murdered by her husband, who is supposed to have committed suicide and cremated his victim and himself afterwards, was again adjourned to-day, Miss Busby, the principal witness, being in a critical state. More bones have been found among the charred ruins of the house, which appear to be human and are assumed to be those of the murderer and suicide Ford.

A BRITISH COLUMBIA BLAZE.

New Westminster Visited by a Disastrous Fire—Losses and Insurance.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Dec. 27.—Early this morning fire broke out in a wooden building occupied by The Columbian Printing Company, Lyal & Co., stationers, and Wolfender Bros., grocers. The flames spread rapidly and the entire building, together with the contents and James Cunningham's tinsmith shop and stove depot, were totally destroyed.

The principal losses are: Wolfender Bros., $18,000, insurance $13,000; Lyal & Co., $15,000, insurance $4000; Columbian Printing Company, $18,000, insurance $9000; James Cunningham, $9000, insurance $3000; Ogle, Campbell & Co., $4000, fully insured.

The strenuous efforts of the firemen, together with assistance from the steamers at the wharves and a heavy snowstorm, prevented the spread of the fire to the adjoining buildings.

Escaped in Their Night Clothes.

PRINCETON JUNCTION, N.J., Dec. 27.—S. Holliday's drug store and three dwellings at Rocky Hill were burned last night. The inmates barely escaped in their night clothes. The wind blew a gale. The loss is heavy.

Other Fires.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Fire did $25,000 damage in the Everett building here this evening. The loss is distributed among a number of firms, including The N. York Tablet and The Sunday Times. Three firemen badly and three slightly burned.

THEIR BOAT FOUND.

The Escaped Convicts Probably Still in the Bush Near Kingston.

KINGSTON, Dec. 27.—Several boys while playing on the beach below Ford's tannery, saw a boat sunk in the water a few yards from the shore. They secured help and got the boat ashore. It was found that three large stones weighing about 200 pounds each had been placed in the craft. Lieut.-Col. Smith identified the boat as the one stolen from him by the escaped convicts. It would seem that the fugitives after stealing the boat secured a number of pieces of scantling and with these paddled their way along the harbor front and landed on Cataraqui Bay beach. The boat was then loaded and given a shove into the water and sank. It is probable that the convicts are still in the bush in this vicinity. The search is being vigorously prosecuted.

A Defaulter Surrenders Himself.

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y., Dec. 27.—Constable Slatt this morning found a strange man in the hay loft of his stable. The stranger said that he was L. B. Briggs, bookkeeper for Foster & Bailey, manufacturers of Providence, R.I., that he was a defaulter in $30,000; that he had been "haunted to death" and wanted to give himself up. He was taken before a justice, who telegraphed to Foster & Bailey and received a reply confirming to some extent Briggs' story. The constable left with Briggs for Providence this afternoon.

The Daily Smash.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 27.—The second section of the Cincinnati express, on the Pan-Handle Railway, ran into and telescoped the first section of the train twenty-five miles west of here this morning. The engine ploughed its way through almost the entire length of the Pullman sleeping car, throwing the passengers in their berths to either side. By extraordinary good fortune, however, none of them sustained more than slight injuries. The car was entirely wrecked and the rest of the train badly shaken up. C. H. Lee, of Richmond, Ind. clerk on the postal car, was quite seriously cut and bruised, but with this exception everybody on the train es-

THE LADIES!

A New and Distinct Form of Disease which is afflicting Canadian Women.

How cause of Them Regained Fresh Complexion, Perfect Health and Superb Physical Beauty.

A great London Physician says that he notes a new and distinct form of nervous disease prevalent in Canadian women by worry about servants and overwork in caring for the home. This is only too true. It is why we see so many ladies pale, weak, languid, and suffering from headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound. This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of women, and is daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. E. Cooper, 60 St. Hypolite St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now looks as well as she ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

The Separate Schools Act Amendments.

Decision of Hon. Mr. Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice Robertson on their Interpretation—Texts of the Questions and Answers.

It will be remembered that the Minister of Education recently submitted a number of questions to the Chancery Divisional Court regarding the construction to be placed upon certain amendments to the Separate Schools Act. Decisions on the points submitted were given on Monday at Osgoode Hall by Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice Robertson. The questions, together with the full text of the answers given by the learned judges, are as follows:

FIRST QUESTION.

Is or is not a ratepayer, who has not by himself or his agent, given notice in accordance with the last foregoing section (section 40 of the Separate Schools Act), entitled to exemption from the payment of rates imposed for the support of public schools or for other public school purposes as in that section mentioned?

Answer.—If the assessor is satisfied with the prima facie evidence of the statement made by or on behalf of any ratepayer that he is a Roman Catholic and thereupon (seeking and hearing no further information) places such person upon the assessment roll as a Separate School supporter, this ratepayer, though he may not by himself or agent give notice in writing pursuant to section 40 of the Separate Schools Act may be entitled to exemption from the payment of rates for public school purposes—he being in the case supposed assessed as a supporter of Roman Catholic Separate schools.

SECOND QUESTION.

Is it or is it not open to the court of revision of the municipality, under section 120 (2) of the public schools act, on the complaint of a person placed by the assessor in the column of the assessment roll for separate school supporters;

Or, on a complaint of any other person being an elector, to try and determine complaints in regard to

(a) The religion of the person placed by the assessor on the roll as taxable as Protestant or Roman Catholic;

(b) Whether such person is a supporter of public schools or of separate schools within the meaning of the provisions of law in that behalf;

(c) Whether such person has been placed in the wrong column of the assessment roll for the purpose of the school tax;

( ) Whether the name of any person wrongfully omitted from the proper column of the roll should be inserted therein;

( ) On any other fact or particular relating to persons alleged to be wrongfully placed [illegible] omitted from roll under section [illegible]

[illegible] Answer.—[illegible] provision has just[illegible] upon assessed [illegible] ratepayer [illegible] section 120) to hear and [illegible] complaints (a) in regard to the [illegible] the person placed on the roll as [illegible] Protestant or Roman Catholic, and (b) as to whether such person is or is not a supporter [illegible] public or separate schools, within the meaning of the provisions of law in that behalf and (c)—whether such person has been [illegible] the wrong column of the assessment roll for the purpose of the school tax [illegible] complaint for the omission of person [illegible] name in the column of any person [illegible] assessed from the proper column of the assessment roll should be inserted [illegible] upon the complaint of the person himself or of any elector (or ratepayer). As to the trial of any other fact or particular under sec. 120 of the public school act, the answers already given appear to exhaust all facts and particulars thereunder.

THIRD QUESTION.

Is or is not the assessor bound to accept the statement of, or made on behalf of, any ratepayer under section 120 (2) of the public schools act in case he is made aware or acquainted before completing his roll that such ratepayer is not a Roman Catholic or has not given the notice required by section 40 of the separate schools act, or is for any reason not entitled to exemption from public school rates?

Answer.—The assessor is not bound to accept the statement of, or made on behalf of, any ratepayer under section 120 (2) of the public schools act in case he is made aware or acquainted before completing his roll that such ratepayer is not a Roman Catholic or has not given the notice required by sec. 40 of the separate schools act, or is for any reason not entitled to exemption from public school rates.

FOURTH QUESTION.

A request by counsel on both sides after the argument:—

(a) In case a ratepayer, not being a Roman Catholic, is in any year wrongfully assessed as a Roman Catholic and supporter of separate schools, and through inadvertence or other cause did not appeal therefrom, is he or is he not estopped from claiming in such following or future year with reference to the assessment of such year that he is not a Roman Catholic?

Answer.—A ratepayer not a Roman Catholic, being wrongfully assessed as a Roman Catholic and supporter of separate schools who though inadvertence or other cause does not appeal therefrom, is not estopped (nor are the ratepayers) from claiming with reference to the assessment of the following or future year that he is not a Roman Catholic.

(b) Is a ratepayer, being a Roman Catholic and appearing on the assessment roll as a Roman Catholic and supporter of Separate Schools (although he had not given notice under the 40th section of Separate Schools Act), and not having given the notice of withdrawal mentioned in section 47 of the Separate Schools Act—is he or is he not estopped from claiming in such following or future year that he should not be placed as a supporter of Separate Schools, with reference to the assessment of such year, although he had not given the said notice of withdrawal?

Answer.—A ratepayer, being a Roman Catholic and appearing on the assessment roll as a Roman Catholic and supporter of Separate Schools, who has not given the notice in writing of being such supporter mentioned in section 40 of the Separate Schools Act, is not (nor are the other ratepayers) estopped from claiming in the following or future year that he should not be placed on a supporter of Separate Schools.

with reference to the assessment of each year, although he has not given notice of withdrawal mentioned in section 47 of the Separate Schools Act.

(c) Under the circumstances stated in either of the last two paragraphs, if the ratepayer himself is estopped, are or are not the other ratepayers of the municipality estopped also, and without remedy by appeal in each following or future year?

The answer to this question was involved in the two previous answers and was not given separately.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. me

Baby one Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched maledictus—no rest by day, no peace by night—doctors and all remedies failed—Tried Cuticura—Effect marvellous—Saved his life

Cured by Cuticura.

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs.

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, I determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH.

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly developes into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature Death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected Cold, which, by gradual stages developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease [illegible] prevalence is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold [illegible] of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, dull [illegible] headaches, [illegible] from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, [illegible] sense of smell, or taste becoming dull, hacking cough, general feeling of debility, husky voice, wheezing or cracking sound in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness, particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the morning when attempting to disclose accumulations in the throat. Do not neglect them. These are but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run on under the mistaken impression that the disease will [illegible] eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will weaken you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestionable fact, which is verified by thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials have received from all parts of the Dominion, and we append a few, selected at random as a fair sample of the whole:—

Mr. A. [illegible] Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says: Gents, I may state that I have been affected with Catarrh for seven or eight years, and for was attended with consequent symptoms such as foul breath, constant dropping of the throat, hawking and spitting, dull headache, ringing in the ears, and sickness in the head directly over either eye. I have tried powders and douches, but all to effect. The only result arising from [illegible] of such was temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravating form. The results arising from the use of Nasal Balm are sweet breath, stoppage of the droppings into the throat (consequently less hawking and spitting), clearness of hearing, and not once since I first used it has I had pain in the head. [illegible] my opinion that careful and [illegible] use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

James H. McL[illegible], Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM has certainly the BEST REMEDY I have tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is pleasant and convenient to use adds greatly to its [illegible], but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease—C[illegible]

W. Chas. Hanley, postmaster, [illegible], says:—I submit the following to you in the hope that any who may be afflicted may be benefited by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Beatrietta Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for Catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

Miss Maggie M. Martin, Tyrone, Pa., says:—Through a friend in Canada I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with Catarrh, and it is the first remedy from which I have experienced relief, and I feel certain it will cure me.

Minnie McNairn, Milk[illegible]oches, Ont., says:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The [illegible]n my head disappeared before I had used [illegible] bottle, and I find myself receiving the greatest benefit. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure my Catarrh if its use is persevered in.

Mr. John [illegible]Adams, [illegible]ral, Brantford, Ont., says:—I have used NASAL BALM for Catarrh, and found it [illegible] CERTAIN CURE.

Geo. Doyle, Beulah, M[illegible] writes:—As a family medicine to check [illegible]rrhal affections and cold in the Head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Mr. A. Schlenzig, [illegible]nic, says:—For a number of years my [illegible] has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr.—— have promised to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months she became worse and weaker than before. I found that I had spent $25 for [illegible] treatment that did no good. My wife began to use your NASAL BALM, improved wonderfully, and she is now stronger than for years. Your remedy is the best in the market and you can use this as testimony.

Emilie Pelletier, Granville, says:—I can scarcely find words to tell you how highly I prize NASAL BALM. Its effects in my case have been wonderful.

Alpha H. Dales, Tarbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you on receipt of price—50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

MARRIED THE BROTHER

A Pretty Romance From a Massachusetts County.

Old Deacon Stiles, of North Hopkins, had but one daughter to inherit his well-tilled uplands and fertile fields, and he determined that no never-do well of a son-in-law should benefit by the fruits of his long years of industry. Presumably if pretty Ruth had been left to her own innocent dreaming she would have fallen in love naturally enough with the pale young minister, who expounded the Word so fluently every Sunday morning and cast glances to the little demure teacher of the infant lambs of his flock all through Sunday school.

But because it was so apparent that this was what she was expected to do her perverse woman's heart never fluttered when the demure tendered her a hymn book, but pounded against her bodice most alarmingly when Bob Dalton looked straight into her eyes from his pew across the aisle as his blithe tenor voice rang out, "Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace." Every one but the deacon knew that Bob and Ruthie were in love, but he never dreamed of such a calamity until handsome, wild Bob, who never even rose for prayers, and whose "cursed fiddle" led all the dances at the huskings and frolics, asked him for his daughter's hand. There was a scene the description of which would fill four chapters of a realistic novel, and Ruthie was shut up in her little muslin-curtained bedroom under the eaves for a whole week to repent, and the upshot of it all was that Bob left the town in despair, and somehow, she never knew exactly how either, Ruthie was promised to the minister to wed when the apples blossomed.

Not long before the snow melted the village was startled by the arrival of Bob's wild brother, who ran away from home some 20 years before, and who had returned, not like the prodigal son from his husks and penury, but with money enough to mortgage the whole barren little township and have some left over for government bonds. And when he heard the story of little Ruthie, didn't he swear a big, naughty oath, and vow that these lovers should be wed in the spring-time, and didn't he contrive to whisper to Ruthie on her way out of church that if she could contrive to meet him just over the border in Maine, on the very day set for her wedding with the minister, he would see that she had a husband to her mind.

He looked so brave and handsome and so like Bob that Ruthie lifted her shy, sweeping lashes and gave him one swift, grateful, wonderful look from her soft dark eyes that, as he expressed it, just "knocked him off his pins" and set up such a "confounded commotion" under his commodious waistcoat that he didn't get over it in a month.

Somehow she managed to give him an old battered tintype of herself and one of the long curls Bob used to twist around his fingers, and away he went in search of the roving lover, assuring Ruthie that when he found him he would divide his fortune with them, and go back to the wilds and make another, and then he got another look that kept his heart thumping all the way to Texas, and whenever he pressed his hand against that little picture that was in his breast pocket he had a kind of a gasping spasm that was worse than seasickness. There wasn't any brother in Texas or in Mexico, but at last he got track of him in the Haytian republic.

The day of tyrat was drawing near, and still no tidings, and he couldn't communicate with Ruthie, for her father would read the letter first. Another clew was found, and on following it up he learned that his brother was dead. He hammered himself for being glad, he looked at that picture half a hundred times, he wondered how in the world he should tell her, and all the time he hastened to the north land, and reached there just in time to meet a little, white-faced, scared maiden on a shaggy-sagacious little pony, who had brought her over the hills in the early morning to meet her husband. And when he told her of her lover's death, what more natural than that he should not take her in his arms to comfort her and assure her that he had kept his word, had brought her a husband and half, nay all, the fortune and a wealth of love besides. And when she thought of her angry parents, the hatchet-faced preacher bridegroom, the talk and gossip of the town, of all that Bob's brother had unselfishly done for her happiness, and when he was talking to her with Bob's own smile, grown older and graver, but none the less sweet, why, it was the easiest thing in the world to put her hand in his and promise him before a jolly little parson all that she meant to have promised Bob.—N. Y. Sun.

But Yet a Woman.

She wore a mannish little coat
With knowing little pockets;
She's cast aside her necklace,
Her bangles and her lockets;
Her dickey, collar and cravat
Exactly match her brother's;
Her round straw hat is so like is
You can't tell one from tother's
She ventures on a little slang
That sounds quite brusque and mannish
But show her once a mouse or worm,
And see the disguies vanish!

Mothers!

Remember that Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or any other narcotic substance, in any quantity, shape or form. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, positively effective and perfectly harmless. It is not a secret remedy; the formula is printed on the wrapper. Your physician will recommend it. Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, and many so-called soothing syrups are composed principally of opium or morphine; in any quantity they stupify, and in large quantities are deadly poisons. Castoria assimilates the food and regulates the bowels, cures diarrhœa, allays feverishness and fretfulness, soothes the pain in teething, relieves constipation and kills worms. It brings refreshing and natural sleep to the child, and gives rest to the mother.

"Castoria is so well adapted to infants and children that I recommend it as superior to any other known remedy."

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. A POETICAL TRIBUTE
—TO—
HONEST DEALING.

A grateful customer of MESSRS. H. LEBRUN & Co., has been moved to put into verse the following truthful tribute to the excellence of this firm's goods. Truth and poetry do not always go together, but in this case they go hand in hand. There is no exaggeration nor poetical license in the following lines:—

Last night I had a pleasant dream, and well I did enjoy it,
In sleep I soared Parnassus' height, and awoke a full fledged poet;
I tarried not to eat nor drink, but quickly grasped my pen
To tell in verse how cheaply we could clothe our fellowmen.
Our prices make the rich to smile, the poor with joy to shout,
We are resolved from this henceforth to knock the bottom out;
The man must strike some unseen notch, and shout up from below
That undersells the clothing store of H. LeBrun & Co.
Our choice five dollar overcoats, our genial salesmen shows,
Will keep you warm as a pie in the wildest storm that blows.
No ground up rags, no shoddy stuff, no mill pressed glue and hair,
But every thread spun from the sheep—fine, cheap, and made to wear.
You need not walk round shabby dressed, our prices must you convince,
Our seven dollar suits will dress you stylish as a prince.
For two and fifty we will clothe your boy from head to toe
Right in the City Clothing Store of H. LeBrun & Co.
Our line of ready-made is good, choices you will receive,
Examine, choose and purchase cloth; with us your order leave.
We guarantee to cut and stitch complete as you command,
For style and finish every part here unsurpassed we stand.
Young gents that wish a stylish suit, for concert, church or ball,
Will have their true wish gratified, by giving us a call.
Out walking, or in sitting room your girl will wish to know
If you had bought that pretty suit from H. LeBrun & Co.
Our expert cutter measures true and strikes each new design,
With skilful hand his shears play crack, round angle, curve or line.
Our tailor's work, neat, strong, complete, o'er all the hot goods steams,
Leaving no wrinkles in the back, nor puckers in the seams.
We don't believe in paper puffs that float off like a kite,
Our goods and prices come and test, as proofs of what we write.
No shoddy pressed, no ripping seams, air holes in two weeks show,
Cheapness and wear the motto is at H. LeBrun's & Co.
Before eighteen and eight-nine bids us a last adieu,
To all our patrons, rich and poor, thanks we return to you,
Fair honest dealing in the past upholds our business name,
And in the future, we resolve strict to pursue the same,
Come old and new friends, welcome come, Christmas is drawing nigh,
How you will smile to see how much a trifling sum will buy.
With pleasure we will suit your wants and salute you as you go,
With all the season's compliments, of H. LeBrun & Co.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1889.

THE BROOKS MANUFACTURING COMPANY BONUS.

The public are already aware that the Brooks Manufacturing Company has been formed to carry on an important manufacturing industry in Peterborough—in the premises formerly occupied by the Peterborough Stove and Furnace Company. But few, however, are aware of the progress made toward beginning manufacturing operations on the strength of the probability of the bonus, to be voted on Jan. 6th, being granted—or of the extent and importance of this extensive addition to our, already, creditable list of manufactories. It may be interesting to outline the scope of the work the Brooks Manufacturing Company proposes to carry on. It will continue the manufacture of hot water furnaces, to which in a short time will be added the manufacture of hot air furnaces. But the chief industry of the company will be the manufacture of carbons for electric lamps, for which their premises are now being rapidly and specially fitted up. The carbons are made from petroleum coke, a residuum from the refining of crude oil. This substance has to be crushed and pulverised and mixed with other substances to insure cohesion of the carbon. This mixture is submitted to tremendous hydraulic pressure. A machine has been ordered and is now in process of manufacture in Cleveland, which is required to be tested up to a pressure of 500 tons before it leaves the factory, and in actual work a pressure of 350 tons is required. After being removed from the press, the carbons are roasted in specially constructed ovens for from five to eight days. A very strong and steady heat is necessary. Powerful machinery is required and it is doubtful if the 40-horse power engine now in the building will serve the required purpose. If it fails to do so, a new 80-horse power engine will at once be procured. The company is bound to spare no expense to perfectly equip its factory with the best of modern appliances. Orders for several thousands of dollars of machinery are being filled, and three cars of fire brick are now en route for the construction of the ovens, and experts have been engaged to build them. That the company is in earnest is shown by the fact that they are expending about $40,000 in plant and machinery to equip their premises for their intended work. In addition to the manufacture of carbons, the manufacture of a general line of electric supplies will be added to their capacity. It will be of interest to know that when work is fairly under way there will be employed about eighty men—that is to say fifteen to twenty in the furnace department, thirty in the carbon department and thirty in the electric supplies department. After the first year there is certain that this number of employes will be considerably increased. Adult labor will be employed, and doubtless the pay roll will amount to about $40,000 per year to begin with, with every prospect of increase, and from the energy and enterprise already exhibited, there can be no doubt that the new industry will be a flourishing and expanding one, if the people show by their votes on Jan. 6th that they desire its establishment in Peterborough.

The town of Peterborough is committed to the policy of aiding manufacturers to establish themselves here and the Brooks Manufacturing Company presents strong claims to the application of this policy The practice of giving bonuses in lump sums to concerns of dubious soundness, which have not faith enough in their enterprises to invest their own money in them, is not a wise one. But it is a very different matter to recognise an industry by paying them a comparatively small sum in instalments upon the conditions of the fulfilment of definite conditions. If the Brooks Manufacturing Company is willing as it has shown itself to be, in view of the bonus being granted, to invest a capital of between $40,000 and $50,000 it certainly not too much to ask that the town should, recognize their good faith and extend them the encouragement implied in granting a bonus of $6000 which the people will be asked to vote on January 6th, 1890.

A Holiday Reminder.

The EXAMINER is indebted to Messrs. S. "Y" Reception.

A committee of the "Y," chaperoned by certain matrons, will hold reception in their parlors on the afternoon of New Year Day. It has been asked, "Will not this be mistaken for rivalry of the Y M. C. A. reception?" Surely not to any reasonable mind. It is merely an added pleasure which the members wish to afford, in their modest, unpretentious way, to the young men and maidens who will be abroad keeping holidays. Callers welcome from 2 until 6 o'clock.

J W	W J Green

Installation of officers takes place the second Friday in January, D.D.C.P. Roy officiating.

The Drama.

There was not a very large attendance at the Opera House last night, when the Wood-St John English Comedy Company presented a double bill, the comedietta, "Man Proposes," and the sterling old English drama, "David Garrick." The quality of the performance deserved a better attendance. Mr. Geo. M. Wood and Miss St. John are the leading actors in a good all-round troupe, and their performance was really excellent. To-night they present the great Parisian success, "Roger La Honte."

The Business College of this place reopens Jan. 7th, 1890. The past year has seen the attendance increase three times what it was the proceeding year, a fact which speaks for the excellent management of the college, and also shows that a practical education is demanded on all sides. Next year the teaching staff will be increased, and also the seating accommodation.

All interested will please call on the the Principal, at his office, 368 Water Street. Circulars will be sent to any address. dw

One More Chance.

There are scores who were not remembered on Christmas day with the customary gift, and they feel, as they have a reason to feel, slighted. But there is another holiday coming—New Year's day—when gifts are given and received. An appropriate present would be something consoling. And nothing fills the bill better than a package of hawley bros'. superb tea—pure, strong and first class. This firm makes a specialty of teas. Buying direct and in large lots, they buy at the best rates, therefore customers get the advantage of it. Remember this fact when you want first-class tea or coffee, and go straight to hawley bros', 370 George st. dw

The Nora Clench Concert.

No musical event of recent years is exciting more interest than the Nora Clench concert on Jan. 9th. The great reputation and undoubted great ability of this brilliant Canadian artiste, amply justifies this interest, which will certainly be richly rewarded at the coming concert. The remaining portion of the programme will also be of a high order. Mrs. Chambers is recognized as the leading soprano soloiste of Montreal, and Mr. A. Dutch is a baritone who has few equals in Ontario. Remember the plan of seats will be open on Monday next at Sailsbury's bookstore. Tickets may be procured of Mr. A. F. Hoover, Mr. W. E. Leoh and at Mr. Sanderson's jewelry store. Tickets, 25 and 50 cents. Reserved seats, 75 cents.

"The Dear Irish Boy."

McCarthy & Reynold's company will appear in the opera house here Jan 3rd, in the above play. The New York Times says:—"Dan McCarthy, of "True Irish Hearts" fame, brought out a new play, "The Dear Irish Boy," at the Windsor on Monday night. It jumped at once into success. "The Dear Irish Boy" is built upon somewhat familiar Hibernian lines. It is full of wit and song, bagpipes and dance, and a vein of pathos runs through—in a word, it is a rollicking Irish play. Dan McCarthy enacts the hero, and he is ably supported by Mr. Gus Reynolds, who is classed as being one of the best character actors in the profession, and this play he sustains his reputation, for his impersonation of Mike McClutchey was a piece of acting seldom seen on any stage, and he deserved the well earned applause he received. Reynolds is simply immense.

Card of Thanks.

I hereby desire to tender my sincere and hearty thanks to the members of the Mark-street Methodist choir, Ashburnham, for the very handsome and generous gift of a gentleman's dressing case, presented to me, by them, at our Christmas entertainment, which event took place on Christmas night. Ever since our relationship together as members of this choir, we have experienced very many pleasing reminiscences, and a chain of Christian friendship has been linked together, which I feel assured cannot be easily broken, and I trust that in the sweet bye and bye we shall all meet when our gatherings here are o'er to blend forth our voices together in hymns of praise and gratitude unto Him who is our great leader, throughout the countless ages of eternity.

Yours etc.,

A Delightful Musical Evening

A Musical Re-union at the Convent.

Last night a musical re-union was given at the Convent of the Congregation de Notre Dame, in honor of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor. Those present, besides the chief guest, were the Cathedral clergy and parents of the pupils and ex-pupils who contributed to the programme. Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M. P., and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., were also among the invited guests. The entertainment provided was of the highest order and was the best possible criterion of the excellence and thoroughness of the musical instruction and culture imparted in the musical department of this institution. It is impracticable to give a detailed reference to the several numbers; it may, however, be mentioned that the young ladies who gave the first six numbers on the programme are candidates for the silver medal and the others are past medallists of the Convent.

Masonic Installation.

Observance of the Festival of St. John the Evangelist by the Local Fraternity —The Roll of Honor for 1889.

Friday, the 27th December being, the time honoured Festival of St. John the Evangelist, the event was duly observed by the Masonic fraternity of Peterborough. Preparations had been made a week previous by the P.M. Association for carrying out the elaborate ceremony of installation—the most imposing attraction of the Masonic year. An Installing Board composed of the following well-skilled craftsmen was charged with the special task of conducting the impressive investiture of the newly elected and appointed officers of Corinthian and Peterborough lodges for 1890, with their respective badges of office, viz.:—R. W. Bro. E. H. D. Hall, P.D.D.G.M.; R. W. Bro. Benjamin Shortley, P.D.D.G.M.; W. Bro. Harry Rush, W. Bro. H. C. Winch. The spacious hall was filled with the local brethren, among whom were many P.M's., who have grown old in their connection with the memorable principles of this Ancient Order.

After routine and the general business of both lodges was finished, the chairs were vacated by the interim officers and were assumed by the Installing Masters. The following officers were then duly installed for the ensuing year:—

Sunday School Children

Enjoy their Annual Treat—St. Paul's and St. Andrew's Sunday Schools Celebrate their Anniversaries.

Friday evening the pupils of St. Andrew's Sunday school were given tea by their lady teachers. The school room was well filled, about 175 children, teachers and friends being present. Tea was served about six o'clock, and it goes without saying that the boys and girls made sad havoc with the edibles. After the tables had been cleared the children romped around, at intervals singing several choruses. Mr. Osborne also gave a recitation. The evening's enjoyment was brought to a close about nine o'clock by the presentation of a number of prizes to those scholars who had been authorizedly diligent in attendance and study to merit one. Rev. Mr. Bell, pastor and superintendent, presented the prizes. Afterwards the children were treated to candies and nuts, and sent home happy.

AT ST. PAUL'S.

St. Paul's Sunday school is the second largest in town, and the school room Friday evening was filled to overflowing with pupils of the Sunday school, and Bible class, the teachers and a few friends. Supper was served from six o'clock till half past seven, the ladies providing a substantial and abundant repast. The school-room was very prettily decorated for the occasion. After supper the following programme was rendered, Mr. Hall, Superintendent, presiding:—

PART I.

Chorus	The Sunday School
Hymn	Infant Class
Chorus	Girls
Recitation	Miss Nellie Courtenay
Kindergarten
Vocal Solo	Miss Annie M Hall
Recitation	Master Andrew Thompson
Chorus	Girls

PART II.

Kindergarten
Recitation	Master Roggy Thompson
Instrumental Duet	Misses Marion Hall and Effie Cameron
Vocal Solo	Master Bertie Lee

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

The recitations were particularly good, while the singing showed careful training on the part of the pupils. Much of the credit for the excellent singing rendered by the children is due to the painstaking efforts of Mrs. Jas. Dixon, the Misses Cameron and Miss Roper, who conducted the practices.

The annual treat was a very pleasant affair, and the pupils will retain happy recollections of the hospitality of their teachers and officers on this occasion.

The Old Folks at Home.

How the Inmates of the Protestant Home Enjoyed their Christmas.

Christmas comes but once a year, and when it comes it brings good cheer. No place so humble but feels the joyous influences which throb throughout the Christian world at Christmas tide, and experiences the practical pleasures and enjoyments inseparably connected with the time honored festive season. The inmates of the Peterborough Protestant Home came in for a share of the general joyousness. There are eighteen inmates of the Home, mostly aged and infirm people who in their declining years have no home of their own and are cared for by a charitable public. Their benefactors did not forget them amidst the festivities and home pleasures of the holiday season. Christmas 'eve there was a merry gathering at the Home. The interior, always neat and comfortable in appearance, was made doubly attractive by the decorations put up by the children (a few of whom are living at the Home), in the shape of evergreens, fancy paper ornaments, mottoes &c. In the dining room a large Christmas tree was erected, hung with numerous little gifts of a useful nature, and the simple-minded old folks entered into the spirit of the scene with a childish delight which was at once pleasant and pathetic to behold. There were presents for each one of the inmates, and as the articles were cut down and handed to them, the old people and children alike were gratified. Doubtless, they will carry in their hearts for many a day, cheering recollections of the kindness experienced at the hands of the good ladies who prepared the treat. After the tree had been dismantled, the evening was spent in singing and conversation, the happy old people joining as heartily as their weakened powers would permit in singing such familiar old songs as "Home, sweet home," etc.

The Christmas tree entertainment was managed and arranged principally by Mrs. Paton, Miss Thompson and Miss Errett, warm-hearted ladies who adopted this true Christian method of showing a practical charity, which is the greatest of all virtues. Mrs. Dillon, the matron, also entered heartily into the arrangements and is greatly gratified at the kindness shown her wards.—COM.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is its immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

It was a fearful wreck and the damage to the railroad cannot be estimated. Luckily the cars did not take fire, the cars being heated by steam. The engine did not leave the rails but the tender's trucks were knocked out. The rear sleeper had the front trucks on the ground and remained on the rails.

Worn Rails and Rotten Ties.

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 29.—Persons who were in the wreck on the Chesapeake and Ohio R.R. at White Sulphur Springs yesterday report terrible scenes. It is now said the conductor was not in the smoker, every occupant of which was killed. One man was caught under the timbers and parties worked over an hour to extricate him. He was rescued only to die within a few minutes. It is understood the rail was worn and the ties dried and unable to bear a heavy train going at a rapid rate.

Another Smash-up on the Same Road.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 29.—Another wreck is reported on the Chesapeake and Ohio road at Fort Gay. Thirteen freight cars out of seventeen were broken up, the fireman killed and engineer seriously injured.

TRIPLE MURDER IN MICHIGAN.

A Well-to-do Farmer Kills Three Members of His Family and Himself.

ROCHESTER, Mich., Dec. 28.—A triple murder was committed two miles north of Mount Vernon last night by William Major, who killed his wife, his daughter and his granddaughter. Major, who is about 50 years old and a well-to-do farmer, was in Romeo yesterday and came home cheerful. His daughter, Miss Joseph Depew of Brandon, and her little daughter were visiting the house and after conversation with them the family retired. The people were but fairly asleep when Major arose and began the work of slaughter. He took a revolver and shot his wife as she lay asleep, putting two bullets into her body and mortally wounding her. The noise of the shooting awakened the others, but the murderer did not hesitate.

Springing into the apartment occupied by his daughter and her child, he coolly fired a bullet at Mrs. Depew, and when it failed to kill her he procured an axe and knocked out her brains. Then he pulled his little grandaughter from beneath the bed clothing, and with one blow of the axe split her head open, killing her. Major then rushed into the room where his little son slept and groped about the bed for him. The lad had crawled under the bed for safety. As he heard his father searching the room he said: "Are you going to kill me, too, papa?" "No, my son," replied the murderer. "Do not be afraid. When I am gone you get $150, which I will leave you, and divide it with your sister." Then he hastened from the house, went to his barn and hanged himself.

TORONTO TOPICS.

An Exciting Scene at the Milligan Inquest—Caught in the Act.

TORONTO, Dec. 30.—A jury was empanelled Saturday to hold an inquest on the body of Mrs. Fanny Milligan. After viewing the body an adjournment was made until this evening. Just before the adjournment an exciting episode occurred. A young man named Sterns, a nephew of the dead woman, rushed into the house and, made his way back to the kitchen where the prisoner was. "You killed my aunt ——— you," he shouted, "and I will kill you, you ——— ———," but the police interfered and prevented a rash attack upon Milligan. After the inquest the prisoner was taken back to No. 6 station, where he is now incarcerated awaiting the verdict of the coroner's jury.

David Dinan, 18, and Frank Sinclair, 17, were arrested in the act of burglarizing a shoe store in Queen-street west at midnight Saturday. George Sinclair, 18, was locked up as an accomplice.

ALIVE IN HIS COFFIN.

A Supposed Dead Man Comes to Life—Hopes of Recovery.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 28.—Capt. Jacob Garrett of the Lagonda-avenue Engine House received a telegram last Saturday night announcing the sudden death of his father at Sandusky. The cause assigned for his demise was an epileptic fit. Mr. Garrett left at once for Columbus, where the funeral was to be held, and awaited the arrival of the remains. Arriving at the Capital City he and other relatives received the body, which had been shipped in the care of a relative. The casket was opened for a last look, when signs of life were perceived. Restoratives were brought, a physician summoned, and in a short time the supposed dead man was able to speak. He was taken to a bed, and now lies there very weak and ill, but his relatives are not without hope that he may yet be wrested from death's grip.

IN SHROUDS OF FLAME.

Eleven Persons Burnt to Death in a Blazing Dwelling at Hurouton, Mich.

HANCOCK, Mich., Dec. 29.—At 8 o'clock this morning at Hurouton, Theodore Gross, his wife and 5 children with a visitor were consumed in a burning dwelling. Theodore Gross returned from a dance at 2 o'clock. At 2.30 a son, Theodore jr., returned from the Huron stamp mills, where he is employed. He went into the house and to bed. Shortly after he was awakened by his brother Nicholas who had heard screams coming from an adjoining room occupied by their three sisters and three little brothers. They ran to the door and found the room a mass of flames. The boys jumped and were seriously hurt. Nothing could be done to save the eleven inmates.

IN A STATE OF SIEGE.

A Formidable Revolution Breaks Out in San Salvador.

LA LIBERTAD, Dec. 28.—A revolution has broken out in the Department of Cuscatlan, San Salvador. It is headed by ex-Commandant-General Rivas, who has a strong force under him. The departments of La Paz, San Vicente, Chalatenango and San Salvador have been declared in a state of siege. The Government has sent about 5000 men to capture Cojutepaque and suppress the revolution.

EIGHT NEGROES LYNCHED

TAKEN FROM JAIL AND RIDDLED WITH BULLETS.

Another Brutal and Bloody Outrage in South Caroline—Three Hundred Men in the Mob—An "Explanation."

CHARLESTON, S.C., Dec. 28.—A mob of several hundred men raided the jail at Barnwell Court House, at 2 o'clock this morning, overpowered the jailer, and took out eight negro prisoners, charged with murder. They were Ripley Johnson and Mitchell Adams, charged with murdering a man named Hefferman, and six others charged with the murder of young Martin. The prisoners were taken out of town and shot to death. The jailer was tied and forced to accompany the lynchers. The whole thing was conducted in a very skilful manner, the citizens of the town not knowing about it. A great many negroes are collected at the scene of the lynching and trouble is anticipated.

The following statement signed by Robert Aldrich, Mike Brown, George H. Bates, William McNab and James A Jenkins, some of the most prominent and influential citizens of Barnwell, has been sent to The News and Courier, in explanation of the horrible butchery of defenceless men at that place last night:

"In consequence of the lynching which took place here last night the undersigned were this morning requested by the Sheriff to act as an advisory committee to counsel such steps as may be deemed best to secure order. We at first proceeded to investigate and deem it right to put the public in possession of the facts of the occurrence and causes which we believe led to it, as far as we have gathered them. On Oct. 30 John H. Hefferman, a prominent young merchant and brave, public-spirited citizen, was shot down and killed in Barnwell by negroes. Public indignation ran very high. Threats of lynching were freely made, but this was diverted by cooler counsel. At the last term of the Court the grand jury found true bills against his murderers and accessories, but the cases were continued. The white people were disappointed and the negroes, it is thought, were emboldened by this disposition of the matter.

"On Dec. 19 James S. Brown, a prominent planter and leading citizen of Fish Pond township, was shot to death on his own premises by negroes, without the slightest justification or excuse. The murderer has not been arrested.

"On Dec. 18, while going from his store at Martin's station to his house, a mile away, Robert Martin, a young man of the most exemplary character and of the highest standing as a man and citizen, was followed by a negro and shot in the back with a gun loaded with slugs, on the public road which passes through his father's plantation, in hearing of negroes whose houses were all around the spot where he was shot, and who admitted that they heard the shot and his cries when shot, and none of whom went to his relief, and none of them went to his body, although it lay in the road all night and for several hours after daylight in plain view of them all. It was satisfactorily established that this murder was the result of a conspiracy to remove him in order that their license upon the plantation of his father might be greater. The murderer, that is the negro who fired the shot, and his accessories, six in number, were arrested and lodged in jail.

"These several brutal murders of prominent white men by negroes caused a state of indignant resentment among our people that can be better imagined than described, but cannot be imagined by anyone not present in our midst. Last night a large body of armed men in disguise, at about 2 a.m., called at the jail, overpowered the jailer, took out the six murderers of Martin and two of Hefferman, took them to the limits of the corporation and shot them to death. This explanation of the causes which led to the lynching does not, in the opinion of law abiding citizens, in any way justify the atrocious murder of eight defenceless human beings. The greatest indignation is expressed here at the brutality of the deed."

All was quiet at Barnwell late this evening although trouble has been anticipated and may yet come.

Three Hundred Men in the Mob.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—A special to The Times from Columbia, S. C., says there were 300 masked men in the mob which executed the eight negroes at Barnwell this morning. All were heavily armed. The cries of the negroes for mercy were unheeded. The victims were Ripley Johnston, Michael Adams, Peter Bell, Raffe Morrell, Hugh Furse, Hudson Johnson, Albert Phœnix and Judge Jones. They were marched to the outskirts of the town and in a few minutes the men were bound to eight trees. The masked men then formed a line a short distance from them and poured volley after volley into the bodies of the negroes. They were shot to pieces. The firing was the first intimation the people of the town had of the trouble. It seemed then as if the negroes would rise up and revenge the lynching. In response to a request the Governor ordered a company of infantry and one of cavalry to prepare for service. The whites were armed and are pretty well organized to-night. The town is reasonably quiet. Johnston and Adams will be buried by relatives, the others will be buried by the town. The citizens of Barnwell claim the numerous and unprovoked murders of whites are the result of a plot of the negroes.

BARBOZA'S DENIAL.

The Property of the Brazilian Imperial Family Not Confiscated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Mr. Valente, the Brazilian Minister, to-day received the following despatch from Ruy Barboza, Brazilian Minister of Finance: "We see that the European press continues to accept false rumors as a basis for accusations against us. The property belonging to the Imperial family has not been confiscated. On the contrary the decree has guaranteed to allow the Imperial family the term of two years within which to dispose of its property. What has been cancelled is the allowance in the civil list and the subsidy granted by the provisional government."

Mr. Valente said the government had taken great precaution to ensure the safety of everything belonging to the Imperial family. A careful inventory had been taken of their possessions and these effects had been zealously guarded and turned over to Marquis Paranagua, a warm friend of the Emperor. Confiscation was an unknown thing in Brazil, and he believed and hoped it will never occur. Both Minister Valenti and Captain Mautirty, delegate to the Maritime Congress, declared their firm belief that the republic was assured beyond question. The reports of trouble, they said, were all hatched up in Lisbon by enemies of the republic.

There seems to be a growing feeling here among Brazilians in support of the republic and of opposition to the monarchy. This feeling apparently is due to a considerable extent to supposed attempts at interference on the part of European governments with Brazil's national affairs. Even those Brazilians who were formerly devoted to Dom Pedro and for some time were not friendly to the new government are now strong adherents of the republic.

One of the Fugitives Captured.

GANANOQUE, Dec. 28.—Hall, one of the convicts who effected his escape from the Kingston Penitentiary on Christmas Eve, was captured here to-day by the town constables. Hall had managed to get to Howe Island, in the St. Lawrence, and was making enquiry as to the possibility of getting from there to the American shore. Two men, residents of the island, who were coming to Gananoque, told him he was most likely to succeed from this place, and offered him a seat in their boat. Having a suspicion that he was one of the escaped convicts they informed the constables, two of whom went to the place of debarkation and arrested him without resistance. He is dressed in clothes, taken from the persons of the guard and has on a prison shirt. He had in his possession a revolver.

Goodnow, Maine, at St. Stephen's N.B.; G. Fisk, Vermont, at St. John's, Que.; Nicholas Smith, New York, at Three Rivers, Que.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

SALISBURY ENDEAVORS TO LET PORTUGAL DOWN GENTLY.

Captain O'Shea's Action for Divorce—Something for Russia to Explain—The Ex Empress of Brazil's Sudden Death.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—Relations between England and Portugal continue to occupy the public mind. There is entire absence of excitement, though the Foreign Office undoubtedly takes a serious view of the situation. Lord Salisbury's despatches are singularly conciliatory in tone, but firm in substance. Every effort is being made to let Portugal down gently; but, gently or otherwise, down she will have to come, says a diplomatist high in rank.

This morning's despatch to The Standard from New York gives new interest to the question. The rumors, current here, though not publicly discussed, of joint action by England and the United States against Portugal are partly confirmed by this despatch. The Amer an warships are said to have been ordered to Lisbon by virtue of an understanding between Mr. Blaine and Lord Salisbury, Mr. Blaine's action being based on the McMurdo claim, which is not forgotten fully in this country. No editorial remark is made upon it. Another New York despatch gives what purports to be Mr. Blaine's denial of the story, while an English note, that looks semi-official, denies also that the English fleet from Malta has been ordered into the Tagus.

The exchange of despatches between Lisbon and London continues, and so do broadsides of anti-English articles in the French press. Arbitration is talked of vaguely. Major Serpa Pinto has telegraphed an equally vague denial of the charges against him, evidence in support of which is becoming steadily more complete.

Atrocious Cruelty in Siberia.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—Russia has now something to explain. The early and brief reports of the recent tragedy in Siberia are confirmed by a circumstantial account three columns long, with documents apparently authentic, published in The Times. A party of exiles came into collision with soldiers and police. The collision was due, in the first place, to a petition by the exiles against the new regulations of the Vice-Governor, M. Ostashine, respecting their journey to Eastern Siberia, which they regarded as equivalent to a sentence of death. The Governor considered the presence of the exiles in a body at the public office, to present the petition, as insubordinate, and directed them to assemble at a specified house. The police then appeared and ordered them to repair to the Governor's office. They said that this was what the Governor had forbidden. The police in anger, departed, and returned with troops. Firing began, apparently from both sides. Six exiles were killed and nine wounded, and one policemen was killed and three officials wounded. M. Ostashine ordered a court-martial on the survivors, and hanged three—one of whom had to be carried to the gallows on a bed—and sentenced all the rest, except one, to long terms of penal servitude. The Times appeals to the Czar to bring M. Ostashine to justice, to reverse the sentences on the exiles, and to put and end once for all to the system of ferocious cruelty which disgraces his Government and his religion.

Purely a Political Move.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—It is the generally accepted theory that the action brought by Capt. O'Shea for divorce from his wife, on the ground of adultery with Charles Stewart Parnell, is purely a political move and the suspicion is growing that the captain was induced to spring the suit just at this time in order to counteract the effect of the report of the Special Commission respecting the forged letters. For O'Shea himself nobody has had a particle of respect for several years, nor is there the slightest spark of sympathy with him in his tardy assumption of injured manhood. There isn't a shadow of doubt in the mind of any man who has heard the old story, and almost everybody has, that O'Shea, after calmly acquiescing for several years in the relations between his wife and Mr. Parnell, blackmailed the latter into securing him a seat in Parliament, which he did in the face of the bitter opposition of his trusted lieutenants in the Irish party and at the cost of the personal friendship of several of them, the breach lasting to this day. It is to the lasting credit of Mr. Parnell, however, that when O'Shea betrayed him in Parliament he had the courage to squeeze him out of his seat in the House and dare him to do his worst. This O'Shea is now making an effort to do as the tool of Mr. Parnell's political opponents. The general belief is that Mr. Parnell will admit the relations with Mrs. O'Shea alleged in the complaint, and show conclusively that they existed with the knowledge and consent of O'Shea, thus preventing the captain from obtaining a divorce. The publication of the fact that O'Shea had begun the action created a great sensation in Dublin, but made little or no stir here. Mr. T. P. O'Connor's paper, The Star, makes no mention of the matter whatsoever.

The task of throwing slops must be performed very gingerly by the Unionists, for Lord Hartington, their leader, is in just such a position in the way of public gossip as his political enemy Parnell, with the difference that the relations of Lord Hartington and the woman lack the extenuating circumstances which have characterized those of Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea.

The Ex-Empress of Brazil's Sudden Death.

OPORTO, Dec. 28.—The illness of the ex-Empress of Brazil first assumed an alarming phase yesterday. It had been the intention of the imperial family to start for France today. The doctors forbade the journey for fear that excitement and fatigue would precipitate a crisis. The Empress was, however, a little better this morning. During the morning Dom Pedro went out for a promenade and visited the museum of fine arts. He was found there by the Brazilian consul, who had been dispatched to hasten his return to the hotel because the condition of the Empress had suddenly become critical. Before Dom Pedro arrived the Empress was dead. The remains will be temporarily deposited in a mortuary chapel in the Lapa Convent here and will be afterwards taken to Lisbon for interment in the Royal Pantheon. The municipal authorities of this city returning in full state from the celebration of the King's proclamation in the Cathedral went to the hotel of the ex-Emperor to offer their condolences but Dom Pedro was so overcome by the event that he could not receive them. The Cardinal Archbishop of Oporto also called.

The Empress had rheumatism, asthma and gout. The immediate cause of death was gout affecting the heart.

Dom Pedro's Grief!

OPORTO, Dec. 29.—When Dom Pedro arrived at the bedside of his dead wife yesterday he knelt and kissed her forehead. He appeared to be unable to move and did not speak for twenty minutes. Then he said: "I have experienced the most bitter trial that God could inflict upon me. Her faithful and affectionate companionship has sustained me for 46 years. God's will be done." Then noticing his wife's eyes still open he lost command of himself and exclaimed: "Is it possible that those dear, kind eyes will never again brighten when they see me?" Having closed the eyelids he reverently kissed them. He then asked to be alone and so he remained for a long time, after which he became calm and asked the attendants to keep all quiet until the Lisbon fetes were ended. The news had already been sent everywhere. Later in the evening Dom Pedro sent despatches announcing the death of his wife to various monarchs. He also sent a telegram to King Carlos, in which he expressed a desire that his wife's remains be interred in the Pantheon.

The Brazilian Minister at Lisbon has notified the provisional government in Brazil of the death of the ex-Empress. This morning the Cardinal Archbishop said mass in the room where the body lay. Dom Pedro and the Governor of Oporto were present. In the afternoon the body was embalmed and was afterwards transferred to the Chapel Ardente. The Government will probably defray the expenses of the funeral. It is expected that King Carlos will come to Oporto.

AT LAST!

A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which bring sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and dangerous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

The Daily Examiner.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1889.

A Peterborough Boy Visits Yellowstone Park.

Mr. Robert Walton of Smith, received a letter from his son, "Bert," now in the west, from which we are permitted to make the following extracts, descriptive of a visit to Yellowstone Park, Montana:—

We came back as far as Livingstone, Montana, then took the park branch of the Northern Pacific, and went down a few miles to the park lines, then took coaches drawn by six horses, and went up over the mountains to Mammoth Hot Springs, the first point of interest in the Park after leaving the railroad. Here one sees the steam of hot springs, which are truly wonderful. The water in these springs is very hot, and contains a peculiar deposit of crystal, white as snow, and it has gradually formed around the sides of the springs until they are now very high and acres in extent. Still it continues to form and will no doubt for ages to come. All this white stuff around the springs is called formation. There is also a large hotel here over 400 feet long, to accommodate the thousands of tourists who come there every summer to view the scenery which is grand. Leaving the springs we again take the coaches and start for Norris Geyser basin, which is twenty miles distant; but before I go any farther I must tell you of a little lake they call Bath Lake, which is situated up in the rocks about 500 ft. higher than the springs and is about 60 yds. by 25 yds. wide, and an excellent place for bathing. The water is as clear as glass and nice and warm. When I was there were six of our party and about fifty Ute in bathing and we all pronounced it excellent and had lots of fun. Continuing our journey we arrived on time and after dinner went out to see the geysers which throw hot water up in the air, from 25 to 300 feet high. Some of them are throwing water all the time, and some of them go off only once in so many hours and makes a great noise which can be heard for miles. After taking in the sights at Norris, we depart for Grand Canyon and Grand Falls. Grand Canyon is beautiful. There are rocks of all colors towering up above the river on either side with trees and shrubbery growing out of the crevices in the rocks. The Canyon is several miles long and about 1000 feet deep. In the Canyon are the Grand Falls of the Yellowstone, which are 375 feet high. The sights, as one stands at the top of the Canyon and looks down on the falls with its greenish hue and immense spray, is the grandest I ever beheld; it is truly grand and sublime, and as the spectators stand at the top of the falls and lean over the railing to look down to the bottom of the Canyon they become lost in wonder and admiration at the beautiful scene. After staying at the falls for a few days in which we spent most of our time in fishing for salmon trout, which are very fine fish and easy to catch, we started for what they call the Upper Firehole basin, where we saw some more Geysers; then to another Geyser basin and to the Devil's Paint-Pots, which look like big holes dug in the ground with a peculiar thick looking liquid that looks like paint of all colors boiling up in the centre; hence the name. It is supposed that the stuff which boils up in these pots comes from the bowels of the earth and that appears to be the only theory scientists have of the origin of the paint-pots. From the paint-pots we went to Yellowstone Lake, which is about 15 miles wide and about 40 miles long. Up near the head of this lake are several hot springs, and there is a little rocky island there on which there is a spring of boiling water. You can stand on the edge of this spring with a hook and line, and on one side of you, you can catch beautiful salmon out of water as cold as ice almost, and then turn round and drop him (the salmon) into the spring and cook him without taking him off the hook. I ate a piece of a fish cooked in this way as I stood on the rock waiting for a "bite."

The scenery is very grand round the lake, with mountains looming up in the distance. There is also a natural bridge at the lake formed out of solid rock and is quite a sight in itself. Before leaving the lake I took a trip to Mount Washburn, and while looking around here for game we had the pleasure of seeing a band of 27 elk, all of which were as fat as Easter beevers, and all in a line behind one another going up a trail which wound round the side of the mountain. As they neared us the old buck which was leading them stopped and they all surveyed us for two or three minutes, then the leader gave a snort of warning which was taken up by the rest of them, and they all scampered off and gradually disappeared from view. Of course we had no gun, as people are not permitted to carry firearms through the Park unless they are sealed by the officials at the government post. While returning from Mount Washburn and the lake we saw a herd of 50 buffalo which, not being hunted or chased, remain in the Park all the time and are carefully watched by the soldiers stationed there. Yellowstone river and lake delights the hearts of anglers, from the fact that they are teeming with salmon and trout, which are the only things tourists are permitted to catch in the Park. We next visited Death Gulch which is in the extreme eastern part of the Park and is seldom visited by tourists. I will not attempt to describe it to you in this letter, as it is already too long, but I will tell you about it later on.

MAY kindle a great fire, just so dyspepsia and bad blood give rise to countless complaints which cannot be cured until the dyspepsia is removed, and the blood purified. To do this is the work of Burdock Blood Bitters, a medicine which always cures dyspepsia, bad blood and all complaints of a similar origin. 2w52d

Presentation at Hastings.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Many are the partings and happy reunions at this season of the year, and to say the least, the public school teacher has his or her share. At our public school in Hastings on Friday afternoon, Dec. 20th, a pleasing incident transpired. Miss McClelland who had well and efficiently taught a department of our public school for the past two years, took her farewell from her pupils preparatory to going home to spend her Christmas holidays, after which she will renew her duties as a teacher in the town of Peterborough. The earnest, thoughtful teacher and generous friend was pleasingly recognized by the pupils, who presented her with a beautiful silver card receiver and other tokens of esteem, accompanied by an address. Miss McClelland made a suitable reply thanking them sincerely for the beautiful gifts, expressing her appreciation of their kindness and the pleasure she had experienced while among them as teacher and friend, commending them for their industry in the pursuits of knowledge, and hoping that the same kindly forbearance on their part, as she had received, would be extended to her successor. Miss McClelland carries with her the best wishes of a large circle of friends, who hope that in her new field of labor she may meet with as many friends as those she has left behind.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mango," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. ms

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life or energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

Life in a Lumber Camp.

WHILE working in a lumber camp a year ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, I got no relief until I tried Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which cured me entirely. I highly recommend it.

PLUMS FOR THE XMAS PUDDING!

What's Nuts for the Buyers is Fun for Us.

12 DAYS OF SACRIFICE

From now until after Christmas we intend to let everything go! Our great $40,000 Sale, at 50 cents on the dollar, was a great success—in fact, away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Notwithstanding the great business done, there is yet about 1300 Overcoats, and 1900 Suits, and nearly 10,000 pairs of Boots to close out. To convert this into money, we have organised a Grand Sacrifice Sale of our whole stock, for 12 days, and will sell every article in our two big stores at ten per cent advance on cost. Taking into consideration that the goods were bought at 50 cents on the dollar, the reader can readily see that this sacrifice means a saving to the buyer of nearly one hundred per cent; or, in other words, WE PURPOSE FOR TWELVE DAYS GIVING GOLD DOLLARS FOR FIFTY CENT PIECES.

PLUMS FOR THE PUDDING:

$2.95 will buy a Man's All Wool Etoffe Overcoat.
$3.90 will buy a Man's Tweed Overcoat, lined with Heavy Serge, trimmed with Velvet Collar
$5.00 is our sale price, for Twelve Days only, for a Fine Worsted Overcoat.
$9.00 gives you your choice for all $15.00, $16.00 and $18.00 Overcoats.

BOYS' and CHILDREN'S CLOTHING—Mothers should see the value we are showing.
HATS and CAPS—Cheap. SHIRTS and SILK HANDKERCHIEFS away down.
ELEVEN CENTS BUYS A MAN'S SHIRT OR DRAWERS.
BOOTS AND SHOES—Men's Overshoes starting at $1.00.
